Long & Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

Life turns in small circles.

While gathering material for the story about Bill Sage, I chatted with his son Bob for several hours.

As Bob recounted the early business affiliations of his dad, he mentioned that Bill had been a toolmaker for the Hanchett Machine Tool Co. in Big Rapids.

The name Hanchett set off a little bell in the far, distant recess of my brain.

Could this be fact or fancy, I asked myself, that my dad at one time sold machines manufactured by Hanchett?

Friday afternoon, I phoned my cousin, John Riordan, in Detroit. John and his brother, Dave, carry on the old Riordan Machinery Co., started by their dad and mine back during depression days.

"Did our dads sell for Hanchett?" I asked John.

"They sure did," was his reply.

He went on to give a history of Hanchett, which started out making sharpening equipment for band saws and knives for the woodworking industry.

They expanded into machine tools and that was when the Riordan brothers came into the Hanchett picture as manufacturers' representatives.

Following World War II, Hanchett rocked and bobbed on the turbulent sea of business, finally selling off its machine tool division and concentrating entirely once more on making saw sharpening gear, which they do to this day.

After explaining to my cousin why I was curious about the Big Rapids firm, and telling him of the death of a Products co-founder, he asked me who in Tecumseh had died.

When I told him, he said, "Why I knew Bill real well. I used to call on him back in 1947, '48, '49 and '50."

We chatted about Bill. John was amazed at his background, especially that he never had any formal engineering training.

He said Bill was demanding in his dealings with machinery salesmen, but was always fair.

An editorial about Bill appears on the back page of this section.

Going to be looking for a competent secretary in, say about 10 years?

Get in touch with Jane Osburn, 512 Seminole St., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Osburn.

Right now she's only nine and has a few years to go in school, but this kind is worth waiting for.

In arranging for a picture of Mrs. Osburn to appear in the Fabricare Center ad this week, I called the Osburn home.

Mrs. O. wasn't home, but Jane said she thought she was visiting her aunt and what was my name and number so that she could relay the message.

In a few minutes, the phone rang and it was Jane. She said she was sorry, but that her mother had left her aunt's home just before she called and that Jane would have mom call when she arrived home.

Jane's performance would do credit to a Suzie McNamara.

City May Lose Plant Over Refusal on Loan

Plans to build an 82,000-square foot industrial plant here for Faraday, Inc., practically vanished Wednesday when the United Savings Bank turned down a request from the Tecumseh Area Industrial Development Association, Inc., to participate in a loan with the government.

Two weeks ago, TAIDC officials asked the bank to participate with a $45,000 loan in the building, and also informed bank officers that Small Business Administration had insinuated to loan $350,000.

TAIDC at this time announced that they would donate the industrial site of 12 acres, valued at $15,000, if necessary, to see the loan through.

A loan from SBA requires a minimum participation by the local bank of 10% of the total cost of the building, or $45,000.

John Thompson, United Savings Bank president, refused to comment on the declination.

Several members of TAIDC expressed discouragement Wednesday in their failure to locate Faraday here with immediate employment of about 300 and probable employment here in two years of about 500.

Although 150 of the immediate employment would be present Faraday employees, new workers undoubtedly would come from Tecumseh and the immediate area.

TAIDC and the bank both agreed that relocation here of Faraday could mean a better local economy, help end real estate problems, which now involves vacant houses and mortgage foreclosures.

Plans to bring Faraday to Tecumseh were announced last August when TAIDC completed the basic ground-work.

The industrial group sought information from SBA about obtaining financing and was told to approach the local bank for participation.

When the United Savings Bank last fall appeared reluctant to commit itself, other sources of financing were then approached.

A rejection here may mean the end of TAIDC, the only active industrial organization in Tecumseh. Group members say they've been offered a cash commission to bring Faraday to another city with promised financial backing for the plant.

Adrian also may now build the plant since a major obstacle has been removed — thanks to the Tecumseh IDC.

Adrian originally planned to build for Faraday, but was unable to buy the company's present, outdated plant.

TAIDC took a lease on the uilding and is now the owner. With the old plant sold, the Adrian industrial group is now free to re-open negotiations.

Numerous other communities have inquired about the plant and any one of several now may land Faraday.

The Adrian plant has been in operation for over a half-century and has reported profits for the past year plus new contracts with the government and other large, well-known companies.

Representatives admitted that the company's financial picture has not always looked good, but several engineering changes and inovation have promised profitable returns.

Councilmen Are Opposed to College

Tecumseh City Council unanimously passed a resolution Monday night against the proposed Tri-County Community College Plan.

City officials, like other local organizations, announced their disapproval of the plan which involved higher taxes and establishment of a junior college for Hillsdale, Jackson and Lenawee counties, just south of the city of Jackson.

The resolution brought out several factors, other than increased taxes, against the plan.

Advisory Group To Conduct Survey on Citizen Opinion

Citizens here soon may have the chance to tell just what they think of the Tecumseh school system.

A group of interested citizens is preparing questions for a survey to determine in what areas, and to what degree, parents and other district residents are happy or unhappy with the school system.

The survey is one of the first projects of the Citizens' Advisory Group, named by the Board of Education after voters rejected a proposed millage increase for the second time last summer.

It has developed after several months of conferences and idea exchanges between group members and citizens communities from other communities, as well as school district and university educators.

The survey will ask opinions on such things as:

► Whether what the children are learning will be of use to them in later life.

The Bureau of School Services of the University of Michigan will draw up, distribute and tabulate the survey questionnaires, if the citizen group can gather sufficient donations to cover the cost of paper, tabulation and postage—probably about $300.

Since the group wishes to remain independent of the school board, and since the board is operating on a reduced budget, committee members felt it would be best not to ask for school funds to operate the survey.

"The survey is designed to do at least three things," according to Orville Bishop, chairman of the citizen group's subcommittee on school-community relations, responsible for the survey.

1—Give the citizen a chance to express himself as to the merits and shortcomings of the school system, and, when the results are published, give him information as to whether his ideas conform with or differ from those of his neighbors.

2—Give the school board and administration an objective evaluation of the layman's ideas and suggestions.

3—Give the Citizens' Advisory Group something definite to work on in studying these problem areas.

Ex-Products Executive Bill Sage Buried

By TOM RIORDAN

One of the founders of Tecumseh Products Co., C. F. (Bill) Sage, was buried Tuesday.

Death came to the 72-year-old, ex-Products executive Dec. 27 in St. Joseph Hospital, where he had been a patient for almost two weeks.

Services were held in St. Elizabeth Church with the pastor, the Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Collins, officiating.

Following the funeral Mass Absolution was given by Bishop John A. Donovan, Auxiliary Bishop of the Detroit Archdiocese.

Burial was in Lenawee Hills Cemetery.

Mr. Sage is survived by his wife, Effa a son, Robert, 206 Park St.; a daughter, Mrs. Ford Mudgett of Macon and 11 grandchildren.

Pall bearers included James McKenna, Paul Ammer, John Tomorsky, Pete Plazer, Cal Roll and Earl Roe.

Honorary bearers were Harold Ashenfelter, Milt Righter, Olin Freed, John Thompson, Clarence Wagner, Carl Fosbender, Duncan Oliphant and George Piacentino.

MR. SAGE was an extremely benevolent man. Many of his gifts went to the Catholic Church. He built the St. Elizabeth School eight years ago and added several rooms to it as the enrollment swelled to almost 300 pupils.

He helped numerous students get college educations and aided young men studying for the priesthood.

His keen knowledge of business brought requests for guidance from half a dozen far-flung firms. He was extremely active in this regard right up to his final illness.

Although Mr. Sage was a top-flight production expert, he never took any formal classes in engineering.

Born in Hastings Feb. 27, 1889, he became an apprentice tool and die maker in his early teens.

He later plied his trade in Battle Creek, Big Rapids and Bronson, finally coming to Hillsdale and the Alamo Farm Light Co.

About 1920, Mr. Sage started an automobile repair business in the family garage, forming a partnership with his brother-in-law, Leo Mooney.

AS THJS business prospered, he bought out Mr. Mooney and rented space in a livery stable on Railroad St. in Hillsdale, the location which was later to be the birthplace of the refrigeration compressor.

At first it was strictly an auto repair shop. Eventually Mr. Sage bought a shaper and a lathe to make replacement parts for auto and farm implement customers.

Other machine tools were steadily added and at times the shop was going 24 hours a day with a staff of six or eight employees. The auto repair portion gradually faded away and all emphasis was soon placed on parts making.

During the late Twenties, the shop was doing work for Alamo Engine Co., which was being managed by Ray W. Herrick. This was how the Tecumseh Products pioneers met.

In 1931, Messers Sage and Herrick, along with Olin Freed, Hershall Davis and Wilbur Groauman formed Hillsdale Machine and Tool Co., primarily to make auto parts for Ford Motor Co.

It was shortly after this that Frank Smith came into the fold with his idea for a refrigeration compressor.

Deadline for Taxes Moved Back

Deadline for winter taxes was moved back to Feb. 5 by Council Monday night.

Tax bills were sent out last week, three weeks late due to the City of Adrian's appeal to the state for a readjustment in their appraisals and evaluations.

Councilmen Royal Welch voted against the Feb. 5 deadline, suggesting that it be Feb. 20, which would give tax payers about the same amount of time to pay their taxes without penalty as in normal years.

Fred Randall Re-Elected President

Fred Randall was re-elected president of Tecumseh Country Club at the December meeting of the board.

Other officers chosen:

Vice-president Robert H. Moore.

Secretary — Allen Russell

Treasurer — Maxwell Smith

Jim Wilson was again named golf professional.

The club will be closed until Feb. 27.

Bike License Law Gets First Reading Monday

First reading of an ordinance requiring the licensing and identification of bicycles in Tecumseh was held Monday night by Council.

The ordinance, on final approval, would become effective March 1 and would require registration of the bikes at the police department.

Bike owners would be given identification and reflectorized stickers and charged 50c. The registration and fee would be on an annual basis.

Where Was the Bank?

It is becoming increasingly apparent that shareholders of the United Savings Bank must take a long look at the ultra-conservative policies of this city's lone bank.

United Savings' refusal this week to authorize a $45,000 loan to help build an industrial plant here seems almost too fantastic to believe.

This loan, as in the case of any loan, brings with it a certain risk.

But the benefits that Tecumseh would reap as the result of this new industry far outweigh the risk, in our opinions.

We are not bankers, but we know that the Small Business Administration had verbally agreed to furnish $350,000—if a local lending agency would come up with 10% of the $450,000 building cost.

We also know that the loan was given approval by a portion of the bank's board of directors.

A loan turn-down under ordinary conditions is not in itself earth-shaking. But, in this case, the situation was not run-of-mill.

The bank has done a disservice to the community which it is pledged to serve.

Not only does this act deny a new plant, but it for all intents and purposes axes a group of dedicated men who have done everything possible over the past five years to land more industry for Tecumseh.

They not only invested their time and talents on this work for the Tecumseh Area Industrial Development Association, Inc., but they also kicked in monthly assessments to buy the property on which a new plant could be built.

They weren't looking for a killing on the eventual sale of their land—in fact, they were ready to risk the $15,000 they had personally put into it over the years.

The government agency was ready with $350,000 if all requirements were met.

Where was the bank?

This is a question which shareholders must answer.

Not only the future growth of the bank is on the block, but also the whole future of this community.

A strong, progressive, far-sighted bank is a must in Tecumseh.

Engineering Plans Started for New Sewer

Routine and unofficial action at Council meeting Monday included:

► Authorization to proceed with engineering plans for the Evans Creek interceptor sewer.

► Plans to install sidewalk on the north side of E. Chicago Blvd. to the Community Center and north along N. Maumee St. to Herrick Park Dr.

► Approved a Parks and Recreation Board meeting next Tuesday night at 7:30 at the Community Center to discuss otaining a recreation director.

He Has 7 Grandmoms To His Credit

Neddy Joel Kotts, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kotts, Pentecost Hwy., has seven grandmoms to his credit.

They are:

Grandmothers — Mrs. Floyd Butler of Onsted and Mrs. John Kotts of Tecumseh.

Great grandmothers — Mrs. Joseph Dutch of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Ned Kotts of Tecumseh and Mrs. Conrad Hansen of Pierson, Fla.

Great-great grandmothers, Mrs. James Barnhardt of Pierson and Mrs. Maude Williams of Tampa, Fla.

In 1941, when the little boy's father was 18-months-old a similar item was printed concerning him.

He had seven grandmothers at that time.

Council Honors Memory of Sage

Charles F. (Bill) Sage was memorialized in city records Monday night when Council approved a resolution in recognition of his services to Tecumseh and its citizens.

Mr. Sage, was one of the founders of the Tecumseh Products Co. and an outstanding Tecumseh resident.

Judith Schultz, Gayle Eaton Married

The Ridgeway Methodist Church was the scene of a holiday wedding Dec. 30 when Judith Schultz and Gayle Eaton were united in marriage.

White chrysanthemums and greens with lighted candelabra enhanced the altar.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Schultz, 6251 Shull Rd., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Eaton, Sr. of St. Johns, Mich.

The Rev. R. A. Mitchinson performed the ceremony before about 400 guests. Sandra Bailey was the organist.

The bride wore an Elizabethan gown of white peau de soie with puffed three quarter sleeves, bustle skirt and intermission front with court train, embroidered with Alencon lace.

She wore pearls at her throat and her three-tiered drift illusion veil was attached to a crown of pearls.

She carried a colonial bouquet of gardenias with leaves of green velvet.

Kay Day, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor wearing a gown of emerald green velvet and satin with a bell skirt.

Her head piece was a matching velvet bow and she carried a cascade arrangement of red roses on an emerald green satin clutch purse.

Carol Racker of Fowlerville was the bridesmaid attired identically to the maid-of-honor.

LT. CLARE EATON, brother of the groom, served as best man and the guests were seated by Donald Hay, Donald Miller, Lt. Gary Nugent, James Barber and Frank Auten.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pennington were the hosts for the reception held at the Products Union Hall.

A buffet lunch featuring a five-tiered cake topped with miniature bridal couple was served and guests danced to music by the Hi-Fives Combo.

Friends and relatives of the couple assisted with the serving.

Both are seniors at the Michigan State University. Mrs. Eaton is majoring in Home Economics and her husband in metallurgical engineering.

They will make their home in University Village at East Lansing.

A rehearsal dinner was held Friday night at the home of the bride's parents.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Resolutions are in order with the coming of the fresh new year of 1962. This gal reporter has a deep desire to do just a bit better job for the readers of The Tecumseh Herald.

To cover more news in a more interesting way is the aim.

1. I would like to enlist the aid of all publicity chairmen and everyone submitting a story for publication.

A few basic rules for preparing a news story may assist all of us in seeing our copy in print on time.

1. Type double spaced on one side of paper only.

2. Leave ample margins, top, bottom and sides.

3. Type name, address and phone number in top corner.

4. Keep story brief. Use formal names, (Mrs. John Smith, not Mrs. Mary Smith. We married gals correctly keep our husband's names even after his death according to Emily Post.)

It's ideal to have stories on paper, but news may also be given over the phone as soon as possible after the event has happened.

Using these aids reporters may expect that their copy will be more speedily processed and therefore more likely to appear in the next issue.

Interesting little books entitled "So, you've been Elected Publicity Chairman" are available at the Herald Office.

A happy, happy New Year to all of you.

Madelyn Henning Marries Russ Holdridge

Madelyn Marie Henning and Pvt. Charles Russell Holdridge were united in marriage Dec. 30 at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Blissfield by the Rev. Fr. Lukasiewicz.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Henning, Beagle Rd., Blissfield and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holdridge, 502 Orchard Lane.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of lace and tulle over satin with a hoop skirt. The bodice was fashioned with a scalloped Sabrina neckline and long sleeves with points ending over the hands.

Her finger-tip illusion veil was held in place by a beaded coronet and she carried gardenias on her white missal with satin streamers.

Kathleen Hoffman wearing a gown of fuchsia chiffon was her cousin's maid-of-honor.

JoAnn McGovern, sister of the bride, and Sally Brieschke were the bridesmaids.

They wore gowns of chiffon in variegated shades of pink to orchid.

All wore rhinestone tiaras and carried harmonizing nosegays.

MRS. RUSS HOLDRIDGE

Linda Smith, niece of the bride, was the flower girl dressed in pink and wearing a rhinestone tiara. She carried a dainty nosegay.

Bryan Pickford was the ring bearer.

EUGENE HENNING was his brother's best man and Roy McGovern and Larry Van Looche seated the guests.

A wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home following the ceremony and a reception was held for 125 guests in the evening at the VFW Hall in Tecumseh.

The rehearsal dinner was given in the home of the groom's parents Friday evening.

Both young people are 1961 graduates of Blissfield High School.

23% Fewer Farms

There were 23% fewer farms and farms were one-quarter larger in acreage than in 1954, says Russell McDonald, District Marketing Agent for Lenawee-Hillsdale counties.

His information is based on 1959's Census of Agriculture.

Since 1954, there was a drastic decline in the number of small farms, measured either in acres or in volume of sales.

Medium-size farms numbered about the same, but there was a significant increase in the number of large farms.

In the population and labor force area, more and more farm people have left agriculture as off-farm employment opportunities presented themselves. This especially is true of rural people in the younger age bracket.

While the total population in this country increased by about one-fifth during the last 10 years, the farm population declined by about one-fifth.

Currently, a point has been reached where seven out of eight Americans are non-farm people.

Although the number of farm workers per farm remained relatively constant, the average number of hours worked by each farm worker per year has declined and the size of the farm business per worker has increased.

Percentage-wise the number of farm workers has declined about 20% over the last 10 years. The total man-hours of farm labor used in agriculture has declined by about one-third, in the last decade while mechanical and machinery imputs have increased by about 20%.

This in part typifies the rate of technological change that has occurred and illustrates what is forthcoming in the years ahead. It also provides the present day farmer with a clue as to what each individual must do in order to survive in the future — increase efficiency through use of known technology, Mr. McDonald notes.

Almost overnight agriculture has become one of the higher capital using industries. According to USDA, the average investment of around $22,000 per farm worker is substantially higher than the average investment per employee in the manufacturing enterprises which is about $15,000.

The tremendous annual increase of productivity in agriculture has magnified the socio-economic problems of excess supplies of foodstuffs.

However, as a result of this increased production, a higher standard of living has been provided for the consuming public with reference to the unprecedented quality, variety and quality of foods and fibers at an increasingly lower real cost.

This is in addition to the services received by the consumer in the form of processing, packaging, sanitation and other health measures, shopping services and other conveniences.

BILL SAGE DIES

Tecumseh, moving operations here in October, 1934 and re-christening their firm as Tecumseh Products Co.

The company was coming into its own and production climbed to 300 units a day, but hardly anyone could realize then that a giant industry was being born.

Another key figure in the Product's history was Clyde Giltner, who together with Mr. Sage watched over "back shop" operations.

This pair had the responsibility of obtaining the machinery and then seeing that finished units met specifications and time schedules.

Old timers at the Products can vividly recall the hot discussion Messers Sage and Giltner had over various shop operations, going at it hammer and tong.

Then suddenly they would resolve the problem, clap their arms around one another and stroll away like two long-lost brothers.

MR. SAGE served Tecumseh Products Co. as first vice-president and master mechanic, as well as being a member of the board of directors for 18 years. He retired seven years ago and at the time of his death was still a major shareholder.

Mr. Sage's daily work habits at the shop fit into a routine pattern. Arriving in the morning, he would shed his suit coat, unbutton his vest, flip a chew of tobacco into his mouth and start a tour of the plant.

He walked quickly, looking up and down the lines as he hustled along. The junket took only a few minutes, but during that time he saw exactly how the day was starting.

He knew machinery like the back of his hand. When a new operation was to be introduced, Mr. Sage would size up what was needed in additional equipment and then start after it.

His trail might go to Milwaukee, then to Chicago, to New Orleans until he found exactly what was required. He always travelled by air because he enjoyed flying and reasoned it was the quickest method of transportation.

Fellow Products officials would sometimes worry about his safety, but he assured them flying was safe and could get the task completed in quick time

Eventually, the Products acquired its own fleet of planes, hired a capable pilot and built a giant strip along the Macon Rd. so that business could be conducted via the airlanes.

☆

AVIATION was one of Mr. Sage's greatest loves. He began flying when he was 18 in the old World War II Jennies.

While operating his small machine shop in Hillsdale, he did custom work on Salmson engines imported from France by a plane manufacturer in Bryan, O., who was fashioning a byplane called the Woodson Express.

Mr. Sage rebuilt the engines to Woodson specification, even to etching certain parts so that they would fit more closely.

Mr. Sage can be credited for bringing Al Meyers to Tecumseh and assisting him set up his present aircraft plant. Mr. Sage discovered Al building planes in a barn at Romulus.

With the late Dr. Harry Hammel, Karl Schneider, Sr., John Murphy and Ed Kimball, Mr. Sage helped organize the Meyers firm.

ONE OF Mr. Sage's driving forces was a desire to help young people. Through his Sage Foundation, he assisted countless numbers obtain college educations. The only thing he asked of a young man or woman he aided was that some day they in turn extend a helping hand to a deserving student.

At the time of his final illness, a former Tecumseh girl who now is a nurse at the University Medical Center, was on duty at St. Joseph's with Mr. Sage.

Bob Sage remarked to the nurse's father that he thought this was unusual.

The latter explained: "This was arranged some time ago by my daughter. She said anytime either Mr. or Mrs. Sage was hospitalized she would volunteer her services. Didn't you know your dad put her through her final year of nurses's training?"

This was the first Bob had heard of the help.

As John Thompson, president of the United Savings Bank and a long-time friend of Mr. Sage stated, "No one will ever know of Bill's good deeds."

Mr. Herrick commented, "I always found Bill loyal, hardworking and always willing to do anything to make the company go."

Not long after the Sages came to Tecumseh, he purchased what is now known as the Sage Building, on W. Chicago Blvd.

At one time the American Legion used the large third-floor ballroom and when the veteran's group built its present post home, Mr. Sage turned that floor into a Teen Club.

No rent was ever charged for the young people.

In addition, the Chamber of Commerce was welcomed to set up its offices rent-free on the second floor and recently the Tecumseh Players were given a section of the second floor, at no charge, by Mr. Sage.

Two years ago, members of St. Elizabeth wanted to honor the Sages for their numerous gifts to the parish.

The Rosary Altar Society secretly commissioned local artist Russell Steinke to paint Mr. and Mrs. Sage's portrait, to be hung in the school lobby. The work was to be unveiled at an all-parish party.

The Sages were at their Wamplers Lake cottage and decided not to come into town, never realizing this was an affair in their honor.

Finally their son had to drive to the lake and persuade them it was vital they be on hand.

The party was a grand success, with the climax coming when curtains on the auditorium stage were drawn and the painting revealed. The Sages were visibly moved.

FOLLOWING retirement, Mr. Sage concentrated on his favorite sport, fishing, and world-wide trips with his wife. They traveled to Rome three summers ago and had an audience with Pope Pius XII, thanks mainly to a letter of introduction from the late Edward Cardinal Mooney, who well knew the benevolence of the Tecumseh man to his church.

A visit to Hawaii enthralled the Sages last year and only a few weeks before his hospitalization, they were mapping plans for a full circuit of the South Pacific.

Bill's Garage

The name over the door says, "General Machine Shop and Garage." This was the business started by Bill Sage in Hillsdale during the Twenties. Standing in the door-way is Mr. Sage (second from left). Later, Mr. Sage met and joined forces with Ray Herrick and three others, becoming the Hillsdale Machine & Tool Co. at this site. This was the firm that eventually grew into the giant of the refrigeration compressor industry, Tecumseh Products Co.

Comedians on Court— Diplomat 5

Canada's basketball Harlem Diplomats will play at the Tecumseh High gym Saturday against a crew of area coaches.

The game will begin at 8 p.m.

Many fans refer to the Diplomats as Canada's version of the Harlem Globetrotters.

The Diplomats, who appreciate the compliment, are fast becoming world-known themselves.

The busy Diplomats played in eight countries last season.

The Diplomats boast of two outstanding comedians. Goose, Jr. is already the most popular basketball player in Canada.

The amusing Goose, Jr. is a fantastic ball handler.

The other featured comedian, Dick Harvey ,the talented Toronto gent, is known for his baseball as well as his basketball showmanship.

Opposing the Diplomats will be a team being organized by Vic Lawson.

Included on the team will be coaches representing the following schools:

Boysville—Mike Gendzwill

Whiteford—Charles Batway

Madison—John Stepp

Dundee—Bill Hetric

Tecumseh—Jim Hoffman, Ted Todd and Doug Murdock

Referees will be Mr. Lawson and Dune Lectka from Tecumseh.

Deerfield — Pat Connors and Dave Henkel

Adding to the game will be music by the Tecumseh High School Pep Band.

After the contest there will be a record dance in the cafeteria for all teen-agers attending the game.

Admission to the dance will be with the stub from the ticket to the game.

Proceeds from the event will go to the Tecumseh High Student Council to be used to pay for flags for every room in the High School.

Prices for admission are adults $1 and students, 50c.

Indians Fall to Maples

By JIM LINCOLN

The up-and-down Tecumseh Indians were definitely on the slide last Wednesday night when the local cagers suffered a 73-43 shellacking from Adrian on the Maples floor.

It's doubtful that the Indians could have taken their county rivals but performances against Airport and Blissfield indicated that they should have made it real close.

Coach Doug Murdoch sends the team out again this Friday evening against Milan on the THS court.

The tilt should be about even if comparative scores mean anything. Milan whipped Blissfield by one point and the Indians were winners by three.

Adrian scored at will over Tecumseh and easily could have run up a much bigger score. The futility of the local five to score is apparent in just a couple of statistics.

John Britton hit for one field goal in the initial stanza and then a long drought followed. Bradley McCombs next connected for a two-pointer with about half of the second quarter gone.

At this stage, the Maples boasted a 23-5 lead and for all purposes had wrapped up the game.

COACH MURDOCH juggles his players constantly, trying to put some scoring potential in the game.

Sophomore Jerry Hebb was by far the best Indian player, grabbing more than his share of rebounds and dumping in 15 points. The next top scorers were Britton and McCombs with six each.

If Tecumseh had any ideas of making up a 19-point halftime deficit Dick Stevens of Adrian soon erased them. Stevens hit for 15 points in the third period and topped all scorers with 19.

Grange Has Christmas Program

Mrs. Loren Dicks, newly-elected secretary, presented the Christmas program following the meeting of the Tecumseh Grange Dec. 28.

She told of the many ways in which Christmas is celebrated in other countries and read the poem, "The Night Before Christmas."

Gary Wonderly recited two poems and sang a song. Carols were sung.

Santa distributed gifts and refreshments of cookies and cake were served.

MR. AND MRS. GRAHAM

Couple Is Surprised

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Graham, 1105 Willow Court, were pleasantly surprised Dec. 16 by a party honoring their 25th wedding anniversary.

Their daughter, Mrs. Barbara carothers, was hostess to nearly forty friends and relatives at the Graham residence.

The couple were married Dec. 26, 1936 in Rea.

They have four children; Mrs. Carothers of 124½ E. Chicago Blvd., Mrs. Robert Carlisle of Laurinburg, N. C. and Jim and Dick Graham at home.

Visit Mother

Mr. and Mrs. William Merrick spent last Sunday with Mr. Merrick's mother, Mrs. Willis Cowell, at Fairfield.

MEETING JAN. 11

St. Peter's Guild will meet Thursday, Jan. 11, at 2 p.m. at the Parish Hall according to Mrs. Arch Wray, president.

THE REV. ROY DECKER

Services Held for Murder Victim

Services were held Thursday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for the Rev. Roy R. Decker, retired Methodist minister, who was found dead in his former farm home near Brooklyn Tuesday.

Ex-convict, Lynn E. Houck, 28, whose family lived on a farm near the Decker place has been charged with the crime on a first-degree murder warrant.

Houck admitted striking Mr. Decker and tying his hands behind his back. His confession followed hours of questioning and three lie-detector tests.

Police, after finding the abandoned Decker Buick six miles from the murder scene, followed tracks which led to the Houck residence, where the alleged killer had been hiding in the barn.

Houck was picked up by Lenawee County deputies and held on a charge of parol violation while being questioned about the murder.

He finally halted the interrogation by telling officers, "OK, give me a Coke and I'll tell you a fantastic story."

Then he recounted incidents leading to the death of the Tecumseh resident. Houck said he had broken into the Decker farm and was sleeping there last week when the owner arrived.

A struggle followed and the younger man overpowered the 72-year-old retired minister. After knocking his victim unconscious, Houck fled in the Decker car.

MR. DECKER was born Feb. 22, 1891, in Kelleville, Pa., the son of Wilbur and Myra Hoover Decker.

He attended Asbury College and July 13, 1918, married Grace Hardison in Centerville, Pa.

In 1919 Mr. Decker was ordained to the Methodist ministry.

His first two pastorates were in Englewood and Sawyer, two small towns in Kansas.

From Sawyer Mr. Decker returned to Pennsylvania as pastor of the Tionesta, Pa., Methodist church.

Two New York pastorates followed before he again returned to Pennsylvania.

Mr. Decker's last and longest ministry was at the Grace Methodist church in Meadville, Pa., where he served almost 12 years.

In 1956 he officially retired from the ministry. In 1960 he and his wife purchased the farm house near Brooklyn and lived there until about one month ago.

The couple resided at 1208 Shady Lane in Tecumseh during the last month.

MR. DECKER was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, and two sisters.

He is survived by his wife, Myra; three sons, Jack and Mendal of Tecumseh and James of California; one daughter, Joan of Jackson; one brother, Mendal of Mt. Pleasant; one sister, Mrs. Harry Rhodes of Pleasantville, Pa., and ten grandchildren.

The Rev. Allen Wittrup assisted by the Rev. Paul Brantingham officiated and burial was in the Brookside Cemetery.

Archery Club Formed

An Archery club is being formed by Ernie Hammack and Curtis Smith, who will instruct beginners wishing to join.

The first meeting for beginners will be held at the Community Center Wednesday, Jan. 10 and a fee of 50c for children and $1 for adults is being charged.

This is to pay for the targets. Members must furnish their own bow and arrow.

An advanced shooters club is also being formed to meet Tuesday evenings at the Center. Their first session was held Tuesday.

Anyone desiring further information may contact Ernie Hammack, HA 3-3282.

Church Notes

Deacons-Elect and Elders Being Installed

Sunday at the Presbyterian Church, elders and deacons-elect will be ordained and installed to their respective offices.

Both offices are spiritual ones and the highest in the Presbyterian Church to which a layman can be elected.

Those being installed will serve for three-year terms.

Elders are:
Charles Clark
Richard Gartee
Douglas Murdoch
Mrs. John Quigley
Mrs. John Saling

Deacons are:
Mrs. Wilbur Boyce
Clarence Damon
Rufus Gillam
Mrs. Fred Oberlin

The sermon this Sunday will be entitled "The Noble Image" and will be concerned with the way of effective Christian service.

Love God

How children can be early taught to understand and love God will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

He Was First A Carpenter Working Daily

It is easy to draw a line between secular and religious work. There is a tendency to believe that they are separate, when really they complement each other.

Jesus was first a carpenter and glorified his heavenly Father as he fulfilled the obligations of his work in the carpenter shop.

It prepared Him for his ministry, and he drew illustrations from the carpenter shop to make certain truths understandable.

The Rev. Allen Wittrup will speak on the subject "He Also Worked," Sunday at 10 a.m. in the First Methodist Church.

They Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Holdridge entertained New Year's eve. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cornell, Ward and Cathy, and David Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Grigg and family, John Dewey, John Krebs, Joy Bennington and Christine Finnegan.

Nixons Are Hosts to Their Family

Mr. and Mrs. George Haddad and baby of Ann Arbor and Donna of Michigan State University were home. Mrs. Alice Thirlon of Buffalo arrived for Christmas and remained for several days visit.

Graduates Get Help Selecting Schools Of Technical Type

(Editor's note: This is another in the series of stories regarding the guidance offered students at Tecumseh High School.)

TECHNICAL, TRADE AND BUSINESS SCHOOL TRAINING

The senior high school student who is planning on furthering his education by attending a technical or trade school has narrowed his training plans to a specified field or job.

This type of training is concentrated. It gets the student prepared for a specific type of job and into the labor market much quicker than the liberal arts preparation.

In helping this youngster, the counselor finds out what area the student has picked and the factors which were considered when he made his decision.

Then, guidance directories are examined to find the schools which give this type of training. If the guidance office does not have the catalog or application forms for the schools that the student may like to attend, the counselor will send for this material.

When all the necessary information is secured, the counselor assists the student and his parent in making a selection of a technical or trade school by discussing:

- Objective of the school.
- Types of programs offered.
- Length of courses.
- Costs, housing.
- School assistance in getting the graduate a job.
- Type and quality of their work-study program.

Particular attention is paid to the accreditation of the school so that the student is not selecting a "fly by night" school which is only interested in his tuition fee rather than his training.

For example, a good business school in the state of Michigan would have recognition from the National Association of Business Schools, the Michigan Business Schools Association, and the Michigan Department of Public Instruction.

When high school or former high school students enter a technical or trade school, they are asked to inform the guidance office so that follow-up data may be collected by Tecumseh High School.

☆

SOME OF THE most popular types of training in recent years have been: automotive mechanics, machinists, tool and die making, draftsman, welding, business administration, accounting, secretary, medical secretary.

VOICE of THE HERALD

He Was Just Bill

His pastor said: "The history of the Archdiocese of Detroit has no parallel to the story of our parish. Men have done great things, in many ways and in many places, but in no parish, to my knowledge, has one man—in so unassuming a manner, in so unheralded a way—done so much for the cause of Catholic education."

A businessman stated: "No one will ever know (his) good deeds."

A machinery salesman who sold to him reported, "He was always fair."

His long-time business associate remarked, "(he was) loyal, hardworking and always willing to do anything to make the company go."

These were comments about the late Charles F. Sage, one of the founders of Tecumseh Products Co. and a self-educated man.

In the St. Elizabeth Church bulletin Sunday, the Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Collins wrote, "Mr. Sage's public profession of faith by unfailing fidelity in the personal living of the Faith, by frequent Communion, by frequent daily Mass, has been an inspiration in this parish."

Although a millionaire, he was just "Bill"—to folks. He gave away countless tens of thousands of dollars — where or how much no one will probably ever know.

A convert to Catholicism, he long harbored the dream of a Catholic School for youngsters of Tecumseh. He realized this goal eight years ago when he furnished the money to build St. Elizabeth School.

Father Collins noted, "Scarcely ever has a period of more than a few months passed without Mr. Sage discussing the progress and the welfare of the school."

He lent a hand to all young people of the area through the Teen Club facilities which he donated for many years.

His aid to college students will go on bearing fruit for countless years.

Bill Sage was a fine member of this community and one in whom we can be proud.

BILL SAGE IN A PORTRAIT BY DIXON STUDIOS

Contest Was Fine Idea

Our city's first annual Christmas Home Decoration contest was a success.

We hope it grows and prospers in years to come and our congratulations go to the Chamber of Commerce civic affairs committee, which organized the competition.

This past Christmas 18 homes were entered, a good start for the first time around. Next year, there probably will be three times this.

The judges reported that "All entries were excellently done. Congratulations should be given to all Tecumseh residents participating with such excellent taste and good judgement with their choice of decorations."

We're Still Applauding

When the Tecumseh Players were founded nearly two years ago, we applauded loudly—and we haven't stopped yet.

This group has turned into one of the hardest working, best-organized little theaters setup a small city could ever hope to have.

During the recent holidays, members devoted much of their free time to the complete renovation and redecoration of their rent-free quarters in the Sage building.

This in preparation, in a way, to getting the gang excited about the upcoming production, "You Can't Take It With You."

We're delighted the Players have selected this popular comedy, which we're sure will tickle local audiences, as it has thousands of folks since the time it was written in the Great Depression.

The show is slated for late February at the Strand Theatre.

Sale Nets $850

The Band Boosters cleared nearly $850 in their candy sale, according to Mrs. Russell Cooper, chairman.

Awards to the band students were presented by Mrs. Cooper during a recent high school band class.

Top salesmen were:

► Carol Campbell received a $50 Elgin watch for selling 166 boxes.

► Linda Sinkey of the cadet band sold 104 boxes and received a transistor radio.

Others from the senior band, who received wallets and the number of boxes they sold were:

Dorothy Nettleman — 75
Barry Bradish — 65
Gary Stretch — 45
David Dustin — 32
Terry Haughn — 32
Phil Radant — 27
Fran Cooper — 25
Tim Sissom — 23
Mike Hanna — 20
Brenda Gallant — 34
Carol McClure — 20

☆

THOSE FROM the cadet and junior high bands, who won wallets and their sales total.

Gladys Hartley — 67
Brenda Allen — 42
Carol Davenport — 25
Darlene Kittle — 21
Jana Barron — 19
Leslie Pence — 59
Larry Meads — 35
Robert Williamson — 24
Tom Wright — 21
Larry Chase — 20
Dennis McClure — 20
Barry Roe — 20

Robert Van Vleet Walt Zarnoch and Glen Barton each received $1 for selling.

Prizes were donated by the Candy Co.

A DECISION as to the use of the proceeds will probably be made at the next Band Booster meeting Jan. 25.

Final results of sales and winners in the sixth grade will be published in The Tecumseh Herald next week.

Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Charles, co-chairman, said "We wish to thank all the people who purchased candy and supported the project so wonderfully, also Don Johnson and Miles Cowdrey whose cooperation was greatly appreciated."

Others on the committee were Mr. and Mrs. James Barton, Mr. and Mrs. Don Nettleman and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haughn.

OBITUARIES

● FREDERICK B. WOOD

Judge Frederick Bertram Wood of Berkley, Calif., died Dec. 29 after three months illness.

A former resident of Tecumseh, he was born in 1888, the son of Frederick B. and Louise Hialey Wood and married the former Alice L. Satterthwaite in 1914.

He was a graduate of the law school of Stanford University and for many years headed the California Legislative Counsel Bureau.

He was later appointed judge of the California Appellate Court, a position he held until his recent retirement.

Judge Wood was active in many church and civic affairs, his special interest being as chairmen of the Fair Housing Committee.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons; Frederick B. Wood, III(PhD of San Jose, Calif., and Perry S. Wood of San Francisco and two grandsons.

A sister, Dr. Dorothy A. Wood of San Mateo, Calif preceded him in death.

● MRS. BERTHA DOYLE

Services were held in Adrian Wednesday for Mrs. Bertha Doyle, 84, who died New Year's Day at Bixby Hospital where she had been a patient for five weeks.

She was born Jan. 6, 1877 in Ogden township and lived in Tipton before moving to Adrian.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Thomas Butler of Manitou Beach and Mrs. Leon Hardy of Tipton two sons, Raymond and Francis of Adrian; 17 grandchildren and 21 great grandchildren.

Burial was in St. Mary's Parish cemetery.

● OTTO C. KRUGER

Services were held Friday morning at the Collins-Corkery Funeral Home for Otto Kruger, 70, who was found dead at his residence in the Ferris Trailer Park Wednesday.

City police made the discovery after being notified by neighbors that Mr. Kruger had not been seen since Christmas eve.

Coroner Edward Braun of Adrian ruled Mr. Kruger died of natural causes. He said no inquest is necessary. It is believed Mr. Kruger died Christmas night.

He was born in VanBuren township, Michigan, May 15, 1891. The family home for many years was north of the city.

Mr. Kruger was a retired employee of the Ottawa Machine Products Co.

Mr. Kruger is survived by two sons ,Earl of Adrian and Lewis of Tecumseh two daughters, Mrs. Walt Miller of Adrian and Mrs. Robert Pelky of Brighton; 10 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Two brothers, Herman of Ypsilanti and Charles of Bridgewater, and two sisters, Mrs. Emma Brown of Milan and Mrs. Edith Crane of Ypsilanti also survive.

Burial was in the Denton, Mich. cemetery.

FRIDAY and SATURDAY will be SAMPLE DAYS at Tecumseh's coin-op dry cleaning Fabricare Center. Hundreds of folks in the Tecumseh area have been trying the Fabricare way of doing their own dry cleaning. If you haven't as yet, we invite you to stop by either Friday or Saturday and have one garment cleaned at no charge. Give it to the attendant in the morning, she'll put it through for you and you'll have it that afternoon looking just like new.

HERE IS WHAT ONE ► FABRICARE USER SAYS:

'My knit dress came out beautifully!'

Mrs. James Osburn, 512 Seminole St., is really sold on do-it-yourself dry cleaning, "By following the simple directions, spotting beforehand with the dry sponge and then placing my knit dress on a hanger when the 50-minute dry cleaning cycle was complete, I got a perfect job. It's grand for sweaters, skirts and jackets, too. You'll be surprised how many garments you can get into an eight-pound load."

Why not join the parade to Fabricare. Coin-op dry cleaning is easy, fun and soooo inexpensive.

(Here's a typical load: a child's snow suit, 3 lady's skirts, 3 men's sweaters, 2 pair boys trousers and 2 dresses.)

SAVE BY JANUARY TENTH

It's good practice to save by the tenth of every month. The best practice is to begin this happy habit by January tenth . . . carry it on throughout the year.

Money in by the tenth earns from the first. Your reward is a better savings account balance at years' end . . . more earnings on the dollars you save.

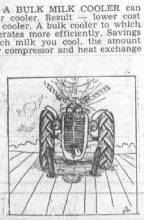
PLAN YOUR CREDIT NEEDS for the season ahead and start getting your records and financial affairs in order. This will be important for getting the loans you'll need. It's especially important in securing a loan for fertilizer, insecticides or similar purchases. These items offer no collateral such as machinery. Your collateral is the faith your lender puts in you as a capable farm operator. Your records and general success as an operator are a basis for furnishing proof of this.

A HEAT EXCHANGER ATTACHED TO A BULK MILK COOLER can make use of the heat given off by your cooler. Result — lower cost for heating water and operating the milk cooler. A bulk cooler to which a heat exchanger is attached actually operates more efficiently. Savings you'll realize will depend upon how much milk you cool, the amount of hot water you use and the size of your compressor and heat exchange tank.

IN THE MARKET FOR NEW EQUIPMENT? If you are, you may be able to save tax dollars by selling your old equipment outright rather than trading it in on the new. This is normally the case when the value of your old equipment is worth more than its depreciated cost. Here's why. Taxes on the difference between the depreciated and sale value of your old equipment will amount to less than if you reduce the depreciation use on your new equipment with a trade-in.



DON'T CUT PREGNANT BEEF COWS SHORT ON FEED. Underfed beef cows tend to produce lighter calves. Aside from that, they sometimes fail to come into heat after they calve. However, where feed is short, beef cows can be wintered on 75% of normally recommended rations for a season, without seriously affecting herd production.

Soil Survey Report Out

Publication of the Lenawee County Soil Survey report was announced by Woodrow H. Barley, USDA Soil Conservation Service.

It was prepared by the Soil Conservation Service in cooperation with the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station after extensive field work.

The report comprises maps with legends and narrative descriptions of soils in the county.

Mapping units are delineated on aerial photographs of the county with land marks distinct enough so that individual roads, farms, fields and other areas can be located readily and the soils in the areas identified.

There are 154 mapping units comprising 51 soil series described by the report. A tabulation showing percentages of different soils reveals the complexity and variability of soils in Lenawee due to glaciation.

Students and teachers will find information about the soils and their management. For local township or urban planning purposes there is detailed [illegible] for land development.

There is also general reference made to geology, history, water supply and agriculture of Lenawee, with recognition being given to a water shortage in the eastern part of the county.

Topographic and agricultural management data are presented

Mr. Barclay said interpretive service is available at the Soil Conservation Service office, 235 N. Main St., Adrian.

Christ Child's Birthday Cake Given Youths

A tree for the children to decorate was placed in the Parish House of St. Peter's Episcopal Church Friday, Dec. 22, while "The Hanging of the Greens" took place in the sanctuary.

Sunday a children's service was held at 4 p.m. The manger scene was blessed and the first carols of Christmas sung in the church.

Each child brought a "white gift" of non-perishable food for distribution at the Episcopal Benedictine priory of St. Gregory in Three Rivers.

Following the 45-minute service the children received a piece of the "Christ Child's Birthday Cake."

The choral Eucharist of Christmas was held at 11 p.m. Sunday.

Jack Tonneberger played the organ for the service in the absence of the regular organist, Mrs. Blaine Ballard.

AS THE NEW YEAR begins, we would like to express our thanks to the folks who have played important parts in making 1961 another banner year for The Herald.

First of all, to the loyal readers who are with us week after week.

Then, to the advertisers who regularly use the columns of this newspaper as their silent salesmen.

To our wonderful news sources–with big and little stories–who phone, drop in and mail copy to us.

To the publicity chairmen who keep us posted on activities of their organizations.

To city officials for their continued, close cooperation.

To the folks who run our schools.

To our wonderful employees, Shop Foreman Lonal Bishop, Mrs. Bob Hunt, Mrs. Lyle Grigg, Mrs. Leota Smith and Ernie Jeschke, who make working with them a pleasure.

To our Britton editor, Mrs. Paul Rowlands, and our correspondents, Mrs. Fay Luce of Tipton and Mrs. Hamilton Moore, Sr. of Macon, to columnist Marda Gene Duncan, Teen News writer Nancy Nixon and Boysville reporter Dave Klavon.

To our apprentice photographer, Ricky Duffin.

To all our suppliers.

To you all, we wish a happy and fruitful 1962.

AN EDITORIAL —

Hundreds of reports to us have confirmed our belief that changes in ultra-conservative policies are due at the United Savings Bank.

They'll eventually come—the sooner, the better for the community and citizens of Tecumseh.

The local bank is operating, apparently, under the assumption that the community is here to serve the bank, and not the United Savings to serve Tecumseh.

Rejection of a $45,000 loan to build a plant for Faraday of Adrian and a probable proxy fight at the bank's annual organizational meeting next Tuesday have centered attention on the local institution.

Many shareholders and some directors on the board have joined with the town in requesting changes which will not just benefit the bank, but the entire community.

We have yet to receive, hear or read statements justifying the recent bank's rejection of the $45,000 loan to Tecumseh Area Industrial plant.

Did you know:

► Rejection of the Faraday loan was made without full meeting of the board of directors?

► That $45,000 was the total amount requested by TAIDC? No other loan or notes are involved, nor have they been solicited?

► That other banks have expressed interest and even now show [illegible] in the loan and the Faraday [illegible]?

► That Faraday would increase employment here immediately from about 150 to almost 300, would be the city's second largest taxpayer and employer, has plans to employ between 500 and 600 here within a few years?

Over the years, Tecumseh has been more than fair to United Savings Bank. It's now time that the bank be fair with the community.

Changes at the bank and approval of the Faraday loan are a must.

Long AND Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

When Jerry Kapnick, 507 Adrian St., looked out his front window Saturday night all he saw in every direction was ice.

Jerry was planning on seeing the Harlem Diplomats play basketball in the high school gym and he was worried about getting there.

Suddenly an idea struck.

Jerry quickly bundled up, then slipped on his ice skates. He stepped out the door and was off.

Over Tecumseh's "frozen canels" Jerry glided, coming right down Chicago Blvd. to the astonishment of motorists and pedestrians.

Jerry skimmed up to the front door of the high school and took off his skates.

The distance—just under two miles.

Elapsed time for the fun-filled trip—eight minutes.

Well, well, shades of Hans Brinker.

☆

Mentioning Herr Brinker brings to mind what probably happened in many homes Sunday evening.

Walt Disney screened the first half of the film "Hans Brinker or the Silver Skates" on his TV hour and many children were glued to the silver screen.

As it turned out, so were many adults.

Sally Pope said she wasn't interested, until she took a look and in a few minutes she was there side-by-side with her brood watching.

Sally admitted the hour fled by and she was as disappointed as the kids when the week's story quit right in the middle of an exciting ice skating race.

During the past 24 months a lot of wonderful things have happened in the young life of Tecumseh's Joyce Wilbar.

Joyce is now going into motion pictures and I had a nice telephone chat with her Tuesday as she prepared to leave Toledo for the Pacific coast.

"Everytime you notch another accomplishment," I told Joyce, "I tell folks, 'that was the little girl I used to buy bread from in Van's Bakery'."

"I'll take three loaves of white," I reminisced.

"That will be 50c," Joyce chuckled over the phone.

"Gosh, you even remember the price."

She has worked hard as a model and always with the goal of a movie career. Her dream is about to be realized and her friends here wish Joyce well.

(Walt, when will you be playing Joyce's first picture, "It's Only Money" with Jerry Lewis?)

The Week's QUIP

Paradise is not a locality — it's a state of mind.

JOYCE WITH JERRY—Tecumseh's Joyce Wilbar (left) poses with Jerry Lewis and two other lovelies, whom Joyce edged out for the chorw as "Young Model of the Year." The title also brings Joyce a contract to make one film with Jerry.

To Make Movie

Joyce Wilbar has landed a Hollywood movie contract.

The Tecumseh girl, who has been modeling in Toledo for the past two years, was just named "Young Model of the Year."

The title came in an international contest, sponsored jointly by Paramount Productions and the Patricia Stevens Modeling Schools.

Joyce, who graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1958, represented the Toledo School.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wilbar, along with sisters, Janice, Barbara and Elizabeth, and brothers, Robert and James, reside here at 421 N. Evans St.

Along with the crown comes a contract to make one film with Jerry Lewis. It will be called "It's Only Money."

Shooting is expected to start late this month.

Mr. Lewis and Paramount have gotten into a legal tussle and the popular film comedian may move his production company off that lot and go to 20th Century-Fox.

But wherever filming takes place, Joyce will have a role.

☆

A FINE, unaffected girl, Joyce has made plans for a permanent move to the west coast.

She resigned her secretary's job with the Louisville Tile Co. of Toledo, where she worked while not modeling.

She already has been given a position with the Patricia Stevens School in Hollywood, in addition to her first film commitment.

Joyce hopes for more movie roles, but is proving sensible by having a full-time position to fall back on.

Winning was "a complete surprise to me," Joyce told The Herald in a telephone interview Tuesday afternoon from Toledo.

☆

SHE SURVIVED regional competition, but in the national finals Joyce faced two "beautiful girls," who she was sure would win. One was from Los Angeles and the other Memphis.

As part of the buildup, the three girls rode in the Rose Bowl parade, an experience that Joyce said was "something I'll never forget.

Did you get to see the game? seemed a logical question.

"We had to be on the parade grounds almost all night and when the parade was over I was completely worn out," she answered.

So Joyce headed back to her lush accomodations at the Beverly Hilton and caught the game on television.

Joyce said she and her fellow finalists were on practically unlimited expense accounts at the Hilton. This, too, was a thrill.

14 Young Farmers Nominated

Fourteen nominations for the community's most outstanding young farmer have been turned in to the Jaycees by individuals and local farm groups.

These 14 top farmers will be contacted within the next two weeks to learn complete details of each of their operations. The judges will select the winner on the basis of these fact sheets.

Judges will consider the progress in the contestant's agricultural careers and their contributory roles in the community improvement affairs.

Minister Gives Talk on England

The Rev. Frank W. Hawthorne spoke to members of the Rotary Club Jan. 2.

The pastor of the St. Peter's Church gave a resume of his experiences in London, England for a four-week period this past summer.

He was chosen one of several ministers for a course in special college instruction by the Rural Workers Fellowship of the Episcopal Church.

Members of the Rotary found slides of London, which he presented, most entertaining.

Tecumseh Will Probably Still Get Faraday Plant

New financing help for constructing the Faraday plant here has been offered to the Tecumseh Area Industrial Development Association.

Several offers are under consideration and will probably mean saving TAIDC's agreement with Faraday to bring the Adrian company to Tecumseh.

One deal from an out-of-town bank may qualify financing with the Small Business Administration.

In addition, citizens around town have been suggesting that the Industrial Development Corp. place a $45,000 stock issue on the market.

Several have said, "I've got $100 that I will invest."

TIADC members express their sincere thanks for these overtures, but are optimistic that financing still can be arranged with conventional lending institutions.

Last week, the Tecumseh bank rejected a $45,000 loan request and TAIDC reports no change in the bank's attitude this week.

Financing and the letting of contracts must be completed by Feb. 22, according to the signed agreement between TAIDC and Faraday. Construction bids were taken last month with Goodrich-Hazen of Adrian, low bidder.

Faraday vice-president and general manager, F. J. Worden, reaffirm confidence in the original plan.

He issued a statement Friday, following the news that the local bank had refused a loan.

Said Mr. Worden, "News items appearing in yesterday's Adrian Daily Telegram and Tecumseh Herald had not changed our basic agreement with the Tecumseh Area Industrial Development Corp. Faraday's agreement with TAIDC gives them until late February to complete arrangements for construction of the new plant in Tecumseh."

2 Students Injured When School Bus Hits Car, Runs into Tree

Several students were hurt in a school bus and car accident Friday morning.

The bus was returning children to their homes after classes had been recessed due to weather conditions.

Marilyn Mumaw, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Mumaw of 2930 Rogers Highway, suffered a fractured pelvis and slight concussion.

She will be hospitalized for three to four weeks according to her physician.

Janet Cutler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Cutler of 5611 Holloway Rd., suffered a slight concussion and strained neck.

Dean Marks was X-rayed for bruises above the eye.

James Foreman received a foot injury and others were bruised and bumped.

Mrs. Clifford Adams, veteran bus driver, was negotiating a curve going south on Rogers Highway when she came upon a car attempting to make a left turn onto Blood Rd.

Mrs. Adams applied the brakes, but was unable to avoid striking the automobile, driven by Russell Stoll of Blissfield. The bus then slid into a tree beside the road.

Extensive damage was done to the right side rear of the bus, but only minor damage to the car.

In crossing the road to call for assistance, Mrs. Adams fell on the icy road, receiving bruises

She has been driving Tecumseh school buses for 15 years with 95,000 accident-free miles to her credit.

Mrs. Adams said, "I do wish they would sand that corner better than they do."

Another bus was called to take the remaining students to their homes.

In Tecumseh trial runs were made to determine whether buses will pick up children in inclimate weather.

1962 Officers Of Kiwanis Are Installed

Elwood Little, lieutenant-governor of District 7, Kiwanis International, conducted the installation of officers for the Tecumseh Club at the IOOF Hall last Thursday evening.

Fred Nash was installed as president, Richard Myers as president-elect, Don Judd as secretary and Ken Blumerick as treasurer.

Also installed as members of the board of directors were Dr. George Burkhard, Dr. Richard Coak, James Hoffman, Harold Kopka, Carl Lamb, Dave Ousterhout and John Pobuda.

The ladies of the Kiwanians were guests for the evening.

Bet They Wish They Had Never Returned Home

Mr. and Mrs. Don Parrett and family have returned from a two-week trip in Florida.

They were accompanied by his mother, Mrs. John Teufel, who is remaining for several weeks in Cortez.

Spends 2-Weeks Leave with Folks

Elmo J. Rucker spent a two-week leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Rucker. He is based at Great Lakes Naval Training Center. His sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Biehl, of St. Charles, Ill. also spent the Christmas weekend at home and Sunday drove to Flint for Christmas dinner with another sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Starks, and family.

Gaining Admission to Colleges in State Is Complicated Project

COLLEGE COUNSELING

The major problem in college counseling today is in assisting the college-bound student in selecting a school that has an admissions policy which is in accord with the youngster's past achievement record and his potential college level work.

As each year goes by, it is increasingly more difficult for the "C" student to get into our state universities and other schools in the State of Michigan.

The Tecumseh High School counseling staff must have some idea of the admissions policy of the various colleges and universities.

Because these colleges and universities are becoming more and more selective each year, the counseling staff urges the college-bound student consistently to achieve towards his or her ability.

The student who falls below "C+" is encouraged to look into small colleges with liberal admissions policies or junior colleges.

☆

THE PROCESS of assisting a senior to make an application to a college ranges from a relatively simple process to a complex one depending on the college.

Most people in the community are unaware of the many forms and current information that the guidance officer supplies to each college bound student.

Below is the typical counseling agenda for students applying to two Michigan schools — Michigan State University and University of Michigan.

MSU necessary materials:

► Tecumseh High School achievement record (grades from school courses)

► The student's test scores while in Tecumseh High School

► External test scores such as the National Merit test, and the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test.

► MSU catalogue and information on scholarships

► An application for admission

When the student comes in stating a preference for Michigan State, the catalogue is studied in regards to courses offered by the school, requirements for admissions, cost, housing, etc.

If the student is a "B" or better student, he is advised to the possible scholarship opportunities and how to apply.

He is also told that his application will be processed by an admissions committee at Michigan State and his chances for admittance are favorable.

If he is a "C+" to a "B" student, he is advised that the college admissions committee will carefully scrutinize his application and may ask him to come to the State campus for further tests before tentative admission is granted.

The student who is a "C" to not quite a "C" is not told that he cannot make an application.

But he is informed that his chances for admission to State are slim and that it would be to his advantage to make a second application to another school of his choice which has a more liberal admissions policy.

After the student completes the application, he returns it to the guidance office for checking to see that it is properly and completely filled out.

The application is then sent to the principal's office for processing and forwarded to Michigan State.

Michigan State usually takes one of three types of action:

1 — Unqualified tentative acceptance.

2—Acceptance pending further tests required.

3—Outright rejection with a suggestion that another college or junior college be considered.

☆

UNIVERSITY of Michigan Necessary materials:

► Student achievement record, test scores, external test scores

► University of Michigan catalog, application for admission, application for scholarships, Alumni interview form, College Board test Bulletin of Information, Description of Scholastic Aptitude Test booklet, description of the College Board Achievement tests booklet, an application to take the College Board test battery.

► Parents Confidential Statement (sent by the parents to the College Scholarship service to establish the amounts of need for a scholarship. Officials at the University of Michigan or Tecumseh High School do not see this report.)

Because the college-bound students have been made aware of the highly selective admissions policy of the University of Michigan, the seniors applying to this school from Tecumseh High, most always have a B or better academic achievement record and the other necessary favorable requirements.

This has alleviated the problem of rejection from this school.

The counseling process for the prospective University of Michigan student is carried out in the same manner as that for the senior applying for admission to Michigan State University.

All the information and necessary forms are supplied by the counselor. The completed application and other forms are checked and then processed by the principal's office.

In summation of the services of the Guidance department of Tecumseh High School, they are varied and wide in scope, they are directed towards the individual student and they attempt to assist the student in making the most of his high school opportunities.

CHAMBER PRESIDENT PAUL CLAUDA

Paul Clauda Named Prexy of Chamber

Paul Clauda has been elected as the new Chamber of Commerce president.

Other officers:

Louis Schneider — vice-president

Bill Powell—treasurer

Mr. Clauda replaces Royal Welch, who will continue to serve on the board of directors.

Two others, in addition to Mr. Clauda, were elected to the board of directors for the first time. They are Dr. Carlos Knisely and Dwight Helms.

The board is rounded out by James Lincoln and Harry Beland.

Past presidents of the Chamber include Dr. Richard D. Coak and Richard Eggleston, besides Royal Welch.

Members retiring from the board this year are Gale Fisher, Mr. Eggleston and Dr. Coak.

These three men have been on the board of directors since the chamber was organized in 1958.

"Work done by such men as these is seldom heralded, but goes down in the records as work well done and on a voluntary basis," says Don Murphy, Chamber Secretary.

To get the new year started, Mr. Clauda called a Program of Work Committee meeting at his home Wednesday.

Members of the committee are Russ Garno, Jim Merritt, Dr. Knisely, Marvin Watkins and Mr. Murphy.

THIRTY YEARS WED — Dr. and Mrs. C. N. Brodersen, 127 E. Chicago Blvd., observed their 30th wedding anniversary Jan. 6. They were married in 1932 in Tecumseh by the Rev. William F. Harding, who was then Justice of the Peace. He was also the father of Ruth Harding, whom many will remember as Tecumseh Public librarian.

City Manager Nelson Reports on '61 Project

Now that 1961 is behind us, I think it is the proper time to list the things that were accomplished in the past year by the city.

The projects that cost the city a great deal of money are not too noticeable to the observer, as a considerable amount of our new construction was done underground.

First, we can list 600 feet of sanitary sewer installed on Occidental Rd., plus the same amount of eight-inch water main, also 500 feet of sanitary sewer on Russell Rd. and a like amount of eight-inch water main.

Our installation of storm sewer was greater than we first anticipated.

We put in 950 feet of concrete pipe on South Union St., and installed 500 feet 12-inch storm sewer pipe on S. Evans St., as well as 150 feet of 27-inch under the railroad tracks on Russell and Evans.

The drainage pipe that was installed at the hospital brought the cost of storm sewer installation to $6,082.

Although our curb-and-gutter work was curtailed considerably, we did install 3,000 feet on N. Pearl St. This section was very bad and was greatly in need of the curb and gutter.

☆

THE BITUMINOUS asphalt work that was done last year furthered our goal toward smooth riding in Tecumseh.

We completed Union St. to Brown St., connecting the two streets.

Two blocks of bituminous on Maumee St. will help cut maintainence costs caused by the heavy traffic in that area.

The next step was to complete the off-street parking lot on the northeast corner of the business section. This parking lot was greatly needed and although many of our citizens do not feel that the parking meters are necessary, it is the only way the lots may be obtained.

Considerable asphalt sealing was done last summer. In fact, about four miles of streets in all, and it is noted that these streets are holding up very well.

If it was possible to put bituminous on each street when it needs resurfacing, it would solve a big problem.

☆

THE ACQUIRING of the Community Center was a great step forward. Although the calendar is filling up, there are plenty of activities that can be fitted in. We hope to have a full schedule at the center soon.

The activities of the summer recreation program were increased last year and we are planning on having even a bigger and better one this year.

Much work has been done on our parks. This should benefit those who like the outdoors.

One of the things not figured on was the loss of over 100 elm trees. It was a costly project to remove these trees, in fact, some of them are not removed as yet, but will be in the very near future.

We planted over 100 young maples last summer and are planning to order $500 worth of young trees this spring. This should compensate for the ones we have had to take out.

We shall continue with our objective to make Tecumseh a safer and better city in which to live.

ULCW Plans To Fashion New Lines

ULCW of the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church met Monday evening in the Parish House with Mrs. Floyd Lane leading the devotions.

Mrs. William Rohweder was in charge of the program, the topic was "Women of the Bible."

A business meeting followed, with plans to purchase material and make new fair linens for the altar as a project by the group.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Donald Nettlemen serving in Mrs. Burton Weitenhagen's place and Mrs. Valden Bidle.

New Church Council members were installed at the Sunday morning worship service.

They include Edwin Bunge, Harry Farrell, Richard Gentz, Dean Hamilton, Carl Kennel, Floyd Lane, Wallace MacGeorge, Fred Weseloh and Burton Wright.

The new Men's Club officers are:

President — Don Buell

Vice-president—Edwin Bunge

Secretary — Floyd Lane

Treasurer — Frank Turlukowski.

Wit and Wisdom Hears About Leisure Activities

Members of the Wit and Wisdom Club were entertained at Mrs. Earl Wickwire's home Jan. 8 when Mrs. Ralph Comfort conducted a program entitled "Hobbies and Leisure Time Activities."

Following a business session members presented exhibits and explained a number of hobbies. Included were:

Antique glass — Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw

Tatting and embroidery—Mrs. Fay Van Valkenburg

Magic—Carlos Jones

Chair caning—Fred Dickinson

Hobby clubwork at Boysville —Orville Laidlaw

Pastel colored glass — Mrs. Comfort

Mrs. F. C. Dickinson presented the buttoncraft work of Mrs. Earl Lindsley and reviewed the book, "Maine Charm String" on buttoncraft.

Mrs. E. H. McConnel sent a lovely collection of shell work including jewelry and a charming decorated purse.

The program pointed out the desirability of worthwhile hobbies.

POLICE BLOTTER

Tecumseh police report a few minor accidents for the week, remarkable for the icy conditions. Two of the fender benders even occurred in parking lots.

Donald R. Parrett, Tecumseh, was cited for failure to stop within assured clear distance after his auto hit the rear of Dale Whelan's car, Sunday in downtown Tecumseh.

Waldo M. McIlmurray, 35, Livonia, was cited Monday under the basic speed law when his car rammed into the rear of an auto driven by Harold E. Stafford, 42, of Ypsilanti.

Recent justice of peace cases were:

Daniel R. Rodlund, Adrian, speeding, fined $10.

Lois Nugent, Southgate, speeding, fined $15.

William Vollmer, Tipton, parking violation, fined $2.

Boosters Will Hold Dance Feb. 3

The Tecumseh Boosters Club, has scheduled a Dance for Saturday, Feb. 3 at the United Products Hall to raise funds to complete the press box.

Featured will be the Leo Butler Trio, from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m.

The public is invited and the donation is $1 per person.

The Tecumseh Boosters Club was organized a few years ago, to do some jobs that cannot be done by any individual.

The press box at the football field was one of their first undertakings and money is needed to finish the job.

Any job undertaken by the Boosters Club is not to benefit any one person or any one group, but is for the whole community, a spokesman said.

Since 1921, Agency Has Given Friends 'Bear' Calendars

Schneider Bros. big bear calendar for 1962 has arrived in offices around the city.

Since 1921, Schneiders Bros. Garage has been distributing the 30x40" calendars among their customers.

At first the calendars featured the Royal Canadian Mounted police, but since 1926, the theme "Bear Us in Mind" has been used.

The new calendar displays a huge female bear with two cubs raiding the creel of a fisherman, while he is setting a campfire preparatory to frying those same fish.

The Brown-Bigelow Calendar Co. of Minneapolis has provided the calendars for Schneiders with Philip R. Goodwin and Ralph Crosby Smith doing the art work.

The late Louis S. Schneider liked wild life and made the change from the Mounties to the bears. The Schneider cottage at Wamplers has many framed pictures from the calendars enhancing the walls.

Louis L. Schneider, president has continued the precedent set by his father.

'Modern Mothers Dilemma' Topics of Guest's Talk

"Modern Mothers Dilemma" was the topic the Rev. Allan Wittrup used recently when he spoke to members of the Child Study Club No. 1 at the home of Mrs. Charles Clark.

Following his talk the Rev. Mr. Wittrup led the group in a question and answer period.

Mrs. Norman Bailey, program chairman, arranged to have the pastor speak.

Eleven members were served refreshments by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Al Merz.

Small Christmas stockings filled with candies were favors made by Mrs. Stanley Kruse and Mrs. Norman Bailey.

Mrs. Hugh DesErmia will be hostess for the January meeting.

Gray Lady Class Opens

Mrs. John Quigley, representative of the Tecumseh area for Lenawee County, will instruct a new class of Gray Ladies.

Those interested in the new class will meet Wednesday, Jan. 17, from 1 to 3 p.m. at Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian Church.

Phys Ed for Adults Is Planned

Classes in adult education will begin Jan. 17 at Tecumseh High School contingent upon the enrollment.

Women and men's recreation will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. beginning Wednesday, Jan. 17.

Theresa Pickens and Victor Lawson will be the instructors.

John Pobuda, guidance counselor, said that typing classes will begin Jan. 24, also contingent on the enrollment.

Restoration Of Church On Agenda

Annual meeting of the congregation of St. Peter's Episcopal Church will be held Monday at 7 p.m.

The opening of the meeting will be the Prayer Book service of Evensong in the church at which members of St. Peter's choir will lead the singing. The business meeting will follow directly in the Parish Hall.

At this session the annual reports of the organizations are made, the budget adopted, the wardens and rector report to the congregation and various other matters of business will be discussed.

Four new vestry members will be elected. Those vestry members retiring under the regular rotation system are Wilbur Andrews, Russell Cooper, Bruce Corley and George McCombs.

A report of the vestry will also be made on the program of the repair, restoration and improvement of historic St. Peter's Church building.

At this point preliminary drawings have been made and plans are underway for a fund raising campaign to secure $80,000.

Ex-Tecumseh Veterinarian Named Kiwanis Governor for State of Michigan

Dr. George E. Bowler, governor of the Michigan District of Kiwanis International for 1962, was a practicing veterinary in Tecumseh for two years before joining the Department of Agriculture in 1934.

He came to Tecumseh from Manchester and had his office and residence in the home of the late Mrs. John Murphy at 108 W. Pottawatamie St. now owned by Sam Linton.

Mrs. Murphy and her veterinary husband were the grandparents of Wenton and Lavern Murphy of Macon Rd.

Dr. Bowler is employed under Dr. William Britton, 726 N. Union St., area veterinary for Southeastern Michigan for the state department of agriculture.

The Bowlers with their four daughters, Mrs. Donald Burris, Constance, Elaine and Edith, all live in Ann Arbor where Dr. Bowler is public health veterinary for the city and Washtenaw County.

He received the Master of Public Health degree in 1960.

Dr. Bowler became a member of the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor in 1940 and has had a perfect attendance for the ensuing 21 years.

He will preside at the midwinter meeting at Flint Jan. 12 and 13.

No Other Paper Loves Tecumseh Like The Herald . Read It With Pride

Pen Pals from Scotland Tells of 'First Foots'

Mrs. James L. Thomas, 9589 Clinton-Macon Rd., made a New Year's resolution last January that she would begin correspondence with a family from abroad.

To carry out her resolve she wrote to an organization in New York, whose address was published in a Methodist Women's magazine.

The firm called "Letters Abroad" matched the Thomas family with a family in Scotland with similar interests.

Correspondence with the Miller Davidson family, began almost immediately. Mr. Davidson and his wife, Beatrice, have a six-year-old daughter, Jane.

They live at 58 Park St. in Nairnshire, Scotland.

The Thomas family consists of James L. Thomas, his wife, Phyllis, and three children; Jimmy, 5; Judy, 3 and Jayne nearly 10 months.

Mrs. Thomas is sharing with readers two letters received from Mr. and Mrs. Davidson just preceding the holidays.

One from Mrs. Davidson is printed below. The other note, written by Mr. Davidson will run next week.

Dear Phyllis and Jim,

First of all I must thank you for your wonderfully original Christmas present. We have read the first copy of The Herald from first to last and it has given us a very good impression of your way of life.

We may be wrong but we get the impression that the American takes a much greater interest in community life than the average Scotsman.

Such things are hospital admissions and who is weekending with whom, are just never seen in our papers.

Also you do have a lot more advertising. We sit and try to work out prices in pounds, but I really must enquire at the bank the correct dollar rate.

We think you have a higher standard of living over there. I don't know. Everything here has got such heavy purchase taxes and at the moment the government has put on a credit squeeze making it more difficult to get a bank loan or anything on credit.

As you will see we have moved—that is one of the reasons I have been so long in writing to you. The other reason was Miller (her husband who is a police officer). He entered the hospital in July and underwent a very complicated Mastoid operation. He had his eardrum removed and replaced by a plastic one, a vein was removed from his foot and grafted into his ear, a remarkable achievement. He can hear perfectly once more.

As you probably know we have no hospital or doctor's fees over here, this is covered by our National Health system, also all dental work is very cheap.

Recently I had 12 fillings, I am terrified of dentists, and two false teeth put in, this cost me roughly $8-7. Miller gets full pay while off sick so I have no worries.

NAIRN IS a lovely place, we were moved here because of Miller's ear. The climate is the most equable in Scotland and as there are eight policemen here he has not got so much work to do.

We have only been here for a forenight. We will be moving again soon, but only up the road a bit. The new police houses will not be ready for 3 to 4 months yet, so we are living in a furnished house and our furniture is in store.

Nairn is a fishing village, population around 5,000. It is also a popular holiday resort. There are three beautiful golf courses, lovely parks, a long stretch of beautiful sands, a quaint harbour (which I will photograph for you, first fine day) two picture houses, six ball rooms and 22 hotels.

Jane was worried about going to a new school, but she has settled down quite happily. The school is just around the corner, it is very old (I will photograph it too). School is from 9:30 until 12:50 and 2 p.m. until 3:20. She can read very well now. Her spelling isn't so good. In arithmetic she is being taught to add up and subtract double figures.

When she is 11, she sits an exam to find out whether she will go to a senior or junior secondary school if she passes for senior, she can then go to university when she is 14.

YOU WROTE in your last letter that some people think all Scotmen wear kilts—dear Phyllis! Some Englishmen even believe that.

Seriously though, I think the kilt isn't worn often enough. Miller wore the kilt as a boy and of course Jane has one, but I think the main reason it isn't worn so much is because they are too expensive.

Kilts must be handmade and proper ones (who wants to wear an improper kilt) and of course that pushes up the price. I will tell you one thing though—true Scotsmen do not wear anything under their kilts, only for dancing.

Miller says the Duke of Edinburgh doesn't wear anything under his kilt—but I don't believe that. Miller says he read it in the papers, but Mill is an awful liar.

I bet the children are excited about Santa's visit, What is he bringing this year? Jane wants a doll's push chair and numerous other things.

☆

NEW YEAR'S eve is our big night in Scotland — Hogmanay we call it, there are numerous rites to observe.

First of all the house must be scrupulously cleaned from top to bottom all washing and mending, etc. must be done or so the saying goes it will be left undone all year.

Whatever you are doing at midnight you will be doing most of the year though I am usually rushing around laying the table and getting the drinks ready — all the doors and windows are opened to let the old year out and the new year in.

Then the callers start coming —each one bringing his own bottle—they go from house to house sometimes until 6 or 7 a.m., but an awful lot fall by the wayside.

It is lucky for the first caller or "First Foot" to be dark and carry a piece of coal and some sort of food—a sign that the house will enjoy prosperity throughout the year.

foots" and believe me by the time they give you a drink — it's a "Gay Nicht". It is also very bad form to refuse a drink.

Tecumseh Couple Attend Gathering

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Andrade, of rural Tecumseh were in Ypsilanti last weekend where they attended the three-day Bible gathering of Jehovah's Witnesses held at the Ypsilanti High School.

They were among the large Sunday crowd of 1,010 who heard witness minister Nicholas Kovalak, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrade were impressed with the speaker's discussion of the scriptural way to attain unity, and of the need to not only try to know and do God's will ourselves, but to lovingly assist others to do the same.

Debbie Osburn Gives Program on Setting Sleeves

Debbie Osburn demonstrated "Setting in Sleeves" for members of the Franklin Maidens 4-H Sewing Club Jan. 3 at the home of the leader, Mrs. Roger Williams.

Ice cream and crackers were served by Miss Osburn.

The next meeting Jan. 17 will feature Cath Beevers demonstrating "blind stitching".

Thrills of Year

Officers of the Daughters of St. Peter's Church were installed in an impressive ceremony Jan. 9 in the Parish House.

Mrs. Cecile Smith conducted the ceremony at this first meeting of the new year.

Those installed were

President—Mrs. Guy Nixon

First vice-president—Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw

Second vice-president — Mrs. Anna Haughn

Secretary — Mrs. Lynn Hubbard

Treasurer—Mrs. Harold Sisson

Chaplain—Mrs. Harry Schuch

Mrs. Kenneth Ross will be sunshine chairman and also act as chairman for programs assisted by Mrs. Schuch and Mrs. Smith.

Communications were read from Mrs. Floyd Guy of Florida and Mrs. Verna Hamaker of Winnipeg.

Mrs. Jack Smith, program leader, asked each one present to tell of her greatest thrill of the year 1961.

Some told of the birth of new grandchildren, Mrs. Smith said that her son, Jim, winning the national soaring championship trophy was her big thrill

Mrs. Guy Nixon said that receiving a watch for 10-year's service at Tuttles was her big thrill

Refreshments were served by Mrs. John McCaughen and Mrs. John Smith.

Farm Building Layouts Is Adult Class Topic

Third meeting of the Tecumseh adult farmer class for this year will be held in the agriculture room of the high school Monday.

Don Mueller of the Partridge Implement Co. is cooperating with the group for this meeting.

The topic of discussion will be on farm building layouts and labor saving devices for livestock operations.

Howard McCutcheon and Skip Carpenter of Michigan Farm Structures Corporation will be the resource persons.

Ideal plans will be presented to the group, then individual problems discussed. Material handling problems in relation to the feed and grain operation will also be presented by the group.

The meeting will start at 8:15 p.m. All farmers in the Tecumseh school district are welcome to attend this and other meetings.

Topics of Tipton

The Women's Fellowship of the Tipton Community Church will meet Tuesday, Jan. 16, at the home of Mrs. Don Hunt at 8 p.m. A family fellowship supper will be held Thursday, Jan. 18, at the church. A potluck supper will be served at 7 p.m. A program will follow from 8 to 9 p.m. under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Whelan and Mr. and Mrs. Fay Luce.

The Junior High Fellowship enjoyed a social afternoon at the home of Dianne Sprycher Saturday.

Mrs. Lloyd Billington is a medical patient in Herrick Memorial Hospital. She was transferred from St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Simmons left Monday morning for Florida where they will spend the remainder of the winter.

Several ladies have volunteered to be hostesses for the "March of Dimes" coffee hours but several more hostesses are needed to invite friends and neighbors in for coffee or any light refreshments.

Any form of open house, card parties or bake sales, etc. are welcomed. Please contact Mrs. Fay Luce or Mrs. Lyle Whelan for information and open dates in your neighborhood.

Mrs. Richard Eisenminger will hold "open house" Tuesday, Jan. 16 at 9:30 a.m. Try to attend and support the "March of Dimes".

The Cornpoppers Farm Bureau Group will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bolz on Wisner Highway Saturday, Jan. 13, at 8 p.m. The topic will be "The Pros and Cons of State Income Tax." Members are to furnish pies.

Dean Cook and Bill Kukral attended the Scout Leaders Training at Wolf Lake Friday night through Sunday.

The Tipton Jets 4-H Club held their regular meeting Jan. 6 in the Tipton Grange Hall. The new officers were installed. Demonstrations on sewing were given by Ann Moeller, Paula Moeller and Vicky McVay. The next meeting will be Feb. 3 at 7:30 p.m. Demonstrations on bees will be given by Nancy and Jim Evans. The refreshment committee was Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Tindall.

The officers meeting will be at the Michigan Producers Dairy Building Jan. 10 at 7:30 p.m.

Elvin Piercy entered Herrick Hospital Monday afternoon for medical care.

A wedding reception was held at the K. of P. Hall in Tipton Jan. 7 in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mathews of Adrian who were married Dec. 24, 1961.

Mrs. Mathews is the former Bette Mattis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mattis of Allen Road in Adrian.

A beautiful three tiered wedding cake, made by Mrs. Alden Erlenbush of Onsted centered the buffet table which was attractively decorated in pink and white.

The cake was cut by her sister, Mrs. Richard Coller, of Ypsilanti. Meridith Munger and Patricia Anderson, cousins of the bride, were seated at each end of the table and served coffee and punch.

Another cousin, Lois Mattis of Onsted registered the 85 guests and Mrs. Richard Mattis helped with the many lovely gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Mathews are at home on E. Church St. in Adrian.

Howard Luce is confined to his home with broken bones in his ankle caused when he stepped off a ladder while working near Holloway.

Priscilla Smith of Adrian spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ernst.

'Great Oaks from Little Acorns Grow'

"Our generation needs men and women, parents and counselors who will stand for that which is right, true and just. In Isaiah's time these kind of persons were called 'oaks of righteousness'," states the Rev. B. O. Bashore.

"Great oaks from little acorns grow" applies to people as well as to the giant of the forest. Those entrusted to our care need to be taught regard for the little things of life — for they grow into the important," he added.

These are excerpts from the sermon, "Oaks of Righteousness," of the Rev. Mr. Bashore of the First Baptist Church to be given Sunday.

He continues, "The 'righteous' person is like 'a tree planted by streams of water' who feeds on the refreshment of God's eternal truth."

"The right answers are arrived at somewhere between the amount of leeway and liberty that parents want to give their children and the amount of liberty and freedom that children want to obtain.

'A certain degree of difficulty — of trouble and temptation is necessary for a person to grow and mature."

"For any who would compare themselves with the 'oak,' please remember that oak trees grow for a purpose. Let us dedicate ourselves to the noble and high purposes of God, explained to us in His Word," he concludes.

After the worship service, there will be a coffee hour.

Schoolmen Purchase Insurance

Tecumseh school board awarded a general liability insurance policy to the King Insurance Agency Monday night after reviewing premium bids from four other local agents.

In other board action, members discussed asking the district for more operating millage, probably in March, cutting courses and activities from the curriculum to help reduce expenses, purchase of an office business machine and salary schedule for teachers.

Junior High Principal David Dick showed the film, "Human Growth," to the board and discussed the film's usage in classrooms.

Herrick Park Furnace Fails

Furnace trouble at Herrick Park Elementary School forced school officials to close the building Tuesday.

Classes were resumed Wednesday.

Methodist Membership Now at 485

"Are you growing sick of violence? The deadly thing is that too many people are taking violence for granted," states the Rev. Allen Wittrup.

"Violence in headlines; on TV; across the world and around the corner; in every fabric of our daily life.

"Life becomes cheap in an environment of error—in a divided world where each half has push-button power of total destruction," he added.

The Rev. Mr. Wittrup will speak on the subject "Are You Sick of Violence" at First Methodist Church Sunday at 10 a.m.

The Rev. Mr. Wittrup reports that in the church year, closing Dec. 31, 1961, all conference assessments, missions and local church expenses including salaries were paid in full.

The membership of the First Methodist Church is 485 members.

Communion

A communion service will be held Sunday at all Christian Science churches.

"Sacrament" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read. It will lay special emphasis on commemorating the unselfish life of Christ Jesus by following his example.

Projects of the group will be clothing, knitting, handicraft and electrical.

Officers will be installed at the next meeting.

State Says, 'Goodbye Old US-112'

The Michigan State Highway Department today started "Operation Changeover" involving 1,500 signs on two state highways between Detroit and New Buffalo.

► Take down all US-12 route markers along the Interstate 94 Freeway.

► Take down all US-112 markers along US-112.

► Put up US-12 markers along US-112.

When the shuffle is completed by the end of the week, US-112 will become US-12.

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said the route numbering change — the biggest in Michigan history — is being made to permit continued uniform numbering of the US-12 route between Detroit and Yellowstone National Park, Wyoming.

Old US-12 in Michigan has been replaced by Interstate 94, which is open to traffic between Detroit and the community of Sawyer near the Michigan-Indiana state line, a distance of 215 miles.

US-112 has been an alternate to US-12 between Detroit and New Buffalo but will now become the prime US-marked nonfreeway between the two cities.

HISTORIANS believe the new route of US-12 was in use centuries before the discovery of America.

Known as the Great Sauk Trail, it was later used by tribes of Indians in attacks on Detroit during the American Revolution and the War of 1812.

First improvements to the narrow Indian trail were made in 1830.

The improved road was known as the Chicago Road and for many years it was the main route between Detroit and Chicago. Shortly after World War I it was designated as "Trunk Line 23." Its route number was changed to US-112 in 1925.

The new route of US-12 is 204 miles long and runs through Ypsilanti, Saline, Clinton, Moscow, Jonesville, Coldwater, Bronson, Sturgis and Niles on its route between downtown Detroit and New Buffalo.

It meets existing US-12 in New Buffalo and continues into Indiana and Illinois and west from Chicago.

Educator Who Wants Tri-County College Writes His Opinion

Miss Naomi Sallows, Clerk
Common Council
City Hall
Tecumseh, Michigan

Dear Miss Sallows:

Thank you very much for sending me a copy of the resolution passed by the Common Council of Tecumseh. I am sure it was made in good faith and based on the best information available to you.

I also recognize that the Council is interested in the community, the welfare of its youth and the continued, favorable climate for good living in Tecumseh. Your judgment is respected.

I feel certain you also value the opinion of some 250 citizens of the three counties who studied the post-high school needs of the area in which consideration was given to the feasibility of smaller areas working out a solution to their problem.

It would appear that the function of the community college may not be fully understood by your group. This is quite common and one of the problems which we face in presenting the issue to the people in the three counties.

Adequate information on which people may base judgments is our sole task at the time. We feel confident that judgment of peoples are good if they do have available information.

The function of the four-year college and of the two-year institution, commonly called community college, are entirely different. The University of Michigan and Michigan State University, Harlan Hatcher and Dr. John Hannah, have given their blessing to the establishment of the Three-County Community College.

Spring Arbor College, which is now a four-year college, has also given its blessing and offered assistance. Adrian, Siena Heights and Hillsdale Colleges will be complimented by the establishment of the community college.

It is recognized that if we were to receive the same proportion of the students enrolling from the area which they now receive, a considerable expansion of their plants and programs woul be required.

Since they are institutions concerned primarily with liberal arts education, the whole field of vocational education would be neglected, or would require an entire change in their organization. I do not know at the present time of any statutory organization which can be set up for purely vocational purposes. If such were possible, it might not be educationally feasible.

We have the late blooming child who, for reasons not known to anyone, does not seem to show too much promise in high school. Currently, it would be impossible for this child to enroll in college. Many of these people find themselves in a community college.

We have the problem of people with large families with a moderate income sending their children on for added training. We have the problem that Jackson Junior College might very well limit its enrollment, as its local tax support comes entirely from the Union School District of Jackson.

Our study indicates that a .42 mill operating tax would be required in the three-county area. This area, as you know, encompasses something over $700,000,000 in valuation.

However, the committee felt this amount should be doubled in order to provide adequate leeway and protection for expanding needs in the three-county area for this type of education. The .5 mills for building purposes recommended again represents the maximum requirement rather than the minimum.

It would not be possible for me to set forth here the projections of enrollment, the needs of the area as expressed by the Manpower Commission and the reports of parents on questionnaires which they received, or to enumerate the functions of the community college.

I am enclosing the pamphlet, "The Two-Year College", produced by American businessmen which I think you might find interesting.

May I hope that your interest in the welfare of your community continues and that you will seek full information regarding the community college study and what it proposes and the problems as they apply to your area?

I assure you that I stand ready to do anything which you may think would be valuable.

Sincerely your,
Lyle A. Torrant, County Supt. of Schools.

If Teens Know How To Live They'll Know How To Make Living

Dr. Don Lonie will be the speaker at the Youth Clinic Week beginning Sunday at the Onsted Baptist Church according to the pastor, the Rev. Frank Thompson.

It closes Jan. 21.

Nightly services will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Lonie has spoken to teenage assemblies in 45 states, over 3000 high schools and five provinces of Canada.

He has toured England, Wales and Scotland twice, speaking in high school assemblies.

Dr. Lonie has made teen-agers his career and is not ashamed of standing for the right when wrong is the popular way.

He uses the Bible in a nonsectarian way during his talks and emphasizes that if teens know how to live they will know how to make a living.

A special choir will be directed by Mrs. Thompson, with Mrs. Robert Ostrander at the organ and directing the church orchestra.

Harold Stevens will lead the congregational singing. The Rev. Thompson extends a cordial invitation to all in the community.

LETTERS

TO THE EDITORS:

We, the members of the Tecumseh High School band and chorus, wish to extend our sincere thanks to the citizens of this community for their support in making the annual Christmas concert possible.

Also we would like to thank Mr. Johnson and Mr. Cowdrey for the time and effort put forth to make it possible.

Without their cooperation the concert would not have been possible.

Sincerely,
THS Band and Chorus

Church in Macon Sets Dinner

The December general meeting of the WSCS was held last Wednesday evening. It was announced that there are extra Church Birthday and Anniversary Calendars for sale, also some vanilla.

Feb. 17 has been set for the date of the annual Father and Son Banquet. Mrs. Russell Collins will plan the program, Mrs. Edward Zick and committee will have charge of the kitchen and menu. Mrs. Harold Ruhl and committee will set the tables.

A family night supper and evening will be held Sunday Jan. 21. The youth will plan the program. A cooperative supper will be served at 6 p.m.

The engagement of Janette Buehrer to Webb K. Slusher is being announced by her parents, Mrs. Lee Phibbs and Elmer Buehrer. Mr. Slusher is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Webb Slusher of 324 Evans Lake. A spring wedding is planned.

Give Gifts

Missionary Society of the Tecumseh Friends Church met Dec. 28 in the church basement for a potluck supper.

Hostess for this Christmas meeting were Mrs. Clark Pearson, Mrs. Chuck Huber and Mrs. Willis Kilbourn.

Mrs. Iris Baker led the 36 attending in the singing of Christmas carols, with Mrs. Paul Brantingham at the piano.

A reading entitled "The Volunteer Organist" was presented by Emma Day.

"More Gifts For Christmas?" was the title of the play presented by Lois Righter, Iris Baker, Mrs. Brantingham, Bonnie MacDonald, Joyce Randolph, Judy Wiemer, Madalyn Brugger, Kathy Hammack, Margaret Bayless, Ruth Kempf, Linda Sinky and Marjorie Chase.

This was the story of a busy, tired and worn-out mother who finally gets the children to sleep and sits down to reflect on the way her family is living.

Nine angels appear to give her the most important gifts in life and she realizes the discontent her family had experienced, was due to her poor example as the spiritual guide. She finds peace in prayer.

The mystery sisters were revealed and new ones chosen for the coming year.

Life Membership

Mrs. Earl Lindsley received her life membership certificate Thursday evening when about 50 members of the Tecumseh Chapter 51 of the Eastern Star met.

Mrs. Cecile Veile made the presentation as worthy matron following the presentation of the American, Christian and Eastern Star flags.

Mr. and Mrs. Viele wished those assembled a happy and prosperous new year.

Mrs. Robert Hunt and Mrs. Kenton Hunt were introduced and welcomes were given.

Members voted to donate $5 each to the OES Villa, the Masonic Home and OES Relief and Education.

They also decided to present Cynthia Frayer with a Bible when she is installed as worthy advisor of the Rainbow for girls at Adrian Feb. 3.

Thirteen past matrons and patrons were presented and recognition was given them for their work. They were presented with gifts.

Members voted to invite the Lenawee-Monroe County Association to meet in Tecumseh in September.

A special meeting will be held Jan. 25 for initiation. It will be preceded with a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. Officers will practice Tuesday Jan. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shimmins, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hunt and Mrs. LeRoy Titley served refreshments. A decorated cake honored all those having birthdays in January.

Devotion to Duty — Then Hard Work

Back in 1958, seven Tecumseh businessmen formed a non-profit Industrial Development Corp.

There was no Chamber of Commerce at the time and the group decided something positive should be done to promote the city as a possible site for industries looking for new locations.

Six of the original seven members — Jack Osburn, Drs. Robert Laidlaw and Robert Murray, Del King, Bill Powell and Karl Schneider — are still in the group.

The seventh charter member was Jack Shutt, a home building contractor now living in Bay city. His share was purchased by Royal Welch two years ago when Mr. Shutt sold his business interests here.

When the IDC started, the first order of business was to select and buy a plot of land where potential industry could settle. The group bought 12 acres on the south side, which has been zoned industrial on the city's Master Plan.

Each member initially invested $225 as a down payment on the land. Each month ever since, the fellows have added $20 apiece to meet installments on the balance.

What followed has been plain hard work. The members pursued every possible lead for plants that would add to Tecumseh's future growth.

When the Chamber of Commerce was re-organized three years ago, the Development Corp. was named enmass as the Chamber committee on luring new plants here.

This has been no easy task. Since being incorporated in 1956, the seven-man group has sent out more than 1,000 letters to firms which were actually going to move or might be thinking of it.

☆

THEY HAVE dealt with about two dozen 'luke warm," "warm" and "red hot" prospects.

The success with Faraday is a giant stride ahead for the Development Corp.

As the papers were being signed last week, one of the group predicted, "When folks hear about Faraday they're going to ask us, 'How much of a killing did you make on this deal?'"

The fact is the fellows will make nothing. They just hope to get back the money they have invested in the 12-acre site — and with that go out and buy more property for "the next one."

In fact, the group's corporation papers limit any profits to not more than $1 per member.

A representative of Faraday was greatly impressed by the Tecumseh representatives.

"They're an aggressive group who accomplished a great deal in a short time," the Adrian executive said.

"We really admire them. When I was first contacted, I told them they were starting with two strikes against them since we were well along in our negotiations with Adrian.

"I said they'd be at a great disadvantage and that the cards were stacked against them.

"They realized all this, yet it didn't seem to bother them, they just kept right on trying," Mr. Barnard commented.

He added that he was looking forward to working with the people of Tecumseh on the completion of the plant and start of operation here — a frame of mind certainly engendered by his contact with local Development Corp. members.

☆

WHAT LIES ahead for the Tecumseh group?

Well, there are still many details on the Faraday deal to be worked out and these will get top priority.

At the same time, the members will continue to hold their informal sessions, kick in $20 each on purchase of new land and continue to write, telephone and make personal visits to corporations which might like to "go Tecumseh."

No matter what the odds are, the seven men can be depended upon to continue to exploit every advantage their city has over others.

This is youth and vigor at work.

RUTH SATTERTHWAITE TALKS TO CLASSES

Elephants in South Africa

Ruth Satterthwaite, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Joseph C. Satterthwaite, spoke to members of two seventh grade social studies groups Wednesday at the Junior High School.

Miss Satterthwaite attends school in Washington, D.C., while her parents are in the Republic of South Africa, where her father is the United States ambassador.

Ruth spent the holidays with her aunts and uncle Beth, Geneva and Perry Satterthwaite.

Mrs. Harold Naser and Mrs. Stuart Costigan's pupils found Miss Satterthwaite a most interesting speaker as she told of her experiences in Morocco, Burma, Ceylon and South Africa.

She told of animals in the game preserve in South Africa and compared the African elephant with the Asian elephant, saying that the African animal is so much larger and more untameable.

She also told of her traveled Siamese cat, who went from England to South Africa.

When asked about her impressions of Tecumseh, Miss Satterthwaite said, "I love it. Each time I come it's a little bit bigger and a little bit nicer. I've been coming home to Tecumseh since I was five-months-old, of course I don't remember that."

"The students were most courteous. I didn't expect them to give me the attention that they did and I very much appreciated it."

Miss Satterthwaite left by plane Friday morning to return to Washington.

Youth Fellowship Plans Skate Party

Nineteen members of the Youth Fellowship of the First Baptist Church attended a roller skating party in Toledo Dec. 28.

They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Glen Griewahn, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gray and Jerry Lewis.

Officers of the Association were elected and a devotional period held.

A junior high dance will be held Friday, Jan. 12, after the game until 11:30 p.m. Refreshments will be sold.

All officers will meet Jan. 21 at 3 p.m. in Adrian for a planning board meeting.

The local BYF planning meeting will be held Thursday, Jan. 11, at 7:30 p.m.

Alcoholism Growing

Alcoholism is growing.

Sixty members and guests of the WSCS of the Methodist Church met Jan. 3 to hear Robert Hammond, executive director of the Michigan Temperance Union, give some startling facts and figures on the problem of over-drinking.

His remarks fell into three catagories.

- Alcohol
- Alcohol problems
- Christian responsibility.

He said that alcohol is packaged for the most eye appeal and convenience. About 76% of all liquor sold in package stores for consumption outside of bars.

The state law says there may be one bar for each 1,500 persons. As a result, the bar owners are attempting to follow the shifting population into urban areas, but they are finding resistance from these new communities.

☆

MR. HAMMOND assured his audience that teen-agers today are most resourceful and can find ways to secure alcohol. More youth are drinking and at an earlier age, he claimed.

Some 5,000 arrests a year are made in Michigan for illegal possesison of liquor by minors.

He said that the drinking driver is the state's greatest concern. Too often there are too few convictions.

Church people must be leaders in coping with these problems of alcohol. Adults need to appreciate the temptations that confront our youth and listen to their attitudes.

Parents should set examples. Controls should be carefully guarded to be sure they are not becoming lax, according to Mr. Hammond.

Mrs. Carl Hale, Mrs. William Powell, Mrs. Roland Brown and Mrs. Kenneth Blumerick were in charge of the program.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Glenn Work, Mrs. Harry Stanifer and Mrs. Lee Kayner.

People Are Honest

A fact that people are generally honest was proven here during the Christmas shopping season.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Geiger of rural Brooklyn, after purchasing some items at Cal's Tog Shop, returned to the store after driving home to report that they believed he had given them too much in change.

After cashing up the next morning, Cal Damon was $10 short and dropped the folks a card. It was the exact amount the Brooklynites had reported, and the weekend they returned the amount to the owner.

"He's resigning."

article in one of the magazines you sent us.

Well, no one relishes the idea of our lochs being used as a base for such things—but it is necessary I suppose and I don't think that sitting down in the street does much good. If I thought it would stop a war—I would do it myself.

I am all for the Four Powers talking—I don't care if they talk forever, so long as we don't go to war. On TV the other night we saw some Americans being interviewed about their attitude towards a war with Russia and at the risk of offending you I must confess I was horrified and almost without exception they said it was time there was a showdown, this is alright for America it is a big country with a greater chance of survival—but we would be wiped out easily.

I remember too vividly the last war and I was only five when it began. The Americans helped us out no end in the last war, but American children and women weren't killed, I myself was taken to the hospital ill with pneumonia as a result of being hustled from bed to an underground shelter in the middle of the night.

Fourteen German planes attack my home town of Aberdeen one night. I would have been about eight at the time and I can remember the crumping sound of every bomb they dropped and I don't want my daughter to go through anything like that.

I know thousands of US servicemen gave their lives in the last war, but what I am trying to say is that American territory has never been bombarded night after night — thus affecting everyone in the country.

I remember you asked for the truth, Phyllis, well that's just how I feel.

GOSH I really must stop here. When you write will you give me your side of all the things I have mentioned in this letter. We do enjoy hearing from you and I solemnly promise never to be so long between letters again.

Thank you both once more for the wonderful Christmas present, we are looking forward eagerly to our next copy.

Love to you all from Miller, Jane and Bea.

P.S. Another reason for the delay, I had jaundice for the third time. I will take a whole spool of pictures soon, but I really have been unorganized.

HE MADE IT—Rick Kureth, director for "You Can't Take It With You," made the Tecumseh Players' tryouts despite a severe back ailment. Helping him review the casting of roles are Kalie Corkery and Ralph Dabe.

Jackson To Field Pro Grid Squad

The Jackson Panthers of the American Football Conference, will play their home games at Western Stadium starting with the 1962 season.

AFC officials granted approval of the stadium and its facilities, located in surburban Jackson, after investigating the site. Plans are to enlarge the seating capacity to 7,500. The Panthers were admitted last month to membership in the conference.

Mayor Bernie Magiera of Jackson told Dale Hedden, AFC commissioner, that the "entire city of Jackson is behind the new team's efforts" and officially welcomed the Panthers "as an important part of the city family."

Phil Giberson, Sr. has been named chairman of the board and Phil Giberson, Jr., is president.

Christmas Still Is In Air

The Tuesday night before Christmas found the members and guests of the Tecumseh Music Club welcomed to the home of Mrs. J. Maynard Mulvaney.

Christmas was truly in the air, along with a crackling fire in the fireplace.

During the short business meeting, each member donated 50c toward the State Hospital Musical Therapy Committee.

Mrs. Fred Oberlin presented a program on "Christmas Music".

Along with some interesting histories of carols, the group sang several.

Mrs. Louis Caterina sang "Gesu Bambino" or "The Infant Jesus" and O Holy Night," accompanied by Mrs. Fred Oberlin.

A trio composed of Mrs. Ashley Chase, Mrs. Ray Sommers, and Mrs. Leland Fogelsong sang 'There's a Song in the Air".

Mrs. Ashley Chase assisted Mrs. Mulvaney in serving refreshments around the ample dining room table, seating all 14 attending.

Gal Kegler Tosses 601 Series Here

Mrs. Donald Rhees of Manchester bowled her first "600" series Jan. 2 at the Airport Bowl.

She put together games of 148, 265 and 188 for a fat 601.

Mrs. Rhees had never even bowled a "500" series and so was understandably elated with her evening's effort.

Mrs. Rhees' average is 148.

Before coming to Tecumseh to bowl, she bowled in Brooklyn. She is married and is employed in Rawsonville.

This is the fourth year that Mrs. Rhees has been on with Johnny's and Bill's Cities Service team in the Women's House League.

This team is at present on the top of the league standings.

Mrs. Rhees highest single game bowled last year was 237.

Pin Tournament Starts Feb. 17

The 25th annual tournament of the Adrian Bowling Association will be held at the Colonial Lanes in Clinton, starting Feb. 17.

Entry blanks are now available and may be obtained from Ted Greenfield, Gene Hudson, Howard Stephens, Walter Morden, H. Hoenig, Ed Goller or from the counter in each bowling establishment.

Entry closing date is Feb. 3 and entries will be treated on a first come first serve basis.

Tecumseh Meets Lincoln Friday on Home Floor

By JIM LINCOLN

After a nip and tuck battle for over three periods, Milan staged a nine-point spree midway in the fourth stanza to defeat Tecumseh, 63-49.

The Indians, 2-3 in the Huron League, hope to even the mark this Friday night with Ypsilanti Lincoln here.

Coach Doug Murdoch's five held a two-point edge over Milan at the end of the first period, but then fell behind in the second quarter and never once again gained the lead.

Accuracy at the free throw line paid off for the visitors who outshot the Indians by only a 20-17 margin from the floor. Fourteen of Milan's 22 points in the final stanza came from the foul line.

Lonnie Head of Milan paced the scorers with 23 points. Tecumseh's Norm Tucker and John Britton tallied 14 and 13 points respectively.

The Tecumseh reserves also bowed, 55-47, after pulling to within four points in fourth quarter.

Jim Newell was high point man for the Indians with 16.

Mrs. Osterhout was born Oct. 12, 1874, the daughter of John and Wilhelmenia Miller Pocklington.

She is survived by two sons, Thirlow and Harold, both of Britton a daughter, Mrs. George LaBelle of Detroit.

Three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Sisson and Mrs. Edna Underwood, both of Britton, and Mrs. Bertha Oliver of Belleglade, Fla. a brother, LaVerne Pocklington of Britton; nine grandchildren and four great great grandchildren also survive.

Her husband, three brothers and two sisters preceded her in death.

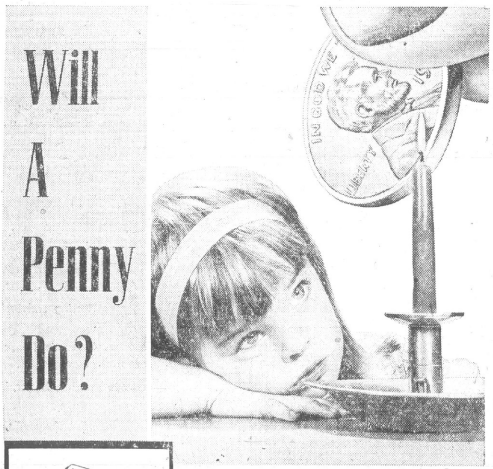
The Rev. George Luciani officiated and burial was in the Ridgeway cemetery.

Circle I Will Select Officers

Members of Circle I of the Presbyterian Church have postponed their meeting until Tuesday, Jan. 16.

Mrs. Carlton Cook will be the hostess and an election of officers will be held.

For All We Hold Sacred . . . Attend Church



"The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Proverbs	12	5-9
Monday	Proverbs	16	1-5
Tuesday	Isaiah	55	6-11
Wednesday	Jeremiah	29	10-14
Thursday	Psalms	119	9-16
Friday	Philippians	4	1-7
Saturday	1 Peter	3	8-12

What is she thinking about, as she watches the flickering candle flame? There is a far away look in her eyes that makes one wonder. Yet, if she were offered a penny for her thoughts, she would probably only shrug and say, "Oh, nothing," in that maddening little way children have.

Watching her absorbed in her reverie is like an illustration of how closed one mind is from another. No one can ever know completely what another person is thinking. A thought expressed out loud all too often leaves something out of the telling. And most thoughts are never expressed at all.

Even should we wish to, we cannot entirely share our minds with one another. But we can share them with God. In the Church we can find the way to tell Him all our hopes, our fears, our loves, our angers, our pride, our pain.

Go to church this Sunday—and turn your own thoughts into prayer.

How many "vitamin pills" per bottle?

Some vitamin preparations seem like bargains. Lots of capsules per dollar. But that's not the way medications should be measured. The true measure is potency—how much active, beneficial ingredient per dollar. When you measure this way, you will find that the real "bargains" are in your registered pharmacy. Before you buy vitamin preparations from a nonprofessional source, check with your physician. It pays.

Study Schools

BRITTON—A complete study of two school districts—Britton-Macon and Deerfield—is being made in a joint effort.

The boards of eduction met jointly Monday to discuss the project and each voted $600 to do the job.

The effort will start in two weeks.

A citizens committee will be formed to help go over the programs of Britton and Deerfield. It will be made up of 17 persons from each district.

The area study will attempt to find out:

► If not, what other solutions to better education in these schools could be considered.

Residents in both districts will soon be asked to submit nominations for the 34-person committee. Eventual selection of its members will be made by the two boards.

Teenagers Help Kathy Celebrate

BRITTON — Thirty-two teenagers helped Kathleen Bailey celebrate her 16th birthday Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bailey.

Kathy received many lovely gifts.

Ice cream and cake was served and games were played.

After the rugs were rolled up the kids enjoyed a sock hop dance for the rest of the evening.

Chapter Readies Display

By DAVID HOUSEMAN

BRITTON—FFA members has started work on the educational exhibit that will be displayed at Farmers' Week, which opens Jan. 30 on the Michigan State Campus.

The topic of this exhibit will deal with the many uses of corn.

Each chapter in the State of Michigan is allowed one exhibit. These exhibits may be either 58" or 117" in length and will be judged as separate classes.

All must contain their own background. All paintings of signs and posters used in the exhibits must be the work of chapter members.

These exhibits will be judged on two main points, whether or not the story of the exhibit is related to vocational agriculture and how attractive the exhibit is.

Under these two points the judges will look for such things as the clarity of the idea, the accuracy of the information, the way it is constructed and how well it is balanced.

The chapter is also planning to take this exhibit to the Michigan State Fair during August.

DR. HOWARD KEITHLEY

Special Services Planned

BRITTON—Dr. Howard Keithley, Eastern Michigan Representative of the General Association of Regular Baptist Churches, will conduct special services at the Britton Baptist Church.

Murph Reports

By DONALD MURPHY
Executive Secretary, Chamber of Commerce

A Chamber of Commerce Office is an unusually busy place at all times, but the last three days of last week it has been even more busy.

At exactly 10 o'clock Friday morning, a distinguished visitor dropped in I was almost floored with what this person came in to tell me.

It seems that the roads became so bad the evening before that her party decided to stay in our fair city instead of continue their trip. They registered in at one of our motels.

In the morning they inquired about breakfast and were told of a local restaurant, so they strolled there—it was too slippery to drive—to partake of a meal.

After I had heard all about the good treatment at the motel, the directions to breakfast, the meal, the visitor went on to tell of the conversation that was going on in the place.

Patrons talked about everything from the school busses, pro and con as to whether they should or should not have ventured out or not, to the school's financial problem, to the loan that had been turned down, to the high taxes, to the unhealthy climate for business enjoyed here in Tecumseh.

The topics waxed so hot, the out-of-towner was actually frightened that there was going to be a regular old fashioned fist fight—started over who was to blame for the set-back received by the TAIDC.

Everyone had their say about how it should have been done, also about who had called the turn for the bank, what was this committee thinking of when they even went to our local bank.

It has been only a matter of weeks since The Herald carried a series of articles concerning loose talk in town being the reason that a small industry landed in Clinton instead of Tecumseh when they were so satisfied to come here, and here we are right back at it.

Then the part about WHY DID THEY, OR WHY DIDN'T THEY concerning the TAIDC sorta got under my skin.

Here we have a group of people, plain, honest, hard-working citizens of Tecumseh donating time and efforts, along with their talents and money, to try to do something for Tecumseh, for you and me, critized because someone's hind sight is much greater than their foresight.

Why in September, when the pictures appeared in The Herald concerning a new industry for Tecumseh, there was nothing but praise for these men, such comments as "Why aren't there more like them" were thrown around.

Then when they have gone up to securing a participating loan — something over which they had no control—and running into a snag they are criticized.

This, three short months since their praises were being sung so loudly.

If it is any consolation for you people who like to set back and criticize others efforts let me tell you this: "This group have not given up on this new plant and if there is any way to get it then look for it here."

Just do them and other citizen in Tecumseh a favor — either come up with something constructive or keep quiet, especially in a public place where some guest of the city might be listening.

AYES: Bonner, Hamilton, Easton, Mackin, Schwartz

NAYS: Welch

Motion carried .

Motion Welch and seconded Hamilton to adopt the following resolution.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS it has come to our attention than an "Action-Information Committee' meeting in Jackson, Michigan has recommended the establishment of a three County College for Jackson, Hillsdale and Lenawee Counties; and

WHEREAS the financing of such an educational institution would require one and a half mill increase in all taxation throughout the counties; and would continue as a perpetual burden to the taxpayer; and

WHEREAS this area is already adequately served by institutions of higher learning within quick and easy accessibility, viz: Adrian College, Jackson Junior College, Eastern Michigan University, Siena Heights, Hillsdale College and the University of Michigan and

WHEREAS the establishment of such a proposed institution would be of no benefit to this area in that it would be more distant than some of said alternative institutions; and

WHEREAS the successful promotion of this program would mean that this immediate area could not expect to obtain any institution of higher learning, which would be immediately accessible and owned by the local citizens, for decades to come; and

WHEREAS a doubt exists as to the present need for further institutions of this sort as opposed to those which teach trades and occupational pursuits; and

WHEREAS this Municipality is firmly opposed to any increase in taxation for any cause whatsoever and is, in fact, pledged to reduction in taxes by all means possible.

NOW THEREFORE the City of Tecumseh resolves that:

This Municipality be on record as firmly and unalterably opposed to the programming of any such three-County College in general, and equally opposed to any increase in taxation for any cause whatsoever.

RESOLUTION DECLARED ADOPTED.

AYES: Unanimous

NAYS: None

Attest: Naomi Sallows, Clerk

Motion Welch and seconded Mackin to accept the following ordinance for the first reading.

ORDINANCE

WHEREAS Registration facilities have been maintained by the City of Tecumseh for bicycles for a number of years; and

WHEREAS such Registration facilities are of aid in the identification of lost or stolen bicycles and further permit the Police Department to ascertain that bicycles are in good operating condition: and

WHEREAS it is now decided that such procedures be made mandatory by Municipal Ordinance.

NOW THEREFORE THE CITY OF TECUMSHE ORDAINS (Effective 1 March 1962):

Section 3.575 REGISTRATION OF BICYCLES. It shall be illegal to own or operate a bicycle within the City of Tecumseh unless the same has been registered with the Police Department for which the application shall pay a fee of 50c annually and shall receive in exchange therefore an identification sticker to be placed upon the bicycle. The Police Department shall not issue such a sticker unless it is satisfied that the particular bicycle is in good operating condition.

Motion Schwartz and seconded Mackin to adopt the following resolution.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS The Supreme Ruler of the Universe, in his infinite wisdom, has taken from Tecumseh one of it's beloved citizens and

WHEREAS during his life time has given unsparingly of his time and substance to the welfare of the community through close association and cooperation with many of the projects that have contributed to make Tecumseh a better place in which to live, such as serving the youth of the City,

WHEREAS, THE CITY OF TECUMSEH deeply mourns his passing.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

We, the Common Council of the City of Tecumseh, Michigan, Memorialize CHARLES F. SAGE as a civic minded citizen of this community, whose loss we deeply mourn and whose wise council will be sorely missed.

FURTHER BE IT RESOLVED: that a copy of this resolution be spread on the minutes of this meeting and that a copy of this resolution be sent to his family with our deepest sympathy.

Motion carried unanimously.

RESOLUTION DECLARED ADOPTED:

Attest: Mayor. Marold Easton
Attest: Clerk: Naomi Sallows
Dated: January 2, 1962

Motion Schwartz and seconded Hamilton the meeting adjourn. Motion carried unanimously.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

MOTHER NATURE'S HOLIDAY FESTIVITIES

Well, it's over for another year. Gradually things are getting back to normal, but my, weren't the holidays fine! Everything was so wonderful and as the final touch to an already perfect thing, wasn't it nice of Mother Nature to favor us with a white Christmas?

Our west window looks directly up the creek. The snow, especially the heavy one Saturday before Christmas, turned the window picture into a life sized Christmas card. It was lovely.

It was a busy Christmas card, too — birds were everywhere. The feeding tray almost groaned under its heavy load of sunflower seeds, suet and scratch-feed and from morning until night a happy throng feasted.

A big beautiful bluejay led the way — after finding the table "set" he immediately started summoning all his relatives.

Screaming the invitation at the top of his loud raucous voice, it wasn't long until he had every bluejay in town streaking through our window-picture.

At the feeder, on the fence, in the trees, on the ground, along the creek — oh, they investigated everything.

Their brilliant color flashing through the white snow-covered Christmas card made exciting and thrilling watching.

☆

ADDING a light-hearted carefree touch were the pert little tufted titmice and the even littler black-capped chickadees.

Any sudden burst of sunshine was greeted by the titmice with their funny squeaky salutes.

The cocky chickadees, true to form, seemed at their best when the wind whipped the snow into an almost blizzard.

Mr. and Mrs. Hairey Woodpecker apparently spent the holidays visiting elsewhere, but their small cousins, the Downeys were much in evidence. They charitably shared the suet piles with the nuthatches.

The Upside-downers, by the way, were full of Christmas fellowship — Mr. and Mrs. Nuthatch ate all their holiday meals together. At our feeders seeing these two together at this time of year is a rare thing.

But the best ornaments of all, ah you may well imagine, were the cardinals. Mother Nature really out-did herself and used six of these lovelies to decorate our window Christmas card.

Never do we cease marveling at the beauty of a cardinal flitting among snow-covered branches or hopping over the white-carpeted ground — one or two are wonderful, but just imagine, six!

☆

WITH RED BIRDS around, we of course dug a little deeper into the sunflower supply and tried to pick out the best, the fullest heads.

The effort was appreciated and often we could look out upon a feeder hosting one, and rarely two, cardinals.

I understand that on Pottawatamie St. some of the red boys are devoted husbands throughout the whole year, but around here only in the spring does arrogant Papa Cardinal humble himself.

The few times we have noticed a male and female eating together, it has been either early in the morning or late in the afternoon — they are almost fugitive about it, seemingly ashamed of being caught doing what the others don't do.

CARDINALS are, of course, notorious early and late feeders even when not trying to hide a clandestine love affair.

They visit our feeders when it is almost dark —there will be just barely enough light for us to see that we have a visitor and only by his round body and top-knot do we know it is a cardinal, plus the fact that only they are around at such times.

So it is that during the past few weeks here has been much excitement and many thrills inside, but there has also been great fun outside.

We thoroughly enjoyed watching Mother Nature's holiday festivities.

JCs Start Collection of Toys

Kenneth Zornow, chairman of the Jaycee toy collection for needy youngsters, announced Tuesday that the Jaycees are soliciting for toys now to be used for Christmas 1962.

Storage is available and members will have plenty of time to make necessary repairs before future holidays.

Mr. Zarnow said that he understood that some families were discarding good used toys that had been replaced by new ones at Christmas time.

He suggested that donations may be left at the fire barn to be picked up by Jaycee members.

He also said that the group was pleased with the fine response this year and that most of the toys were in good condition or could be easily repaired.

HERE ARE 2 OF THE NEW JET-SMOOTH CHEVROLETS

JET-SMOOTH RIDE CHEVROLET

WHICH ONE IS THE CONVERTIBLE AND WHICH THE HARDTOP?

Top one's our new Impala Sport Coupe whose steel roof line is a dead ringer for the Impala Convertible's below. But after rich new styling, what? In glamor and go, comfort and craftsmanship, here's all you'd reasonably expect of an expensive car. Except the expense. Slip inside a Jet-smooth Chevrolet, relax and just notice how good you feel. Ready for action? Just flick the key and let 'er purr (your choice of two standard engines—a 135-hp 6 or 170-hp V8—or optional-at-extra-cost V8's way up to a 409-hp mile-shrinker). That gentle cradling motion you enjoy is Jet-smooth ride at work. And the rich interior and neat craftsmanship are Body by Fisher at work. Have your dealer give you the whole story. That's the work he loves best.

Grosbeaks Are Rare City Guests

A flock of about 25 to 30 grosbeaks were in the city for the holidays.

Reports came from the Don Nettleman residence at 408 N. Union St. and from the Bill Mackey at 6767 Mill Highway.

Mrs. Nettleman saw them Christmas Day and Mrs. Mackey and her family were treated to a 45-minute visit of the flock Tuesday.

The family was thrilled to see the birds eating from their feeder. Upon looking in the bird book they found this description.

"Grosbeaks — 7 to 8 inches. Forehead, shoulders and underneath, clear yellow. Dull yellow on lower back and sides of head and throat breast, olive brown, crown, tail and wings black ladder with white secondary feathers. Bill—heavy, blunt and yellow. Female—brownish gray and yellow, blackish with some white feathers."

Bride-to-Be Judy Schultz Honored Guest

A bridal shower for Judy Schultz was held recently at the home of Mrs. Earl Pennington in Ridgeway with Mrs. Nilwen Bishop as co-hostess.

The marriage of Miss Schultz to Gayle Eaton was an event of Dec. 30 at the Methodist Church in Ridgeway.

Twenty guests enjoyed games with prizes awarded.

Louis Pennington and Mrs. John Rundell presided at the serving table decorated in the bridal scheme of green and white. Pine and candles were featured as the guests were served in candlelight.

PERFECT SLEDDING WEATHER — It was bitterly cold Sunday afternoon as Dr. Al Phelan and his two youngsters, Ann Marie and Jimmie, went for a sled ride on the icy sidewalk in front of their home at 405 Seneca St. They and hundreds of others enjoyed the blustery weather, which coated streets, trees and lawns with a flashy coating.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By DAVE KLAVON

The new dining hall being constructed on the Boysville campus is looking better each day.

The window frames have been put in and glass has been installed.

Most of the doors are now on with the completion of installation of heating units, heat will be piped into the building.

√

The Boysville Glee Club went travelling again on December 18 when they sang in the corridors of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, in Ann Arbor for the Sisters, nurses, and patients there.

On Dec. 20 the glee club presented a few numbers in Herrick Memorial Hospital.

On the way home, the singers stopped at Ray Herrick's house and gave out with a couple of rousing carols, for which Mr. Herrick thanked the boys heartily and wished them all a very Merry Christmas.

√

Annual Candlelight Banquet held at Boysville just before Christmas vacation began was a huge success.

After the meal each class president gave a short speech to wish all the faculty and staff a Merry Christmas from the students.

The dinner was prepared by Mr. and Mrs. James Parker and Mr. and Mrs. William Wahl, Boysville's cooks. The boys showed their appreciation for the fine meal by applauding the cooks loudly.

The Aggies of Sand Creek beat the Fighting Knights of Boysville, 58-40, on Boysville's court Dec. 15.

The Knights, unable to get the ball through the hoop on most of their shots, were down 38-11 at the half.

Fouls played a big part in hurting the Knights.

High scorer for Boysville was Roger Jozwiak with 17 points.

In the JV contest, the Aggie JV beat Boysville's Junior Knights, 49-35.

High scorer for the Knight's JV was Bob Stuart with 12 points. Al Padilla was next with eight. Fox of Sand Creek hit for 17.

The Boysville Fighting Knights lost their fourth game in a row to the Minutemen of Deerfield, 65-29.

It was a night in which the Knights couldn't stop the Minutemen's full court press, which caused the Knights to lose control of the ball several times. Poor shooting at the foul line hurt, too as the Knights put in only 5 of 20 attempts.

The Junior Varsity of Boysville started out with a bang at Deerfield, leading at the end of the first quarter 16-9, but by halftime the Junior Minutemen had not only cut the lead down, but were ahead 24-18. The Boysville five never caught up, falling 52-36.

Bill "Bugs" Moran of Boysville was high scorer with 12 points, and Bob Stuart hit for eight.

Students arrived back on campus Jan. 2 for the beginning of classes. Stories of things done and seen while on vacation fill the rec. halls each day.

Next vacation for the boys is a weekend, beginning Jan. 26.

√

New floor tile was installed in one of the classrooms during Christmas time to replace some defective material put in when the school was first built. The tile puts a new light on study in that room.

Ag Students Kept Busy

(Editor's note: This is another in the series of articles on the Tecumseh high school program.)

The Agriculture Program is based on the census data of the county, then modified to fit the needs in Tecumseh.

Instruction is centered around the main crops and livestock in this area. In Agriculture Science I, introductory courses in crops and livestock are given as a basis of instruction for future years.

Instruction is also given in related occupations of agriculture since many students taking agriculture plan to work in related fields such as greenskeeping, landscape work, elevator, or implement or machinery activities.

In the 10 grade, technical information on crops and livestock are stressed and the occupations in this area are discussed with the class.

The 11 grade, courses are based on soils development, conservation, fertilizing, crop rotations, soil productivity balances.

In the 12 grade, farm management and agriculture economics take up most of the areas of instruction.

FARM MECHANICS is taught as a separate class in the 11 and 12 grades. The class meets in the shop one hour per day for the two years.

The areas of instruction include: farm shop work, farm power and machinery, farm buildings and conveniences, rural electrification and soil and water management.

The boys build and repair farm equipment in the shop in any of these areas.

☆

THE ADULT FARMER class is another part of the agriculture program. A series of 10 or more meetings is given during the winter months along the lines of interests of the group.

Any farmer in the school district is welcome to attend these technical meetings.

The Future Farmers of America is an integral part of the agriculture program. The fundamental goals of the oganization is to develop leadership, citizenship and cooperation.

All students are required to have one or more projects per year along their interests, for practical experience.

Each student is visited by the instuctor approximately three times each year to assist the boys in record keeping or with practices on the boys project.

Some boys are placed in a business or on a farm as placement where having a project is impossible or not practical for their interests.

☆

EACH YEAR the new FFA officers attend a two-day training camp to teach them the duties of their office for the coming year.

The Future Farmers finance all of their own activities, and in a way, they are paying for their own education.

Some of their group activities are:

► Operate 14 acres land
► Raise 300 to 400 broilers a year
► Have seven registered Dorset Ewes, Duroc Pig chain with as many as 11 sows
► Raise five feeder pigs per year.

This year the boys started a 30 ewe commercial sheep project. The boys own a truck, a tractor and full line of equipment except for harvesting work.

In addition they have a recreational educational trip to the Livestock International Exposition in Chicago every other year.

THE AGRICULTURE Program is reimbursed by the state at 38% of the teachers salary, and 40% of the agriculture mileage.

The teacher is certified under the Smith-Hughes Program. The state also assists with any problems concerning the program which we request help on.

The department is visited by a state consultant at least once a year.

The agriculture program is a vocational program and officers the needs of the community to both rural and city folk.

The program is not only for farm people, but for any student interested in agriculture and its related occupations.

Carole Ross Is Guest of Honor

Mrs. John Babcock held a bridal shower Jan. 3 to honor Carole Ross, whose marriage to Stanley E. House will be an event of Jan. 13.

Luncheon was served to eight guests by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Walter Dailey.

2 Injured Wrestling at School

Two students were hurt in gym classes Wednesday, Jan. 10 at Tecumseh Junior High School

Richard Bilby, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dow Bilby, suffered a broken nose when another student's elbow banged into his eye during a wrestling match.

He was hospitalized immediately and then released Sunday.

Gary Randolph, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Randolph of 9764 Matthews Rd., suffered a fractured right elbow in wrestling classes the same day.

He was taken to St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor where a pin was placed through the bone and the elbow placed in a cast.

Both boys are eighth grade students.

VOL. 111 — ONE HUNDRED TWELFTH YEAR — NUMBER 15 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JANUARY 18, 1962 | 16 PAGES — TEN CENTS A COPY

Trip to Florida Will Be Given

Any couple for a one-week March vacation in Miami Beach?

First off, you get two, round-trip tickets to fly Delta Airlines.

A limousine picks you up at the plane and skoots you to a luxery hotel, the Monte Carlo, Collins Ave. and 38th St., right on the ocean. You will be welcomed by Manager Charles Trice.

"Seven fun-filled days and six glorious nights," Mr. Trice tells you — all paid.

Too good to believe?

Not at all. It could happen to you.

Someone, among the more than 11,000 readers of The Herald, is going to win such a trip.

There is nothing to buy, or write.

It's a free drawing arranged for by The Herald in cooperation with Tecumseh merchants.

THE CONTEST will last eight weeks, starting with this edition.

Participating merchants will be running coupons in each issue of this weekly for that period of time. All you do to enter is fill in the coupons and drop them into containers at the store, whose name is printed on them.

Coupons dropped into boxes at the incorrect store will be ruled invalid.

So get busy, clip the coupons and take them downtown right away.

Although the trip won't be given away until March 17, entrants should get as many coupons in as soon as possible because weekly drawing will be held for smaller prizes.

Winners need not be present in any case. Weekly drawings are going to be held at 9 p.m. in the Strand Theatre.

All coupons of weekly winners will be immediately drop-

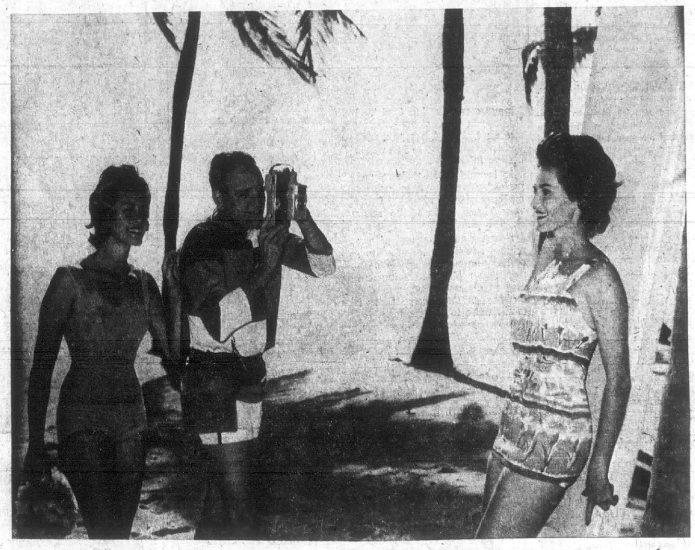
This Could Be You!



PUT YOURSELF IN THIS PICTURE—It's possible, you know. Tecumseh merchants are going to give away a one-week vacation for two at Miami Beach. Winners will be flown down and back via Delta Airlines, staying on the beach at the Monte Carlo Hotel. You might be the big winner. In addition, weekly drawings will be held for smaller prizes.

$180,000 Given to St. Peter's Church

A gift of $180,000 to St. Peter's Episcopal Church has been offered by Mr. and Mrs. Orville Farver and others for a new church building.

The Rev. Frank Hawthorne announced the proposed gift to the vestry and at a general church meeting Monday night.

Church officials understand the gift is for a new church building and not for restoration of the present structure, the oldest in Michigan and second oldest Episcopal church west of the Allegheny Mountains.

Whether the parish accepts the gift for a new church or continues with plans to restore the present church will be decided at a parish meeting to be called within the next few weeks.

It is expected that a new church would cost $210,000 and balance of the cost would be made up from donaitons by other members of the parish.

For several years, the vestry has planned a fund-raising drive for restoration of the present building and had expected to kickoff the drive in February.

An architect's restoration cost was approximately $80,000 and in-

Decision on Industrial Loan Reversed by Bank

Tecumseh's United Savings Bank agreed Wednesday to purchase and participate with the Small Business Administration in a $45,000 loan with Tecumseh Area Industrial Development Association.

The local bank approved purchasing $45,000 participation in the SBA loan for the purpose of erecting an 82,000-square foot building here for Faraday, Inc.

The Tecumseh bank loan of $45,000 will be secured, in addition to a portion of the first mortgage with SBA, by a $35,000 cash escrow deposit.

This week's decision is a reversal of the bank's previous position.

Approval and participation by the local bank now enables TAIDC to proceed with financing arrangements with SBA at the Detroit office.

Whether other financial arrangement possibilities will be continued are not yet known.

Jack Osburn, president of TAIDC, was in Detroit Wednesday to confer with SBA and to process necessary papers.

The bank's decision to participate came late Tuesday afternoon at the new board of director's meeting.

4 Directors Named

Four new directors and a new chairman of the board were elected Tuesday at the annual shareholders' meeting of the United Savings Bank.

Those chosen — thereby increasing the number of directors on the board from 11 to 13— were L. M. Hubbard, James C. Beardsley, John J. Walper and Karl Schneider.

E. M. Campbell, a director of the bank since its beginning in 1933, resigned from the board during the meeting.

Robert H. Moore was selected chairman of the board, a new position created by the directors.

Other changes approved were:

J. L. Stoner, from assistant vice-president, to vice-president.

Bernice I. Duncan, from assistant cashier, to vice-president.

Other officers are:

John Thompson, president.

Glenn VanDenbergh, vice president.

A. D. Woodward, vice-president.

M. H. Downing, cashier.

Other members of the board are Ned Baldwin, R. G. Conlin, Mr. Downing, R. W. Herrick, Mr. Moore, Lester C. Rogers, Perry Satterthwaite, Mills Swick and Mr. Thompson.

☆

THE meeting was attended by many other shareholders after it was learned last week that there would be discussions on policies and new directors were under consideration and to be added.

Long & Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

Please don't make fun of internal revenue officials.

They're a sincere, hard-working, dedicated bunch.

Devotion to serve a complaining American public is their often-times unhappy lot.

But they do it — willingly, with courage and sincerity.

Meet Wilbur C. Henderson, a fellow who labored for his country in this capacity during the Depression.

A typical public servant, Wilbur stood for Big Government — and don't you forget it.

But one day, Wilbur met his match. Actually, more than his match, a chap named Grandpa Vanderhof.

Wilbur never was the same after that encounter, from which he left a frightened, blubbering shell of a man.

Now that you've met Wilbur, are you all confused?

Well, I can't blame you. I'm a little confused myself. You see, Wilbur C. Henderson is a stage name, mine for two nights and one matinee next month.

Wilbur is a minor character in "You Can't Take It With You" and after much mental anguish and debate, I read for the part and to my amazement was tapped for the role.

Actually, I thought of myself as perfect for Tony, the youthful, vibrant male lead, who sweeps the pretty heroine off her feet. But they gave me Wilbur and my job now is to struggle with about six minutes of dialogue.

Those fellows Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman did a terrific job with this play. Their words seem so ordinary at first reading but as the play comes to life and the actors time their efforts the way the authors meant them to, those words dance with good humor.

How well they did their job, Messers Hart and Kaufman probably never realized.

Twenty-four years ago, when the play was beginning its phenomenal string of performances, a New York dentist, one Dr. Robert Murray, Sr., of Elmira, saw the show.

He was convulsed by it, but more than that, he heard a probing message in the final scene of the third act.

Grandpa: Well, what I feel is that Tony's too nice a boy to wake up 20 years from now with nothing in his life but stocks and bonds.

Kirby (Tony's dad): How's that?

Grandpa: Mixed up and unhappy, the way you are.

Kirby: I beg your pardon, Mr. Vanderhof. I am a very happy man.

Grandpa: I don't think so. What do you think you get your indigestion from? Happiness? No sir. You get it because most of your time is spent doing things you don't want to do.

Kirby: I don't do anything I don't want to do.

Grandpa: Yes, you do. You

The Week's QUIP

Many people could retire comfortable on what their experience has cost them.

Dream of Fairyland

Mrs. Richard Kureth out of the goodness of her heart, using a paint brush and paint furnished by the Hospital Auxiliary, has transformed the Pediatrics section of the hospital into a child's dream of fairyland.

Alice in Wonderland, Wynken, Blynken and Nod, Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum and others smile down on the youngsters.

The Auxiliary has on order for use in Pediatrics, dishes decorated with nursery rhyme characters to continue the story book theme.

Mrs. Kureth and her family have lived in the Tecumseh area for the past three years and are now residing at 209 Adrian St.

Mr. Kureth is a commercial artist and is presently directing the new play being put on by the Tecumseh Players entitled "You Can't Take It With You".

The Kureth's have three children, all girls, ages 20 months to eight years.

Mrs. Kureth's formal education in art was obtained at Eastern Michigan University. Prior to their coming to the Tecumseh area, the family spent six years in Germany, where Mr. Kureth was with the army a short time and wrote advertising copy for Porsche Auto Co., in its ad efforts in American publications.

While there, Mrs. Kureth had the opportunity to study her favorite subject informally and worked with such artists as Fritz Schandt, a well known sculptor.

She is now teaching an art class Saturday mornings from 10 to 11:30 at the Tecumseh Community Center for children from seven through 12 years of age.

They study drawing, painting and art appreciation. She will also have a class for teenagers in the future if there are enough interested.

The Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary greatly appreciates the many hours spent by Mrs. Kureth at the hospital ahtl extends a sincere thanks.

Mrs. Kureth said, "We have lived most of our lives in Michigan, but we just love Tecumseh".

120 Seniors See Session Of Con-Con

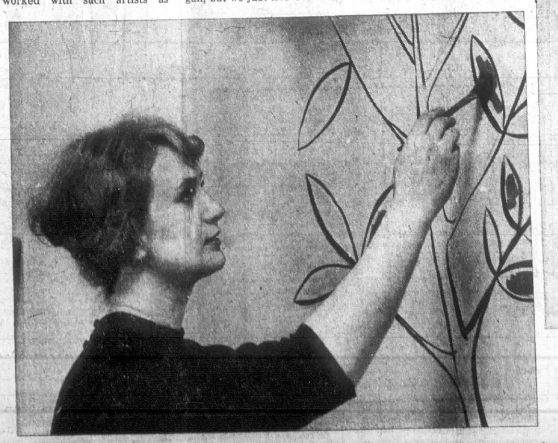
About 120 senior students of government and economic classes of the Tecumseh High School will attend the general session of Con-Con in Lansing Wednesday with their teachers, Wayne Reganall and Don Brazee.

They will sit in on committee meetings. Charles Figy and Clyne Durst, Lenawee County delegates, will speak to them at luncheon.

The Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club have each donated $60 to help defer the cost of the transportation for the trip.

The American Legion and the Business and Professional Women's Club donated $10 each.

The teachers hope that other groups will also help with the expense of the trip so that cost per student may be kept at $1.50.



You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Just 180 years ago on Jan. 18 Daniel Webster was born in Salisbury, N. H. He grew up to be a famed American orator and statesman.

Ben Franklin was born Jan. 17, 1706, Robert E. Lee on Jan. 19, 1807 and Stonewall Jackson Jan. 21, 1824.

Well, this is a week of famous birthday anniversaries. Happy birthday to all those young Tecumseh citizens, who have their anniversaries this week also.

Perhaps in another 180 years we will speak in awed tones of Brenda Gallant, Jan Felton, Cathy Lask, Richard Milosh, Terry Bates or Beverly Eggleston.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kempf returned to their home after spending one month at Sanford, Fla. visiting her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Uhr. While there they attended the baptismal ceremonies for their granddaughter, Vanna Lee, 20 months old.

Mrs. Garnet Badder of Blissfield, Mrs. Kathryn Hunt, Mrs. Enna Whaley and Mrs. Robert Hunt attended the Branch County Association meeting held in Coldwater Friday.

Mrs. Howard Everhart entered St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor for medical treatment Saturday.

Marie Lachenschmidt of Milwaukee has returned to her home after spending 10 days with Mrs. Eddie Kirkland and her family.

The Rev. and Mrs. Blair Bashore were recent guests of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Kroske of Ypsilanti. While there, the Kroske's little boy demonstrated his new walking ability.

Mr. and Mrs. John Niedermier of Munger Rd. report that their son, Richard, was one in the four companies to move into new brick barracks at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. Training Center.

Chuckie Mudgett was a weekend guest of Bernard Riordan.

Dick Hyatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hyatt, has returned to Camp Pendleton, Cal. after spending a furlough with his parents. He expects to go to Okinawa soon.

Showdown Battle Will Be Friday

BRITTON — A crucial River Raisin League test comes Friday night for the undefeated Britton-Macon Tories.

Coach Sam Hamilton's squad will meet Deerfield on the Tecumseh court.

It's a home game for Deerfield, which has only a small floor and yet wouldn't switch to the torie home layout.

Thus, Tecumseh's neutral hardwood was selected for the battle.

The Tories warmed up for the fray Friday, taking Whiteford, 70-38, for Britton's sixth victory.

Phil Benedict and Ken Southwell each flipped in 16 points to pace the Torie offensive, which boasted a 37% shooting accuracy in the game, 27 out of 72 attempts.

Jerry Roberts Is Now Partner of Del King

Jerry Roberts, formerly of Detroit, purchased half-interest Jan. 1 and is now a partner with Delbert King in the King-Roberts Insurance Agency.

He has 14 years experience in insurance, six years as a casualty fieldman and one year as casualty manager for the Great American Insurance Company at Detroit.

He also spent seven years with the Royal Insurance Co., in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts moved here during the holidays and are now living at 705 Outer Dr.

They have four children, two girls and two boys, with the boys now attending St. Elizabeth elementary school.

John Surratt Guest Speaker at Study Club

John Surratt, manager of the Tecumseh Branch of the Adrian Federal Savings and Loan Association, was the speaker Thursday evening at the meeting of the Child Study Club No. 2.

His topic was "Money, the Root of Good or Evil."

He spoke concerning children's allowances, saying that they depend a great deal on the individual family group.

Mrs. Richard Lask introduced the speaker, Mrs. Stanley Cook, hostess, assisted the co-hostesses, Mrs. Russell Williams and Mrs. George Burkhard, in serving cherry angel food cake and whipped cream.

The meeting Feb. 8 will be held at the home of Mrs. Williams.

said last night that at the end of a week in Wall Street you're pretty near crazy. Why do you keep on doing it?

Kirby: Why do I keep on — why, that's my business. A man can't give up his business.

Grandpa: Why not? You've got all the money you need. You can't take it with you.

Kirby: That's a very easy thing to say, Mr. Vanderhof. But I have spent my entire life building up my business.

Grandpa: And what's it got you? Same kind of mail every morning, same kind of deals, same kind of meetings, same dinners at night, same indigestion. Where does the fun come in? Don't you think there ought to be something more, Mr. Kirby? You must have wanted more than that when you started out. We haven't got too much time, you know — any of us."

In the audience, Dr. Murray was so moved by this, that despite the fact he was only in his Forties he began making plans to retire, which he did two years later.

He still does a little dentistry, but mostly is enjoying things he wants to do.

Every once in a while he gets to our city to visit with his son, one of our local dentists, especially when there's a Tecumseh Players' production.

I'm sure Dr. Murray, Sr. will be on hand for the local production of "You Can't Take It With You" and probably relive an evening 24 years ago — thanking Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman for their wise advice.

Exchange Students To Speak

The Tecumseh Monday Club will meet Monday, Jan. 22, at St. Peter's Parish House instead of at the Community Center, as listed in the year books.

Mrs. Robert Bonner will present a program on education, with foreign exchange students as speakers.

$180,000 Given to St. Peter's Church

cluded gutting the building, installing a new foundation, floors, joists

If a new church is planned and the $180,000 gift accepted, the vestry may ask the parish to approve a new rectory, which is now 80 years old and has been in constant need of repairs for many years.

A building committee appointed by the vestry includes Lawrence Blum, Russell Cheever, Orville Farver, Dr. Richard Hammel and the Rev. Mr. Hawthorne, as an ex-officio member.

Four new vestry members were elected by the Parish at the annual vestry meeting: Keith Bailey, Mrs. P. G. Colgrove, Glenn Driscoll and James Osburn.

Retiring under the rotation system are Wilbur Andrews, Russell Cooper, Bruce Corley and George McCombs.

Neil DePuy Finds It's Real Thrill To Sponsor Youth

Pak-Ki-Ok is a little 12-year-old Korean girl, born Oct. 27, 1949 at Jang sung-gun, Chulla Namdo, Korea.

Her father, an educational official, was killed in 1950, by the Communists because he was master of a primary school.

Her mother was killed during the Korean War.

Pak-Ki-Ok was cared for by another teacher until the teacher became sick, then the child was taken to the "Treasure of Truth Orphanage" in March, 1961.

Neil DePuy, of 708 Ternes Rd., is sponsoring Pak-Ki-Ok at the orphanage. He says,

"Before I sponsored this little girl I checked the Everett Swanson Evangelistic Ass'n Inc., 4848 North Leonard Dr., Chicago 31, Illinois.

"I found out that the Rev. Swanson and his wife have, since January, 1951, helped to establish 108 Orphanages in Korea and that $8 per month or $96 per year will give one of these orphans a home, clothing, food and an education.

"Anyone interested please write to the above address and get all the information. It gives you a wonderful feeling of usefulness," he adds.

Mr. DePuy shares with Herald readers a recent letter that he received from his "adopted" daughter.

December 28, 1961

Dear Father,

I was so happy to get your nice letter and now I'm writing this answer. You said to me that you are my uncle, but I am disagreeable so to call as you are older and then I hope to call father because it is so lovely more between our two.

Last your picture seemed very charitable and also gentle. I prayed for in Christ our God will be chosen to me a daughter and many thanks for His love and help me.

Every morning I blessed for my old father will be well and happy eternally in Christ. I think you are alone because mother had died but you shall be happy and enjoy as you would believe in God.

It is cold weather here and yesterday were much snow and on the way to go to school I was very enjoy because the snow clipped on.

Now we are in exams of our middle school's midterm of second term we had Merry Christmas with a play, a dancing and sing in chorus of hymn in our orphanage. I'm sorry that I didn't write to you sooner.

With your love,
daughter,

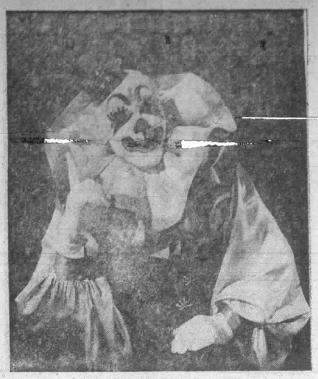
Shrine Circus Opens Jan. 29 for Two Weeks

The magic of the "big top," the traditional smell of sawdust, the electrifying feats of the world's top performers, the elaborate spectaculars, and the clowns and animals without which no circus is complete, will soon invade the State Fair Coliseum.

It's the fabulous, all-new Shrine Circus opens a two-week engagement Jan. 29 and continuing through Feb. 11.

There will be two shows Monday through Friday at 2 and 8 p.m., three on Saturday, 10 a.m., 2 and 8 p.m., and two on Sunday, 2 and 7 p.m.



HE'LL STAR AT SHRINE CIRCUS

She Tells About Trip to Greece

Margaret Hawkins spoke and showed pictures of Greece at the meeting of the Tecumseh Grange Jan. 11.

Miss Hawkins was one of the IFYE students to Greece going there to help improve world understanding.

Some members of Tecumseh Grange expressed pride that such an outstanding young lady was sent to represent them.

They said that they wish more young people like Miss Hawkins might go to all countries to promote peace and understanding.

Miss Hawkins is a graduate of Addison High School and the University of Michigan Nursing School.

Miss Hawkins told of her experiences in 11 different villages where she lived with as many different families.

Ministers Will Gather Monday

The Lenawee County Minister's Meeting will be held Monday, at 10 a.m. in the Adrian First Christian Church.

All ministers of the county are invited to attend.

The program will be relative to the Federal atomic shelter program and the Civil Defense effort.

The Rev. Charles Krauss, of First Christian and secretary of the county organization will moderate the program.

Interest Rates Are Increased

Interest rates on savings accounts at the United Savings Bank have been increased, announces John R. Thompson, president.

Regular savings will now earn 3½% and savings certificates will bring 4%.

New rates became effective as of Jan. 1, 1962, states Mr. Thompson.

OBITUARIES

● MELISSA JANE WILKIN

Graveside services were held Monday at Tipton cemetery for the infant daughter, Melissa Jane, of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wilkin.

The baby died Sunday at Herrick Memorial hospital where it had been born earlier in the day.

She is survived by her parents; one brother, Michael, a sister, Janice and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wilkin and Mr. and Mrs. Fay Luce.

The Rev. Paul Frederick officiated.

———o———

● ROBERT R. CROCKETT

Services were held Tuesday in Clinton for Robert Crockett, 78, of 9491 Matthews Highway who died Saturday at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

He had been hospitalized since Jan. 6 after a year of failing health.

Mr. Crockett retired to the Tecumseh area from Detroit in 1942.

He and his wife operated a used and retail furniture business in the area.

Mr. Crockett was born in Detroit Nov. 6, 1883, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Crockett.

He was graduated from a Detroit high school and for many years was in personnel work for the Regina Corporation of Detroit.

He traveled extensively through the United States in that job.

He married Leone Updyke of Clinton at South Bend, Ind., Jan. 20, 1920.

She and a brother are the only immediate survivors.

The Rev. Ray Norton officiated and burial was in the Riverside cemetery.

———o———

● GARY D. MOREHOUSE

Services were held Monday in Lakewood, O. for Gary Morehouse, 21, who was killed Jan. 10 at March Air Force Base in California.

Airman Morehouse met death in a motorcycle accident with another G.I. They were not on duty at the time.

He was the son of F. Dale Morehouse, a former Ridgeway resident.

Airman Morehouse enlisted eight months ago after graduating from Rhodes High School. He worked briefly for the Standard Oil Co.

He was a member of the Parbrook Chapter of the Order of DeMolay and attended First Church of Christ Scientist, in Parma.

Besides his parents, he is survived by four brothers, Buddy B. and Lynn D., both in the Air Force, Bruce A. and Scott D. Morehouse.

The family home is at 4384 W. 50th St., Cleveland, O.

Airman Morehouse was buried with full military honors in services conducted by personnel from the Lockbourne Air Base at Columbus, O.

Burial was in the Lakewood Park cemetery.

Ken Hinkleman House of Pizza

Ken Hinkleman, 207 N. Maiden Lane, is the new owner of the House of Pizza.

He purchased the business from Norbert Kempkes of Wamplers Lake, who established it here last year.

Mr. Henkleman will continue to maintain the same extensive menu of pizzas and other dishes.

He will introduce a delivery service for Friday and Saturday evenings.

Mr. Hinkleman is a Tecumseh Products Co. employee and will continue on the first shift there.

He'll work evenings at the House of Pizza, being assisted by Daniel Carpenter.

The new owner points out that customers who phone in orders may have them in 20 minutes.

Live Lobsters Come to Town

If you're a lobster gourmet, here's some nappy news.

Live lobsters are now available in Tecumseh. This is the only place outside of Detroit and Toledo where this seafood delight can be purchased in southeastern Michigan and northern Ohio.

A lobster tank has been installed at The Party Shop, owned jointly by Jim Spooner and Del King, at 110 S. Maumee St.

It will hold 100 pounds of live lobsters, who crawl happily in 40-degree brime water, identical to their former home along the Atlantic Ocean.

Conley's Loberters Limited of St. Andrews, New Brunswick, Canada is the source of supply.

Coming here by both air freight and railroad, the lobsters are packed in ice and seaweed from the Ocean.

The Party Shop's lobster tank turned out to have a little bit of Tecumseh in it, Messers King and Spooner discovered, in the form of a Tecumseh Products twin unit.

The tank was made in Boston, Mass.

☆

The Party Shop furnishes its lobster customers with a phamplet, prepared by Conley's which explains the simple method of preparing and serving lobster.

In other seafood fare, the shop also now carries live clams, blue points and steamers.

GAA Posts Wins

Tecumseh Girl's Athletic Association journeyed to Napoleon Jan. 11 for two games of basketball.

The Junior Varsity won a well earned 31-19 victory.

Mary Jo Mensing was high scorer with 13 points and Nancy Martinus scored six.

The varsity got off to a fast start, defeating Napoleon, 45-11.

Betty Bash chipped in 17 points to lead Tecumseh scoring and Nancy Goodin connected for 12.

Sheila O'Neil, Sheryl Moon, Jean Packard and Joy Bays played well as guards. Their defensive play was responsible for Napoleon's low score.

The girls have several other games scheduled.

☆

MONDAY NIGHT was victory night for Tecumseh's GAA girls at Dundee. They defeated Dundee in four out of five volleyball games.

The two teams were made up of winners and runners-up from the volleyball tournament recently completed in the regular Monday night meetings.

The game was played in Dundee's new gym with refreshments served afterwards.

Free Day So Teachers Can Grade

Pupils of the Tecumseh Public Schools will be dismissed from classes Wednesday, Jan. 24, when marks are given in all grades.

With the testing program as a basis for marking in the elementary schools in the last few years it was unnecessary to close school so that teachers could grade tests and mark cards.

A single test took the place of the individual tests in the various subjects.

Because of the cost of the testing program and the need to operate under an austerity budget as well certain inequities in the program itself, the board voted to return to the former program of testing in which the test is made up by the teacher and graded by the teacher for each major subject taught.

When this type of program was followed in the past the teachers were given one day at the end of each semester in which pupils were not present in their classes to mark tests, mark grade averages and mark cards.

This procedure will be followed again this year. No busses will run.

MSU Coach Is Speaker at Rotary

Michigan State's line coach Bert Smith was the featured speaker at the Rotary club's "Coaches Night" program Tuesday.

Present were all of the coaches from Tecumseh High School.

Mr. Smith has a master's Degree in mathematics from the University of Michigan so his clever discussion of "What goes Into the Training of Good Coaches" was no problem for him.

He pointed out that two years basic college preceeds entrance into the specialized training for a career in athletic educational work.

Mr. Smith took special note of the fact that State is happy to have Duncan Lectka joining its athletic administration.

John Hamilton, co-chairman of the Tecumseh March of Dimes, drive presented a short film titled "Opening The Door".

Con-Con Delegates To Attend

Charles Figy and Clyne Durst, Lenawee County delegates to Con-Con, will attend a joint meeting of three Farm Bureau groups in the area Saturday, at the Holloway Presbyterian Church.

The Kozy Korner Farm Bureau will be host to the Oak Opening and the Newburg groups for a 7 p.m. co-operative supper followed by a discussion on "Pros and Cons of State Income Tax."

Ice Takes Its Toll During Zero Weather

Garages and service stations in and around the city were swamped with calls from motorists, whose autos would not start during the ice storm last week.

Schnelders Bros.' Chuck Osburn said, "We were about six hours behind."

Harvey Wilson of Wilson Motors said, "We had more than we could take care of."

Bill Hollister of Hooton's Service said, "It was rough, we had about 21 calls for towing and pushing, check plugs, batteries and points."

Fisher Motors, "We have all we could take care of and more too. Mostly won't starts and batteries go bad. Nothing more than could be expected during severe cold weather."

Harold Easton replied to the Herald survey on the weather, "I'm froze up."

Mahlon Sebring of Standard Service said, "I started at 5:30 one morning and was in only to pick up a new list. It was starting or frozen door locks. It was rough with the streets and drives so icy."

Don's Super Service, "Lost count."

From Bug's Super Service, "Mostly dead batteries."

City Considers Setting Aside Part of Cemetery

By JIM LINCOLN

A proposal between the city and the St. Elizabeth Catholic Church for an exclusive use of a section of Brookside Cemetery was turned over to the Cemetery Board, City Attorney James Beardsley and the Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins by Council Monday night.

The Cemetery Board of Mel Partridge, Fred Dickinson and Neil DePuy, had previously approved the arrangement with the local Catholic church.

The board said that it must be sanctioned by Council before the church's bishop can approve it.

Mr. Beardsley said that a lenient agreement, whereby the church takes an option on the area, consisting of over 800 graves, would bind the agreement and make it legal for the city to approve.

Concilmen generally approved the proposal, but suggested an agreement be reached first between the Cemetery Board and the church.

At Monday's meeting, Council:

► Referred problems concerning the Community Center to the Parks and Recreation Board.

► Approved second reading of the bicycle ordinance.

► Appointed Lillian Service and Perry Satterthwaite to the election commission.

► Authorized a letter of appreciation to the American Legion for a gift of two 50-star flags.

'So Let Me Seek'

The Baptist Home Mission presented "So Let Me Seek" Monday.

Mrs. C. O. Bailey was chairman, Mrs. R. C. Pennington, Mrs. Orville Bishop and Mrs. B. O. Bashore assisted at the First Baptist Women's group.

The members voted donations to the Lenawee Migrant Work, the Missionary Refit Fund, Lake Louise and the Baptist Missionary Training School.

Mrs. Lillian Hoagland, reported on the work at the Murray Indian Orphanage, Bacone, Okla.

A love gift of $16.65 was received. A thank you from Friendship House in Hamtramack was read by Mrs. Charles Beland as well as "thank yous" from servicemen for their holiday cookies.

Members were asked to donate and buy baked goods at the Youth Bake sale Feb. 3 at the Western Auto Store.

Mrs. Hugh Walters and Mrs. Robert Manchester poured at the lace-covered table, centered with a spring bouquet furnished by Mrs. Hal Kelso. Mrs. Thomas Brooks and committee were hostesses.

'Challenge Acre' Nets 125 Bushels of Corn Per Acre for FFA

The Tecumseh FFA produced 125 bushels per acre in a special corn growing project sponsored by the Producers of Funk's G-Hybrids.

The project demonstrates that up-to-date corn growing practices pay off in better yields.

The boys and their adviser, Paul Burns, used higher plant populations, increased fertilizer applications and modern hybrid seed as basic techniques.

The "challenge acre" was planted and grown on FFA land across from the Tecumseh Community Center.

The project was planted at 23,000 plants per acre in 38-inch rows.

The boys fertilized by using 250 lbs. of 60% Muriate of Potash and 480 lbs. of 45% Nitrogen plowed down. About 350 lbs. of 6-24-24 was applied at planting and 100 lbs. of Anhydrous ammonia was applied later.

The "challenge acre" was measured and harvested under the supervision of Harold Warren, Bill Rosenbaum and Ken Zarno, who acted as harvest supervisors.

All the corn from the measured acre was weighed, tested for moisture and final yield from the acre was 125 bushels.

The 304 bushel challenge project was designed to give FFA boys an opportunity to make basic decisions in growing a profitable corn crop and then put their ideas into actual practice.

Special emphasis was given to new ideas in corn growing including rate of planting, fertilization, weed killing chemicals and selecton of a hybrid with the capacity to produce profitable yields.

Red and White Theme Carried Out at Shower

A bridal shower honoring Sharon Bottorff was held Jan. 14 at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Young.

The marriage of Miss Bottorff to William Eddinger will be an event of Feb. 3.

Fifteen friends and relatives played appropriate games with prizes awarded. They were from Milan, Tecumseh, Ypsilanti and Macon.

Mrs. Clayton Mikesell assisted Mrs. Young. The red and white colors to be used at the wedding were carried out in the buffet refreshments.

Cherry pie and coffee were served from a decorated table, centered with a Valentine tree.

Old, New Featured at 'Week'

Both the old and the new in Michigan agriculture will have prominent places in the 47th annual Farmers' Week at Michigan State University, Jan. 29 through Feb. 2.

The old will get the spotlight at the annual Michigan Centennial Farmers' Association meeting on Thursday, Feb. 1.

The new will be stressed in a series of programs on career opportunities in "agri-business" and the role of youth in rural society.

In 1948 the Michigan Historical Commissoin started recognizing farms that had remained in the same family for 100 years.

Over 1,500 such farms have posted certificates from the commission. Nearly 200 belong to the association. Several are located in the Tecumseh area.

The program has sought to stress the great contribution centennial farm families have made to rural society. MSU sociologists have also used the families as research subjects.

The youth programs will stress the fact that producing, marketing, processing, storage, and distribution of farm products involve about 40% of the state's labor force.

"In the nation as a whole, about 15,000 new farm-related jobs open up each year," points out Vern Freeh, MSU coordinator of agricultural student programs. "Qualified job applicants are increasing less than half that fast."

On Tuesday and Thursday mornings, young people will break up into eight discussion groups. Each group will look at opportunities and requirements of a particular type of farm-related occupation.

On Wednesday, a morning session will deal with the adolescent's often difficult role in an adult world. In the afternoon, speakers will consider the farm youth's part in furthering world understanding.

Virgil Tucker Named Foundation President

Virgil Tucker was elected president of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation and chairman of the board at the organizational meeting last week at the Community Center.

Others elected:

James P. McKenna — vice president

Mrs. Evelyn Fero — secretary

Merlyn Downing — treasurer.

Glenn Kohler was elected as a new member to the board. Messers Tucker and Downing were re-elected.

Vern Manwaring, who had served as president of the Foundation since its inception, was appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late C. F. Sage.

A resolution memorializing Mr. Sage was approved and becomes part of the Foundation's records.

In other action, the board reviewed recommendations of a joint study by the library board and the library study committee.

SO WHO WANTS GROSBEAKS, ANYWAY?

By now I suppose everybody knows, and has probably seen, the flock of Evening Grosbeaks which is making this winter's birdwatching most exciting. Maybe we should say flocks, because for just one group they are certainly getting around.

There have been Grosbeak sightings on Pottawatamie St. N. Union St., Brown St., Iroquois St. They have been over in Herrick Park, out on the Macon Rd., in Adrian and we even had a note on a Christmas card from Albion saying that the feeders there were hosting the beauties.

They are putting on quite a show, but guess where they have not yet put in an appearance.

That's right—here at the west end of Logan we have not had the slightest glimpse. Isn't that something? They have been all around us but, as of today, no Evening Grosbeaks have graced our window picture.

If Mother Nature is playing a joke on us, I say that enough is enough Way last fall, we received the first Grosbeak report, but since a week or two before Christmas, they have become persistent.

Every day the clowns are apparently trooping through town —it's about time they find their way up here.

AS THOSE of you who are lucky enough to have had the wanderers know, Evening Grosbeaks are exciting birds.

They are fairly big birds, not quite as large as a bluejay, and brilliantly colored. Predominately yellow but with bold markings of white, brown and black, it is a combination of this flamboyant garb and a dull winter landscape plus their rarity which adds up to all the thrills.

Rare is perhaps not quite the right word, because in their natural range they are rather common—the thing is, this is not their natural range.

Grosbeaks are birds of the far north, the upper part of our border states and the lower part of Canada. Their seasonal migration, instead of being the usual north to south, is more west to east with a slight southern movement in extremely bad weather. This year's invasion is probably due to unusually bad weather up north.

☆

SEVERAL WEEKS ago, on an early morning TV program, we watched an interview with Roger Tory Peterson, author of the exceptionally good Peterson Field Guides.

Many birds and Audubon activities were mentioned, of course, and his comments on the Evening Grosbeaks were most interesting.

The eastern states are experiencing a great influx of the birds. They are much farther south than is normal and in great, great numbers. Not a bird feeder in Connecticut is without its flock—bet if we were there he couldn't say that.

Another contributing factor, Mr. Peterson mentioned, was the ever increasing number of well-stocked feeding stations.

Once forced from their natural wintering area the birds find the living easy as they go from one feeder to another, gorging themselves with sunflower seeds.

AND, OH, how they love the flat-black seeds—from this year's experience we, of course, wouldn't know but several years ago, when Grosbeaks were in town, they treated us better.

For several weeks a flock of 12 to 15 were daily visitors and how well we remember the way they made sunflower seeds disappear.

Aptly named, the birds have big bills, not long but broad and heavy looking. With these strong beaks they quickly open the tough shell of the sunflower seed. Our banquet table is well set, but so far—nothing.

So it is that with a mouthful of very sour grapes I say, "Who wants Grosbeaks, Anyway?"

Students Miss Scholarships

The American Legion's educational handbook, "Need a Lift?", containing hundreds of college and vocational school scholarships for qualified high school students of this area has been presented to the Tecumseh High School by Unit 34 of the American Legion Auxiliary.

This revised publication for 1961-'62 is recognized as one of the most complete sources of career and scholarship information in the United States.

The handbook does not limit its listings to children of veterans, but contains scholarship and educational aids which are available to all students.

Robert Smith, scholarship chairman for the Auxiliary, stated that thousands of young people have not taken advantage of the generous educational aids which are available, due to a failure to plan early for their future education.

She mentioned in particular the Junior GI Bill which provides up to $110 per month in educational help for sons and daughters of veterans who lost their lives as a direct result of war-time military service.

Over half of the young people eligible for this help have failed to apply, Mrs. Smith said.

John Pobuda, guidance counselor of Tecumseh High School, will speak on scholarship at the Legion meeting Jan. 18 at 8 p.m. at the Legion Post Home.

Beverly Robey and Edward Hall Married Jan. 13

Beverly Ann Robey and Edward Hall were united in marriage Jan. 13, at the Methodist Church in Bea by the Rev. Ronald Corl.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Robey of Britton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hall of Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Tackette of Britton were the attendants. The bride wore a street length dress of white with white accessories. The couple left for Kentucky, where they will make their home.

The supper committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Harold Every, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Furgason and Margretta Davenport.

Members are to bring a dish to pass, buttered rolls and dessert.

The public is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Daniels attended a birthday party Sunday in honor of the seventeenth birthday anniversary of their granddaughter, Mary Greenwald.

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hoenig and son Russell of Charlotte, Karen Hoenig of Grand Rapids, Roger Emery of Brooklyn and Charles Emery of Springville.

The engagement of Midge Warren to Thomas C. Weatherwax, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Weatherwax, formerly of Brooklyn, is announced by her grandmother, Mrs. Bert Warren, of Brooklyn. Both Miss Warren and her fiance are graduates of Brooklyn High School. No wedding date has been set.

Joins Herald Staff

Mrs. William Wright is the new correspondent for the Ridgeway area for The Tecmseh Herald.

She is a native of Detroit coming to Ridgeway shortly after her marriage in 1945.

The wedding took place in the armychapel in Little Rock, while both were in service.

Both were mess cooks, Corp. William Wright in the company area and Pvt. Josephine Scott in the hospital area.

They met while she was on an inspection tour of officer's mess in his area.

After discharge Mrs. Wright joined her husband in Ridgeway where they have made their home. He is employed by Tecumseh Products Co.

Mrs. Wright is working part time for Benham's Grocery in Ridgeway and is also a Stanley representative.

She will be most happy to receive items for The Herald at her home, 7138 Ridge Rd., or by phone GL 1-2825.

Auxiliary Now Boasts 108 Paid-Up Members

Several important announcements were made at the American Legion Auxiliary meeting Thursday evening.

Mrs. Harold Easton has made reservations to send another young lady to Girl's State next summer.

Mrs. Dale Tingley reported 108 paid-up members and two new applications for membership, Jean and Mary Anne Cunningham of Adrian.

President Mrs. Dennis Goller announced that the Auxiliary will serve the dinner for the district meetings to be held Feb. 11.

The Auxiliary district meeting will be held at the K of P Hall.

She also announced that all members will be contacted to help with the Mother's March of Dimes.

Coffee and dainty sandwiches were served by Mrs. R. Smith, Mrs. Ned Rosacrans and Mrs. Lee V. Phibbs.

Rehearsals for Comedy 'Can't Take It With You' Start This Week

Rehearsals began this week for The Tecumseh Players' fourth production, "You Can't Take It With You".

Under the direction of Richard Kureth, a cast of 19 amateur thespians will enact the Pulitzer Prize winning comedy by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman.

The comedy opened in 1936, and was a long-run smash hit on Broadway.

Some of the antics of the Sycamore family during the depression, despite hard-pressed finances, include writing plays, collecting snakes, practicing ballet and the xylophone, operating a printing press and making fireworks.

Critics hailed the play as an example of clever theatrical craftsmanship, humorous dialogue and a view of life that may have been in the hearts of many in the unhappy days of the Depression.

The costume department of The Players requests that anyone having daytime and evening clothes, or men's double-breasted suits and ties of the 1935-1940 years call HA 3-3794.

The farce will open Feb. 21 at the Strand Theatre.

Cards Played by Members After Business

Members of the BPCPSC were entertained Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Cecile Smith with Mrs. Prudence Strawe as co-hostess.

Following a business meeting, the evening was spent playing cards. rizes were awarded to Mrs. Carl Thompson, Mrs. Louis Schultz and Mrs. Bess Livingstone.

Salad, sandwiches and coffee were served by the hostesses.

Youth Speaker Challenges Teens at Clinic Rally

Dr. Don Lonie youth speaker, will challenge Teen Agers at the Youth Clinic Rally at the Onsted Baptist Church Saturday, Jan. 20, at 7:30 p.m.

The pastor, the Rev. Frank Thompson, extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend.

Friends Church Members Take Part in Session

Adrian Annual Quarterly Meeting Missionary Banquet will be held Monday evening, Jan. 22 at 6:30 p.m. at the Madison High School gymnasium.

Sam Bender, a businessman of Toledo, will be the speaker.

Mr. Bender, as a member of the board of Youth For Christ International, has traveled extensively over the world and will be speaking relative to the opportunities today for the Gospel.

Local people participating in the program are: Ben Ross, Chuck Huber, Clark Pearson and Merle Hendricks as a men's quartet.

Bob MacDonald, Ray Sommers, Norman Feller will be speaking relative to importance of prayer cells.

The Rev. James Brantingham, Pastor of Raisin Center Friends Church will act as toastmaster.

Willis Kilbourn and Mr. Sommers are responsible for local ticket sales. Between 50 and 60 tickets have been reserved from the Tecumseh Friends Church.

Team Has Appeared 9,000 Times

The Evangelistic Party of Clausen and Richardson will be conducting meetings in the Tecumseh Friends Church, Jan. 24 through Feb. 4.

Services will be 7:30 each evening except Saturday.

The Rev. Eva Clausen, a native of Denmark and an ordained minister in the Ohio Yearly Meeting of the Friends Church, brings the spoken message while Celeste Richardson has charge of the music.

Their joint ministry began in 1943.

Since that time they have appeared in well over 9,000 public appearances throughout the United States.

The meetings are sponsored by the Friends Youth Fellowship and the Monthly Meeting.

Outward Man Makes Contact with World

The Church of God Seventh Day met Saturday morning to study the Bible.

The subject of the Sabbath School lesson was "The Outward Man", that part of man which makes contact with the world and is controlled by the "inner man" which makes contact with God.

In the sermon delivered by Elder McCann he said that "we should beware lest we fail to grow in knowledge and fail to live out the things that we know."

Lutheran Ladies Aid Names Officers

The Ladies' Aid society of Grace Lutheran church met Jan. 10 when the Rev. K. F. Koeplin conducted a brief study on the Book of Jude.

This is the first in a series of studies on lesser-known books of the Bible.

The following women were elected to office:

President — Mrs. Harry Hans
Vice-president — Mrs. Elvin Fretwell
Secretary — Mrs. Gaza Kish
Treasurer — Mrs. W. Solarski

Members will serve a meal for the annual meeting of the Lutheran Campsite Association Jan. 21 at 5:30 p.m.

The January committee is Mrs. Oakley Baxter, Mrs. Sherman Cole, Mrs. Wesley Goetz and Mrs. W. Solarski.

Demands

Conflicting demands of everyday living can be resolved through spiritual understanding of God as divine Life.

This is a theme of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Life" which is to be read at Christian Science services Sunday.

God Must Have Loved Common Folks

Emerson once said, "God must have loved the common people, he made so many of them."

According to the Rev. Allen Wittrup, they are the great numbers of people who never know the headlines or acclaim of multitudes, yet serve in a common task making their great contribution to God and their fellow men.

"Jesus loved the common people and the Gospel writers tell us "the common people heard him gladly", said the pastor.

The Rev. Mr. Wittrup will speak on the subject 'God's Common People" Sunday, Jan. 21, at 10 a.m. at First Methodist Church.

Pastor Speaks on Atomic Fallout Shelters

Pastor Paul Brantingham will be speaking at the 10 a.m. Sunday service of Tecumseh Friends Church on the "Atomic Fallout Shelters. "

So many are asking: "What shall we do? Shall we build shelters? Should we have community shelters?"

Does God's Word have anything to say on this subject?

Certainly the Christian should set the example in this area by manifesting a sincere interest in community affairs as well as a stabilizing confidence in God.

Religion and Atom Is Topic

Moses once said, "See I have set before you life and good, or death and evil." The atom, if it could speak, might say the same thing, according to the Rev. Blair Bashore.

"Religion, as love for God and for our fellow men, is the best hope for life and good rather than death and evil," said the pastor.

"Atoms are small yet important to much of our modern scientific achievement. Atomic power is, it seems, inexhaustible," he added.

"Love, or good, is the power that determines how we shall use any resources that we have. Hatred is a power that constantly operates for destruction, therefore, if we are to enjoy the fruits of love and good, we must get more love IN and more hate OUT of ourselves and this human race of ours," said the Rev. Mr. Bashore.

The minister of the First Baptist Church will speak on "Religion and the Atom" Sunday.

Minister from Adrian Is Guest

The Rev. A. Peter Carroll, rector of the Christ Church in Adrian, will be the guest celebrant and preacher at the 11 a.m. service of St. Peter's Episcopal Church Sunday.

The rector of St. Peter's, the Rev. Frank Hawthorne, will exchange with him and officiate at the 10 a.m. service at Christ Episcopal Church.

The Rev. Mr. Carroll has been rector of Christ Church for 10 years and has only recently announced his retirement.

He is an old friend of St. Peter's, having come to Tecumseh to conduct services on many occasions in the past.

A reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Carroll will be held in St. Peter's Hall following the service.

Husbands and Wives Hold Social

Husbands and wives of the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church will hold a social evening Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the Parish House.

They will bring inexpensive gifts to be used as prizes for games to be played.

Refreshments will be served following.

What's Going on at Boysville

By DAVE KLAVON

The Fighting Knights of Boysville were beaten by the Bobcats of Whiteford, 49-17, Jan. 9. The Knights couldn't get started at all.

Several bad passes enabled Whiteford to take a large lead on the Knights and hold it.

The Junior Knights lost to the Junior Bobcats previous to the varsity game. High point man for Boysville was "Bugs" Moran with 11.

Last Friday night the Knights of Boysville traveled to Ida to play the Bluestreaks. Neither team had won a game.

Poor rebounding cost the Knights many opportunities to score and they came out on the short end of a 45-25 score.

The Junior Knights, however, turned the tables by coming home with their first victory of the season.

Fast ball handling and decent shooting put them ahead at the end 41-34. Moran was high scorer with 11.

Everyone got a chance to play as Coach Ed Pacioni, celebrating his birthday, cleaned the bench in his first victory.

The Senior Class donated a new scoreboard to Boysville.

Now installed and ready for use, the board will get its first workout Friday night when the Knights take on Adrian Catholic Central.

The students would like to thank the seniors for their hard work and generosity in presenting the scoreboard to the school.

√

Although prospects of being in the new dining hall by the first of February have been forgotten, work is progressing.

The roof is completely finished, except for sealing a few places. The heat has been on in the building for a week or so to dry it out prior to painting and the laying of floor tile.

Two large coolers and one freezer were delivered last week.

The freshman basketball team traveled to Madison of Adrian to play the Madison Freshmen. The Frosh Knights were victorious, 35-21.

Jim Eldrington was the high scorer with 16 of the Knights' points.

Boysville led 21-5 at the half, and Madison just never caught up.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Watkins will be honored at an open house Sunday, Jan. 21, in the Tecumseh Community Center. Arrangements were made for the celebration in honor of their 40th wedding anniversary by their son and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Watkins of Ypsilanti. Friends and relatives are invited to greet them between 2 and 5 p.m. Goldie Rinehart and Marvin Watkins were married Jan. 24, 1922 by the Rev. Earl Rice at the Methodist parsonage in Adrian.

10 Persons Back Up Every Man Who Goes Sailing Into Outer Space

(Editor' note: This is another in the series of articles telling about departments at Tecumseh High School. This one pertains to courses in business.)

For every man who intends to go into outer space, there is a minimum of ten trained business personnel to assist him in this task. These business personnel range from the typist to the top executive.

No matter how large or small a business is — from the Federal Government to the grocery store — you will discover that one of the largest working forces in our United States is comprised of the typists, secretaries, bookkeepers, file clerks, office managers, etc.

To meet this demand, the public high school created the business department with its main objectives, namley, to give the student a basic foundation in the principles and skills necessary for a career in the business field.

At the present time the business department is the second largest department in the high school.

The enrollment, which now stands at 338 students, has grown to the extent that this year an additional teacher was needed in order to meet the demand. The department employs three teachers.

☆

THE CURRICULUM offers general business, typing, shorthand, office practice, bookkeeping, business principles and business law.

The general business course offers an introduction to the program and allows the business student to explore the different phases of business and proves valuable in everyday living.

Typing and shorthand are the skill subjects offered, which enables the student to go immediately from the classroom into the business world with usable knowledge.

With such a heavy responsibility as this the standards should be raised in order to produce efficient workers in the field. The office practice class also falls into this category.

However, as the class is now set up it is quite inadequate. There are no textbooks, which forces further interest shown on the part of the student to be postponed.

In order to make this course effective it should be divided into two courses.

One teaches telephone communication, filing and production typing. The other course would involve only the business machines. Before this course could be properly established, however, a few more machines should be added and some of the obsolete machines sold and replaced.

EQUIPMENT is needed in the typing room. This course has proven to be of value both to college preparatory students as well as business students.

As a result, there are more typing classes than any other course offered within the department and the eqipment receives a great deal of use. The textbooks which are used are outdated and in rather poor condition from years of faithful service to the students of Tecumseh High School.

The typing book is a 1952 edition and has been used several times a day for the past 10 years.

In constant use are typing tables and chairs. The tables were constructed some years ago by the industrial arts department at the school.

At the present time, these tables wobble so badly it is quite difficult to read the book with the constant action of the typewriter.

There has been little change in the business department in the past decade and yet one has only to look around to see how rapidly the business world has been changing.

"We invite you to visit our department," states Principal Neville Hart.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

I just cannot let your recent editorial concerning the policy of the United Savings Bank go by without registering a protest. Your statements seem most unfair to me.

First, let me say that I am not concerned with the Bank in any way except as one of its depositors. My only interest in the matter is my liking for fair play and full truths.

Where do you get the idea that a Bank's duty is primarily to the community regardless of all other considerations? That just is not true. A bank is a business enterprise just like running a newspaper or selling groceries.

Its business is conducted on funds provided by its depositors and on the responsibilities of its stockholders. The principal duty of its elected officers is to safeguard the interests of both those depositors and those stockholders by the exercise of their judgement.

When, in the opinion of those officers, a loan does not seem justified in the risk involved, they have no other choice than to decline to make that loan. Assuming a risk that violates their judgement of its worth would be a betrayal of their responsibility.

I fail to see that any of the points you try to make in heavy type has any bearing on the subject whatsoever. That they may all be true is granted, but they just are not relevant.

1. Why says a full meeting of the board of directors must be called to consider every loan application? Do the by-laws of the Bank make that mandatory?

2. Whether $45,000 or 45 cents was the total amount requested by TAIDC is no factor in the case. If a loan does not seem wise to the lender, the amount requested is totally immaterial.

3. Other banks show an interest in making the loan? Fine, that's their privilege.

4. Faraday would increase employment here, etc., etc. Sure. Maybe. Maybe not. Every new business or enterprise is a risk. It is up to the judgement of those entrusted in the lending of other peoples' funds to weigh such risks and to decide if they can be taken in fairness to those who entrust that money for lending.

If the majority of the stockholders in an institution question the judgement of their elected officers they have the perfect right, subject to their own bylaws, to change the personnel of their official board, of course.

But let us be very clear about what is and what is not the "duty" of the local bank.

Sincerely,
John D. McColl
Tecumseh

(Editor's note Thank you, Mr. McColl, for your opinion. There is only one comment we shall make. As you note, "a bank is a business enterprise just like running a newspaper, etc." Banks and newspapers are institutions which, as part of their very being, must serve the community in which they operate.)

TO THE EDITORS:

Please note the change in my old address and correct it on your mailing list. I have been receiving The Herald without interruption, but this change in address will speed it's delivery to me.

Due to the fact that I am in a flight crew I always seem to be on the move. For example, Christmas Day we, (Crew 3), enjoyed dinner in Iceland.

That same afternoon we were flying a radar barrier, that would last close to 12 hours, over the North Atlantic.

New Year's eve we were enjoying ourselves in Ayr Scotland, and two days later we were in the air again on our way back to our home base in Newfoundland.

All this proves to be very interesting at times, but I am always ready to pick up my Herald to help me slow down and catch up with the events and changes in my hometown.

Thank you for keeping me informed.

Sincerely,
Carl Schmidt

TO THE EDITORS:

Last week Donald Murphy, executive secretary, Chamber of Commerce, gave some pertinent suggestions about loose talk in public places. He pointed out that no good can come from open criticism of others. The point was well taken.

It is not surprising that now, when the whole community is so concerned about bringing a new industry here that persons are apt to get edgy and resentful over any hindrance that may occur.

But is it necessary to build this up to an open fight that would do no one any good and could lose us more industry as was pointed out in the Herald so recently.

Continued efforts to promote our community are still necessary and fighting among ourselves will not help. A united effort is required now and in the future, for promotion of our community is a continueing need.

Much criticism has been levelled at the bank for their conservative policy. Many of us remember when Tecumseh Banks were operated on a different policy, and the sad results that followed.

It was at about this time that the present bank management was brought here. Now we have the largest and strongest bank in the county right here in Tecumseh.

So why all the frenzied criticism? I am sure no one is opposed to what the TAIDC is trying to do. Surely a way to help can be found without attacking the bank management. Perhaps the plan recently suggested to sell stock is the best answer.

We here in the Tecumseh area have many things to be proud of—one of the finest weekly newspapers, an alert TAIDC, and one of the best banks in this part of the state, to name a few. Civic pride is necessary in any community, and Tecumseh with so many reasons for civic pride is indeed fortunate.

Harold H. Every,
1350 W. Munger Rd.

TO THE EDITORS:

I believe on giving credit where credit is due. I praise the teachers for the wonderful job they have done in teaching our children.

I praise the bus drivers for being so careful and prompt in picking up our children and bringing them home.

But I certainly do not praise Mr. McDowell for ordering the bus drivers out on roads that are so slippery that you couldn't take 10 steps without falling.

So the Tecumseh Schools have only been closed twice in the last 11 years.

The first time the bus drivers absolutely refused to go out and the second time an accident occurred endangering the lives of some children.

The next time the roads are icy I would like to see Mr. McDowell drive one of the buses on these back hilly, slippery roads—then maybe he wouldn't be so proud of his good record.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Ray Buell
Tipton

Children's Section Is Completed

Remodeling work on the former maternity ward at Herrick Memorial Hospital is nearly complete.

The old OB section now offers two five-bed wards for children and one private isolation room.

It also is being utilized for eight regular adult medical service rooms with 16 beds.

The former children's ward in the old wing of the hospital has been converted into a three-bed ward for general use.

Materinity is now located in new quarters on the second floor of the south wing.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickerson, and family and Wanda Kiser of rural Milan, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Prielipp of Riga. Mr. and Mrs. Hal Grinage and family of Blissfield and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Grady and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rohrback of Britton.

Later in the evening a group of friends and neighbors arrived at the Dickerson home for a surprise housewarming for the young couple.

Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ness, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grieshaber, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Loesch and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Dicks.

Cards were the feature of the evening and prizes given to the winners and the guests of honor.

The refreshment table was centered with a birthday cake, which was baked and decorated by Mrs. Grady.

The group presented the couple with a purse of money to purchase a gift for their new home.

Macon Phone System Serves 265 Homes

Charles Collins has assumed the duties of manager of the Macon Telephone Co.

A native of Ann Arbor, Mr. Collins and his wife, Nancy, have two children, Julie, 2 and Bill, nine months.

Located at the corner of Saline-Macon and Clinton-Macon Rds., the Macon company serves 265 subscribers connecting them by magneto phones to most points on the globe.

Three operators work 60 hours a week. They are Mrs. Joseph Sheward, Mrs. Robert LaVeck and Mrs. Carl Hawkins.

Mr. Collins said that there were about 200 such locally-owned companies in the state during 1960, some using battery and some magneto phones.

Long distance calls at Macon are placed through part of Michigan's most advanced automatic electronic long distance installations, the Bell System's new direct distance dialing facilities at Ann Arbor.

☆

PEOPLE AT Macon are happy with their phone service and wouldn't have it any other way.

Mrs. Sheward, an operator there, says, "The telephone is a friendly personal thing. It means more than just a means of communication here.

"I've been working this board for five years and can usually recognize a person's voice immediately. I often know what number they are going to call before they tell me."

"Nellie always calls a certain Tecumseh number at a certain time for instance. Old Tom calls time service every day at the same time or if it's Agatha, I know she wants the weather."

Customers, too, know the system's operators. Mrs. Mary Howell, 80, of 8976 Clinton-Macon Rd. can tell immediately whether it's Mrs. Sheward or one of the other operators.

Mrs. Howell, who celebrated her 80th birthday in September, uses one of the original 1903 telephones at her Centennial farm. The old earpiece of the wall-mounted box has been replaced, however by a modern handset.

"It's easier after cranking to sit down and talk," she explains.

☆

MR. COLLINS said that now most of the subscriber's homes have little boxes with a crank on the top rather than the wall mounted variety.

He said that most of the wiring and poles have been replaced too, and that the company now has a dial line to Britton installed about four years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Farmer operated the Macon Telephone Co. as manager, bookkeeper, operator and lineman until Mr. and Mrs. Collins took over the last of December.

The Farmers served the community in this capacity for 10 years, coming to Macon from Hart, in Oceana County.

Mr. Farmer has now accepted a position in the upper part of the state as a maintenance man for a Boy Scout Camp. The Farmers moved Dec. 29 and the Collins family moved into the home where the telephone office is located.

☆

ABOUT 100 toll calls are made daily through the Macon magnetos, some to Britton, but about 80% through the Ann Arbor computors.

Beside these, the Macon subscribers place an average of 1,100 local calls to each other every 24 hours.

Volunteer labor placed the first wires for Mr. Bell's new invention in 1903, when each farmer climbed the poles in his own area to exchange telephone for telegraph lines.

Tradition has it that the first switchboard of the community—owned phone company was — abuzz for two solid months without interruption when people found that they could actually talk to one other instead of counting telegram clicks.

The company, now a corporation, has nearly 250 holders of its 300 outstanding shares in the immediate Macon area.

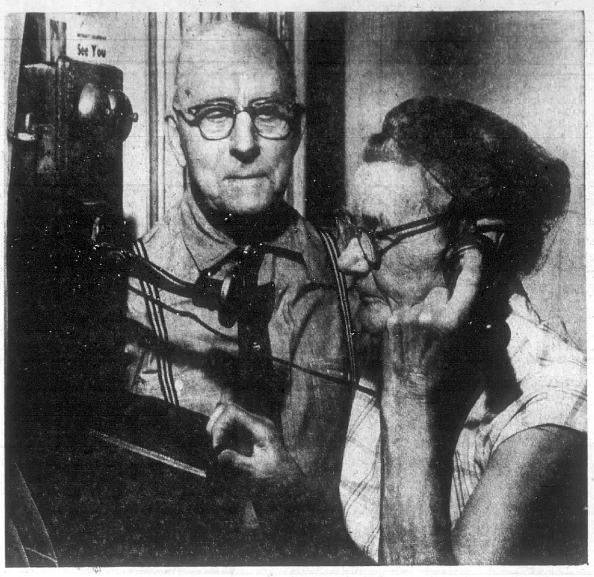
RATE OF $3.75 monthly for a party line (up to 20 parties) and $4.25 for a private line include the cost of dry cell batteries which are good for about two years.

Mr. Collins explains that the privately-owned corporation has one service that most larger systems do not provide — immediate repair when a line is damaged.

"When a repair call comes in, I go right then to fix it," said the new manager.

He also explained that he is on 24 hour call to connect his subscribers with their desired numbers, regardless of whether the call is an emegency or not.

"We have a night alarm that we set when we go to bed," he announced cheerfully.



MR. AND MRS. RAY GILMORE, LONG-TIME MACON PHONE PATRONS, SAY GOODBYE TO THIS OLD TELEPHONE WHICH HAS SERVED FOR NEARLY 60 YEARS. IT WAS IN THEIR PLACE ON PENNINGTON RD. THE DAY THEY WERE MARRIED, AUG. 26, 1903. THE HOME THEN BELONGED TO MRS. GILMORE'S PARENTS, THE WES PENNINGTON'S. LAST MONTH, THIS CRANK MODEL WAS REPLACED WITH A MORE MODERN VERSION. THE GILMORE'S RING IS STILL FIVE SHORTS

Mrs. Allen New Project 4-H Leader

Mrs. Charles Allen, 504 Outer Dr., is the new project leader of the newly-organized sewing group of the Raisin Cane 4-H Club.

Members of the club are Sue and Carol Allen, Onalee and Christine Cote, Sue and Judy Barnell.

Projects of beginning seamstresses for 4-H are pin cushions, towels, aprons and finally, skirts.

The entire club of about 22 members attended the skating party Thursday evening at the Skate Arena.

Members volunteered to sell candy, nuts and balloons for the March of Dimes.

Business For Youths Then Pizza

Sheldon Pease, Sharon Dicks and Karen Gottschalk won the door prizes at the dance Friday evening in the Baptist Youth House after the basketball game.

A planning meeting was held Sunday evening and the announcement was made that an association meeting will be held Jan. 21 at 3 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Adrian.

Thursday, Jan. 8, the BYF will go roller skating at the Skate Arena between 7 and 10 p.m.

A tobogganning party is planned for Jan. 28 and the group will return to the Youth House for pizza and a business meeting.

Karen Hall At Arista 'Chocolate'

Karen Hall, daughter of Mrs. Garth L. Hall, 406 N. Union St., was one of 85 women to attend the sophomore honor chocolate sponsored by Arista, honor society for senior women at Western Michigan University.

All those attending had scholastic averages of 3.0 or higher for their freshman year.

Karen is in the liberal arts curriculum, majoring in political science. She was a 1960 graduate of Tecumseh High School.

2 Families Host Fifty for Roast

The families of Carl Schneider and Jack Osburn were hosts to nearly 100 friends Sunday afternoon when they roasted a whole pig in the woods, formerly owned by the Harry and Murray Day families.

Children watched in wide-eyed wonderment as the spit was turned, pig and all, over the hot coals.

Beans were cooked over the open fire and also sauer kraut.

Skating on a nearby pond and hikes in the woods were nejoyed by the group. The fire was built about 8 a.m. and the meat was served about 4 p.m.

Unique Scot Verdict Is 'Not Proven'

(Editor's note: The James Thomas family of Macon have been corresponding with a family in Nairnshire, Scotland for the past year. They have graciously shared two letters with Tecumseh Herald readers. One written by Mrs. Robert Miller Davidson was printed in last week's issue. This week Herald readers are treated to a letter written by Mr. Davidson who is a constable on the Scottish Police Force. The organization Mrs. Thomas contacted to start the correspondence is "Letters Abroad", 45 E. 65th St. New York 21, N. Y.)

Dear Phyllis & Jim

Thank you for your interesting letter and picturesque magazines. You say you would like to know something of the workings of the Scottish Police, well, here goes.

The force I am in is called Scottish North-Eastern Counties Constabulary, and covers the counties of Moray and Nairn, Banffshire, Aberdeenshire and Kincardineshire.

We have a strength of 300 and cover an acreage of 2,316,555, with a population of 280,000. This, in Scotland, is considered a fairly large force, although we cannot touch the city forces, the likes of London, which has a strength of 15,000 and your New York, which I believe has about the same number of men.

If you are 5' 10" or over, and have had your 19th birthday, you can enlist. You sit an entrance examination and have a fairly stiff medical to pass.

After doing two years probation one becomes a fully fledged constable, and after passing promotion exams, you are eligible for promotion to sergeant, inspector, chief inspector, superintendent, chief superintendent, deputy chief constable and finally, the top of the very large and long tree, chief constable.

You can serve for 30 years and retire with two-thirds of your pay or 25 years and retire with half-pay. I have 10 years service myself and am still a constable.

We got a pay increase recently and I am on my maximum pay now which is 1000 pounds a year (you can work that out in dollars). (Editor's note: On the current market, one English pound is worth $2.80.)

☆

WE HAVE various courts of law in Scotland. Minor offenses are tried in a police or justice of the peace court, where the maximum sentence is 60 days.

The judge is unpaid and a local magistrate and he is addressed as "Your Honour". The next court is the sheriff, which is presided over by a professional lawyer and who is addressed as, "My Lord".

Any resemblance between the sheriff sitting here and the sheriff depicted in your films is purely coincidental. Usually they are elderly men and wear wigs.

The maximum sentence in the sheriff court is two years. The next and last court is the high court, presided over by one of the Senators of the College of Justice.

He is also addressed as "My Lord" and the death sentence can be awarded as well as life imprisonment, which is 15 years in Scotland. There are three verdicts, namely, "guilty," "not guilty" and "not proven."

The last is peculiar to Scots law and really means, we think the prisoner is guilty, but there is insufficient evidence to convict him.

An accused person is released after a "not proven" verdict and cannot be tried again for the crime he is charged with.

OF COURSE, as you probably know, no policeman in Britain carries a revolver. We carry a wooden baton in a special hip pocket and a pair of handcuffs.

Most of the real crime is centered round Glasgow, Edinburgh, Dundee and Aberdeen, the biggest cities. We have the odd housebreaking and assault here, but most of our work is dealing with traffic offences.

A lot of our population consists of farmers and brother, they drive a car in the same way they push a plough. We get a lot of drunk driving and there is always someone up at the sheriff court for this offence.

The northern part of the force is full of distilleries and I think that is one of the reasons.

We get quite a few American visitors in the summer and I must say that I have always found them a charming and polite lot.

It would be fine if you could get over here yourselves for a holiday.

Well folks, I'll end for now and let Beatrice fill in the rest. Hoping to hear from you soon.

Your truly,
Robert Davidson

The Sisters received an invitation from Brother Knights to join them in a public euchre party Friday, Jan. 26, at 8 p.m. also for a family potluck supper Feb. 17, and to go to church Sunday, Feb. 18.

Shanties Should Get Fume Vents

Michigan ice fishermen are urged to be sure their shanties have proper venting, regardless of the type of heating equipment they're using this winter.

The warning is prompted by last weekend's asphyxiation-drowning of a fisherman on Mud lake, Grand Traverse county, who toppled through a hole cut for spearing when he was overcome by fumes from his heater.

Conservation Department officials point out that a real danger exists for fisherman who use small burners designed primarily for cooking which lack some type of venting for escaping fumes, whether it be a simple hole in the roof or a regular stove pipe.

Study Group Hears Panel on Counseling Service

Five guests and 14 members of Child Study Club No. 1 attended the recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Hugh Desermia.

Mrs. Al Merz, president introduced the guests, Mrs. Bernard Fero, Mrs. Gerald Potter, Mrs. Ben Ross, Mrs. Harrison Gonser and Mrs. Richard Kureth.

Mrs. Robert Ries, program chairman, introduced John Pobuda, who led a panel of junior and senior high teachers in a detailed and informative discussion of counseling service in the school system.

Those on the panel were Mrs. Barbara Speerstra and James Hoffman from the senior high; Helen Sisson and Ted Todd from the junior high school.

A question-and-answer period followed, while the hostess assisted by Mrs. Stanley Kruse and Mrs. LeRoy Titley served dessert.

Favors of sucker faces with balloon legs were furnished by Mrs. Carson House and Mrs. Merz.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Ries and will be President's Night.

Dan Greene Dunks 18 As Indians Win

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh, held to just 19 points in the first half, rallied in the final two quarters for 42 points and a 61-53 victory over visiting Ypsilanti Lincoln here Friday night.

The win boosted the Indians' record to 3-3 in the Huron League, a mark they should improve on this Friday evening when they travel to Grosse Ile and tangle with the winless Islanders.

Dan Greene, hit a career high in the Ypsi game, tallying 18 points to lead the Indians.

The scrappy guard dunked 14 points in the final period when Tecumseh proved its superiority against a rather hapless opponent.

Ypsi, winner only over GI, was the weakest team played by Tecumseh this season. Except for the ability to drive for the bucket, the Railsplitters showed little talent.

Mike Clark, hard-driving guard, was the game's top scorer with 19 points, and also Ypsi's best player.

Norm Tucker, who hit for 16 points, and John Britton, with 10, led a late third quarter drive which overcame Ypsi and gave the Indians a two-point lead, their first of the game.

Tucker and Britton each hit for eight points in the third period.

Greene, who couldn't buy a basket early in the game, seemingly could not miss in the final stanza. Besides scoring on fast breaks, he hit several jumpers from the 15 and 20-foot marks.

Dan Greene got hot against Ypsilanti Lincoln Friday evening and led Tecumseh to victory with a fourth-period shooting spurge. Greene, who was a football regular until cracking his ankle in mid-season, is a real hustler on the hardwood.

Jayvees Outhustle Ypsi, 41-38

Tecumseh Jayvees outhustled the Ypsi reserves Friday night and came out victors, 41-38, despite a poor two-point fourth quarter.

Gregg Allen paced the winning Indians with 11 points.

Coach Jim Hoffman practically cleared the bench in the final period and this probably accounted for the closeness of the game.

Mrs. George Turney Is Selected New President

Mrs. George Turney was elected president of the Past Noble Grands Club Tuesday evening.

Others elected were:

Vice-president — Mrs. Donald Escott

Secretary — Mrs. R. C. Stauffer

Treasurer — Mrs. Roy Allshouse.

The meeting was turned over to the hostess, Mrs. R. C. Stauffer, who conducted games and awarded prizes to Alice Collom, Mrs. Jess Nichols, Mrs. Allshouse and Mrs. C. C. Richard.

A decorated cake honoring those whose birthday anniversaries are in January and Jello were served.

Feb. 13, Mrs. Donald Escott will open her home for the meeting.

Mrs. Collom, retiring president, conducted the meeting.

BEST LITTER OF PIGS result from improved breeding. Use of premium quality boars has permitted some hogmen to realize $1.50 to $2 more profit per hog marketed. Most breeders now provide production information, established through testing stations, on boars offered for sale. If records of one boar show he has produced 100 pounds of gain on 30 pounds less feed than another boar, this improvement, transmitted to offspring, can be worth about $2 on every litter produced.

PLAN A SIMPLE FORAGE SEEDING MIXTURE. It's usually best to limit mixtures to one or two legumes and one or two grasses. By limiting the number of species in the mix, you're more likely to include the better adapted ones. Another problem of including too many species is that maturities may vary. Where one species may be just right for harvest, the others may be too mature or not mature enough.

A LAYER WON'T PRODUCE LIKE A PULLET forever. It's best to replace old hens after about 14 months of lay with new pullets. After 14 months of production old hens will lay about 20% to 30% less than during their first year. Besides, they may eat up to 1½ pounds more feed to produce a dozen eggs and mortality usually increases. Hens that drop below a 55% rate of lay will barely cover their keep.

INCREASE LIFE OF YOUR MILK HOSES AND INFLATIONS by alternating their use each week. Think about owning two sets. Then during the week you are using one set, you can soak the other set in a 3% lye solution. Replace any inflations having cracks or roughness — it will be cheaper in the long run.

VOICE of THE HERALD

What Could Be Nicer?

What could be nicer than a week in Florida this winter?

We're not knocking the ice and snow of Michigan, but a winter vacation in the Everglade State sounds terrific.

When you can have such a deal for free, it's almost too good to be true.

But that's the setup for folks who do their shopping in Tecumseh stores. For the next eight weeks they'll have opportunities to take chances on such a junket.

The Herald has made all arrangements for the contest, lining up a Miami Beach hotel on the ocean and contracting Delta Airlines for the transportation both ways.

Only expense to the winners will be their food and entertainment.

And speaking of entertainment, the Miami area is the place for winter fun.

Tecumseh merchants have been given the package, worth $345, to give to some fortunate couple.

You might wonder how come The Herald could afford to undertake, on its own, such an effort.

Well, first of all, we believe in advertising and reason that advertising always costs something—but usually brings results.

Results that we seek:

► More traffic in Tecumseh stores and in the long run greater advertising in the columns of The Herald.

As to the latter, there is no prize— almost short of $1 million certified check —that will capture the attention and hopes of the more than 11,000 people who read our newspaper each week, than an all-expense winter vacation to Florida.

We hope you agree and invite you to start clipping the coupons you'll find on our pages over the next eight issues.

We Like George

As Republicans, we're happy to see that George Romney is getting closer and closer to saying he'll run for governor on the GOP ticket.

We like Romney for several reasons, not the least of them being that he could probably defeat any opponent, including the present governor.

In addition to this, and much more important for the future of our state, Romney is a man of talent and intelligence.

His star began to flash across the sky several years ago when he led American Motors out of the limbo of red ink with the advent of the compact car.

American, on the verge of collapse along with Packard, Hudson, Edsel and several other brands, suddenly found itself in the lush, green pasture of profit.

Romney was no flash in the pan.

He knew that as the Rambler grew in demand, every other manufacturer who could make a compact soon would.

His continued vigorous sales approach and improvement of the product kept Rambler on top.

Once the Big Three had tooled up with small models, Romney could have moaned, "You can't beat city hall," and dropped out of the race. But he didn't and that's another sign of his greatness.

Romney is a Mormon by religious Faith and a devout one. We like strong religious fibers in a man, especially one who is called upon to perform public service.

It seems strange, but hardly has Romney said he might run, then the national spotlight was being focused upon him as a possible GOP starter for the 1964 presidential race.

That is haste with a capital H.

If Romney does run for the post as Michigan's chief executive, we're sure he'll score a resounding victory, garnering votes from both sides of the street—and some right down the middle.

It's our opinion, also, that he would prove an excellent, deep-thinking governor.

George gets our vote.

Some Plan Is Needed

Detroit is attempting to work out a plan to nail drivers who cause accidents and inflict property damage on innocent victims, but have no liability insurance.

In probably every case, they are financially irresponsible and the fellow getting hit will never collect a cent.

Some states make it mandatory that all who drive must be covered. Insurance folks say this isn't good because it makes rates jump too high. We're inclined to agree with this thinking.

One idea being considered is to assess every driver, who doesn't carry liability insurance a fixed fee of, say, $20 per year, which would go into a state fund and be victims, but who have no liability insurance.

This has real merit.

Another plan would call for a special fee to be paid with the purchase of an automobile license each year, about $1, to go into a similar fund.

An idea of this nature makes good sense because it is easily collectable and is sure to get everyone. We'd all pay, but it would be excellent "insurance" for each of us.

Working out an arrangement of the latter nature is similar to the Tecumseh Products Co. death benefit plan. Almost all employees are signed up.

It is quite simple. When a Products worker dies, $1 is automatically deducted from each participants' pay and given as a lump sum to the family of the deceased.

Thus, widows will get almost $3,000 a few days after their husbands pass away. Last year, it cost each worker $17 as 17 employees died during 1961.

"An old timer is a fellow who can remember when one woman thought the next one was lazy if she bought canned goods."

OBITUARIES

● MRS. EFFIE KUDER

Services were held Monday at the Proctor Funeral Home for Mrs. Effie Kuder, 87, who died at Herrick Memorial Hospital Friday.

She had been a patient at the hospital since August 17. She had made her home on Clinton-Macon Rd. for 65 years.

Mrs. Kuder was the daughter of Francis E. and Katherine Herriott Walp and was born March 31, 1874, in Macon.

She married Almon Kuder Aug. 17, 1893. He died Jan. 8, 1944.

Mrs. Kuder was a member of the former Macon Presbyterian church and transferred when it closed to the Clinton Congregational church.

She was a life member of the Macon Woman's Club and the East Clinton Farm Bureau.

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Harold Johnson of Jackson, Mrs. Carl Auten of Britton, Mrs. Allen Wise of Clinton and Ruth Kuder at home.

Seven grandchildren, 19 great grandchildren and one great great grandchild also survive.

The Rev. Paul McKenna officiated and burial was in the Macon cemetery.

● MRS. I. MEHAN, SR.

Services were held Monday at Blissfield for Mrs. Isaiah Mehan, Sr., who died Friday evening at Herrick Memorial Hospital where she had been a patient for five weeks.

She was born in Riga township Feb. 5, 1891, the daughter of Albert and Anna Ellendorf Dickerson.

She married Mr. Mehan Sept. 16, 1912. She is survived by her husband, four sons, Franklin of Clinton, Nelson of Blissfield, Charles of Adrian and Isaiah Jr. of Deerfield; five daughters, Mrs. Raymond Lillian Rohrback and Mrs. Fred Spigel both of Blissfield, Mrs. Ivan Simpson of Lyons, O., Mrs. Lawrence Boss of Jasper and Mrs. Donald Wells, Sr. of Tecumseh; 20 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Five sisters, Mrs. Mary Fox and Mrs. Carl Filter, both of Adrian, Mrs. Elizabeth Witt of Metamora, Mrs. Harold Southwell of Manitou Beach and Mrs. Otto Holtz of Jasper and five brothers, Ben of Jasper, Frank of Blissfield, Walker of Britton, Martin of Adrian and Archie Dickerson of Sand Creek also survive.

She was preceded in death by three brothers and a sister.

The Rev. Lawrence Cox of the Raisin Valley Friends Church officiated and burial was in the Riga cemetery.

'Check and Double Check'

Some new services have been added to the "Check and Double Check" program of chest X-rays and tuberculin skin testing for adults of Lenawee County.

The plan is similar to the one offered last March. The X-ray unit will be located at the Fire Hall in Tecumseh.

Wednesday, Jan. 31 — from 10 to 1 p.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.

Thursday, Feb. 1 — from 11 to 4 p.m. and 5 to 8 p.m.

Tuberculin testing (Mantoux test) is an important part of the program. This test is especially important for all persons under 60 years of age.

X-rays become more important for middle age and older age presons. Therefore, the program includes the following:

All persons age 18 to 30 and food handlers over 14 will be offered the tuberculin tes tand only those found to have a positive test will be X-rayed.

All persons 30 years of age and older will be offered both tuberculin skin tests and chest X-rays.

"The tuberculin skin test will tell whether you have been infected with TB. This is important to know. If you are positive to the test you especially should be on guard against TB the rest of your life," according to Dr. Eleanor Skufis, M.D., director of the Lenawee County Health Department.

On the other hand, the X-ray will show active TB diseases as well as revealing some other disease and abnormalities of lungs, such as lung cancer, heart and other organs in the chest.

Older persons have more of these conditions which may be found by X-ray. An early discovery may be important for recovery.

"Everyone should take advantage of this service which is available in the community," commented Dr. Skufis.

Mary Pat McCann Is Guest Speaker at Young Mothers

Mary Pat McCann, special education teacher at Tecumseh Acres School, spoke to members of the Young Mothers Club Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Ivan Maynard was the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Frank Pritchard.

The evening was spent socially, following a brief business meeting.

Mrs. Dennis Richmond will be the hostess for the meeting Feb. 14 with Mrs. Jerry Tomecek as co-hostess.

Paul Diller from the Family Guidance Clinic in Adrian will be the guest speaker.

Long AND Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

No one should dispute the awarding of mid-winter, leather-medal sports awards to Dr. Robert Bower and Harvey Wilson.

If you never can find them Thursday afternoons — come snow, sleet or glare ice—there's a reason.

The pair are covering the Tecumseh Country Club terrain that day each week.

On skis, you ask

Hardly. These guys are playing golf.

If the snow is a little deep, they will use red golf balls, and according to "Rocky" Bowers, haven't lost one yet.

All readers who agree on the leather medals, please raise your right hands.

Fine, motion carried.

☆

This Florida deal has got things jumping.

For the gals, there's going to be a real fine fashion show March 1st featuring costumes from the Caribbean.

Delta Airlines will furnish the garb, which promises to be slightly exotic.

Hospital Auxiliary of Herrick Memorial Hospital will stage the show at the Community Center.

Complete details will appear next week.

☆

Our story last week on the Macon Phone Co. brought an unusual letter.

Seems the board of directors 60-year-old firm is seriously considering selling the territory.

This letter and a story about the proposed sale appear on page 6 of this section.

☆

This is the annual Michigan Press Association Convention weekend at Michigan State.

A letter recently arrived in the office that notes The Herald will again be honored as one of the state's best papers.

This will make the fourth time in five years that your weekly has landed an award in the General Excellence competition.

☆

Britton-Macon's basketball team ranks fourth in the Free Press state ratings. Nice going, Coach Sam Hamilton and hoopsters, keep on winning.

1,337 Florida Coupons Deposited

Coupons for the Florida Vacation poured in last weekend—1,337 of them—at nearly 40 business places in Tecumseh.

More are printed in this week's edition and will continue to appear until the grand drawing March 17.

In addition to the Florida vacation trip, there will be drawings every Saturday night at 9 in the Strand Theatre. Winners need not be present.

The first weekly contest saw these items and winners:

► Four-person table tennis set, donated by Wolf Tire & Appliance—Roland F. Mohr, 214 E. Logan St. (On a coupon deposited at Kroger's)

► Six tickets to the Strand Theatre, donated by the Strand—Herb Bagby, 1201 Murray Dr. (On a coupon deposited at Osborne's Dept. Store.)

► One-year subscription to The Herald — Harry Hans, 603 Brook St. (On a coupon deposited at Proctor's Shoe Store.)

All these coupons were tossed back into the giant drum—as will be the case each week—and will be eligible for the "Florida Vacation for 2" drawing in March.

Winners, who are not present at drawing, may pick up their prizes each week at The Herald.

Participants in the fun are reminded to write clearly and be sure to include your address. Coupons can only be deposited at stores whose names are printed on them. Lone exception is the one in The Herald ad, which may go into any container.

Coupons placed in the wrong boxes will be disqualified.

Each Saturday afternoon, coupons are taken from individual boxes, checked and counted, then transferred to the theatre for the weekly drawings.

Grand prize winner will fly to Miami Beach, via Delta Airlines, spend seven days and six nights at the Monte Carlo Hotel, right on the ocean.

ROLAND MOHR PRIZE IS GOING TO GRANDCHILDREN

School To Seek 4 Mills

BY JIM LINCOLN

Voters in the Tecumseh school district will be asked to approve four mills for two years on March 19, in order to erase an approximate $140,000 debt.

This decision was reached at a special meeting of the school board Monday night.

Supt. James McDowell says passage of the millage would not only erase the debt, but restore the first grade to full time.

Other services will come under review for additional possible savings.

If the millage is not passed, savings through elimination or alteration of other school services will be realized, reports the superintendent.

The board's decision Monday will mean the third attempt to acquire additional monies for the school. Last year, approximately $79,000 in services were slashed, including putting the first grades on half-day sessions.

Last year the voters turned down a four-mill issue about 1,500 to 900.

Other action at the meeting included a general school discussion with the local Michigan Education Association district of teachers and three representatives of the Citizens Committee.

Head in Cloud Nine, Feet on the Ground

By TOM RIORDAN

Her pals around town always call her "Willy".

Despite the fact she will head for Hollywood this weekend to appear in a motion picture with Jerry Lewis, she's still plain "Willy".

This is the lovely Joyce Wilbar, age 21, a Tecumseh native who a few weeks ago was named Patricia Stevens Young Model of the Year.

The title brought her a movie contract for the Lewis picture, which will be called "It's Only Money."

Although, Willy's pretty head is way up in Cloud Nine, her feet are still firmly planted on the ground.

Joyce is moving to the west coast, but not just on the speculation she may catch on full-time in motion pictures.

She has accepted a position with the Patricia Stevens Finishing School in Hollywood, where she will work full-time while not making the picture—or pictures.

This sort of straight thinking typifies Willy, who was always known as a level-headed person by Tecumseh folks she knew best.

☆

JOYCE IS extremely proud of the fact that she went through the entire Girl Scouting program here, under the leadership of Mrs. Truman Rentschler.

Mrs. Rentschler has this to say about Joyce:

"Joyce enriched my life during our pleasant associations in Senior Girl Scouting with her fun-loving nature and special skills in the world of fine arts.

"We practically lost her in the art galleries at Cranbrook on a 'go-see' trip.

"Joyce is the person whom I had in mind when plugging for a full-time art teacher in our local high school.

"She is deserving of any form of success that may come her way," Mrs. Rentschler concluded.

While in high school, Joyce took part in two productions. Here she is pictured with Dave Lowery as they did the "Torchbearers," directed by John Babcock. Joyce was a flaper and did exceptionally well, according to Mr. Babcock. She's now off to Hollywood to appear in a movie.

Joyce began to thing about becoming a model while in the seventh grade. She put the idea in writing for her teacher, who assigned an essay topic, "What I want to Be."

By the time she reached Tecumseh High School, she was also becoming interested in acting.

She took part in two school productions, "Harvey" and the "Torchbearers."

Directing the plays was John Babcock, who still teaches here and is in charge of drama efforts and was Joyce's favorite instructor.

She really enjoyed her THS thespian efforts and Mr. Babcock was impressed by her stage skills.

"Joyce displayed two qualities necessary for a student of drama—a sense of timing and ability to take direction," Mr. Babcock notes.

"Her two comedy roles, the nurse in 'Harvey' and the flapper in 'The Torchbearers,' were handled skillfully by Miss Wilbar. Both roles required exact timing."

☆

WILLY'S FRIENDS have never been forgotten and are just as near and dear to her as they were when she moved from here to Toledo two years ago to begin the first timid steps to a career as a professional model and actress.

Janice Wagner and Diane Fox, the only two THS Class of 1958 gal pals still unmarried, are Willy's best friends.

When Diane heard of Joyce's latest accomplishment, she de-

Cub Scouts See 'Stars' On Junket

Seventy Cub Scouts of Pack 4 took a trip with an unknown destination Saturday.

The mystery junket, planned by Cubmaster Bob Laidlaw and committeemen of Pack 4, attracted 15 fathers of the Pack who served as drivers in the car caravan.

The destination became known when the boys arrived at the Museum of Natural History in Ann Arbor and an enjoyable afternoon was spent exploring the various objects in the building.

One of the highlights was the "star show" in the planetarium.

Each Cub Scout was allowed to purchase a souvenir at the museum and was treated to a milk shake before leaving Ann Arbor.

Hockey Lad Cut, Needs 5 Stitches

Jerry Holdridge, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holdridge suffered serious injury to his left eye Sunday afternoon in a neighborhood hockey game at the "Pit."

Jerry fell and raised up just in time to receive the back lash from the hockey stick of another player.

Five stitches were taken above and below the eye and it is hoped that he will be released from Bixby hospital Thursday.

Extent of injury to the eye will not be known for several more days.

Hog Cholera in Near Epidemic Stage Locally

Dr. William Britton, State Department of Agriculture Veterinarian, will talk to the local adult farmer class Monday night.

The topic of his discussion will be "Current Problems in Disease Control and Prevention in the State".

He will stress problems in hog cholera, which is almost at an epidemic stage in this area.

Farmers in the school district are welcome, states Paul Burns.

The meeting will be held in the agriculture room at the high school at 8:15 p.m.

Moms to March

The annual Mother's March for polio will be held Tuesday, Jan. 30 from 7 to 8 p.m.

Volunteers will meet at the American Legion Home for canisters and arm bands. A coffee hour will be held there following the drive.

Mrs. Dennis Goller and Mrs. George Downard, chairmen of the March represent the Legion and VFW Auxiliaries.

The Week's QUIP

Those things that come to the man who waits seldom turns out to be the things he's waiting for.

March of Dimes Will Be Screened

A film on the March of Dimes campaign will be shown at the regular Grange meeting Thursday, Jan. 25 in the hall.

A public card party for the benefit of the drive will be held at the hall Saturday.

Those attending may bring cookies or doughnuts for refreshments.

Free Chest X-Rays Being Given

The Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, at the request of the Lenawee County Health Department, will assist in the "Check and Double Check" program of chest X-rays and tuberculin skin testing.

The X-ray unit will be located in the Tecumseh Fire Hall:

Wednesday, Jan. 31 — from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.

Thursday, Feb. 1 — from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 5 to 8 p.m.

Mrs. M. R. Blanden is in charge of the nurses scheduling. A registered nurse must be present at all times during the survey because of the tuberculin skin testing

Mrs. Harold Easton will organize the volunteer workers, who will assist in the survey.

All residents of Lenawee County are invited to take advantage of this service.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Thank you, Mrs. Butterworth. In response to a plea for red flannels in this column two weeks ago we received a welcome letter from Mrs. Leva Butterworth of Lakeview, Mich.

She wrote, in part, "If you are in earnest in wanting to obtain a pair of red flannels. About 30 miles from here, at Cedar Springs, we have a town known as Red Flannel town.

"You can write the Chamber of Commerce or the Cedar Springs Dry Goods Store. If you are having as cold weather as we, down to 12-below some nights, you do need them."

We will be posting a letter this afternoon for more information. Now don't all come at once I'm not sure I want to lend them

David Holden was recently initiated into the Michigan State Chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha and is now living at the fraternity house.

Thirty children, grandchildren and three great grandchildren gathered at the Oscar Meads home Sunday to celebrate Mr. Meads' 72nd birthday anniversary, which occurred Saturday.

A decorated cake in pink and white made by his daughter, Mrs. Clarence Randolph, was presented to Mr. Meads and cupcakes were served with ice cream. During the day he visited his brother, Arthur, in Milan.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kapnick and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Cutler left for Florida Saturday to spend two weeks.

Mrs. Harry Beland, Mrs. Robert Hunt and Mrs. Kathryn Hunt attended the Maude Badder Club in Blissfield Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dahlke are the proud grandparents of a new son born Jan. 22 to their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Dahlke in Annapolis, Md.

The baby, Dana William, is named for his great, great grandfather, "Happy" Chandler, who is living in Bradenton, Fla.

During the past holidays, Mr. Chandler, 92, and his partner led the grand march at the New Year's eve ball in Bradenton.

He is the grandfather of Mrs. Roy Dahlke. The baby's father is a hospitalman at the Naval Academy in Annapolis.

His mother is the former Doris Nash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nash.

Mrs. Jack Puffer and son, Billy, left Sunday morning by plane from a Windsor Airport to go to St. Johns, New Brunswick near Novia Scotia to visit her aunt, Mrs. Michael Crowe, who is seriously ill.

Arthur Collingsworth, Kim Dabe, Ron O'Neill, Bob Bonner, Niels Hansen and Jerry Kapnick had lunch and spent the afternoon Jan. 17 with Mrs. Ella Koone, representative of National Committee Women of Michigan and Con-Con delegate of Kent County in Lansing.

The engagement of Joy Lynne Bennington to Patrick G. Holdridge is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bennington of Holloway. Miss Bennington is attending Jackson College of Beauty Culture. Her fiancee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Holdridge of 201 S. Democrat St. He is attending Wolverine Mechanics school in Detroit. Plans are being made for a June wedding.

Three-Man Shop Eligible Under Compensation

George Huber from the Monroe office of the Workmen's Compensation Board told about the operations of his office at Rotary Tuesday.

The board was established in 1912 and in 1937 the law was amended to incorporate occupational diseases.

He discussed the law as it applies to both employers and employees.

Any employer with three or more regular employees may insure against accidental hazards.

There are 46 employees in the Department and Michigan's cost of operaiton is next to the lowest of any state having a similar law.

Chiefs Aerie To Name Veep

Chiefs Aerie 1563 FOE will hold an election for vice-president at the regular meeting Tuesday, Jan. 30.

An initiation of new members will be held, with lunch following the meeting.

Carole Ross Marries Stanley House

A candlelight ceremony, performed by the Rev. Julian Gresham Jan. 13 at the First Presbyterian Church, united Carole Jane Ross and Stanley E. House in marriage.

Parents of the couple are Raynor S. Ross, 616 W. Kilbuck St., and the late Mrs. Ross, and Mr. and Mrs. William House of rural Brooklyn.

Tall vases of white gladioli and chrysanthemums outlined the altar for the double ring ceremony. Cathedral candelabra with jade foliage and satin bows and white china pedestal urns with pyramid arrangements of white gladioli and pompons enhanced the kneeler.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of silk organza over satin trimmed with lace, pearls and sequins. Her butterfly veil of French illusion was attached to a Swedish crown of crystal beads.

She carried Carol Amling Sweetheart roses and gardenias on her white lace covered Bible.

She wore a starfire pendant, gift of the groom, at her throat.

Donna Roe was maid-of-honor and Mrs. Douglas Hoffman and Judy Artz were the bridesmaids

The brides attendants wore gowns of silk brocade fashioned with bell shaped skirts, long sleeves and a sabrina neckline.

Miss Roe's dress was baby blue and she wore matching shoes and carried shocking pink carnations with feathered white chrysanthemums accented with camellia foliage.

The bridesmaid's gowns were pink and they wore matching shoes and carried shell pink carnations in the same cascade design as the maid of honor's.

☆

WILLIAM ROSS was best man for his sister's wedding and the guests were seated by Doyle Bumpus, Kenneth Koons and Larry Munson.

Mrs. Herbert Dillon was the organist and Mrs. Al Merz, the soloist.

A reception for 200 was held in the church parlors where a five tiered cake made by the groom's aunt, Mrs. Dow Jaqua, was served by Mrs. Harry Hoffman, Jr. and Diane Fox.

Mrs. Jacqua also made the groom's cake. Three doll cakes decorated in the colors worn by the bride's attendants and made by Mrs Glen Harrison and Mrs. Harold Richardson were also served.

Mrs. Harry Hoffman, Sr., Mrs. Alton Snyder and Sue Velandra assisted with the serving.

Barbara Gebarowski and McClure had charge of the gifts.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and attended cosmetology school.

The groom is a graduate of Clinton High School and the Toledo Electronics College.

The couple left Thursday morning on a trip to California.

Scouts Plan Programs

Brownies, Intermediate and Junior High and Senior leaders of the Irish Hills Girl Scout Council met last week. Working in seperate groups with Mrs. Donald Creger, neighborhood chairman, and Mrs. Julius Vincze, troop consultant, to plan coming events and workshop.

The Brownies are working on a Thinking Day program for Feb. 22 in the Presbyterian Church, with Mrs. Jerry O'Brien, chairman.

The Intermediate Thinking Day program is planned for Feb. 21. Mrs. Dora Robinson, district advisor, taught the group songs and Mrs. Jerry O'Brien demonstrated flag and troop ceremonies.

An Outdoor Day, Day Camp and Established Camp were discussed by the leaders.

The Junior High and Senior leaders planned a Winter Holiday at Frontier City for Jan. 27 with Mrs. Stanley Miller as chairman.

They will hold an International Dinner at the Products Union Hall, Feb. 20, with Mrs. Howard Morris as chairman of the event.

Plans concerning the 50th year pageant, cookie sales and Girl Scout Week were discussed by each group.

Thirty leaders attended the meetings.

Credit Is Earned

R. G. Dillingham of the Tecumseh-Clinton Credit Bureau was guest speaker at the weekly dinner meeting of the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club last Thursday evening.

He traced the development of the granting of credit from the days when everything was bought and paid for by cash on credit.

He stressed that good credit is earned and is not a right.

Seniors Visit Con-Con

By NANCY BELAND

"I'm a republican, spelled with a small 'r'. I believe that once a delegation is elected, it should not have to report back to the people until elections come again."

So said Robert S. Tubbs, a Republican (and republican) from Grand Rapids.

He was addressing some of the 127 Tecumseh High School seniors who accompanied Donald Brazee and Wayne Reganall on a one-day trip to Michigan's Constitutional Convention.

Although, the group did not completely agree with Mr. Tubbs, his statement did add to the enormous amount of material offered the THS scholars.

Besides the 144 delegates, representing Michigan's 34 State Senatorial districts and 110 State Representative seats, there is a large stenographers pool where any delegate can get a stenographer or a report on any of the preceeding events of the Convention.

☆

WHEN CLYNE Durst, Lenawee County delegate, greeted the group he asked if there were any questions.

"Do you think Mr. Romney will run for governor?" someone said.

Mr. Tubbs came up and was asked, "Are you a Democrat or a Republican?"

After responding, he went on to discuss many things, including the bright and shiny apples on each delegates desk. It seems three of the delegates are fruit growers and share the task of supplying each of their fellows with an apple a day.

FOR LUNCH, the THS visitors ate in a cafeteria.

Two of the more industrious seniors hurried through the meal and hustled to the Capitol, where they visited Senator Elmer Porter from Blissfield, who gave them pencils from the Senate for each of the 127 seniors.

After lunch, the group returned to the Convention Hall to watch the proceedings at an actual meeting. It was similar to sessions of the United States Senate or House.

Before the opening many of the delegates came to the gallery to speak to the Tecumseh group.

These men told about proceedings and what was to be expected. There was a good deal of joking about running for Representative or Senator in the next election and the Democrats teased the Republicans and vice versa.

Three boys managed to get into George Romney's office to speak to him, but most had to be satisfied with only a look as he was working.

What was thought would be a formal meeting, suddenly turned informal when the Convention dissolved into the committee of the whole.

Delegates would run from one chair to another or summon a page to do it for them.

Discussion was on bonding. Issues students confessed they didn't understand the business at hand, but were reassured to discover that several delegates, particularly women, did not understand it either.

The Class of 1962 extends thanks to the service clubs which donated the money for this trip.

clared, "She really deserves this fabulous opportunity. Willy has been one of my closest friends for several years, so I know her well enough to say she's 'tops.'

"She has a warm, friendly, vigorous personality and always wears a smile. She's been the life of every party, always the same, full of the sweet devil. However, she's always sensible and wise.

"Besides being a 'ball' to be with, Willy is a truly good friend. She is interested in her friends' lives, their joys, sorrows, ups and downs, as well as her own.

"In short," Diane notes, "We just love her."

☆

ANY Romance?

Yes, there's a man in Willy's life, in fact a husky right halfback from Bowling Green State University.

He's Doug Parrish, age 22. They plan to marry sometime within the next year.

They've been steadies for quite a while.

Doug wants to transfer to a west coast university and do his football playing in sunny California.

☆

THERE IS another friend who rates top mention when it comes to the success of Miss Wilbar.

Mary LaRue, director of the Toledo Stevens Finishing School is the person who took Joyce as a brand new student and guided her through months of training until she came out a polished model.

Mary has been serving as Joyce's agent—although she receives no fee—for modeling jobs in the Toledo area.

Joyce has appeared in many ads and publicity still pictures helping to show off such things as Champion Spark Plugs, Ohio Oil products, and glassware by Libby-Owens and Owens-Corning.

She was earning $20 an hour for these modeling chores.

OUR READERS WRITE

Who Closes Schools Bad Days?

TO THE EDITORS:

The closing of schools on inclement days and the determination of whether buses are to run or not in most school districts is delegated by the board of education to the superintendent and his assistants.

This is true in Tecumseh and the superintendent and bus supervisor make these decisions according to the following procedure.

On inclement days the bus supervisor makes a run with a bus over a trial route which includes roads of the type over which our buses must run.

If he considers the roads to be too dangerous to run or if portions of the roads are too bad he calls the superintendent and together they decide where buses will run.

If changes in regular schedules are to be made the bus supervisor calls WJR, WABJ and WOIA radio stations which put this information on the air.

Regardless of the decision of the superintendent and bus supervisor, all drivers are instructed to attempt no roads which seem too dangerous, since our district comprises more than 90 square miles and road conditions may vary or change very rapidly throughout our district.

Also there is no reason for drivers to hurry over their routes as they are paid by the hour and safety is our prime desire.

The ultimate decision of whether to drive a road or not is therefore at the discretion of the driver. Also, if a parent feels that the roads are too bad for the safety of his children he may, of course, keep his children home.

The parent is without question, the person who should make the decision as to whether his children ride the buses.

There are many other factors including that of safety which enter into a decision of whether or not to close schools.

The salaries of the professional personnel alone approximate $3,658 per day and the amount saved by not running the buses is about $297 so in closing the schools for a day there is about $3,361 lost in educational opportunities for the children of this area.

The state acknowledges "Acts of God" as reasons for closing school so Tecumseh does not lose State Aid because of closing school, but the state does not require the school to make up such days either.

So the day is really lost as far as education is concerned. There is a delicate balance between safety on the buses and the loss of educational opportunity to the children. The superintendent and bus supervisor try to make these decisions wisely.

Also it is very difficult to please parents for most parents want their children in school every day and many of them bring their children to school even when the buses have been unable to run the secondary roads. However, there are others who do not seem to feel that the children lose too much if they do not get to school if the roads are bad. It is difficult to please everyone.

The superintendent and bus supervisor weigh the matter carefully, safety of prime consideration, the loss of educational opportunities if school is closed of secondary consideration.

Our record of one personal injury accident with drivers moving the buses in 11 years is excellent and our school attendance record is also of high regard.

Even a Fiery Steed

Knights of Yore was the theme of the January meeting of Pack 4 Cub Scouts when they met Monday evening at St. Elizabeth Auditorium.

Each Cub Scout was equipped with a sword and shield which he had made at his den meetings during the month. There were also Knights attired for battle, wearing full armor and helmets, one even riding a fiery steed.

After Den 7 conducted the opening flag ceremony, Cubmaster Dr. Bob Laidlaw led the group in several songs. Each den then participated in a Parade of Knights and one Cub from each den recited a line of "The Knight's Code."

The following awards were given:

John Dustin, Den 1, wolf badge and gold arrow

David Rex, Den 4, silver arrow under wolf and gold arrow under bear

PACK 4 IS in charge of the February Round Table in Adrian which will be held Feb. 1 at 7 p.m. at the Michigan Milk Producers Bldg.

Mrs. Richard Dustin is in charge of the arrangements of the meeting.

Den 6 conducted the closing ceremony after which the Cub Scouts formed a Living Circle and Dr. Laidlaw reminded the boys to be as Knights and to live their daily lives with a code of honor.

The next meeting of Pack 4 will be the Gold and Blue Banquet Saturday, Feb. 10 at 6 p.m. at the Tecumseh High School cafeteria.

The banquet will be for all Cub Scouts of Pack 4 and their parents and will be a potluck affair with each den arranging its own menu.

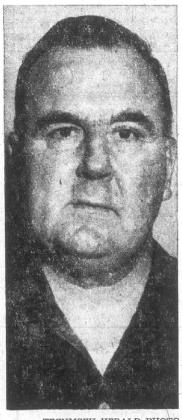
Mrs. Paul Burns is in charge of the arrangements.

Helps Solve Gang Crime

Detroit Detective Lt. Dudley Arnold—a former Tecumsehite—was given credit by the FBI for solution of the murder of John A. Kilpatrick, president of the Independent United Industrial Workers of America.

Kilpatrick was shot to death in his car Oct. 20 in Chicago.

Lt. Arnold gave FBI agents the information which prompted them to question William J. Triplett, 37, of Detroit, who confessed that he was with Dana Nash when Nash shot the union leader.



TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTO

LT. DUDLEY ARNOLD

Arnold had been investigating the Oct. 11 shooting of Albert Blume in his jewelry store on E. Jefferson Ave. in Detroit and was seeking Conrad Mikulin, 44, of 2931 Hallack, as a suspect.

When he arrested Mikulin Oct. 31, he also picked up Triplett as a known associate of Mikulin. Triplett later confessed the robbery of Blume.

During his interrogation Tripplett told Arnold he would give him some hot information on a "Big Chicago job" if Arnold would give him a break.

Arnold turned down the deal.

Later in the day when he was reading a rehash of the Kilpatrick slaying in a newspaper and remembered that the FBI had informed him that Triplett had showed up at Mikulin's Chicago home the day Kilpatrick was killed.

Tripplett broke down in mid-December. This led to extensive investigation, during which the FBI interviewed scores of witnesses and examined numerous items of evidence.

This was the first gang murder to be solved in Chicago in the past 20 years.

Lt. Arnold graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1927, he has been a policeman since 1937, and with the Detroit Bureau since 1940. He will observe 25 years service April 1, 1962.

His father, Frank Arnold, lives at 405 W. Patterson St., where Lieut. Arnold visited Tuesday.

Writer's Speech Is Session Topic

Mrs. R. C. Pennington presented devotions for members of the Happy Home Builders Class of the First Baptist Church Wednesday evening.

She read from an article on "National Morals," taken from a speech given by the editor of The Tulsa Tribune at a daily press association convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davidson were in charge of the entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. L. Sisson were the hosts in the Youth House.

At the February meeting, Mrs. Pennington will be the hostess and Mrs. Robert Gillespie will lead the devotions.

Freeman Will Speak

Last week Russian farmers were getting verbal blasts from their Premier Nikita Khrushchev for failure.

In America, farmers too face problems — but of a vastly different kind — the result of dramatic success.

For the past 47 years, thousands of Michigan farmers have come to the Michigan State University campus to see and hear developments that have been a key part of that success.

Never in history has any nation enjoyed the abundance of food that is today available in every corner grocery or supermarket.

MSU staff members are busy with last minute details to welcome some 40,000 people to East Lansing next week and bring farmers up-to-date on the latest in new equipment, practices and management.

This year will mark the 100th anniversary of a unique idea in education. In 1862, President Lincoln signed the Morrill Act which created the land-grant colleges of which Michigan State is a pioneer.

The theme of the 47th annual Farmers' Week will be focused on the centennial observance of the founding of the institutions which have had a far reaching effect on agriculture and broadened opportunities in education.

One of the key addresses during the week's program will be given by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman on Jan. 31.

The production record of American farmers is an enviable one. Secretary Freeman in a recent address said that in his opinion the explosion of agricultural technology in this country holds forth, for the first time the promise that world hunger can someday be banished from the earth.

Use of improved practices, cutting costs and better marketing systems will all come under discussion during the week long program at MSU.

Farmers will get a first hand look at some of the research techniques that staff members have developed to reduce labor and make farming more efficient — a combination which assures an abundant food supply to the nation's families at low cost.

Little Garden Club Selects New Officers, Hears Mrs. Ketteman

Mrs. Don Ketteman was hostess to 18 members of the Little Garden Club Jan. 16.

Three guests, Mrs. Lester Fogelsong, Mrs. Howard Furry and Mrs. William Miller were also present at the meeting.

Mrs. William Schroer installed the new officers and told of the high lights of the past year.

The ceremony involves the use of an arrangement using the club flower—the iris. The iris represented the officers, old and new.

The five leatherleaf ferns were the achievements of the past year — Flora-Drama, the flower show, district meeting, civic projects of planting the war memorial in front of city hall and plants to the shut-ins and the fair.

The high focal point of five iris was the "heights to which the new officers will bring us"; while the lower groupings of iris, the support of the old officers.

New officers are:

President—Mrs. Robert Murray

Vice-president—Mrs. Don Purkey

Secretary—Mrs. Richard Colson

Treasurer—Mrs. Wilbur Andrews

Membership Secretary — Mrs. Thomas Corkery.

☆

MRS MURRAY then conducted the business meeting. Annual committee reports were given, followed by a discussion of meeting and projects for the year.

Members voted to have a flower show, continue with summer meetings and have a work shop Friday, Feb. 16.

The workshop will be at the Tecumseh Greenhouses under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Al Musch. Center pieces will be made for a Lincoln Day Banquet.

Yearbooks, programs and new committees will be announced later by Program Chairman Mrs. Purkey and Mrs. Murray.

An intra-club contest on flower identification will also be held this year.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ketteman, assisted by Mrs. Earl Baldwin and Mrs. Richard Hammel.

Herefords Enjoy Cold

Frigid temperatures don't seem to bother healthy cattle. These Herefords on the Paul Frazier farm, along Britton Hwy. north of M-50, seem to be enjoying it. The cows ambled down a bank in the pasture to a section of Milwaukee Creek, which slides through the Fraizer place. After a cooling drink from the fast-flowing stream, they walked back to the barnyard. Mr. Frazier says that the severe cold has given him one problem—keeping the stream open so the cattle can drink from it.

Theological Student Will Speak At St. Peter's Sunday

Sunday, Jan. [illegible] Theological Education Sunday at St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

The guest speaker will be Carl Creswell, junior student at Bexley Hall, the Theological School of Kenyon College, Gambier, O.

Service of morning prayer and litany will be held at 11 a.m.

Though a resident of Milan, Mr. Creswell is a postulant for holy orders from the diocese of southern Ohio, where he was stationed during part of his service in the Air Force.

Mr. Creswell's brother, Richard, lives in Tecumseh.

The Theological Education offering is received once each year for the support of the church's seminaries.

The offering from St. Peter's will be divided between the general Theological Seminary, New York; Nashotah House, Nashotah, Wisc., Bexley Hall and the School of Theology of the Diocese of Michigan.

Area Young Men Join Air Force

Among 17 young men from Lenawee who have enlisted in the US Air Force are John L. Perry of Tecumseh; Thomas D. Handley and Richard E. Moore of Britton.

Macon Phone Co. May Sell

After nearly 60 years of being in business, the Macon Telephone Co., may sell out.

Its shareholders will decide the question at the firm's annual meeting on Feb. 10, states President Homer Mehler.

Mr. Mehler and his board of directors were authorized at the 1961 annual gathering to negotiate with General Telephone and Bell for sale of its 265-station system.

Both major phone companies are willing to take over the Macon territory and would install all new equipment and dial phones. Most of the service would fall into General exchanges—Tecumseh, Britton, Milan and Saline. The northeastern tip of the present Macon system would join Bell.

Basic rates, which now are $3.75 for subscriber-owners and $4.25 for private Macon phones, would go up. However, total outlay for phones in Macon would probably be no more than present, because so many Macon calls are now toll.

Macon's income at present is greater from toll [illegible] revenue than basic rental charges.

Mr. Mehler states that the Macon system is badly outdated and requires considerable work. To convert to dial, for example, would cost from $75,000 to $100,000.

If shareholders ratify the wishes of the president, it would take almost one full year for General and Bell to equip the area. Cut-over to new systems would come at one time—one day Macon area folks would be using their own system, the next they would be on local exchanges with Tecumseh, Britton and the others.

No Such Thing as Bad Boy — Just Boys With Problems, Speaker Says

An official of the Lenawee County Youth Center gave her philosophy on troubled youngsters at Friday's gathering of the Tecumseh Friends Church Power Class.

In speaking to 22 members and 10 guests, Martha Pfund, assistant director of the Center, said,

"There is no such thing as a bad boy—just boys with problems.

After enjoying a chili supper in the basement of the church, the group heard Miss Pfund tell of the "Open Door Program" conducted for boys at the Youth Center.

Formerly known as the Juvenile Detention Home, the Center is under the jurisdiction of the judge and Probate Court of Lenawee County.

SOME OF the problems which have brought the boys to the attention of the court were discussed by Miss Pfund, along with the tests which are administered before the boys are placed in the Center.

She mentioned that each boy has a Sunday family with whom he goes to church weekly.

A teacher is now in the employ of the Center, although the majority of the boys attend public school.

When a boy is ready for release, extensive counseling is done with the boy's family.

Miss Pfund told of specific cases in which real programs toward rehabilitation has been made.

Plans for the building program about to be initiated by the Center were also included in the informative talk. After these plans are completed, girls as well as boys, will be served.

☆

OTHER FEATURES of the evening included.

A solo by Ardys Drewyor, accompanied by Mrs. Ashley Chase

A talk by Barbara Hunt, director of the Child Evangelism Fellowship of Hillsdale County.

Miss Hunt, assisted by Joyce Hall and Mrs. Gordon Smith, presented a complete program such as those given in the weekly "Good News Clubs" sponsored by Child Evangelism.

In charge of arrangements for the evening were Mr. Norman Feller and Mr. and Mrs. Leland Fogelsong.

President Explains Why System Should Be Sold

TO THE EDITORS:

The annual meeting of the Macon Telephone Co., held March 4, 1961, by a vote of 237 to 24, voted the board of directors full authority to plan and work out the best solution which could be arranged for the best telephone interests of the people of the Macon area.

During bygone years the Macon Telephone Co. served as an efficient and much-needed means of communication for Macon residents.

However with the changing of conditions, roads, autos, changing of towns, location of doctors, dentists, hardware, implement, and tractor dealers, garages, telephone companies and schools, the need for a better and more direct telephone service is now apparent.

Just why should the folks living near Tecumseh in the southwest part of the Macon phone area, be required to go through Macon and Ann Arbor to reach Tecumseh, their school, business, medical and hospital center?

Why should citizens living in the northeast section of Macon area, even nearer Milan than Macon, be forced to go through Macon and Ann Arbor when the Milan telephone system can now better serve their needs?

Several residents of this area, former Macon telephone subscribers, have changed to Bell.

Would a Saline phone connection for the folks in the north section of the Macon area, now in the Saline school district, be better?

Folks living in the south part of Macon area, now in the Britton School District, likely prefer a Britton phone.

How about direct Tecumseh phone connections for the village of Macon and nearby residents, without going through a central and also Ann Arbor?

After several years of study and investigation by the Macon Telephone Co. board of directors, they are now all supporting the following changes.

Knowing the facts regarding the financial and equipment setup and operating activities of the company, (perhaps better than someone who cares little as to facts and figures) the board has completed plans for dividing the Macon Telephone area and uniting each part thus divided with the telephone system of the nearby city or town.

With such phone connections practically every resident of the Macon area will be connected directly to their local town for fire protection, medical, hospital, veterinary, business, social and school needs.

Surely such phone arrangements and connections are the most logical solution for the Macon Telephone Co.

The Board of Directors ask for full approval of this plan at the meeting of the shareholders on February 10, 1962.

Herman Mehler, president of Board of Directors

BOYSVILLE

The Fighting Knights lost a close game to the Irish of Adrian Catholic Central High School, 44-37.

The Knights showed their best output of the season by rebounding well and handling and shooting well, particularly in the first half, when the Knights led 23-19.

Stan Klos of Boysville was high-point man for the evening with 19 markers.

The opinion around Boysville now is that the Knights, having shown the spirit and ability they did last Friday, even though they lost, can give some stiff competition to their remaining opponents.

The Junior Knights lost a rough game to the Junior Irish of Adrian CC, 48-25.

For the Knights, Bob "Midget" Stuart had eight and Bill "Bugs" Moran, six.

The Freshman team under Coach Joe Fortunato ran over the Saline Frosh, 52-26, Jan. 16.

Jim Eldrington of Boysville was high scorer, pushing through as many points for the Knights as Saline scored all evening.

Family Night Supper Plans for Jan. 29

The Presbyterian Women's Association began the New Year with a meeting held Jan. 17 in Fellowship Center with new officers in charge.

Mrs. John Hamilton presided and welcomed the members and opened the business meeting with prayer.

Programs for the coming year were outlined by Mrs. John Saling. Mrs. Frederick Dickinson stated that a family night supper will be held Jan. 29 at 6:30 in Fellowship Center with the Rev. Al Riddering and family as guests.

He will tell of their work at Merida, Yucatan, Mexico which the local church helps to support.

The Association voted to assist in a visiting project with the older residents at Ypsilanti State Hospital.

Members also voted to have a Valentine Tea Feb. 14. Mrs. Néville Hart will be in charge of the program and Mrs. Gerald Baker will be kitchen chairman.

Mrs. John Saling, program chairman, presented Mrs. Roy Van Winkle, who conducted devotions and Mrs. James Barton who gave a reading, "The New Recruit."

Each Author Has Different Idea of Love

Books, articles, poetry and prose have been written on the subject of love.

"Yet we are confused because the author in each work has had a different type of love in mind. Love may be selfish or it may be outgoing," states the Rev. Allen Wittrup.

But what of Christian love, and what are its virtues?

The Rev. Mr. Allen Wittrup will speak on the subject "Love is the Greatest" on Sunday, Jan. 28 at 10 a.m. in the First Methodist Church.

The official board and commissions will meet on Wednesday evening, Jan. 31, commissions at 7:30 and official board at 8:30.

Next Prayer Meeting Will Be Jan. 31

Saturday morning at 10 a.m. the Seventh Day Church of God met for worship and study. Members learned that the inward man has to be given by God and it possesses peace and forgiveness and many other beautiful characteristics.

Elder Lidell of Ypsilanti delivered the morning sermon and his subject was Babylon and the Beast. He told about different prophecies that reveal the facts of our times so we may be prepared for the future.

Next prayer meeting will be Wednesday, Jan. 31 at the Williams home, 611 Division St. in Adrian.

January meeting of the Women's Association will be held Saturday evening, Jan. 27 in the McCann home.

A Fellowship of different Sabbath-keeping churches is also scheduled for the afternoon of Jan. 27, to be held in Detroit.

Contest Ends with Banquet on Saturday

Youth of the Tecumseh Friends Church will participate in a banquet as the culmination of a contest within the group Saturday evening at 6:30.

All members and guests of FYF are invited. Reservations should be made by Friday with the pastor, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weimer or Mr. and Mrs. DeArle Brugger.

The week of Jan. 29 through Feb. 2, each afternoon at 3:30 p.m., ladies of the church will conduct children's meetings for the boys and girls of the community.

The Rev. Eva Clausen and Celeste Richardson are holding evangelistic meetings at the church at 7:30 each evening until Feb. 4.

The Rev. Eva Clausen presents the sermon and Miss Richardson has charge of the music.

Monday Club Hears About Life in Germany

Mrs. Robert Bonner, program chairman, presented her house-guest, Niels Hansen, to members of the Monday Club Jan. 22 when the meeting was held at the Parish House of St. Peter's Church.

Niels spoke of the comparison of the school systems, sports and life in general between his country of Germany and the United States.

Mrs. J. Cleon Mason, Mrs. Mertie Luce assisted by several officers served salad from a lace-covered table, centered with an arrangement of bronze chrysanthemums flanked by tall brown candles.

Mrs. Norman McConnell gave devotions.

Demand

Todays demand for progress based on a true comprehension of God's nearness and all-power will be stressed Sunday at Christian Science church services.

Varsity Loses But JVs Win

Tecumseh Indians showed practically nothing except errors last Friday night when they allowed a host Grosse Ile five win its first game of the season, 47-41.

The winners took over the lead early in the final stanza and pulled away for a six-point margin.

Coach Doug Murdoch and the local team travel to Dundee this Friday evening in quest of their fourth league victory and to even their loop record at 4-4.

Tecumseh defeated Dundee in the opener.

The Indians, who have blown warm and cold but never hot, were ice cold against Grosse Ile, especially after the first quarter.

After outscoring their rivals, 12-6, in the opening period, the Indians managed to hold the six-point lead to the half, but then folded.

Norm Tucker led Tecumseh with 12 points. Jim Sells and Dick Cramer topped GI with 15 and 12 points.

THE WINNING Jayvees easily downed their opponents, 50-34.

A big 24-point second period, led, by Jim Newell, rallied the Jayvees from an 11-5 deficit to a 29-22 halftime lead. Newell collected 10 points in the period.

Center Gregg Allen paced all scorers with three goals and nine fouls for 15 points. Eight members broke into the scoring column.

Surprise Party Leaves Mentor Happily Gasping

By ARTHUR COLLINGSWORTH
Editor Of The Scout

The United Products Workers' Union Hall was the setting of a surprise farewell banquet for Coach Duncan Lectka last Thursday evening.

Mr. Lectka was accompanied by Jack Osburn, who had brought him to the hall under the false assumption that he was going to address a 4-H banquet on physical fitness.

As he entered the hall, the standing assemblage broke into a chorus of "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow."

It was obvious that the surprise had been preserved from the expression on Mr. Lectka's face.

The guest of honor was joined by his family at the head table, flanked by admirers who had gathered to bid farewell — students, faculty members, townspeople, area coaches and old acquaintances.

The project was sponsored by The Scout, the high school newspaper.

The arrangements were made entirely by a student committee composed of member of the newspaper staff, the Varsity Club and the football team.

MIKE ROHRER, president of the Student Council and a member of the varsity football squad, served as toastmaster.

The program was composed of tributes from various representative groups and a series of skits portraying past events in his life.

Tom Simmons, president of the Varsity Club and captain of the football squad, presented Mr. Lectka with an engraved pipe holder with a set of several pipes.

This writer gave a tribute from the student body.

Other tributes were given by:

► William Beardsley, his new boss at Michigan State.

► Burt Smith, a coach at Michigan State.

► Neville L. Hart, principal.

THE TABLES were most appropriately decorated to coincide with the football theme — goal posts, footballs and orange and black pennants were featured.

Coach Lectka was presented with a large trophy to commemorate his entire football career by Messrs. Gross and Lawson.

The trophy, modeled after the famous one awarded by Sports Illustrated magazine, honored Mr. Lectka's 25 years in athletics.

The banquet ended with some random comments by Mr. Lectka.

Dance—So That They Can Pay

The Boosters Club will hold a public dance featuring the Leo Butler trio at the United Products Workers Union Hall Saturday, Feb. 3, from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m.

Tickets are available at Eastons Friendly Service, Moore Lumber Co., Osburn Real Estate and from Don Purkey.

Full proceeds will be used to finish paying for work done on the press box and to complete the building.

Ken Conway is president of the Boosters and Wallace MacGeorge is the treasurer.

Don Murphy, publicity chairman, said Tuesday "This is a dance where you will see your friends, if your friends are boosters, of course. Everybody will be there."

Men 21 To 35 Being Sought For Jaycees

Tecumseh Jaycees are observing annual JC Week along with 250,000 Jaycees in the United States.

Each year at this time the members review the work of the previous year.

Tecumseh members are proud of this year's record.

As in previous years, the local chapter is looking for young men between the ages of 21 and 35, who desire to serve the community while enjoying the benefits of leadership training.

Anyone interested in joining is invited by Charles O'Neill to contact a member, or call him at HA 3-4238, for more information.

Librarian Is Speaker At Park PTA

Mrs. Jule Fosbender was the speaker at Herrick Park PTA meeting Jan. 18.

She told of the new library and what it would contain and also of the summer library program and the children's story hours.

James McDowell was present to speak on the school situation.

Youth, 14, Breaks Leg

Franklin Boike, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boike, 110 Hiawatha St., fell two weeks ago skating and fractured his right leg.

He will be confined at Herrick Memorial Hospital in traction for three months.

He is in Room 103. Franklin was a member of the eighth grade of the Junior High School.

Archers To Divide Into Teams

Archers of the community have been shooting Tuesday, Wednesday and Sundays at the Community Center.

Now they plan to divide into teams Jan. 30 and compete against each other Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m.

Deerfield Falls for Tonie Five's Seventh Win

By JIM LINCOLN

Britton and Deerfield attracted the biggest basketball crowd seen on the Tecumseh floor in several years Friday night when the Tories dumped their once-beaten rivals, 52-43.

Originally scheduled for the small Deerfield floor, the game was moved to the neutral Tecumseh gym to handle an anticipated king-size crowd.

Even then, the SRO sign was out as many fans were unable to find seats.

Estimate of the crowd was 1,700.

The game turned out as expected, with the giant-size Tories continuing their winning ways, 52-43, and keeping their high state ranking with seven straight wins.

Sophomore Phil Benedict, 6' 7½" center for Britton, paced all scorers with nine field goals for 18 points.

The 15-year-old lad tallied eight points in the third stanza when Britton routed Deerfield with 18 points, while the Minutemen were gathering only six.

DEERFIELD, behind by 17 points at one time in the final stanza, rallied to close the gap to nine, mainly on the sharpshooting of little 5'7" guard Joe Laslo.

Laslo collected 10 points in Larry Plotter's eight markers, the fourth period, and with Deerfield applied the pressure in waning minutes.

The Minutemen, averaging 5'-10" on the floor and giving up over five inches per player in heighth to the Tories, stayed with the winners through most of the first half.

Deerfield led 8-7 at the end of the initial period, and once in the second quarter, the Minutemen were in the run by three.

Although most fans had either heard or read about young Benedict, 6'4" Kenny Southwell and 6'3" Larry Hummel the capers and manuvering of Dean Conrad, Pepevering of Dean Conrad, Pepwere surprising.

These three give the Tories some speed and ability if they're to advance in the post-season tournaments.

Fouls and foul shooting hampered Britton, losing two players via the foul route and had two others on the verge of leaving the game.

Britton connected on just eight of 23 free throw attempts, while Deerfield hit on 15 of 30 attempts.

Spitz Dog Runs Away in Macon

MACON—A tiny Spitz dog, white and tan, was lost in this area and a friend of his, Mrs. Earl Bryan of Tecumseh, is most concerned for his welfare.

She and Mrs. Luigi Gallo have been looking for a home for the animal for some time.

They gave him to one family, who returned him, and then to the Hal Yoder family here.

When the door was opened, the little Spitz slipped out and ran away. This happened Jan. 3 and Mrs. Bryan has been looking for him since that time.

If anyone has seen an animal of this description, Mrs. Bryan would be happy to hear of his whereabouts at HA 3-4674.

The Rev. Father Thomas J. Collins recent trip to the Carribean, as recorded on color slides, seventh and eighth graders.

As we traveled from New York to the beautiful Carribean islands one could not help but feel he had actually been present on the exciting trip.

We would like to thank Father for taking the time to explain and present the slides to us.

Ken Bagby

Not too long ago the death grade had a pleasant surprise. When their teacher had left the room it was assumed by her students that she had gone on an errand.

But when she returned with Sister Martin Anne, O. P. the students were struck with surprise on seeing their former teacher. It is hoped by all that when Sister again passes through Tecumseh she will not forget her ex-pupils at SES.

Julie Mudgett

Recently on the door of the eighth grade a sign was placed saying, "Do Not Disturb."

This was not a surprise for the eighth graders as this was the day for the high school placement examination. As the clock neared three and the test came to a close all agreed that their worry had been slightly exaggerated.

Bob Donahoe

Although Michigan is called the Water Wonderland, for the past few days it has looked like an ice land.

Monday the playground was a mass of ice and, if he desired, a skater could easily glide from the north to the south end of the playground.

Though everyone had fun, a few of us had our aches and pains afterwards.

Dave Lipps

Geography has become a popular subject in the fourth grade classroom. Each student has selected a state which he will write to and obtain as much information as possible about it.

As the class concludes the study of each state it will be placed on a large map in the back of the room. It is hoped by the fourth graders that they will attain their goal of studying the 50 states by the end of the year.

Forest of Controversy

LANSING—Slowly, through a forest of controversy, the Con Con committee on local government was finding its way toward settlement of the complexities and interplay of counties, townships, villages and cities — in other words, local government.

Even the subsidiary issues were difficult and involved.

These included a reformation of annexation procedures and a Constitutional provision granting counties of more than a million population the right to set up their own merit employment systems.

Voted down by the committee was a proposal to allow counties, if they wished, to set up a post of county assessor, replacing the multiple township assessors.

The debate brought an angry charge from Martin W. Baginski (D-Detroit) favoring a county assessor, that the state's "unhealthy business climate" was caused by greedy tax practices of small cities and townships with big industry in their area.

THE CIVIL Service proposal, as passed, was presented at the request of Peter L. Buback, (D-Detroit a chief Wayne County deputy clerk.

Wayne County now has Civil Service for its 7,000 employees, but Buback explained, "We want a firm foundation for it, the same as the state Civil Service. Our merit system exists at the will of the Legislature, and some peculiar things have happened."

Civil Service status was quietly lifted off the Wayne County Sheriff's office in June, 1961, Buback explained. "Nobody knew about it at the time," he said. "It was just slipped through as an amendment."

The first Civil Service proposal set no population limit, but its sponsors emphasized that it was "entirely permissive," and would go into effect only after the Board of Supervisors had ordered it on the ballot and a majority of voters had approved it. Either voters or supervisors could kill it.

☆

HOWEVER, some rural delegates objected, explaining that while Civil Service did not work well in small counties employees would insist anyway. William C. Gover (R-Sheridan) first proposed a 350,000 population limit, then dropped it to 250,000 to include counties like Kent and Genesee.

Neither figure was satisfactory to other delegates, and a compromise was set at one million, limiting Civil Service to Wayne County. Delegates, however, predicted that if other urban counties asked for it, the population limit later would be lowered.

Committee members said one of the most complex isses they have handled so far was that of annexation. Present procedures, which were set by the Legislature many years ago, they generally agreed, are inefficient and unwieldy.

No annexation petition can be checked to see if it is reasonable or proper. If it is legal it has to go on the ballot in the order in which it is presented. Many tiems multiple annexation propositions in a single election cancel each other out, delegates said.

The committee tentatively voted to give a special court power to review annexation petitions for reasonableness and to eliminate tax grabs before they can go on the ballot. The provision limits a confirming election to annexing the city and the area involved. The township losing an area can not vote.

☆

ANNEXATION is the focal point of a bitter conflict of interest between center, or core, cities and adjacent townships, delegates said. Core cities generally need more and more land as their tax bases grow smaller as real estate ages and land uses change.

Annexation, especially of undeveloped land, is generally cheaper than land clearance for new industry and housing developments.

But usually people in adjoining townships don't want to be annexed, the delegates were told. Generally, township taxes are lower, some times much lower.

With modern technology, ranging from septic tanks to high pressure deep-well pumps, many township dwellers enjoy the best of country and city living.

They are not eager for a change, nor for living on the paved, curbed city street that usually comes—often with an assessment — soon after annexation.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

TROUBLE WITH THE ICE

Ho, Ho—last week's article reached the proper ears and how is this for quick results! The day after we wrote about how badly we were being treated by the Evening Grosbeaks—not the day after the paper came out but the day after the article was written, we were visited by a handsome male Evening Grosbeak.

He flew into the "wren tree" and appeared greatly interested in the sunflower filled feeding tray. So interested was he in fact, that several swoops were made at the tray.

As a newscomer, however, he was overly cautious and when the patron at the tray did not appear friendly, the grosbeak finally gave up and flew away without lunch.

Guess who the ill-mannered, selfish diner was? None other than Papa Cardinal.

Imagine—a timid cardinal who usually shies at the slightest provocation ascertaining himself and not backing away from the bigger grosbeak.

THE NEXT day a duller colored, but still pretty female favored us. She flew in, found the feeder unoccupied and, showing not the slightest bit of strangeness, but quite the contrary, acting as though she were an old and regular guest, started right to work on the sunflower seeds.

What a predicament we were in, Ida was at the window aiming and focusing the camera—she dared not move for fear of frightening the grosbeak and I was suffering all sorts of frustrations because, although the camera switch was on my bed, it was not, and could not be, turned on.

Two days later Mr. Big Bill returned, but again the feeder was busy. A fox squirrel was monopolizing things and the poor grosbeak didn't stand a chance.

We didn't stand a chance of getting pictures either — three grosbeak visits and none recorded on film. That's bad, let's hope the powers-that-be are paying attention this week—we would love to photograph some of the invaders from the north.

☆

IT HAS been interesting to note the apparent break-up of the grosbeak flock, or flocks. At first we heard about 20, 25 and even 30 birds being together, but now three or four, sometimes six seem to be the number.

We of course have had to be content with a single visitor but then, it just hasn't been our year as far as grosbeaks go.

Oh my, look what has happened—the Evening Grosbeaks took up most of my space.

Even so, I must tell you briefly about the ice trouble. Remember several Sundays ago when Tecumseh found itself slick, slippery and ice-coated? It wasn't an especially pretty ice-storm, but as it turned out, it was a very funny one at our feeder.

As always on an inclement morning, all the birds were most anxious for breakfast. The feeder was piled high and from all over they came winging.

☆

THE EDGES of the feeder were ice-covered however and so very, very slippery. We could not help but laugh as one bird after another slipped, skidded and fell towards his breakfast.

The bluejays of course were furious and even the cardinals seemed a bit ruffled at losing their dignity.

The chickadees and tufted-titmice were funniest of all. They insisted upon trying to light on the top of the Y-shaped limb on the feeder. It was impossible. There was no footing and they skated right off. Such un-bird-like goings on.

So it is that we have had little thrills and excitement with Evening Grosbeaks, but the big laughs came when the free-loaders had trouble with the ice.

The Big and Little of It

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

I was pleased to have a copy of The Herald covering the death of my good friend Bill Sage. Certainly Tecumseh will miss him. A friend forwarded the Herald knowing that I would be interested.

That, however, is not what I am writing about, I was distressed to read the article and front page editorial on the refusal of United Savings Bank to grant a loan to a company desirous of establishing itself in Tecumseh.

I know nothing of the merits of this situation having left Tecumseh in 1948.

I do know something of the attitude of United Savings Bank and its officers toward encouraging new industry for Tecumseh. I was associated with Meyers Aircraft Co. in an executive position from 1940 to 1948.

These were hard years for the company — getting a new business established, financing the original plant and then financing the expansion required during the World War II, etc.

Without the help of many people of Tecumseh it is doubtful if the plant could have survived. Amongst those who helped most were people such as Dr. H. H. Hammel, Bill Sage and John Thomspon.

These men sat on our board of directors and gave generously of time, talent and money.

We always found that United Savings Bank, as represented by its directors and president, John Thompson, most anxious to help the company. Many times the Bank found it necessary to turn down loans we asked for or attach conditions to loans that were burden-some, we thought, at the time.

Experience over the years showed me that the reasoning and requirements of the Bank were correct, sound from a business standpoint and good for the company itself.

I was always impressed, however, with the fact that the Bank considered the safety of its depositors' money the most important factor in deciding whether or not to grant a loan.

I learned to respect the attitude of the bank for while banks do have an obligation to bring new industry to their communities and to help existing industry to survive and expand they cannot escape their prime responsibility of protecting the depositor's savings.

I'm ceratin that no bank wants to turn down a loan because the earnings of any bank are dependent on the interest collected on loans made. The bank collects no interest on loans that are refused.

Without knowing the details of why this loan was refused I would be willing to wager, after eight years experience dealing with United Savings Bank, that there was good and sufficient reason for the refusal.

Sincerely,
Bruce W. Hoffman

Garden Club Opens Year with Talk

The Tecumseh Garden Club opened the 1962 season with a talk by Mrs. Charles Campbell of Adrian, vice-president of the Michigan Federated Garden Clubs.

She spoke of the workings of the Federation.

The Club has tickets for the Builders Home and Garden Show at Cobo Hall Feb. 23 through March 4.

They are available at the Rosacrans Store and Bea Ring's Gift Shop.

The show is open each day from 11 a.m. until 11 p.m. March 4 it will close at 8 p.m.

Aebersold Girls Are Hostesses to 4-H Club

Cheryl and Patti Aebersold entertained 10 members and nine guests of the North Franklin Hustlers 4-H Club Jan. 15.

The newly-elected officers assumed their duties and dates and meeting places for the year were scheduled.

Patti had charge of the games. Mrs. Aebersold served ice cream and cookies.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 12 at the home of Carol and Karen Davenport.

Donald Gust Is Elected to Another 3-Year Term

Donald Gust has been elected to another three year term on the Board of directors of the Lenawee Soil Conservation District.

The election took place Jan. 11 when 14 members attended the annual banquet at the Madison School.

Albert Abol of Dover township was given a certificate of recognition for outstanding application of soil and water conservation practices in 1961.

Woodrow Barclay and Gerald Malone, USDA Soil Conservation Service presented colored slides of soil conservation practices that have been applied on the land in Lenawee during the year.

Waldo Johnson entertained the group with a movie of trout fishing in Labrador, "Specks for Your Eyes."

Mr. Gust and other members of the board Clarence Ehlert, Maynard Minier, Lloyd Ruesink, Woodrow Barclay and Hal Benner, are available to explain soil and water conservation to schools, other groups or individuals.

They [illegible] and state meetings and workshops to keep posted on problems in other parts of the state as well as in Lenawee.

Most especially they are anxious to cooperate with youth groups such as 4-H, FFA, Boy and Girl Scouts and Campfire Girls.

The directors report that so far about six or seven schools in the county have used their material.

In the report for the year 1961 the directors state, "We, the Directors of the Lenawee Soil Conservation District, believe it is our job to make your farm more productive and your community a better place to live. May we serve you."

What's Going on at Boysville

By DAVE KLAVON

About sixty Boysville students enjoyed themselves in an evening of dancing at St. Joseph Academy in Adrian Jan. 13.

The boys had a fine time dancing to the music of records played by a local disk jockey.

All who attended would like to thank the Sisters, who made the dance possible, and the girls.

On January 25 and 26, Boysville scholars will be struggling with mid-year exams.

As soon as the exams are over, the boys will "clear out" for a weekend home.

A half-year has already flown by, almost without notice. After the short vacation the students will hit the books in an attempt to start off the second half of the year well.

Boysville's eighth grade basketball team won last Thursday evening, 17-12, over Summerfield's eighth grade.

The "Seventh Grade" (smaller eighth graders) team lost a close one to Summerfield, 23-22.

Brother Aloysius Glombowski, CSC, is the eighth grade coach, and the "seventh graders" are coached by Brother Edward Cole, CSC.

Five Boysville students will appear this Sunday on a Detroit television station's panel show, "Quiz 'Em."

The boys, Dave Mason, Gary Frei, Jim Palko, John Casey, and Denny Frei, have been preparing for the show by studying current newspaper stories.

Brother Philip Armstrong, CSC, is the faculty representative, and Brother Oliver Baran, CSC, is the coach of the team.

The boys will compete against St. Gregory's High School of Detroit.

Stork Sat in Center of Table

Mrs. Charles Froelich was the honored guest at a cradle shower Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Andrews.

Games were played with prizes awarded to Mrs. Aden Mead, Mrs. Carlton Cook and Mrs. Warren Puffer.

Mrs. Warren Peck was assisted by Mrs. Andrews. A stork centered the coffee table where gifts of blankets, towel sets, kimonas, a diaper bag and bottle warmer were accumulated.

Floral arrangements centered each refreshments table and favors of cradles filled with candies and nuts were used at each place setting.

Mrs. Robert Malloch of Pocklington Rd. entered the University Medical Center last Sunday for surgery.

VOICE of THE HERALD

JC Fact Finding

Whether there is a tri-county junior college in Jackson or not, people should become acquainted with the needs for some type of area education on the college level.

This is the philosophy of Duane DeLoach, publisher of The Blissfield Advance, who serves on a committee gathering information about the proposed Lenawee, Hillsdale and Jackson County Tri-County JC.

We're inclined to agree with Duane.

This doesn't mean we favor the proposed setup—nor does it mean we're opposed.

It is simply this—more and more high school graduates are going on to college and more and more are thinking about such a step.

But as the demand grows, the facilities at existing colleges and junior colleges do not.

Vocational classes on the college level are pitifully lacking and these are probably what we need most.

So, whether you are for, against or undecided about the tri-county plan, you should be willing to hear and even go out to gather details.

Maybe Lenawee doesn't want to go along with Jackson and Hillsdale counties, but there could be other plans.

Lenawee could hardly expect to "go it alone" on such a vast undertaking. So we should think in terms of joining with at least one other county. Maybe Monroe would be a better answer for us.

But we won't know unless we do a little head scratching and dig up some details.

In any event, more junior college facilities will be needed—and needed relatively soon—if we are going to afford the increasing number of youngsters, wishing college training, a chance to get it at a reasonable cost, even if they don't finish in the top 15% or 20% of their graduating class.

There are lots of boys and girls who rank around the medium as high school students, who can excell in certain college level courses.

They could hardly command an entrance exam for the University of Michigan or Michigan State, even some of our smaller schools. Probably, few could afford these big camps anyway.

But does this mean they should be denied a chance to learn a trade in a two-year program, as could be part of our junior colleges?

If and when Lenawee becomes a part of a JC, we would like to see equal emphasis on courses placed on the vocational as well as straight academic.

Such things as printing, Linotype operations — we name those because they're close to our hearts, but also because when one becomes a master at these he has a ticket for lifetime security—auto and aircraft mechanics, foundry work, tool and die, pattern making.

A JC program including these programs would be of tremendous service to the area it serves and the individual youths residing within it.

MR. AND MRS. MIKE JURKOWSKI UNITED AFTER 23 YEARS APART

23-Year Separation Ends

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Sometimes it takes a lady quite a while to make up her mind.

In the case of Mrs. Mike Jurkowski formerly of Poland and now of Tecumseh, it took her 23 years.

She and her husband were reunited last month after a separation of 23 years when she arrived here following a 24-day boat and train trip from Poland.

The interesting story was brought to the attention of The Herald by Mrs. Melvin Wegner of Wegner's Markets, where Mike does some shopping.

Mike was born in Detroit in 1911. In 1912 his parents took him to their native Poland.

Before World War II, anyone who had been born in the US, had the money and desired to come back, could do so.

Mike returned with thousands of Hungarian, Polish and Chechoslovakian people.

His wife, Stefania, having been born in Poland could not come.

After the war, Mike sent for his wife, but she did not want to leave her home land. She wanted him to come to Poland.

It took long years to make it plain to her that if she wanted to be with him she would have to make the trip across the ocean.

☆

A YEAR AGO, people that Mike boarded with in Detroit visited in Poland and, reassured, Mrs. J. decided to come to this new country.

Happy confusion reigned when Mrs. J., with two Catholic sisters, alighted from the train in Toledo.

She couldn't find him and she was dressed so differently then when he last saw his wife, that Mike couldn't find her.

Mike said, "I was fat and now I'm skinny."

After the reunion the sisters went on to their destination.

The couple are making their home at 104 S. Division St. where much remodeling and painting is taking place.

Mr. Jurkowski has been employed at Bruce Foundry for 15 years, coming here at the suggestion of a friend who worked in Clinton.

Mrs. J. is anxious to become a citizen of the United States and was busy filling out papers Tuesday.

Thursday, Jan. 18, she will celebrate her 43rd birthday anniversary in her new home, in her new country, with her husband who must seem "new" too.

Sharon Ries Named by IFYE To Spend 6 Months on Formosa

Sharon Ries, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ries of Tecumseh, has been named one of five Michigan young adults selected as International Farm Youth Exchange delegates for 1962.

The announcement was made by Miss Mary Woodward, assistant State 4-H Club Leader, at Michigan State University in East Lansing, who is in charge of the state program, conducted through the Cooperative Extension Service.

Miss Woodward reports that country assignments have been made by the National 4-H Foundation in Washington.

This assignment has Sharon placed in the Republic of China for a six months period starting in June 1962.

Sharon, a senior at MSU majoring in social work, was selected on the basis of interest in world understanding, ability to represent the United States and general leadership achievement.

☆

ACTIVE in Tecumseh High School affairs, she has four years in the Girls' Athletic Association, two years in the Future Nurses' Club, and in the Spanish Club.

In the Tecumseh Presbyterian Church, she was a member of St. Andrews choir, a Sunday School teacher and a member of the campus Christian Fellowship.

She now is president of Women's Inter-residence Council at MSU as well as Board Member of Spartan Spirit, all-University Student Government Executive Board and Spartan Round Table.

Sharon's summer employment has been with the Migrant Ministry in Michigan.

She was elected as 1961 MSU Harvest Queen.

Miss Ries was a 4-H member in Lenawee County for eight years with projects completed in home economics and flower gardening. She lived on a fruit farm for 14 years.

SHARON RIES

The Week's QUIP

Best way to carve a tombstone is to chisel in traffic.

Long AND Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

How does a businessman regard his competitor?

The answer could probably run the gantlet from hate to hope to respect.

But in the case of hating the guy who sells the same thing you do, the payoff usually always goes against you.

Hate and success seldom are partners.

Respect and success—yes.

There's a fellow up in Lapeer named Jimmie Harris, who for many, many years was engaged in the sale of farm machinery.

He started from scratch and built an amazing sales record.

Jimmie's effort made it tough for the other boys around Lapeer in the same line of endeavor. Not because he was sneaky or unethical—just the opposite.

He was a hard goer, always fair and square.

The tactics of respecting his competitors brought great happiness to Jimmie and to the fellows he sold against.

Recently, Jimmie became too ill to go on and sold out his firm.

Stories in the Lapeer County Press about Jimmie touched the herats of many readers, I'm sure. They did me and I never met the fellow.

But the thing that really rang the bell was a County Press ad, which was headed "An open letter to Jimmie Harris from a Competitor."

Then followed from Kenneth Sterner, who sold against Jimmie for many years, these words:

Dear Jimmie:

You have been the toughest competitor I ever had and the one I most hate to lose. I think other dealers will join me in saying that.

Your aggressive advertising, your salesmanship, and your big inventory brought buyers here from long distances. That helped all of us. You stirred us all to work a little harder, too, and figure a little closer.

When my health failed, and I had to get out of business for several years, you offered me a job and wanted to help in any way you could. I knew you meant it.

You have been a good friend, a lot of fun, and you set a fast pace. I am sure you will regain your health and return to active business.

Whatever form of business you try, I know your competitors, your customers and the community will benefit.

Good luck in your final clearance sale and my sincere best wishes for your next venture.

Your Friend,
Ken Sterner

Makes a fellow stop and think, doesn't it?

It's No. 9 All The Way

It was No. 9 — all the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Shrader, 212 S. Democrat St., welcomed a husky daughter Monday morning at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

As to the nines.

► She was the Shraders' ninth girl.

► She arrived at 9:31.

► She weighed 9 lbs., 2 ozs.

And what did Mrs. Shrader think about another daughter? "Could it be anything else? I gave up after No. 4," she mused.

"A little boy would never have a chance," she grinned.

The rest of the all-gal lineup includes:

Sharon, 10
Patricia, 9
Theresa, 7
Susan, 6
Mary Kay, 5
Margaret, 4
Rebecca, 2
Amy, 1.

The elder four are students at St. Elizabeth and Susan is in kindergarten at Patterson School.

Mr. Shrader works on the third shift at Tecumseh Products Co.

3,570

During the past week, 3,570 coupons were dropped into containers at 40 business places around Tecumseh.

Each is a chance on the free one-week Florida Vacation being given away by local merchants.

Of the coupons picked up at local stores, 35 were ruled invalid because they had been deposited at the wrong places.

Coupons may only be placed in stores on which the name of that business is printed. Only exception is the one which appears in The Herald ad on the first page of the second section. This coupon may be deposited at any participating store.

In addition to the chance on the Florida vacation, all coupons will be included in the weekly drawings, held at 9 p.m. every Saturday at the Strand Theatre.

Last week's winners were:

► Robert Schultz, 411 Brown St. — necklace and earring set, donated by the Watkins Shop (on coupon deposited at Van-Mers Dept. Store.)

► Diane Franjac of Birmingham — six tickets to the Strand Theatre (on coupon deposited at Hodge's Drug Store.)

► Robert Schiller, 811 River Acres Dr. — one-year subscription to The Herald (on coupon deposited at Welch Cleaners).

► Zelma Pilbeam, 202 E. Cummins St. — one-year subscription to The Herald (on coupon deposited at Country Markets, Inc.)

All these winning coupons will be re-deposited in the giant cannister for other weekly drawings and finally the "big one" — the Florida Vacation — on March 17.

At this Saturday's event, a $5 item from Lamb's Rexall Pharmacy will be the top prize, followed with six theatre ducats and two Herald subscriptions.

The total weekly prize list carries a retail value of almost $15.

The promotion continues for five more weeks, with more than 40 coupons appearing in each issue of The Herald.

So keep those scissors flying.

IN 2,001 TO 4,000 WEEKLY CIRCULATION CLASS

Named Best in State

Another Michigan Press Association General Excellence award has been won by The Tecumseh Herald.

The Herald has been rated the state's best weekly newspaper in its circulation class, 2,001 to 4,000, for 1961.

Presentation of the prize-winning certificate was made last weekend at the annual MPA convention on the campus of Michigan State University.

This marks the fourth time in the past five years that The Herald has been among General Excellence award winners. It now has twice been named best of its class and two other times ranked in second place.

Judged by the Kanasa Press Association, The Herald was cited for "superior photos, good typography and clean makeup."

The entire 2,000-to-4,000 class drew praise for "good community service" and "photography."

The Davison Index ranked behind The Herald. Two papers, The Belding Banner News and The Northville Record, tied for third place. The South Lyons Herald rated an honorable mention.

In the class of 1,276-to-2,000 circulation, The Blissfield Advance, notched a second place, only other Lenawee County winner.

Other first places went to: The Dexter Leader (up to 1,275 circulation), The Manistique Pioneer Tribune (1,276 to 2,000), The Lapeer County Press (more than 4,000) and The South Macomb News and Tri-City Progress of Utica, tied, (metropolitan weeklies over 4,000).

BEAUTIFUL LAKE ROBINSON—In this land of lakes, is it any wonder that Tecumseh has one right along Shady Lane — leaving one home an island? John Robinson, 1210 Shady Lane, who works at Clinton Engines, isn't one to feel glum about the whole mess. With nearly 18 inches of water in the back yard and about half as much in front, it was no trick to float the family boat around to the street-side and advertise some beautiful lake front lots. The joke has brought many a smile to passersby and the Robinson family especially enjoys the fun and now its own ice rink.

Rubber Stamp Solves Pesky Signing Chore

One family in town has devised a rather unique way of "signing" coupons for the Florida trip.

The Vern Manwarings have a rubber stamp with which they affix their name to the nearly—50 coupons each week in a matter of minutes.

To Make Tour

Mrs. Arthur Holdridge entertained members of the Progress Extension Club Jan. 29 when a donation was made to the March of Dimes.

A tour of Boysville was planned for Feb. 7.

Mrs. Kennard Wise presented a lesson on "Trends in Major Household Appliances."

Refreshments were served to 11 members present.

Young Farmer of Year To Be Named Here

Russell McDonald, assistant county agriculture agent, will be guest speaker at the Outstanding Young Farmer Awards Dinner sponsored by the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce. The event will honor the young farmer selected by a panel of judges as top agriculturalist in this area.

Dinner will be held at the VFW Hall Thursday.

Seven young farmers in the 21-35 age group were nominated for consideration.

All will be present at the dinner, awaiting announcement of the winner.

The winner, according to committee chairman, Walt Wonderly, will receive a plaque.

"Our Junior Chamber of Commerce committee would like to express its appreciation to all those who nominated a farmer during the past few weeks," states Walt.

"We hope that this project has improved public understanding of the farmer and that it may influence some young people to consider agriculture as a life-time career," he adds.

Last year's winner, Russell Pilbeam, will also be a guest at the banquet.

School Book Exhibit Will Be Two Days

An exhibit of books from the various school libraries will be presented at the Herrick Park School Feb. 7 and 8 with three purposes:

► To acquaint teachers with new materials so that they may better help their students.

► To help children be more selective in what they read.

► So parents may share the new book material with their children.

Mrs. Robert Blanks and Mrs. Katharine Suydam, school librarians, invite parents and anyone interested to come to the exhibit.

The exhibit will be open Wednesday and Thursday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and Wednesday evening from 7 until 9 p.m.

Exotic Fashion Show Coming March 1

A showing of exquisite Caribbean-area vacation clothing for women will be staged by the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary March 1.

The event is being planned for the Community Center with an anticipated audience of more than 500.

This entire style show is furnished free of charge to the Auxiliary by Delta Airlines.

Delta brings all the clothing and has the various costumes fitted to local models, who will show them.

Fran Wheeler of Atlanta, Ga., Delta's women's extension director, brings the show here and will act as mistress of ceremony.

The Auxiliary's Mrs. Carlos Knisely and Mrs. Neville Hart, who are co-chairmen of the event, will arrange for the models and make other arrangements for additional entertainment.

Delta is awarding door prizes, including a bucket of champagne.

The Auxiliary co-chairmen are being assisted by Mrs. Howard Furry, Mrs. Leland Hubbard, Mrs. G. Maxwell Smith, Mrs. Hugh Andrews, Mrs. Ken Herrick, Mrs. Vern Manwaring and Mrs. Duncan Lectka.

Others on the plans group are Mrs. Yale Kerby, Mrs. Orrie Gilbert, Mrs. Charles Mensing, Mrs. Ben Gillies, Mrs. Wallace MacGeorge, Mrs. Don Purkey, Mrs. W. N. Winfield and Mrs. Walter Prill of Britton.

They Have Romantic Lead Roles

Diane Fox and Sydney Turner will be seen as the couple in love in the forthcoming stage comedy, "You Can't Take It With You".

Miss Fox, 507 Stacy St., portrays Alice, the only member of the madly comic Sycamore family who is in daily contact with the world.

Off stage she is a certified dental assistant in a local office. Her only acting experience has been from a play in her Tecumseh High School days.

Mr. Turner, 111 Pine St. enacts the role of the boss's son, not long out of Yale.

Mr. Turner is making his stage debut.

His occupation is representative for Blue Cross-Blue Shield.

The hilarious comedy opens Wednesday, Feb. 21 at the Strand Theatre. Three performances are scheduled.

IT WON'T WORK, TONY—Diane Fox, who plays the feminine lead in the coming Tecumseh Players Production of "You Can't Take It With You," tells her romantic interest, Tony, portrayed by Sid Turner, they can never be married. Tony works on Wall Street, comes from a blue-blood family. Alice's home and clan is a mess—snakes, an xylophone and a printing press in the front room, fireworks in the basement. It all adds up to one of the zanzious stage productions written in this Century. The show plays the Strand Theatre Feb. 21 - 22.

Kathleen Condit Is Engaged to Jim Danforth

The engagement of Kathleen Sue Condit to Airman James G. Danforth is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Condit, 4475 North Blissfield Hwy., Britton.

Airman Danforth is stationed at Keesler Air Force Base in Mississippi. He is the son of Mrs. Virginia Fraker and James E. Danforth of Tecumseh.

Both young people are graduates of Britton-Macon High School. A summer wedding is planned.

Pastor Gero Represents Gloria Dei

Pastor Laszlo Gero and Fred Weseloh were in Monroe representing the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church at a conference of the Christ Lutheran Church.

The local church council meeting will be held Monday, Feb. 5, at the Parish House at 7:30 p.m.

The Men's Club will entertain the Men's Club of the North Blissfield Lutheran Church Thursday, Feb. 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the Parish House.

The skating party scheduled by the Luther League for Saturday was postponed due to inclimate weather.

Cooperative Dinner Planned for Girl Scouts

Mrs. Donald Creger, neighborhood chairman of the Irish Hills Girl Scout Council, and Mrs. Julius Vincze, troop consultant, met with the Junior High and Senior troop leaders at the Scout Cabin Monday afternoon to make big plans.

They are having a Girl Scout Cooperative cafeteria dinner at the Methodist Church Friday, Feb. 9, as a money-making project for the troops.

Mrs. Stanley Miller was asked to be chairman.

Reginald Dixon was in Detroit Tuesday to attend a Polaroid Clinic sponsored by Garrett Photo Supply Co.

Janet Gotberg to Marry Former Tecumseh Man

The engagement of Janet Gotberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ejner Gotberg, 27320 Goldengate Dr., Lathrup Village, to Val Spangler, of Milan, was announced during the Christmas holidays.

Janet is a graduate of Southfield High School in the class of 1959. She is attending the University of Michigan and is a Junior in the school of nursing.

Her fiance is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and now attends the University of Michigan.

Val is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grenval Spangler, of Milan, former Tecumseh residents.

Band Boosters May Give To Day Scholarship Fund

Sixteen members attended the Band Boosters meeting Thursday evening in the library of Tecumseh High School.

Members discussed giving a percentage of each fund — raising drive of the group to the David Day Scholarship Fund. The purpose would be to keep the fund self-sustaining. A committee is working on the project.

A report was made that members sold 1½ tons of candy during the recent sale and still have a few boxes left.

Anyone interested in purchasing some may contact any member.

One member stated, "If we could get the enthusiasm for the proposed millage vote that we had for the candy sale we could insure the continuation of the band."

City Scout Leaders Get Awards

Annual Scouter's Appreciation Dinner held in Adrian last Jan. 25 was highlighted by the presentation of award to Wolverine District Scouters.

Howard Wilson, Jr. of Tecumseh presented Den Mother awards to five, including Mrs. Melvin Purple of Tecumseh.

Scouter's Training awards were presented to Richard Witt of Tecumseh and two others.

The Scouter's Key went to Lester Ruhl, Sr. of Tecumseh

Duncan Oliphant of Tecumseh and other Council members paid tribute to the Cub, Boy, and Explorer Scout Leaders.

Mrs. Boltz Shatters Left Shoulder

Mrs. Mervyn Boltz, 112 E. Kilbuck St., fell on the ice at her home Jan. 23 and shattered bones around her left shoulder socket.

She expects to be hospitalized at Herrick Memorial for about another week.

Mrs. Wyman Service is assuming the duties of English teacher at the Tecumseh High School in the absence of Mrs. Boltz.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hunt and family were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt and family in honor of the fifth birthday anniversary of Teresa, daughter of the L. Hunts.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Sold out! Oh, the agony of it all. Here we are freezing in the latest below zero temperatures and in Wednesday morning's mail comes the price list from the Original Red Flannel Store in Cedar Springs.

The agony enters when we read the inked in information that Winsted Red 100% virgin wool flannels are all sold out. Brrrr.

We were pleased to read the letter and information sent by Anne Johnson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Cedar Springs, and learn that the little town of 1,800 population is known as the Red Flannel Capitol of the World.

The factory producing the coveted red garments is owned by Mrs. Sally Wall and flourishes under her management.

For 25 years a Red Flannel Festival has been held each autumn with the entire program harking back to the lumbering days.

According to a leaflet sent by Miss Johnson, "horse-drawn floats highlight the parade, red flannels are much in evidence, and a lumberjack supper features the menu of the lumber camps. Salt pork, crisp and brown, milk gravy and boiled potatoes, cornbread, baked beans pie and coffee."

Sounds lickin' good and we can hardly wait until next fall to attend this event held in Cedar Springs, 20 miles north of Grand Rapids on US 131.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Boyers were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Steele, of Erie, Mich. The occasion honored the birthday anniversary of Mr. Boyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sebring and family entertained for the family birthday anniversaries which occurred in the past 10 days. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Puffer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Duaine Murphy and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Baily, Ray Binns of Ypsilanti and Rebecca Baily of Adrian. Honored guests were Nena Murphy, Mrs. Murphy, C. O. Baily and Ray Binns.

Mrs. Donald Nixon returned Sunday from the University Medical Center, Ann Arbor where she underwent minor throat surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dean Craig entertained 20 guests for a euchre party in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Craig, Saturday evening. Marian Crittenden of Macon and Jerome DuFour of Walled Lake were high scorers and Velma Crittenden of Macon and Roscoe Craig of Walled Lake won low prizes.

A baby girl, Cynthia Lynn, was born Jan. 15 to Mr. and Mrs. Archie Conkey at Sparrow Hospital, Lansing. The baby's mother is the former Merene Boltz.

Ed Hodges, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hodges, has accepted a position as math teacher in the Central High School at Bay City.

A "Sweet Sixteen" party was held Jan. 12 for Cheryl Maynard given by her mother, Mrs. Calvin Dixon, Jr. Guests were Barbara Wilbar, Phyllis Brooks, Chris Reeves, Sandy Keith, Mary Kunkle, Chris Kelley, her brother, Gary and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Dixon, Sr. A decorated cake made by Mrs. Ed Brumm was featured during the refreshments.

Happy Birthday to William John Craig, who observed his 95th anniversary Wednesday, at his home at 10731 Milwaukee Rd., Mr. and Mrs. Craig were Tecumseh residents from 1919 until 1934. A hearty congratulations to one of the oldest senior citizens in the area.

A family gathering was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Creswell, Mike Kathy and Mark, to celebrate the birthday anniversaries of Mike and his grandfather, Mervyn Boltz. Others attending the dinner were Melvin and Inez Boltz of East Lansing, Carl Creswell of Gambier, O., Mrs. Ruth Creswell of Milan and Pete King.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bleau of Nitro, W. Va. will be overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Peck and Lynn Sunday. They brought their daughter, Bonnie, to Eastern Michigan University where she will register for special education courses for the second semester.

Helmets, Swords, Tunics, Shields Shown by Cubs

Twenty-two cubs displayed the theme of the month "Knights of Yore"—at the meeting of Pack 72 in Herrick Park School Jan. 29.

The boys presented individual interpretation of knights, displaying helmets, swords, tunics, lances and shields.

Two steeds were ridden by Rick Pokorny and Bruce Baaske.

Competitive games, which involved the physical feats of knights, were directed by Cub masters L. Hardesty and William Frownfelder.

Awards for achievements were presented to the following cub scouts.

Bobcat—Mark Burkhard, Rick Pokorny, Robert Braman and Craig Van Camp.

Wolf Badge—Mike Simpson, Zig Zorn got one gold arrow and two silver arrows under wolf; Tom Smith received one golf arrow and one silver arrow under wolf.

The next meeting will be a Blue and Gold banquet.

Plans are being made by Arthur Baaske.

Home Talent Shines

TIPTON—Tipton PTA members heard Orville Bishop of Tecumseh tell about the Citizen's Advisory group of the Tecumseh Public Schools Monday evening. Mr. Bishop asked for a donation from the group to further progress on the survey of the Citizen's committee in connection with the school situation.

Plans are to meet with representatives from the Michigan State University Thursday evening.

The group also enjoyed a "Home Talent Show", presented by Ray Stockinger, Paul Fredericks, Ray Jackson, and Dean Cook, who sang two numbers.

That was followed by Alice Platt and Gwen Linger, who pantomined as the "Beverly Bros." singing and playing guitars.

Then talented Doris Crosby was the one and only "Charlie Sweaver" Jean Vargo and Delores Ballard were the "Sisters Two" who sang and played guitar.

Paul Frederick imitated the one and only Al Jolson, singing "Mommy" and "Shanty in Old Shanty Town." Connie Jackson and Francis Jones gave an impersonation as "The Kiddlehoppers."

A poem, "What is a Teacher" was read by Mrs. Charlene Church responded to by a poem "What is a Pupil" by Mrs. Pat Jones.

Ester Blaska who did all the accompanying on the piano during the program then played two numbers for the group.

This was followed by the "Cookie Cutters," a group of women playing kitchen instruments under the direction of Mike Anderson. Those taking part were, Lillian Dewey, Juanita Davenport, Irene Allen, Gertrude Munger, Reta Luce, Gerry Buell, and May Anderson.

The program closed with two Tipton School teachers Mrs. Jane Pelly and Mrs. Doris Jones, singing a duet. Bill Murphy and Ken Munger, pantomonists, did funny antics during the "Talent Show" which was termed a success.

Discussed: New Projects

Mrs. Jerry Barton opened her home Jan. 24 to 12 members of the Jaycee Auxiliary.

A discussion centered around ideas for a new community service project. President Mrs. Barton appointed a committee to investigate the ideas presented.

The members decided that it would be necessary to hold a bake sale to support such a project and a committee was appointed to make arrangements.

Several members volunteered to type Easter seal envelopes for the Tecumseh-Britton area. They also decided to support the TB clinic with their assistance.

Several members will attend the State Board meeting of the Michigan Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary in Saginaw Feb. 10.

They are:
Mrs. Barton
Mrs. Richard Creswell
Mrs. Dwight Helms
Mrs. Walter Wonderly
Mrs. Marvin Nelson
Mrs. Paul Goodrich
Mrs. Ray Shelton
Mrs. Charles O'Neill

The February meeting has been postponed until March 5 when the Tecumseh Auxiliary will host all of the locals in District 5 including Ann Arbor, Adrian, Chelsea, Blissfield, Dundee, Milan, Saline, Clinton and Ypsilanti.

Cookies and coffee were served.

The banquet was the culmination of the contest within the Senior FYF. The winning team was led by Joyce Brugger and Robert Comfort.

TO THE EDITOR

TO THE EDITORS:

It's about time someone spoke out in favor for a junior college for the reasons stated in your paper.

I heartily agree that there is a definite need for a college of this type to educate those students who for one reason or another cannot get into a "big" university such as University of Michigan etc.

We have a son in Jackson Junior College now and are very satisfied with the school, but it needs to be expanded and its facilities increased to embrace all on finances available, whether it be by taxation, tuition or other.

The idea would be to keep the cost as low as possible so that lower income groups could send their children without undue hardship.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Violet Backus
Rural Britton

Why are so many people discarding their old insurance for ours?
There are good reasons. For one, we're independent insurance counselors — which means we represent you and look after your best interests.
Second, we recommend and sell the Homeowners Policy, invented by INA. This gives you — in a single policy — all the coverage you need for your home and possessions, including liability protection. "All-in-one" saves you money.
Other reasons? Phone us, and we'll tell all.

Jerry Butler Completes Air Conditioning Course

Jerry Butler, 302 W. Patterson St., has completed a training course in refrigeration and air conditioning with the Air Conditioning Training Co. in Youngstown, O.

The course of instruction which Jerry completed consisted of 116 home study assignments covering household and commercial refrigeration, walk-in coolers, home freezers, locker plants and hermetic units. It also went into absorption systems, servicing operations, domestic and commercial air conditioning systems, psychrometric charts, controls, heat pumps and estimating.

After completing these home study assignments, he received two weeks of intensive and practical shop training in the laboratory in Youngstown.

January 19, he participated in graduation exercises and was awarded his diploma, certifying him as a refrigeration and air conditioning technician.

Jerry has been employed at the local Gamble Store since August.

They Shoot from Short Range Now

Yes, they are having quite a time of it on Wednesdays at 6:30

They are shooting at the 10-yard line now, but they will gradually move up to a higher yardage. These are the city's brand new archery fans.

They really aren't the only ones that are having fun though, because on Tuesday nights at 7:30 the experienced archers are shooting.

On this Tuesday night, Ernie Hammack had the highest score up to date, which is 752 out of a possible 864 points.

Recent scores were:

Ernie Hammack—734
Dan Bush—732
Don Creger—660
Harold Hall—649
Richard Close—625
John Curth—603
"Bus" Smith—596
Dale Close—511
Merelin Young—493
Melva Young—485
Frank C. Horan—453
C. Smith—379
Edna Bush—303
Florence R. Horan—273
Carol Hammack—252

JERRY BUTLER

Adventuring into Unknown Takes Courage

"The old and tried ways often appeal to us when we face the unknown and untried future," says the Rev. Allen Wittrup.

"We are afraid to adventure into new experiences because it takes courage, and we must admit that we lack courage many times.

"Much of our nostalgia for old things and ways covers up our unwillingness to accept the creativeness and desires of others. Progress is made by those who are willing to investigate, work, create and adventure," he went on.

"Great steps in the history of mankind have come when men and women placed themselves in the hands of God and went forward into the future."

The Rev. Allen Wittrup will speak on the subject "Are The Old Things Better?" at First Methodist Church Sunday at 10 a.m.

√

The WSCS will meet Wednesday, Feb. 7, at 8 with Mrs. Edna Wilcox as hostess. The program entitled "The Mission of the Church of Christ in Latin America" will be presented.

Senior High Fellowship To See Film

This Sunday, following the worship service at the Presbyterian Church, the Senior High Fellowship group will leave for Detroit to see the movie "El Cid."

√

Beginning Thursday, Feb. 8, a Communicant's Class for young people desiring to unite with the church will be held in the Fellowship Center of the church.

The Rev. Julian Gresham will lead the class.

These classes, of 10-week duration, are held each year during the Lenten period, especially for young people ready to make a profession of faith and unite with the church.

Love, Know

The connection between loving one's fellow man and knowing God will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Surprise Party Honors Valarie on 13th Birthday

A surprise birthday party for Valerie Barrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Barrett was staged Friday at the Community Center.

Twenty-six children danced and played games during the evening.

Mrs. Gordon Goldsberry assisted Mr. and Mrs. Barrett as chaperone.

Nine friends of Miss Barrett assisted her parents in making arrangements for the party.

A three-tiered decorated cake was featured during the refreshment hour.

The birthday anniversary was the 13th for Miss Barrett.

Guests attended from Sand Lake, Britton and Tecumseh.

Pioneer-Day Cradle Holds Gifts for Mrs. Knisely

Mrs. Carlos L. Knisely was honored at a baby shower in her home Wednesday evening by Mrs. Robert Aten and Mrs. James R. Johnson of Monroe.

Sue Nichols assisted as hostess. The 25 guests attending were from Tecumseh, Monroe, Rockwood, Macon and Brooklyn.

Refreshments were served.

Prizes won by Mrs. Richard Meyers, Mrs. Jack Osburn, Mrs. Ford Mudgett and Mrs. David Ousterhout.

A miniature stork centered the table. Gifts, displayed in a heritage cradle, were given to Mrs. Knisely by her husband.

The cradle is a replica of those used in pioneer days.

OBITUARIES

● WILLIAM EVERHART

Services were held Monday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for William Everhart, 58, of 3720 Black Highway who died Saturday morning at Herrick Memorial Hospital where he had been a patient for two and one half months.

Mr. Everhart had been employed for 15 years by the Tecumseh Products Company. He was a member of the Britton Baptist Church.

He was born in Pennsylvania May 5, 1903, and married Opal Jennings of Hudson July 18, 1947.

Besides his wife he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Edward Gettings of LaPorte, Ind., and Mrs. Irwin Card of Hillsdale; three step-sons, Alton Jennings of Britton, Kenneth of Tecumseh and Clarence Jennings of Onsted, and five step-grandchildren.

A brother preceded him in death.

The Rev. Jack Sorensen officiated and burial was in the Milan cemetery.

—o—

● GUSTINE STEVENS

Services will be held Friday at 1:30 p.m. at the Collins-Corkery Funeral Home for Gustine Stevens who passed away Tuesday evening at the University of Michigan Medical Center where he has been a patient for the past two weeks.

He was born Nov. 21, 1902 in Tecumseh, son of Paul and Mary Stevens.

He is survived by his wife, Vera, and two sisters, Mrs. Josephine Peters and Mrs. Pauline McAtee, both of Tecumseh.

The Rev. Julian Gresham officiated and burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

● LEONARD L. LANGTHORNE

Services were held Tuesday in Adrian for Leonard Langthorne, 75, who died Sunday at 12:42 p.m. in Bixby Hospital where he had been a patient since Tuesday.

Mr. Langthorne retired four years ago as assistant engineer at the Girl's Traniing School, a position he held 13 years.

Before that time he lived in Tecumseh where he was employed as operator of the Standard Oil bulk station for 16 years.

Mr. Langthorne was born May 15, 1886, in Macon township, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Langthorne.

He married Edna O'Hara Feb. 17, 1909, who survives with two sons, Norman of New Orleans and Robert of Toledo; a half brother John Caswell of Millbury, O. and four grandchildren.

Burial was in the Riverside cemetery at Clinton .

—o—

● PAUL R. V. BOWEN

Services were held Wednesday at the Collins-Corkery Funeral Home for Paul R. V. Bowen, 82, who died Monday afternoon at Herrick Memorial Hospital. He had been a patient for about six weeks.

A life-long resident of Tecumseh, Mr. Bowen was a former councilman under the village government.

He was a graduate of Michigan Agricultural College and engaged in farming for many years.

The son of J.F.M. and Ellen Brewster Bowen, he was born Oct. 30, 1879.

Mr. Bowen was a members of Co. B, Michigan National Guard, during the period of the Spanish-American War, although he did not serve in that conflict.

He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and the Tecumseh Club.

He married Wilhelmina Paisley in 1902 who preceded him in death in 1944.

He also was preceded in death by an infant son.

Mr. Bowen is survived by a son, Dale Bowen Sr. of Tecumseh; two brothers, Percy Bowen of Tecumseh and Ralph G. Bowen of Detroit; a sister, Mrs. D. B. Finch of Tecumseh; two grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

The Rev. Julian Gresham officiated and burial was in Brookside cemetery.

What's Going on at Boysville

By DAVE KLAVON

Intramural basketball season is under way at Boysville.

It gives all the boys a chance to show their ability who aren't on the regular team.

On Sunday, Jan. 22, the season got under way. The rules were changed slightly from last year's.

Four teams play simultaneously, two at each end of the court.

There is already good indication of how good certain teams are.

In first place is Tom McCullen's group, which stacked up a 2-0 record in one day's competition.

Games are played Sunday morning and Sunday evening after supper. The boys really look like they're enjoying themselves so far.

√

Students are back from their between-semester weekend vacation (Jan. 26-28) after the end of the first semester.

There will be approximately six weeks before the next weekend vacation.

√

With the beginning of the new semester, the Boysville Band is turning some of its attention to practicing for marching this spring with a drum and bugle corps.

Instruments for the corps were donated by the Aremican Legion Post in Adrian last fall.

Brother Philip Armstrong, CSC, band director, has organized what he expects to be a good marching unit.

There will be 25 boys, not including the color guard or the drum major.

So far four parades are on the calendar for the drum and bugle corps, with the possibility of one or two more being added to the itinerary.

CATTLE CAN GO OFF FEED easily if water supply isn't adequate. Better give your water supply and heater a second check. Too cold or not enough water can slow up the digestive system, causing cattle to lose their appetites. Make sure your heater is working properly and is set to hold water near 50 degrees. Be sure there's about one square foot of water surface in the tank for each 25 head. Remember, ice in the tank can cut this area down where no heater is used.

INCREASE MILK PRODUCTION WHILE LOWERING FEED COSTS by following a good dairy herd testing and improvement program. It takes up to 34 cows averaging 5,311 pounds of milk to equal the returns over feed costs you could net from 18 cows producing 10,239 pounds. Although feed costs for the higher producers may be a third more, the returns above feed cost per cow can be as great as 3½ times.

KILL UNWANTED TREES THIS WINTER while time is slack by spraying the bottom 12 to 18 inches of the trunk. Spraying now will prevent possible drifting onto crops which could occur during summer. Mix 5 pounds of the active ingredients of 2, 4, 5-T with 100 gallons of oil. The oil mixture is more effective than water, especially during the dormant season, since it will penetrate the bark better. Apply at least one ounce of solution per inch of tree diameter.

SECOND-HAND MACHINERY CAN HELP YOU CUT COSTS if it is in sound condition and you're handy with repairs. But before you buy, compare the cost with blue book prices. Also, ask yourself if any features on new machinery would permit greater efficiency of operation.

9 Citizens Examine Vote Facts

An effort to obtain views of the public in regards to the coming four-mills vote on March 20 was made Monday night at a special session of the school board.

Nine citizens—most of whom are members of the Citizens Committee—answered questions relative to the millage and why previous attempts to pass millage failed.

Although no action has been taken, and may not for several weeks, the citizens were told of services which may have to be eliminated for the 1962-'63 year.

A reduction of these services, many in high school, would drop Tecumseh from the accredited list of schools.

Majority of ——— voiced opinions that further reductions in school service would seriously harm the education of the students.

Norm Tucker Flips in 16 As THS Wins

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh evened its record in the Huron League last Friday with a 63-55 victory over Dundee.

It was the second triumph over the Vikings this season for the Indians.

Coach Doug Murdoch's team has a chance this Friday evening to notch another win when the Indians tangle here with Flat Rock.

Tecumseh's scheduled game at Airport for next Tuesday has been changed to the following Tuesday, Feb. 13.

Four Indians tallied in the two-figure column with Norm Tucker pacing his teammates with 16 points. John Britton, Jerry Hebb and Bradley McCombs each scored 11 points.

After falling three points behind in the first quarter, Tecumseh popped ahead in the second period and gradually increased the margin to eight points.

The undefeated Dundee Jayvees edged Coach Jim Hoffman's team, 40-36.

The local Jayvees outshot their opponents from the floor, 16 to 14, but costly fouls, especially in the final stanza, allowed Dundee to collect 13 of 21 attempts from the free throw line.

Tecumseh hit on four of 11 foul shots.

PERFECT FOR GOLF—The weather was perfect for golf last Thursday, bright and sunny, little wind. Only thing to contend with was a little snow and ice and a temperature of about 25 degrees. But Harvey Wilson (left) and Dr. Bob Bowers were in their glory. The two golf nuts play every week at Tecumseh Country Club. For Christmas, Bob received a golf ball warmer and each man got winter golf gloves. Using red golf balls makes the outing a joy.

Fire Started

Tecumseh firemen were summoned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Herrick, 807 Red Mill Dr., at 8:40 a.m. Monday.

Mrs. Herrick discovered a fire in a piece of furniture in the den. Although the blaze was confined to the den, other rooms sustained smoke damage.

The cause of the fire was listed as unknown and the damage has not been estimated.

Britton Takes Boysville

BRITTON—Tom Komon tossed in 16 points as Britton-Macon dropped Boysville, 69-46, Tuesday evening on the Tories court.

It was the 11th win for Coach Sam Hamilton's undefeated crew.

Boysville was led in the scoring parade by Stan Klos, who pitched in 20.

The Fighting Knights concentrated on pinching the middle to halt Big Phil Benedict, towering Britton center.

These tactics kept Benedict's scoring effort down — to 12 points.

However, this sprung Komon, who came through, along with Dave Bailey, who chipped in 13.

Britton had things under good control by halftime, leading 32-20.

The Torie Jayvees also won, 34-26. This leaves the juniors with a 6 and 5 record for the year.

This was Mom's Night, each mother of a player receiving a white carnation, trimmed with red. Mothers and dads were guests of the team following the game for refreshments in the cafeteria.

Gal Varsity Hoop Squad Wins at Clinton, 34-18

Tecumseh's Girl's Athletic Association varsity squad was victorious against Clinton's basketball squad, 34-18, in a Jan. 25 contest.

The game started slowly with a 6-5 score for Tecumseh in the first quarter and an 11-8 margin at the end of the half.

Coach Theresa Pickens fired up the Tecumseh team between halves and the gals connected for 20 points during the third quarter bringing the score to 31-10.

Betty Barth, Pat Lawson and Nancy Goodin, playing well, scored 11, eight and seven points respectively.

As guards, Jean Packard, Cheryl Moon, Sheila O'Neill and Judy Ball were effective in keeping Clinton's score low and recovering the ball.

Tecumseh's JV's did not fair so well, losing to Clinton, 16-14.

Refreshments were served to all in the cafeteria after the games.

The next game is scheduled for Feb. 12 at 7 p.m. in Britton.

Mr. and Mrs. Thayne LaBanta and Mrs. Irene Bartlett of Jackson were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Boyd.

Ridgeway Library Meeting

The 74th annual meeting of the Hall Memorial Library Association will be held at the library in Ridgeway, Wednesday evening, Feb. 7, at 8 p.m.

Hall Memorial Library is a branch of the Lenawee County Library and Mrs. Gerald Miller is librarian.

Business will include annual reports of the librarian and treasurer. An election of officers for 1962 will be held.

Friends of the library are invited by members to attend this meeting.

Boy Scouts Collect $71 for Drive

BRITTON — The Britton Boy Scouts of Troop 23 performed a worthwhile civic duty last Wednesday evening.

The boys canvassed rural Ridgeway Township for the New March of Dimes Drive and collected $71.11.

Many residents were not at home when the boys arrived and they left a small white envelope for contributions to be mailed rather than make a return trip.

Persons desiring to donate, please send your gifts to Mrs. Elizabeth Spohr or Mrs. Paul Rowlands both of Britton.

Parents who drove for the boys were:

Mrs. Marjorie May
Mrs. Loren Gall
Mrs. Estill Hemphill
Norman Yarckow
Raymond Richards

Baraca Will Serve Banquet

BRITTON — Twenty-six members of the Baraca Philathea Class met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt Sunday for a ham supper and business session.

KAREN MILLYARD

Devotions were led by the Rev. Gustav Hannevik. Mrs. Eberhardt presided at the meeting.

The group voted to serve a fertilizer banquet for the Walper Elevator on Monday, March 5 in the Fellowship Center of the Congregational Christian Church.

The annual election of officers was held, the following will serve for the coming year:

President — Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt

Vice-president — Mrs. Charles Patterson

Secretary-treasurer — Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland

Flower committee — Mrs. Gerald Benedict

The next meeting will be held at the church, Sunday, March 4.

Mrs. Judd and Julie Are Honored

BRITTON—Mrs. Donald Judd and infant daughter, Julie Lynn of Tecumseh, were honored Saturday afternoon at a cradle shower given in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt.

Mrs. Robert Hoekstra of Tecumseh and Mrs. Willard Exelby were co-hostesses.

Thirty-five friends and relatives presented the honored guests with many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Archie Spohr won the door prize.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Thomas Judd of Tecumseh, Mrs. Robert Mayfield and daughter of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Harley Watson of Adrian.

Refreshments were served from a decorated table featuring a centerpiece of pink rose buds and white mums.

The entire theme was carried out in pink and white.

BRITTON—Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Millyard announce the engagement of their daughter Karen, to Paul Rimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rimer of Plymouth.

Karen is a student nurse at St. Joseph Mercy school of nursing in Ann Arbor.

Paul, a graduate of Albion College, is employed at the Wayne County Children's Training School.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Magazines Are Sought for Hospital

BRITTON—The Priscilla Circle of the Congregational Christian Church is sponsoring a collection of magazines to be taken to the Ypsilanti State Hospital.

Members of the four Circles are asked to take their magazines to meetings on Wednesday, Feb. 7 and the Priscilla Circle will collect them.

"Please tie them in bundles in their monthly order," the committee asks.

There is also need for a ladies winter coat, size 44-46, for a patient at the hospital.

Carolyn Weaver and James Mason Married

BRITTON — Carolyn Weaver and James Mason exchanged their wedding vows Saturday afternoon in the Reading Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weaver of Reading and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mason of Britton.

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace designed with floor length skirt and chapel train. The fitted bodice featured tapered sleeves and a scalloped neckline.

The bouffant skirt was designed with an apron of silk taffeta caught up at the hemline with sequins and lace.

Her shoulder-length veil of French illusion fell from a crown of lace designed and made by the groom's mother. She carried an heirloom handkerchief made by her great grandmother.

☆

HER BRIDAL bouquet was a white orchid with a cascade of stephanotis and ivy. At her throat she wore a small diamond centered pendant, gift of the groom.

Dianne Weaver served as her sister's maid-of-honor. Mrs. Charles Arch of Angola and Janet Weaver of Toledo were the bridesmaids. Helena Isley of Blissfield was junior bridesmaid.

They were all identically gowned in pure silk gowns of azalia pink. Each wore a pearl necklace, gifts of the bride. They carried crescent shaped bouquets of gardenias and carnations.

Valorie Lamb of Lyons, O. was the flower girl and Wayne Weaver carried the rings for his sister on a white satin pillow.

☆

LT. ROBERT MASON served as his brother's best man and guests were seated by Willard Mason and Norris Isley and Herbert Isley, junior usher, all of Blissfield.

Louise Bates of Morenci was the organist and Mrs. James Fry of Palmyra was the soloist.

A five-tiered cake, baked and decorated by the bride's mother and Mrs. Leonard Drake, centered the refreshmnet table.

It was cut and served by Karen Isley, Mrs. Don Carpenter, Clela Luce and Mrs. Tom Ringle of Hillsdale.

Rosie Ebright, Judy Isley and Martha Beamer had charge of the gifts.

Mrs. H. E. Isley was reception hostess and Mrs. Robert Mason registered the guests.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will make their home at 819½ W. Maumee St. in Adrian.

☆

THE BRIDE is a graduate of Reading High School and Toledo School of Nursing. She is employed at Bixby Hospital.

Her husband is a graduate of Blissfield High School and is a student at Adrian College.

The rehearsal dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mason at Rock Inn.

Parties for the bride were given by Mrs. H. E. Isley, Mrs. Elwyn Isley, Janet Weaver, Mrs. Don Carpenter and Mrs. Charles Arch.

Basketball Tories Go for No. 12

BRITTON — Still undefeated, the Britton-Macon Tories will go for their 12th win of the season Friday when they journey to Summerfield.

In picking up No. 10 last week at Sand Creek, the Tories ran into a stall for the first time this year.

The scoreboard got little wear and tear, as the final count was but 29-23.

Each team scored four points in the first quarter and two apiece in the second as the Aggies held the ball for minutes at a time.

The third stanza was almost as bad, then Coach Sam Hamilton ordered his two guards, Pepper Griewahn and Dave Bailey to harass the Aggies.

This broke up the Sand Creek hope for a giant upset.

Phil Benedict was high scorer with 14 points.

In River Raisin League play, Britton stands in first place with an 8-0 mark.

SOCIAL SECURITY
Questions and Answers

QUESTION: I hire two men on my farm during the crop season, and one other on a part-time basis. Do I have to report earnings on this part-time worker?

ANSWER: Wages paid to either a full-time, or part-time farm worker must be reported to the Director of Internal Revenue if the worker is paid as much as $150 cash wages in the year. If he is not paid as much as $150 but works for you on a time basis, by the hour, day or week for 20 days or more, his wages must also be reported regardless of the amount.

QUESTION: One of my neighbors, age 68, tells me that my benefits will be figured on my high two years. Another neighbor, age 65, tells me the high five years are used. I'm now 64, and wonder who is right?

ANSWER: Actually both your neighbors are citing their own cases correctly to you. Your benefits are determined by two factors: the year you attain age 65 (62 for women) and the amounts of your earnings. You will reach age 65 in 1962, so your monthly benefit will be based on your 6 years of highest earnings from 1950 through 1962. For more information ask your social security office for Leaflet 855.

QUESTION: The last two years my farm income has been rather small and I haven't earned any "units" toward retirement. Is there any way I can pick these up?

ANSWER: Yes, if your total sale of farm products was $600 or more you can get quarters of coverage by using the optional method of reporting self-employment income that is available to farmers. By this method you can report two-thirds of your gross income if the gross is not over $1800. If it is over $1800, you can report $1200. If you wish to do so, you may file amended Federal income tax returns for recent years in order to use this method.

QUESTION: I have a little business of my own. My neighbor tells me that I should get social security credit for my work and that I should report it on my federal income tax return. Since I only make about $500 a year, I don't file an income tax return any longer. What should I do?

ANSWER: Any self-employed person, who has at least a $400 profit from a trade or business covered by social security, must report this profit and pay the self-employment tax each year. The report must be made on regular federal income tax forms through the appropriate office of the Internal Revenue Service. This is true whether or not your income is low enough to exempt you from the payment of regular income tax.

Q. I work for a few week every Christmas season. Why do I have to pay social security taxes on this employment? Surely I'll never be able to receive any benefits from this small amount of work.

A. This is not necessarily so. It is possible to qualify for benefits based only on part time work of this sort. You might receive only the minimum retirement of $40 a month, but this would no doubt be a welcome addition to other retirement income you might have.

Want To Learn How To Give Sheep Haircut?

Are you interested in learning to shear sheep?

No, its not a hobby, but a big part of Michigan agriculture.

In 1960, more than 360,000 sheep gave up their winter coats that contained over three million pounds of wool.

This meant an income of a $1½ million to the state's sheep men.

To train the "sheep barbers," a sheep shearing school will be held on the Michigan State University campus Feb. 12 and 13.

Instructions in actual shearing and the selection and care of shearing equipment will be given each day. The school will start daily at 9 a.m. in the MSU Livestock Pavilion. There is a $2 enrollment fee.

Those attending need bring only their work clothes. All equipment is provided for the school.

The school is sponsored by the MSU animal husbandry department, the Michigan Sheep Breeders' Association and the Michigan Sheep Shearers' Association.

Further details can be obtained by writing to Graydon Blank, Animal Husbandry Department, MSU, East Lansing.

FHC Plans To Purchase Club Jackets

Members of the Future Homemakers Club of America voted to purchase official jackets for the chapter.

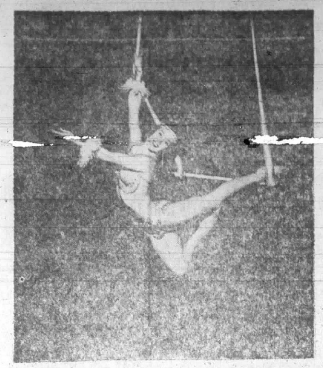
Rhea Fisher, president, conducted the meeting. It was decided that members would go to Farmers Week in Lansing Feb. 1.

A skit was presented by girls working on degrees to demonstrate that they have learned the required creed, colors, flower, emblem and motto of the chapter.

The players in the skit entitled, "Old vs New," were:

Sharon Korth, Elizabeth Frost, Chris Reeves, Janice Kittle and Janet Forrester.

Barbara Klught and Linda DeJonghe served refreshments. Judy Alcock and Janet Bird were hostesses for the evening.



TRAP-EASE ? ? ? — Of course! For the beauteous "Princess Tajana," The Indian Goddess of Flight, appearing in the all-new Shrine Circus at the State Fair Coliseum, Jan. 29 through Feb. 11. She is really Gertrude Zimmerman, born in Speyer-am-Rhein, Germany, who studied ballet until she was seven, when she was discovered by a lady aerialist. Then came 10 years of training, after which she teamed up with her teacher and eventually came to America. "The only Indian Princess with a German accent", she chuckles.

Ridgeway Reports

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. David Delves 15th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Southard, entertained at a supper at the Ridgeway Methodist Church Saturday evening. About 45 guests were present from Angola, Ind., Toledo, Freemont, Holland, O. Detroit, Berkley, New Boston, Erie, Carlton and Ridgeway, Mich.

The Family Night fellowship supper held at the Methodist Church Sunday evening was well attended and the film, "The Measure of Success", was shown.

Mrs. Everett Exelby has returned home after spending some time in Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. Perl Ash and Mrs. William Fletcher, were called last Friday to Six Lakes by the death of a brother-in-law, Claud Misner. Mrs. Ash remained there for a few day's while Mr. Ash and Mrs. Fletcher returned home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Benham and son, Bob, spent Sunday afternoon in Ida, with the Noble Family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wright were in Toledo on business last Saturday.

Margaret Johnson, who has been staying at the Fletcher home for the past two week's will spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Naults, at Petersburg.

Mrs. Cora Wooliever and Mrs. Harold Boyce from Michigan Center, and Mrs. Charles Boyce and family of Tipton, were Saturday caller's at the Lloyd home. Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. Orin Pulfipher and son, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Robey and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall all of Britton.

Darrell Lowery, Not Dave

Darrell Lowery was the male pictured with Joyce Wilbar in last week's issue of The Herald, rather than Dave Lowery as identified.

Both had roles in the high school play, "The Torchbearers."

Veterinarians Needed

EAST LANSING — Veterinarians are badly needed in many countries of the world to combat mounting public health problems, according to the chief of the Veterinary Public Health Service.

"We are spending millions in overseas aid, much of which goes into agriculture," Dr. James H. Steele of the Communicable Disease Center told a recent veterinarians conference at Michigan State University.

But much of this investment is being literally wiped out overnight because of the growing incidences of animal diseases, of which there are over 100 transferable to man, he added.

In India, he said, there are about 190 million animals, but only about one-third of those are productive.

The rest are actually "sacred cows", which roam the streets destroying the countryside and carrying all types of diseases.

India, he noted, has as many cattle walking the streets as the total number of cattle in all the Americans, but does not have enough meat to feed its people.

Red China, he said, has had to practically give up its animal industry because there is not enough food for the people, let alone cattle.

There was a big meat industry in the Congo until it gained its independence, he stated. Now, because these animals are being slaughtered or are dying of diseases, the industry has been reduced to practically nothing, he continued.

He also pointed out that hoof and mouth disease in cattle, sheep and swine in South America is preventing that vast country from exporting meat.

Because it cannot export to its full capacity, South America, therefore, cannot import all of the products it needs.

Russia, he said, has a big brucellosis problem, and Africa eventually provide some score of the ravages of sleeping sickness.

Speaking of Africa, he said, there were only four veterinary schools in the entire country, and none [illegible].

He added, hopefully, that the MSU project in Nigeria may eventually provide soem sore of veterinary training for West Africa.

"What this all boils down to," said Dr. Steele," is that we need more than just a handful of veterinarians in overseas programs.

"We need professional knowhow, as well as money, to assist other nations of the world establish preventive medical programs to help solve their public health problems," he concluded.

Testimonial Dinner Held for H. H. Upton

Scholarships to Cranbrook Are Offered

Scholarships up to $1,500 are now being offered by Cranbrook School, college preparatory for boys, for the 1962-'63 academic year.

Boys may make application for grants if they are eligible for entrance into grades seven through 11 in September 1962.

Candidates should possess above average academic records, good school leadership and citizenship qualifications, and a proven need for financial assistance.

A boarding and day school, Cranbrook enrolls 390 boys from all parts of the United States and several foreign countries.

Applications are due March 1. Interested persons requiring additional information and application forms may contact Howard Wert, Director of Scholarships, Cranbrook School, Bloomfield Hills, Mich.

Languages on Agenda at Session

The Tecumseh High School Parent Study Group will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 1, in the high school.

Foreign language, English and social studies departments will be discussed.

Final gathering of this group will be held Feb. 15 when finance will be the discussion topic.

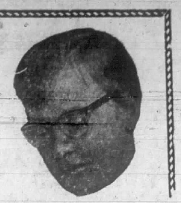
THROUGH MY WINDOW



THE BIG AND LITTLE OF IT

A fleeting impression of size, a flash of gold and oh, my, the yellow shafted flicker had finally found his way to the feeder. He zeroed in on the suet, used his huge bill as a chisel and settled down for breakfast.

Mom manned the camera switch and flash, flash, flash. We would like to have taken more, but decided against pushing things too much.

The flicker had apparently not minded our intruding upon his meal, but after all, it was his first visit of the winter and why run the risk of frightening him away?

Although not rare to the point of this visit being the first ever, flickers are definitely not among the feeding station regulars.

Their warm weather appearances I can almost count on one hand—when snow and ice make scarce, or non-existant, their usual diet of ants and the like, they are inclined to be more friendly.

☆

WHEN ONE does come to the feeder I am always thrilled and excited about first, the size, and second, the pretty and distinctive appearance.

Flickers are big birds, some 13 inches long, and quite heavy looking. Their bills are enormous.

Color-wise they are a striking combination of soft tan and brown, accented with bold markings of black and a brilliant red, and understood with golden yellow.

When seen at a distance they are attractive enough, but when seen at close range—one feeder is but three feet from the window — the flicker is a truly magnificent and handsome bird.

Our Sunday morning caller made a surprisingly long stay—I wonder if the suets were extra tasty or he unusually hungry?

Seriously, for a bird who could so easily hold his own against any of the feeder's usual patrons, the flicker is a nervous, ill-at-ease customer.

Easily spooked, he flies away at the least suggestion of anything. We are always surprised, but of course pleased when one allows us to take his picture.

☆

NEITHER NERVOUS nor flighty is our tree sparrow. Come to think of it, he and the flicker are about as opposite as can be.

Small, barely six inches long, M. T. Sparrow has a tiny bill, rather long wings boldy marked with white, a brick-red crown and gray stripes above and below each eye.

His most distinguishing mark is a single black dot in the middle of his gray, unstreaked breast.

The newcomer, and this is the first time we have ever had tree-sparrows, has a disposition to match his red "hair."

Quick to anger, he wants things his own way. With mouth open and narrow tail standing straight up, he bullies the ordinary sparrows shamefully.

The tufted titmice, chickadees, juncos and nuthatches are also apt to retreat, humoring his I-want-to-be-alone attitude.

In reading about the tree sparrows I noticed the books mentioned their tendency towards mock battles—there is nothing make-believe about the way this one tries to rule the roost. Pardon me, I mean the feeders.

It has been fun to see that when the bigger birds are around, the cardinals, the bluejays, the morning doves, etc., Mr. T. is a perfect gentleman and minds not a bit sharing the feeding station.

☆

WHILE THE flicker is quite deliberate in his movements, the tree-sparrow is anything but—Mr. Big Bill will sit on a limb for as long as five minutes debating whether or not to come to the feeder.

The tree sparrow bounces from ground to feeder, from feeder to ground with a quickness rivalling the chickadees.

Actually, except for an inclination to bully, the tree sparrows almost equals the chickadees in being a happy, carefree spirit lifter-upper.

So it is that lately, with our feeders hosting a flicker and a tree-sparrow, we have really had the big and little of it.

☆

NOTE: Unless something earth-shattering happens, this is definitely my last word on evening grosbeaks.

Last week I had just said that the big flocks was apparently breaking up when the telephone rang and you've guessed it—the report was that a bunch of from 25 to 30 evening brosbeaks were whooping it up over in River Acres.

How consistently wrong can they make me.

An exchange of ideas for the Explorer posts will be held.

He Really Gets Around

For a young man still on the sunny side of 35, William L. Oltmans has certainly seen a lot of the world in his work as a foreign correspondent for the United Press and various Dutch, European, and Asian periodicals.

The Holland-born newsman, who comes to Adrian High School on Feb. 2, to address the Lenawee County Teachers Institute has covered news developments in Southeast Asia, India, the Middle East, Africa and the United States.

The tall, fair-haired, wide-ranging correspondent comes from a family of five generations born in Indonesia.

His great-grandfather headed the Netherlands-East Indies Railway while his grandfather worked as an engineer on bridges and railways in the Far East.

His father is a lawyer and engineer, born in Java but now in South Africa building factories. On his maternal side, his grandfather was one of the founders of a chain of three quinine factories in Indonesia and Holland.

Young Oltmans was educated at the Baarns Lyceum, the same school attended by the four Dutch royal princesses, and later at the 13th Century Castle of Nijenrode Institute of Foreign Relations.

He came to the United States in 1948 to attend courses at Yale on international relations, and from 1949 to 1950 served as President of the Yale International Club.

☆

AFTER LIVING and traveling in different countries of Europe, Mr. Oltmans entered journalism first as foreign editor of the leading Dutch daily newspaper, Algemeen Handelsblad, and then worked for the United Press in Europe.

As permanent correspondent to the United Nations for the leading Dutch independent news magazine, Vrig Nederland, Mr. Oltmans has covered the last six General Assemblies, including the momentous 15th Assembly which brought the heads of state of various countries to New York.

When the 16th Assembly convened in the fall of 1961, he was there to cover the historic proceedings to choose a successor to the late Dag Hammerskold.

The year 1961 saw the ubiquitous Mr. Oltmans on the move once more—to Cuba for talks with Fidel Castro, to Africa again and the Congo, to Europe during President Kennedy's visits with MacMillan in London, deGaulle in Paris, Krushchev in Vienna.

In the summer he was in Berlin at the height of the East-West crisis.

Betty Barth Is Winner in Betty Crocker Contest

Betty D. Barth, daughter of Mrs. Marlin Lewis, of rural Tecumseh is the local winner in the 1962 Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow contest.

She achieved the highest score in the examination on homemaking knowledge and attitudes taken by THS senior girls Dec. 5.

BETTY BARTH

Miss Barth is eligible, with other winners from high schools throughout the state, for the title of State Homemaker of Tomorrow and a $1,500 scholarship from General Mills, sponsor of the program.

Miss Barth is the second in the family to win this honor. Her sister, Ginger, won it in 1960.

The winner especially enjoys the sewing phase of the homemaking department. She has recently finished a dress for her little sister and plans to make a skirt and blouse for her project in school.

Miss Barth has six brothers and three sisters.

Fellowship Members Kept Busy

A Feb. 28 tobogganning party is planned for members of the Youth Fellowship of the First Baptist Church.

A junior high dance will be held in the Youth House following the basketball game, Feb. 2.

Saturday, Feb. 10, a bake sale will be held at the Western Auto Store.

Saturday, Feb. 24, the annual George Washington banquet of the Association will be held in Monroe.

Jan. 21, seven members accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Glen Griewahn, attended an Association planning meeting in Adrian followed by supper at the Griewahn residence.

Twenty-one members, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Griewahn, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gray and Bill Bishop, attended a roller skating party.

Navy Flyer Back Home After Tour

Lieut-Comm. William M. Powell, 234 Park St., returned Jan. 21 from his annual two-week training duty at the Naval Air Station in Dallas, Texas.

Assigned to the naval Air Reserve Transport Squadron 731 at the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station, Lt. Cmdr. Powell threw to Dallas with the rest of his squadron in three multi-engine transport planes.

The group was engaged in extensive training flights, taking them from coast to coast along the southern border of the United States.

Transport Squadron 731, one of 33 naval and marine air reserve squadrons based at Grosse Ile, is commanded by Commander Julian Northcraft of Toledo.

It's members come from 18 communities in Michigan and Ohio.

COURSES OUR SCHOOL OFFERS

Homemaking Gets Complicated

(Editor's note: This article on the homemaking program at Tecumseh High School is another in the series of informative stories about what local students are offered.)

The Homemaking curriculum is developed around the basic purpose of helping the student prepare for her future role as a housewife.

No other job is any more complicated than homemaking, as it involves the use of skills and knowledge, the appreciation and understanding of art qualities and ability to solve problems.

It also touches the development of personality and attitude —of which all are part of the basic goal.

No longer is homemaking a cooking and sewing class.

Women are called upon to fill many roles at the same time, so management becomes a part of every unit in class instruction.

The program is developed to reinforce home training already received and provide incentives for future learning.

☆

THE AREAS that are covered in a four-year program are:

► Home management—time, energy and money.
► Housing
► Home furnishings
► Interior decorating
► Household equipment.
► Laundry
► Nutrition — food and meal preparation, meal service.
► Consumer education.
► Child care and development
► Home safety, hygiene and care of sick.
► Personal appearance and grooming
► Textiles, clothing selections and construction
► Family living.

Homemaking is an elective course, however, the classes are taken in sequence except Home Management which is for senior girls who have not had a previous high school homemaking class.

☆

THE CURRICULUM is as follows:

Homemaking I — introducing courses in the areas of nutrition, meal planning, food preparation and serving; basic principles of interior decorating furniture arrangement, and housekeeping.

It also includes good grooming and personal appearance, textile study, selecting and planning a wardrobe and constructing a cotton skirt and blouse.

Homemaking II—More advanced instruction in some areas and new materials introduced in others.

Includes home laundry, work simplification in kitchen and laundry, equipment—large and small for laundry and kitchen, food preservation, advanced nutrition and family meals.

Other topics covered are flower arrangement, study of table linens, china, glassware and flatware, costume designs, constructing a dress, guidance and care of children.

Homemaking III-IV—The student has the opportunity to apply the basic learning techniques from the previous two years on various projects either new or more advanced ones.

The areas covered more intensely are housing, home furnishings and interior decorating, special problems in foods, home management of time, energy and money, consumer buying, the construction of an outfit in clothing, home nursing.

☆

HOME MANAGEMENT is a composite of curriculum from the various classes adapted to the senior level.

This touches upon nutrition, meal planning, preparation and serving, management of time, energy and money, work simplification, equipment and storage and housekeeping.

The list includes textiles, design, clothing construction, housing, home furnishings and interior decorating.

Each girl is to do a planned home project each semester. It must meet the requirements of the individual to gain experience, to learn new skills and to accept responsibilities.

☆

THE TECUMSEH Chapter of Future Homemakers of America is a part of the homemaking program.

This further promotes the activities of homemaking gspecially to help the girls develop leadership qualities through the various programs.

Two officers are sent to a leadership training workshop held at a Michigan college for four days in the summer to receive training in their duties.

The homemaking department, curriculum, and certification of the teacher by the State Vocational Department of Public Instruction qualifies the program to be partially reimbursed by the state.

What Fashions Are Popular in Caribbean?

What are gal vacationers wearing these days in Puerto Rico, the Bahamas, Nassau, Jamaica, Haiti?

Women who attend the "Caribbean Holiday Style Show" at the Community Center Thursday, March 1 will find out.

Being staged by the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary the event is expected to attract 500.

Styles are being brought here from the Caribbean area, by Delta Airlines, whose women's extension director, Fran Wheeler, will MC the show.

Tickets, at $1 each, are available at Pickard Floral Shop and Bea Ring's Gift Shop. Printing was donated by The Herald.

Co-chairmen of the show, Mrs. Carlos Knisely and Mrs. Neville Hart, have selected 10 local women to model. Included are:

Mrs. James Osburn
Mrs. Don Purkey
Mrs. W. L. Schroer
Mrs. William Damon
Linda Dean
Mrs. Jack Brown
Mrs. Don Ketteman
Mrs. Virgil Tucker
Mrs. Jack Osburn
Mrs. Joseph Galazzi

Delta Airlines is giving a series of door prizes and the Auxiliary is also arranging for several.

Special entertainment is being planned by the committee, in addition to the showing of the Caribbean fashions.

Long AND Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

Willem Oltmans is a Dutch newspaperman with a facinating background.

His beat is the world.

A former UPI writer, he graduated to the lush class of representing several Holland magazines and newspapers, as well as some radio stations, in the United States.

For about five months each year, he makes the United Nations his headquarters, filing stories on the breaking stories which affect every corner of the world.

The rest of the year he hops around the globe on various assignments.

In addition, he is booked by a New York agency for speaking engagements all around the U. S. A.

He was a headliner at last week's Lenawee County Teachers Institute. Following his talk, there was a small luncheon where county newsmen could talk with Mr Oltmans.

His words to the teachers warned of perilous times ahead, with the communists gaining more and more of the world.

American dollars aren't the weapons that will put Africa,

WILLEM OLTMANS

Asia and South America in the western camp, he said.

Corrupt government officials in South America are making a mockery of foreign aid—the under privileged people who really need the help aren't coming close to getting it.

The Peace Corps is the best approach. Americans abroad as government representatives must live with the natives, not way above them.

Unfortunately, he went on, movies like "Where the Boys Are" often wrongly serve as showing what the young people of this nation are like.

He lashed out at the American brand of journalism — and maybe he's right.

Mr. Oltmans, who is in his late thirties, said TIME and LIFE blow out of all propor-

► A Junior High dance Friday, after the game until 11:30 p. m. Refreshments will be sold.

► Saturday, Feb. 10, from 9:30 until noon a bake sale will be held at the Western Auto Store. Proceeds to be used for Bob-Lo trip and for members going to summer camp.

► Thursday, Feb. 15, a skating party will be held at the Skate Arena from 7 until 10 p. m.

► Sunday, Feb. 18, a Valentine party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Griewahn from 6 to 9 p.m.

► Saturday, Feb. 24, a George Washington banquet for the Association will be held in Monroe at 6 p.m.

'Buttons And Snaps'

Mary Williams demonstrated "buttons and snaps" at the meeting of the North Franklin Maidens recently.

She also served refreshments for the members meeting at the home of the leader, Mrs. Roger Williams.

Cindy Feight will demonstrate "pressing corners" at the next meeting Feb. 14.

Fate of Firm To Be Decided

Shareholders of the Macon Telephone Co. will decide the fate of their firm Saturday at the annual meeting.

It will be held in the Macon Methodist church at 1 p.m.

The question to be decided will be whether the 60-year-old business in to continue as an independent or its territory sold to General Telephone Co. and Bell.

Owen Partridge Dies After Shoveling Snow

Services will be held at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home Friday at 2 p. m. for Owen Partridge, 52, who died suddenly Tuesday at 9:30 a. m. as a result of a heart attack.

Mr. Partridge was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital after he was stricken while shoveling snow from his walk at 501 W. Chicago Blvd.

He died about an hour later.

He was born in Plymouth, Mich, Sept. 26, 1909 the son of Melbourne and Emma Wagonschutz Partridge.

He attended Eastern Michigan University and graduated from the Cincinnati College of Embalming in 1931.

Feb. 25, 1933 he was married to Louise Grindstaff in Northville.

They moved to Tecumseh in 1940 from Watervliet where he had been in the undertaking business. He became a partner with his father here in the Partridge Implement Co. at that time.

Mr. Partridge was a member and past master of the Masonic Lodge, member and past patron of the Order of the Eastern Star, member and past president of the Exchange Club, a member of the Methodist Church and had served on the board of directors of the Community Fund.

He is survived by his wife, Louise; two children, Donald of Ogden, Utah and Mrs. George Duncan of Kalamazoo and a grandson, Jeffrey Duncan.

His parents, who returned to their home Tuesday evening from Florida and Austin of Occidental Rd., and three brothers, Russell of Brentwood, Calif., Milton of Plymouth, and Austin of Occidental Rd., also survive.

Masonic services will be held at the Funeral Home Thursday evening at 8 p.m.

The Rev. B. O. Bashore and the Rev. Allen Wittrup will officiate Friday and burial will be in the Brookside cemetery.

Girl Scouts Plan Supper

A public cafeteria supper, featuring barbecues, will be served at the Methodist Church Friday, Feb. 9, by the Senior Girl Scouts.

A bake sale will be held simultaneously with the supper. The girls are hoping to swell their treasury.

When they have completed their badge work and earned their curved bars, their interests will be developed and expanded by trips to museums, factories and other civic and educational programs.

$5,000 Fire Hits Hotel in Britton

Fire scarred the old Britton Hotel last Friday morning, inflicting damages amounting to about $5,000.

Two fire departments, Britton and Tecumseh, battled the fire for nearly two hours and confined damages to the interior of the frame building.

Franklin Fergus, owner, told firemen that damages were mainly in the bar room.

Most of the damages occurred from smoke and water which poured down from the second floor where the fire apparently originated.

The fire started when a plumber attempted to thaw out frozen water pipes with a blow torch. Smoke was later seen seeping out beneath the eaves and through the skylight at the top of the building.

Little damage was done to the roof.

All traffic in the village was re-routed around the hotel which is on M-50 in downtown Britton.

Valentine Tea Will Have Music

The Valentine tea for members of the Presbyterian Women's Association scheduled for Feb. 14 has been postponed until Friday, Feb. 16 at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Neville Hart is in charge of a musical program featuring the young children of the church.

Mrs. Gerald Baker will be in charge of the refreshments served.

Tickets will be available at the door for a 50c donation. Children without cost.

Roundtable Attracts 100 Scout Leaders

Over 100 Scouters and Den Mothers attended the County's February Roundtable.

This is the largest gathering of Scout leaders at a Roundtable this year.

Dr. Robert Laidlaw and the Den Mothers of Pack 4, sponsored by the First Baptist Church of Tecumseh, were in charge of the Roundtable theme for the Cub Scouters.

They presented the Theme "Islands of the World," then they took the group around the world and visited such places as Pago Pago Japan, Hawaii, Ireland, and many others.

Richard Witt of Tecumseh and three other leaders handled the Explorer section, and covered the National Explorer Bowling Tournament, the Explorer Delegate Conference which will be held in June in Ann Arbor.

This conference is for the elected representatives of the Wolverine Council.

Mrs. Thompson in Hostess Role for BPCPSC

Mrs. Carl Thompson entertained members of the BPCPSC Club Feb. 5, assisted by Mrs. Sydney Wilson.

Following the brief business session cards were played with prizes awarded to Mrs. Louis Shultz, Mrs. Cecile Smith, and Mrs. Prudence Strawe.

Salad and wafers were served with coffee by the hostesses.

The net meeting will be held in March.

Republican Rising Star Speaks Here

One of the rising stars in the Republican party — who is currently much in the news — will speak in Tecumseh Feb. 17.

Congressman Robert Griffin, linked in Wednesday's Free Press with George Romney as a possible team to run for Michigan governor and lieutenant governor, is the annual Lenawee County Lincoln Day Banquet headliner.

This year's event will be in the new Community Center.

Mr. Griffin, who is from Traverse City, was tabbed a dark-horse in the 1962 gubernatorial race. Not being well known in the state has played against him.

The rise of Mr. Romney, like a Redstone rocket, has been another factor.

In the Free Press story by Ray Courage, the idea of a Romney-Griffin duo this fall was raised. The two could weld into a good team.

If elected, the pair would be No. 1 and 2 for a term and Mr. Romney might then move on to the national scene as a GOP presidential hopeful.

This would put Mr. Griffin in an excellent position to capture the governorship here.

☆

TCKETS FOR the Lincoln Day affair are on sale in all parts of the county. Locally, they can be obtained from Del King, Mrs. Robert Murray, Mrs. Charles Howe, Mrs. Richard Walker, T. J. Wagner and at The Herald.

In Tipton, Mrs. Raymond Platt has tickets, at Macon, Mills Swick and in Britton, William Kuster and Mrs. James shiels

REP. ROBERT GRIFFIN

No tickets will be available at the door .

The prime roast of beef dinner, being catered into the Center, will begin at 7:30. A social hour will be held from 6:30 in the Glass Room with non-alcohilic punch being served.

After the banquet there will be a dance featuring the music of Cal Damon's Combo.

About 250 are expected to attend.

HI MOM — John Gibson peeks at his mom, Mrs. Harold Gibson, through the strings of the family's new badminton rackets. Mrs. Gibson won the complete set, which had been given by Lamb's Rexall harmacy, at Saturday night's drawing at the Strand Theatre. She also came up with six free tickets to the Strand. Story about other winners in the Florida Vacation fun appears on the front page of the second section. This week's prize will be 10,000 Top Value Stamps.

They'll Sleep Easier

Mrs. Earl Bryan and Mrs. Luigi Gallo have their little Spitz friend back home again safe and sound.

A story in January 25 edition of the Herald led to finding the animal when Macon residents read of his disappearance.

They called the women and together they set out over the fields to locate him.

After walking about a mile, climbing five fences and crossing a creek, Mrs. Bryan came back with the frightened little dog in her arms.

She said Friday, "Now we can sleep easier nights, with all this cold weather, we were so worried about him, but now he's happy with Irene and I'll help her feed him."

Swim Fees Jump

By JIM LINCOLN

Youngsters and adults, who have enjoyed the city swimming pool, will have to dig a bit deeper next summer for admission.

In a report to Council from the Parks and Recreation Board, admission charges were hiked to offset a financial loss at the pool, which amounted to about $5,000 last year.

New charges will be:

► Youngsters, 25c.
► Adults, 35c
► Families, 75c

The old rates were: children, 15c; adults, 25c; and families, 50c.

☆

A variety of problems, many ending in general discussion, were handled:

Approved Parks and Recreation Board recommendation that City Manager Ed Nelson interview trained personnel for the position of director at the Community Center.

Authorized King-Roberts Insurance Agency to make a survey of the city for a general comphrensive liability policy and to accept bids from local agents representing 5A stock insurance companies.

☆

COUNCIL referred a request from the Rev. Frank Hawthorne of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, vestrymen Lawrence Blum and Charles Newell, that Church St. be closed, t othe city manager and attorney James Beardsley.

It also:

► Approved witholding final payment to Krieghoff Company until all work is completed at the Community Center.

► Held final reading for the bicycle ordinance and gave the medical center ordinances, regarding zoning changes at the hsopital, its first reading.

► Referred for study was a proposal by Councilman Royal Welch that Councilmen salaries be adjusted from $6 to $12 per meeting, mayor's salary from $8 to $16, and that the people elect the mayor instead of fellow councilmen.

Considerable time was spent discussing the deterioration of city streets and ways of improving them.

Parent Study Group To Look at Financing

Final session of the Parent Study Group will be held Thursday, Feb. 15, in Tecumseh High School at 7:30 p.m.

The finances of the schools and the four-mill issue will be discussed.

Members of the school board and the administration will be present.

City Will Get $12,915

Tecumseh will receive $12,915 and Lenawee County, $205,873 for fourth quarter collections from the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund.

Due to an increase in the sale of 1962 license plates during November and December, there was an 80% increase or $4.3 million collected during the final quarter of 1961.

No Column

Marda Gene Duncan won't have a column this week. There just wasn't enough time, she reports,

Young Man of Year Sought by Jaycees

Tecumseh Jaycee's have begun their annual search for an outstanding young man in the Tecumseh area to receive the Distinguished Service Award.

John R. Day is chairman of the project. He has nomination blanks and they are also available at the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Day stated Monday that the Jaycee's are enlisting the aid of individuals and organizations in the community in assisting them to find the most eligible young man between the ages of 21 and 35 for the DSA.

Points are awarded on the basis of:

► Contribution to the general community welfare.

► Evidence of leadership ability.

► Evidence of personal or business progress in that order.

Mr. Day explained that the purpose of the award is to give recognition for accomplishments by a young citizen and to demonstrate the unlimited possibilities for young men equipped wiht only a desire to make a better life for all.

Mr. Day asked that those making nominations have them returned to him, 311 S. Maiden Lane, marked DSA ENTRY, not later than Feb. 20.

Judges are Mayor Harold Easton, Police Chief Murel Clark and the Rev. Allen Wittrup.

The award will be presented on or shortly after March 1.

MRS. BARRY BROCK

Kathleen Tomorsky Married to Barry Brock

Kathleen Tomorsky chose a floor-length gown of brocade taffeta in damask rose pattern for her wedding to Barry Brock Saturday at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

It was styled with long sleeves and rounded neckline, handmade roses topped the full detachable overskirt that swept into a chapel train.

A crown of lace and pearls held the shoulder length veil.

The gown was created by Maude Bell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Tomorsky, 108 S. Maiden Lane, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Brock, 415 W. Logan St.

The Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Donald Johnson presided at the organ.

The bride placed a bouquet at the foot of the altar of the Blessed Virgin.

In back of the altar rail were beautiful, circular cathedral candelabra, faced with arrangements of white chrysanthemums and carnations with a background of natural palms.

☆

LOW ARRANGEMENTS of white blossoms were on the altar and the center aisle was enhanced with tall single candelabra, faced with clusters of white chrysanthemums and emerald foliage.

Jacqui Kudlacz of Cleveland, O., was the maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Mary Lou Layton, Linda Hanna, Jane Colgrove, Renee Hawkins and Deborah Hawkins, cousins of the bride of Ionia.

The attendants dresses were white chiffon taffeta fashioned in sheath style with separate pouf peplum finished with a flat bow at the waistline, three quarter sleeves and scoop neckline.

They carried narrow cascade bouquets of white carnations backed with tailored greens.

The bride's bouquet was a cascade of gardenias and minature ivy.

John Purcell of Toledo was best man and the guests were seated by Allen Dickinson, David Brock, Harold Weakly and Neil O'Hara.

☆

THE ST. ELIZABETH Auditorium was gay with many arrangements of spring flowers in yellow and white.

The lovely cake table was flounced with white net over white taffeta and edged with soft yellow satin.

The six-tiered square wedding cake was decorated with tiny clusters of yellow rosebuds and daisies and encircled with a bridal wreath of gardenias, yellow [illegible] daisies.

Compotes of the same blossoms flanked the cake and the serving tables were centered with yellow and white arrangements.

Those assisting at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Corkery, Mrs. Joseph Layton, Mrs. Harry Spencer, Mrs. Joseph Galazzi, Mrs. Dale Bowen, Mrs. Robert Sage, Mrs. William MacBeth and Mrs. Joseph Horvath.

Others are Mrs. H. H. Hanna, Martha Owen, Mary Colgrove Richard and Thomas Cobb.

☆

OUT-OF-TOWN guests were from Ontario, Canada; Muskegan, Detroit, Jackson, Ionia, Toledo and Cleveland, O.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and Mercy School of Nursing in Toledo.

☆

Mr. Brock is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and the Michigan State University. He is stationed at Fort Knox and will be transferred to Fort Gordon, Ga., where the couple will make their home some time in March.

For the present the new Mrs. Brock will continue her duties as pediatrics nurse at the Toledo Hospital.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents at Roumells in Clinton.

The bride was honored at a shower given by Mrs. Thomas Neill, Mrs. Donald Cobb, Mrs. Kenneth Herrick, Mrs. Wm. MacBeth and Mrs. Joseph Horvath.

Marry in Double-Ring Ceremony Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Roe of rural Tecumseh are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Dorthea, to Larry Dean Sanford of rural Adrian.

The double ring ceremony was performed before members of the immediate family at the Broadway Avenue Methodist Church in Saginaw.

The bride wore a street-length dress of ice-blue flocked nylon over white taffeta featuring a high bateau neckline, three quarter sleeves and a full skirt.

A matching pillbox hat and gloves completed her costume.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burt of Adrian were the attendants.

Mr. Sanford is the son of Mrs. Marian Sanford of Adrian and Harvey Sanford of Pennsylvania.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and her husband is a graduate of Morenci High School. He completed four years of service in the Marines and is presently employed at the American Chemical Plant in Weston.

The newly-married couple are making their home at 805 Michigan Ave. in Adrian.

Long & Short

tion minor items that give the United States a black eye 'round the world.

These same publications will then refuse to print things which show of great strides being made by our nation, he claimed.

At lunch, he took off on American newspapers in a biting condemnation on news judgment by papers from coast to coast.

Murder, sex and violence get the ink, he complained.

With a charming, Continental manner, Mr. Oltmans enjoyed teasing the girls at the luncheon, while at the same time ticking off the fate our country faces.

His predictions are dour, yet bear serious consideration because of his knowledge of past world history and the way the current of globe affairs is now eddying past.

America must be for something positive, he said. The U. S. can't go on forever being against something.

The order of the day for the United States, according to Oltmans, is to make a complete self-analysis. We've spent years probing problems of other nations and then pumping funds and commodities into their economies.

The hour draws near when Americans must examine America.

This appears accurate thinking. Millions of our citizens, myself included, have long become dreary of the race to spew our wealth into every country outside our boundries.

The Holland writer ticked off his opinion of recent presidents.

Truman — tough, strong, may go down in history as a greater leader than Eisenhower.

Ike — great military hero, offered little leadership as president.

Kennedy — determined, working quietly towards area of agreement between Russia and U. S. . Badly gun-shy from Cuban fiasco.

The guest said that Mr. K's attitude on a divided Germany is the one item which makes him popular with European nations.

Holland, France and Great Britain hate Germany, always will, he contends. Germany must never be allowed to be forged into one nation again.

The handsome visitor is ready to concede much of the world to socialism and worse.

As an American, I don't buy that one.

Oltman himself had the answer on this when he confessed when someone steps on the toes of the United States its citizens unify into an unbeatable force.

This characteristic will be our salvation.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

"I sow hempseed, hempseed I sow,
"He that loves me best, come after me now."

Thus chanted the girl of yesteryear as she circled the church at midnight 12 times in search of her Valentine.

Valentine's Day, Feb. 14, was thea a serious time for husband hunting. A maid might see her true Valentine in her dreams if she first took the precaution of pinning five bay leaves to her pillow.

People once thought that Valentine's Day was for the birds. According to World Book Encyclopedia it was believed that birds choose their mates on Feb. 14.

Well, the old crow that chose me many years ago is still the sweetest Valentine I know.

Though not dissatisfied with the former officers the eighth graders felt that they would like to begin the second semester with a fresh start.

The new officers:
Julie Mudgett—president
Kenneth Bagby — vice-president
Marilyn Willis—secretary
James Greene—treasurer
Michael Velandra — social chairman

Bill Prochaska

Third graders recently had a chance to show their artistic ability in a clock contest. These clocks later shown to the various other grades.

The winners were Jovine Zimmerman, Mary O'Neil and Bernard Riordan.

Prosecuting Attorney Talk to Kiwanians

Harvey A. Koselka, prosecuting attorney for Lenawee County, was the guest speaker at the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club's weekly dinner meeting last Thursday evening.

Mr. Koselka presented highlights of the work of his office.

He stated that, in his opinion, the majority of individuals his office is required to prosecute are in difficulty with the law because of lack of respect for themselves, for other people and their property, for the law and for God.

TO THE EDITORS:

Some facts about the Macon Telephone Company:

The assets have increased from $10,928 in 1958 to approximately $26,000.00 in 1061. Does this look like a dwindling business?

The gross income in 1958 was $15,841.83. In 1960 it was $18,-104.00. With the increase in rates in the past year, the 1961 gross income promises to be much greater.

There is some misunderstanding about the Board's unanimous recommendation for the sale of the Macon Telephone Co.

The fact is the Board unanimously passed a resolution to present a sales proposal from the General Telephone Co., to be acted on by the stockholders.

The Macon Telephone Co. has given very good service, at a minimum cost to its patrons, with a long distance service, thru the Bell Co., unexcelled by none.

This particular long distance service would be sacrificed if the present sales proposal is accepted by the stockholders.

If sold, the patrons would have practically no voice in the rates they are charged and the quoted rates under this sale are very much higher that the Macon Telephone Company's present rates.

Stockholders should make extended inquiry as to the quality of service received in communities already served by the company who proposed to buy, namely the communities of Britton, Tecumseh, Adrian and Dundee before voting to sell.

Why sell for $12,000 when other offers of $18,000 to $25,-500 are open and proposed to keep the community unit as a whole?

People interested in keeping a going enterprise.

TO THE EDITORS:

I'd like to address this to all parents whose children will suffer if the four-mill increase on school taxes is not passed in the coming election.

I am a parent who appreciated so much the high standard and good quality of education that the Tecumseh school system had to offer, that we chose to pay tuition for our children to attend Tecumseh schools. We still have to pay the school tax in our school district.

Recently there has been a series of meetings in the high school, in which teachers have described in detail, the courses they offer to Tecumseh students.

These meetings were advertised in The Herald and by word-of-mouth. Yet, only a handful of parents have attended.

Every parent interested in his kid's education, should have been present, and it would have been obvious to him how much need the school system has for more tax support.

I was truly embarrassed the night that five top-quality Science and Math teachers gave their time and dedicated effort to outline their challenging program for our kids — to an audience of about twelve parents.

Last week again, only 20 parents heard the language and social-studies teachers describe their aims in preparing Tecumseh kids either for graduation to college or "Commencement" on their own.

These meetings were designed to give parents facts.

Do you realize that if increased tax support is not obtained by the school system, in the coming election, Tecumseh High School will no longer have accreditation with the Universities of the State?

That it will be impossible to secure the more qualified teachers on new contracts? (Already some top-notch teachers have left the Tecumseh system to realize better opportunities in districts that appreciate their worth enough to pay them better. And Tecumseh will lose more good teachers soon, unless they are assured that Tecumseh citizenry will support them adequately.)

That you definitely will face half-day sessions in more than the first grade?

It is negligence to the Tecumseh children, as well as to the future of the community, if you let prejudice and misunderstanding allow you either to vote against this even inadequate increase in millage, or to refuse to support it actively, without taking the trouble to learn the true facts.

There will be one last meeting at the High School on Thursday, Feb. 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the series of parent-teacher meetings.

It will sum up what Mr. McDowell and members of the board will be present. This is your chance to learn some facts about the education of your kids, as well as the opportunity to get any questions you have answered.

Frankly, I can't vote in the coming election, but I'd like my letter to persuade enough Tecumseh parents to support actively the increased millage, that my kids and yours will continue to benefit from the truly high standard of education that Tecumseh has offered in the past.

Sincerely yours,
Margaret B. Boynton
Allen Rd.

—o—

TO THE EDITORS:

How much more indifference and misunderstanding can our school system stand without drastic and possibly irreversible results affecting the lives of our children?

Their whole future and that of the nation depends on the quality of our education. Surely an average $25 sacrifice is worth this future.

Over 2,000 turn out to vote against a tax increase for the schools. Only 499 respond at a school board election enabling us to put up the right people to do our will in matters of local education.

In the past there has been success in voting millage for building purposes; but for operation, not so. What good the walls without any concern for what is inside?

Some 250 parents (many of them pairs) appeared for high school open house. The enrollment is over 750!

Recently there has been a series of meetings for high school parents to be instructed on the different phases, objectives and relative importance of the high school curriculum.

Average attendance — 20 to 25!

All were invited to attend these meetings, giving a chance to learn the facts, so one can have REASONS not EXCUSES for voting yes or no.

What are the results of insufficient funds?

Already it is impossible to get new experienced teachers, and many of our good present ones are "on the wing".

Next, accreditation will be lost. What happens to our 40% college-bound students? And what happens to the quality of the equally important vocational studies?

Soon it will be half days for more than the first grade.

What earthly good does it do us to bring new industry and business to Tecumseh, if by non-support of our schools we turn people away from our town?

Shouldn't every last one of us be equally concerned about these questions and be working on the answers?

We need concrete answers. Instead of putting the blame for our problems on already overworked administrators, can't we hire a business manager, as is done in other school systems?

Next Thursday is the last meeting of this parent group. Mr. McDowell, Mr. Hart and school board members will be there to answer questions. Will you be there to ask them?

Ruth Duffin
212 W. Chicago Blvd.

TO THE EDITORS:

It seems so unfair that some of our children in the lower grades are presently attending half day sessions in our public schools.

We are consistently losing many good teachers.

Certainly no one would approve of junior and senior high students attending half-day sessions, which may become necessary next year.

Think what this would do to those desiring to enter college, to say nothing of the free hours our youth would then have on their hands presenting more opportunity for trouble.

Can you recall how pleasant our school bands sounded as they proudly played and marched in the Memorial Day parade? This will be no more, if financial assistance isn't forthcoming very soon.

The time has come for us to stop making conversation and seriously consider the many problems concerning the education and welfare of our children.

As I see it, the only answer is additional millage and let's not wait too long!

Sincerely,
Opal Dickinson,

The sub-committees met and outlined their work as to the meeting dates, consideration of possible topics for study, need for consultant help preparation of separate and combined reports and a final presentation to the whole committee & community.

MRS. WILLIAM EDDINGER

Sharon Bottorff Wed to William Eddinger

BRITTON — The Ridgeway Methodist Church was the scene of a lovely red-and-white wedding in which Sharon Ann Bottroff and William J. Eddinger were united in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Bottorff, 133 W. Chicago Blvd, in Britton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Eddinger of Ridgeway.

The Rev. Allison Mitchinson, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony Saturday, Feb. 3 at 7:30 p.m.

Judy Allen presented nuptial music at the organ and accompanied Mrs. Gordon Gove as she sang "Because" and "The Lords Prayer..

The candlelight service was enhanced with four lighted, cathedral candelabra faced with arrangements of white flowers and ribbons.

A background of potted palms softened the setting and the center aisle was aglow with tall candelabra tied with red satin bows and emerald foliage.

☆

THE BRIDE, who approached the altar on the arm of her father, was radiant in a floor-length gown of white chiffon over net with a fitted bodice featuring a sabrina neckline and a large bow at the waist line in the back.

Her veil of silk illusion was held in place by a crown of crystal and seed pearls.

Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace and earrings, gifts of the groom.

The bride carried a white lace-covered Bible topped with red dubonet roses and white carnations in a cascade arrangement.

Susan Bottorff of Britton was her sister's maid-of-honor.

Her red velveteen waltz length gown featured a fitted bodice and full skirt.

She wore a white fur head band with a side arrangement of red carnations and tiny leaves of ivy and she carried a heart-shaped white fur muff from which cascaded arrangements of red carnations.

Mrs. Robert Malloch of Ypsilanti, sister of the bride, and Susan Eddinger of Ridgeway, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Their gowns, headresses and flowers were identical to those of the maid of honor.

☆

RICHARD KEELING of Tecumseh served as best man.

Robert Malloch of Ypsilanti, brother-in-law of the bride, and Nick Terry of Sand Creek were the ushers.

Mrs. Bottorff chose a gold dress with brown accessories for her daughters wedding and she wore a yellow orchid shoulder corsage.

The groom's mother wore a blue dress with navy accessories and a corsage of pink cymbedium orchids.

A reception for 250 guests was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony.

Serving at the reception were Barbara Gibson, Mrs. Harlan Houpt, Betty Marine, Mrs. Jerry Lane and Nina Crutchfield.

For her wedding trip to Florida the bride wore a brown and white print with brown accessories.

☆

FOLLOWING a two-week honeymoon, the newlyweds will be at home in Britton.

The new Mrs. Eddinger was a 1950 graduate of Britton-Macon High School and a 1961 graduate of Warner Beauty College, Toledo. She is now employed at the Wayside Beauty Shop in Tecumseh.

The groom, also a 1960 graduate of Britton-Macon High School, is employed at J.J. Walper and Son elevators, here.

She Wins Cadillac

BRITTON—Mrs. Charles Fairbanks, 408 N. Main St., won a white Cadillac and other prizes or $5,000 on the TV program, "Seven Keys" last week.

Several Tecumseh residents called The Herald with the news. Mrs. Francis Packard phoned while the program was still on the air and Mrs. Robert Lowe and Bill Dustin called shortly after.

Mrs. Fairbanks has this to say concerning her good fortune:

"People keep asking me how I feel about winning this grand prize I don't believe I have. I think my family with the helping hand of God won all this for me.

"If it had not been for my twins, Rosalee and Natalee, writing my name on the cards instead of their own, it would have been one of them.

"And then there's my husband, Charles, who never once has said anything about all the postage I have spent entering contests of all kinds, but just picks them up along with the rest of the letters and mails them without a word.

"Yes, I like contest programs on TV and I'm always trying or pushing my children to try them. After all what's the use of watching a program if it's not worth participating in.

"Why our family won all this, there must be a reason. God doesn't work miracles without a reason. You see my twins who are now 13 years old are two of God's miracles.

"They only weighed two pounds, two ounces and two pounds, six ounces respectively when they were born.

"Our five-year-old daughter, Yvonne Lynn, was born after the doctor told us we couldn't have any more children.

"And so you see actually this is the fourth miracle God has worked for us.

"Therefore I didn't really win this contest, my family did it for me with the help of God."

FFA Wins Silver Rating

By David Houseman

BRITTON The Educational Exhibit displayed at Farmer's Week by the Britton F F A received a silver rating.

"America's Greatest Crop" was the theme of this exhibit in which the major employment opportunities from corn were shown.

Illustrations and scale models of farm equipment were used to show such areas as production, marketing and engineering.

Along with the Britton Chapter about 40 other Michigan Chapters had exhibits at Farmer's Week.

Thirty-four members of the Britton F F A toured the campus of M S U, Feb. 1.

In the morning all the members attended meetings on the different agricultural opportunities.

The members split up into groups of four so that all the meetings would be covered thoroughly.

Conservation, fish and wildlife and communications were some of the topics at these meetings.

In the afternoon the members regrouped and looked at some of the latest farm equipment. Of special interest was the hay wafering machine, corn toppers and the four wheel drive tractor.

Sunday afternoon and evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Fairbanks and family were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Chrisman and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Dinius and Roger Maynard of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bush and family of Britton.

Christine Koth Is Guest of Honor

BRITTON — Christine Koth of Garden City was the guest of honor at a linen shower Sunday afternoon given by Mrs. Gladwin Spohr and Mrs. Fred Long at the Spohr home.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Myrtelle Knox of Brooklyn, Mrs. Ted Heath, Jr. of Milan and Mrs. Donald Koth of Garden City.

Duplicate prizes were presented to the bride.

Miss Koth opened many lovely gifts which had been placed under a pink ruffled umbrella.

Sue Dawson of Whitemore Lake arranged the ribbons into an attractive bouquet.

Mrs. Glenn Hoff of Lathrup Village had charge of the guest and gift book.

The center piece of the refreshment table was a three-tiered cake topped with bells trimmed in pink and was baked and decorated by Mrs. Fred Long.

The groom's-to-be mother, Mrs. Herbert W. Long, presided at the coffee service and his aunt Mrs. Earl Cosner of Milan, cut and served the cake.

Twenty-two guests attended.

Out-of-town guests were present from Garden City, Ann Arbor, Detroit, Whitemore Lake, Lathrup Village, Milan, Brooklyn and Tecumseh.

Miss Koth will become the bride of Robert Long of Tecumseh, Saturday, Feb. 10.

What Are Industrial Arts?

TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTO

EXAMINE NEW LATHE— Industrial Arts Instructor Gerald Potter shows one of his Tecumseh High School students, Robert Richards, a technical set up on a nine inch South Bend spindle one of several new lathes, which were recently donated to the shop.

(Editor's note: This is another in the series of stories regarding classes offered at Tecumseh High School.)

What are Industrial Arts?

In order for one to understand better the industrial arts program in the public schools today, it is important to understand both the definition and aims of industrial arts.

Industrial arts can be defined as an essential phase of a modern program of general education for all people.

It provides experiences in the use of materials, tools and equipment and a knowledge of the processes and products of industry and their social and economic significance to the life of the community and the nation.

The aims of industrial arts are:

► Citizenship — to provide an opportunity for individual development of desirable attitudes, characteristics, interests and habits through participation in an interesting activity program.

► Craftsmanship — to provide for learning to plan and construct things of value and beauty involving the use of the more common hand tools and machines.

► Cultural — to provide an opportunity for students to develop a more realistic appreciation of the beauty and value of products of the world in which we live.

► Consumer knowledge — to develop the ability to select and use intelligently the materials and products of industry.

► Worthy home membership — to provide an opportunity for students to become familiar with — and interested in — maintenance and improvements in the home.

► Guidance and exploration — to help each student determine whether or not he has special apitudes of a manipulative nature and the necessary information to consider and plan further education experiences.

► Avocational — to provide exploratory experiences in several of the more common leisure-time activities in which people engage.

► Occupational — to provide experiences in a well-rounded educational program which provides foundations for living and working in an industrial community.

► Industrial arts activities — industrial arts should foster the development of a strong foundation in technical skills, consumer knowledges and attitudes regarding matters needed for happy and effective living.

Public education should provide every boy and girl the opportunity to work with the tools and materials of industry, thereby acquiring an understanding of our technological developments.

☆

WHY HAVE industrial arts in the public schools?

Industrial arts has general values that apply on all levels of education because it provides for activity and self expression.

It is a continuous program from the kindergarten throughout the entire training period and carries over into adult activities regardless of the type of employment.

The instruction changes from the study and use of easy-to-form materials such as paper and clay in the kindergarten to the use of a great variety of materials, tools and machines on the high levels.

The instruction changes with the maturity of the child and with the background and experiences of older students.

The values are cumulative and provide a basis for every-day living as well as for industrial and related occupations.

☆

CULTURAL development are inherent in the attitudes, ideals, accomplishments of the students and the fine character inculcated through the necessity of working with and for others.

The experiences in the development of fine craftsmanship require a high degree of integrity and personal initiative.

The results of a student's efforts are tangible and the individual is enabled to realize the worthwhileness of fine work.

The contribution to cultural development is, therefore, significant.

Industrial arts provides experiences which helps students to appreciate the value of an understanding of the principles of science, mechanics and mathematics necessary to plan necessary and construct things and to select and use wisely the products of industry.

Consequently, it stimulates a desire for knowledge in fields related to industrial arts and encourages students to continue their education.

☆

THIS IS an industrial age.

Modern living requires that all citizens have a more adequate understanding of industrial processes and problems.

Technological changes affect the economic and social status of all people. Invention and science have changed whole industry and replaced others.

Mass production has provided thousands of industrial occupations for those who formerly worked on farms or in allied occupations.

Many now make a living by industrial production alone or in connection with part-time farming.

These developments call for much more manipulative and technical training and experience on the part of every person for an understanding of the age in which we live and a valuable foundation for the thousands who will make their livelihood in industrial or allied occupations.

"It is my hope that this material relative to industrial arts will help to clarify and promote a better understanding of the part industrial arts plays in the public school system today," states Charles Gross, THS industrial arts instructor.

NEXT WEEK: THE PRESENT INDUSTRIAL ARTS PROGRAM

$860 Given Moms

Volunteers working in zero weather and on icy walks — many where there are no walks — collected $860 in the Mothers March of Dimes Jan. 30.

Arrangements for the drive were made by Mrs. George Downard of the Auxiliary of the Hall Slater Post of the VFW and Mrs. Dennis Goller of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Members of the two auxiliaries were assisted by members of several other groups in the city.

John Hamilton and Jerry Barton, co-chairman for the March of Dimes for the city, expressed their appreciation to the volunteers for their efforts.

Members of the Teen Club sold peanuts, candy and balloons for the drive and donated $110.

Teen club members will assist John Hamilton in collecting the cannisters from the business places Saturday, Feb. 10.

Anyone still wishing to contribute to the March may use the cannisters until that time or mail a check to Mr. Hamilton.

Cynthia Installed as Rainbow Advisor

Cynthia Frayer, daughter of Mrs. Jennings Frayer of Britton, was installed as worthy advisor of the Adrian Assembly No. 44 Order of the Rainbow for Girls in ceremonies Feb. 3 at the Adrian Masonic Temple.

Others from here who were installed as officers were Connie Kirkendall as Nature, Ruth Kempf as Outer Observer and Shirley Hunt as musician.

Mrs. Warren Benham of Ridgeway was the soloist for the ceremony. Among installing officers were Sally Hunt, Nancy Beland, Sue Dickinson and Mrs. Glen Driscoll.

An honor line from Tecumseh Chapter OES included Mrs. George Rinehart, Mrs. Fay Hindes, Mrs. Charles Manley, Mrs. Robert Bonner, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beland, Katharine Hunt, Glen Driscoll and Mrs. Robert Hunt.

Others attending from the area were Miss Frayer's mother and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Sturtevant, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kempf and Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Frayer, Van Frayer, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cadmus and Elaine, Julia Freer and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Welker and daughters, Donna and Audrey of Waterville, O. formerly of Ridgeway.

Connie Kirkendall was presented a white rainbow bible for a year's perfect attendance.

Reception for Newlyweds

A reception for Mr. and Mrs. Barry Sheldon of Ypsilanti was held Sunday in the Dearborn room of the Dearborn Inn.

The marriage of Carol Ann Smith to Barry Sheldon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sheldon of Dundee, was an event of Jan. 11 in Ann Arbor.

The Sheldons are former Tecumseh residents.

The new Mrs. Sheldon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith who are vacationing in the states from their home in Buenos Aires, Argentina, where Mr. Smith is employed by the Ford Motor Co.

☆

THE BRIDE is a sophomore in Eastern Michigan University and the groom is a physical education major in his junior year.

They will make their home on campus.

Among the guests attending the reception were the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheldon and Mr and Mrs. Sam Clough, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brooks and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Curtis of Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. Llewelyn Sisson.

Mrs. Myers Entertains for Julie

Mrs. Richard Myers entertained 15 guests in her home Jan. 31 honoring Mrs. Donald Judd and her new baby, Julie Lynn.

Guests from Tecumseh, Britton and Macon played games. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Douglas Maves, Mrs. David Ousterout and Mrs. Harold Kopka.

Gifts were assembled under a blue umbrella guarded by a stork. A fruit salad and coffee were served.

Flat Rock Wallops Indians, 74 to 49

Tecumseh dropped its fifth Huron League tilt last Friday night with a resounding 74-49 trouncing by Flat Rock. The Indians have won four.

After the first quarter, the game turned into a complete rout as the hustling FR five outshot, outscrapped and easily outplayed the local team.

Next Tuesday evening the Indians face heavily favored Airport on the Jets floor. This Friday the Bimsfield Royals play here.

If Tecumseh had any hopes of upsetting FR, they were soon squelched in the second quarter when the Rams poured 26 points through the net.

Just before the rout began, John Britton hit for two points to pull Techumseh within two points of FR. The Rams then raced for 10 straight points.

At one time in the second period, FR had collected 24 points to Tecumseh's three.

The Rams outscored the Indians by just four points in the second half but continued to dominate the game.

Four FR players scored in the double-figure column while Britton with 15 and Jack Dick with 12 paced the Indians.

Coach Jim Hoffman's Jayvees outclassed their opponents in another rout, 53-31.

For all purposes the game was over at the end of the first stanze with Tecumseh leading 22-3.

Gregg Allen with 13 and John Oberlin with 10 points topped the Jayvees.

Mrs. Dale Dean entertained Jan. 30 in honor of her daughter's tenth birthday. Eighteen girl classmates and friends helped Cynthia celebrate. A Valentine theme was featured using hearts and cherubs. A light supper was served followed by a large decorated birthday cake and ice cream.

RICHARD SMITH GET YOUNG FARMER AWARD FROM WALT WONDERLY

Young Farmer Is Honored

Richard Smith, 7930 Beebe Hwy., was named Outstanding Young Farmer at the banquet of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Feb. 1 at the VFW Hall.

As Mr. Smith was presented the plaque, his wife, Shirley, entered the hall as a surprise to him. According to Mr. Smith his wife has helped him a great deal in his success as a farmer.

He also attributed his success to his landlord, Faunt Leonarson, a good financing system and help from both his and his wife's parents.

He said that it is almost an impossibility for a young fellow to get started in farming unless he has someone behind him who is willing to take a chance.

He expressed gratitude to the Jaycees in giving him the award.

The 30-year-old agriculturalist does dairy and grain farming on 600 acres.

He recently purchased his father's farm, the M. E. Smith place, on Feller Rd. and he and his wife and two sons, Bruce 9 and Greg 8, will move there March 1.

The Smiths are members of the Rome Grange, the Farm Bureau and attend the Tipton Community Church. Mr. Smith is a graduate of Onsted High School.

Walt Wonderly, chairman, announced that the judging panel included:

► C. M. Brown, local cattle farmer

► Russell F. McDonald, district extension agent

► Guy Roberts, president of Deerfield State Bank.

Other candidates present at the dinner were Fred Long, Richard Platt & Wesley Whelan. Lee Spohr was unable to attend.

Judges explained that the competition was extremely close.

Mr. McDonald, guest speaker, gave a talk on grain marketing.

Policeman Olin Oldfield Completes M S U Training

Special to the Herald

EAS LANSING — Officer Olin Oldfield of the Tecumseh Police Department was awarded a certificate of achievement at the final session of a Basic Police Training Course Jan. 8 through Feb. 2 at Michigan State University.

The 39-member class, largest in the 11-year history of the program, attracted officers from cities throughout Michigan.

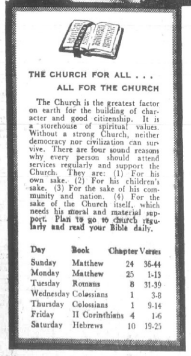
Included were a Brazilian and three Indonesian police officers, all sponsored by the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

During their four weeks at MSU's Kellogg Center the men studied such subjects as criminal and traffic law, police ethics, first aid, delinquency, defensive tacics and human relations.

The lessons were put into practice at a mock crime and court trial, enacted by the students and presided over by special agents of the FBI, Michigan State Police, municipal and state officials and faculty members of the MSU School of Police Administration and Public Safety.

For All We Hold Sacred . . . Attend Church

NEVER TOO LATE...



THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Matthew	24	36-44
Monday	Matthew	25	1-13
Tuesday	Romans	8	31-39
Wednesday	Colossians	1	5-8
Thursday	Colossians	1	9-14
Friday	II Corinthians	4	1-6
Saturday	Hebrews	10	19-25

HOW I used to hate to practice the piano when I was a child! Yet, today, how I wish I could play well — and that I had the time to practice!

So often, we turn our back on opportunity, only to find, when we want it, that it's too late.

Not so with the Church. The Church gives you no reason for regrets. If, long ago, you gave up going to church, there is no reason why you can't start again now. Even if you've never gone to church, you'll find a warm welcome awaiting you this and every Sunday. For God's love is constant and everlasting.

In the Church it is, literally, never too late.

MICHIGAN IS MANAGEMENT KNOW-HOW

Michigan offers to industry management know-how in a degree that is unmatched anywhere.

Here in Michigan, management headquarters of mass production, we have more management skills than anywhere in the world. That includes—Pittsburgh, Chicago, Essen — everywhere.

Our management know-how is not limited to mass production industries, although the world looks to Michigan's leadership in that area. Michigan's management know-how excels in production of drugs and the many other products of our State. It is outstanding in the world of finance.

With management headquarters of the Big Three automobile manufacturers located in Michigan, this management leadership extends to supplier companies, management know-how is necessary to industrial development.

With our diversity of industrial skills, natural resources, transportation, markets and management know-how, Michigan is a great place for industry.

Help carry Michigan's message to the nation. Clip this ad and mail it to someone in another state with your comment. Let's talk up Michigan and its advantages for industry. Together we can assure a greater future for all of us.

MICHIGAN IS EVERYTHING FOR INDUSTRY

Church Notes

Christianity By-Products Will Be Topic

"The By-Products of Christianity" will be the subject of the sermon at the 10 a.m. service Sunday of Tecumseh Friends Church.

"The church at large today, is running on the momentum of past experiences," states the pastor, the Rev. Paul Brantingham.

"Many say, yes, my grandfather was a fine Christian."

"Yes, my mother knew how to pray."

"My grandfather was a Godly man and what wonderful people they were."

The Rev. Mr. Brantingham further states, "too often we forget their lives were rich and life enhancing because they had an experience with God which resulted in the visible fruits of Christianity."

Baptists Will Hear About Politics

The sermon at the First Baptist Church Sunday, Feb. 11, will be entitled, "God is Interested in Politics."

The Rev. B. O. Bashore said, "Though the thought may sound revolutionary to moderns who have relegated Him to the rumble seat of the universe, He that 'sitteth upon the circle of the earth,' upholding all things by the word of His power,' has more than once cast the deciding vote for or against a candidate.

"Study the life and doings of King Nebuchadnezzar as an example — or that of Herod Antipas — or the life of Pilate."

"A simple legislative act will not guarantee that God will vote vote for us in the fonal count of the'righteous. The clamor to legislate the love of God into the hearts of men has become more and more insistent, but laws cannot restore righteousness in those who have forgotten God," he continued.

"Our Liberties are embedded in our Constitution, but FREEDOM is BORN, NURTURED and MATURED in the hearts of people, and comes from voting WITH God for the right use and Christian concern of our lives in relation to our fellow men."

"If we fail to vote our lives with God, the price will be tremendous .Therefore we cannot fail — we dare not fail. Be sure to worship in Church this Sunday," concluded the Rev. Mr. Bashore.

Our Lives Ought to Fulfill Purpose

"Our lives ought to fulfill a purpose," says the Rev. Allen Wittrup of the Methodist Church.

"We were put into the world for a purpose, God's purpose. We were put into the world to serve God's children."

"We were put here to stand fast and steadfast against evil-sin and every pressure that would take away from people their God-given heritage. Our life is a sacred trust."

"God has heaped so much love and so many resources upon us. Therefore we have a stewardship to fulfill; we have a responsibility to discharge," he adds.

The Rev. Mr. Wittrup will speak on the subject "Tall and Straight" on Sunday at 10 a.m.

The Boy Scouts of Troop 73 and other troops in the community will be present to celebrate Scout Sunday.

James Ver Hage and Norman Beal will be awarded the God and Country Medal by the Rev. Mr. Wittrup during the service.

The fourth Quarterly Conference will be held on Sunday, Feb. 18 Dr. Edwin Stricker will speak at the morning service and following the congregation dinner, will conduct the annual meeting.

FIRST PRIZE THIS WEEK

10,000 TV Stamps

In this week's Florida Vacation drawing, first prize will be 10,000 Top Value Stamps, which have been given by the Tecumseh Kroger Store.

In addition, there will also be six Strand Theatre tickets and two Tecumseh Herald one-year subscriptions given.

Weekly drawings are held in the Strand between shows Saturday evenings.

The Florida Vacation for two, to be awarded March 17, includes seven days and six nights on Miami Beach. Winners will stay at the Monte Carlo Hotel, fly both ways via Delta Airlines jets.

Chances on the big trip and the weekly drawings are found throughout The Herald in the form of coupons being run by local merchants with their ads.

Coupons are to be filled out and deposited at the store whose name is printed on them. No purchases are necessary.

In last week's drawing, there was a real oddity. The two top prizes, a badminton set, donated by Lamb's Rexall Pharmacy, and the six theatre tickets, were won by the same person.

Two winning chances pulled from the big drum bore the name of Mrs. Harold Gibson, who lives with her husband and family along the Tecumseh-Macon Rd.

Herald subscriptions were won by Donald Brazee, 701 Ternes Rd. and Albert Bailey, 7023 Lenawee County Rd.

Nearly 30 of the 4,010 coupons picked up at the 40 locations last Saturday were invalidated because they had been deposited in the wrong containers.

All winning coupons will be redeposited in the giant drum so as to be included for future weekly drawings and the grand prize.

What's Going on at Boysville

By DAVE KLAVON

The Boysville Band under the direction of Brother Philip Armstrong, has begun to work on drum and bugle corps materials.

The debut of the corps will be in Bay City for the St. Patrick's Day Parade on March 18.

On March 25, they will march in Detroit for the Father Cotter Council K of C Corporate Communion Sunday. Several other engagements are already on the docket for the corps.

Equipment for the corps was donated by the American Legion Post No. 97, the William Stark Post, in Adrian.

The Boysville team on "Quiz 'Em," a T V quiz program sponsored by a Detroit newspaper, defeated the team from St. Gregory's High School in Detroit.

Each team was asked several questions about current news. At the end of the regulation time, both teams had answered the same number of questions correctly and had missed the same number of questions.

A tie-breaking question was then asked, and Boysville came closest to the correct answer, thus giving them the victory.

As a result of the victory, Boysville has a new tape recorder, and five boys — Jim Palko, Dave Mason, Gary Frei, John Casey and Denny Frei — have made their television debuts.

Walter Rowley Named Manager of Kroger Store

Walter Rowley, 401 Nokomis St., took over as manager of the Tecumseh Kroger Store effective February 5.

Don Wines, former manager, is now at the Jackson Eastgate Kroger store, assuming managerial duties there the same day.

Mr. Rowley has been a resident of Tecumseh for the past 18 months, working as co-manager in the Adrian store.

He has been with Kroger for 17 years, was manager of the Dundee store from 1943 until 1960, when it was closed.

Mrs. Rowley is employed as a check-out clerk in the local store. The couple have three children.

Mr. Wines and his wife, Arlene, and daughter, Jacqueline Sue, moved to Tecumseh from Sandusky, O. a year ago when Mr. Wines was named manager here.

Wanted: Products

Community organizations and business firms in Tecumseh and surrounding counties will be urged to compete for two state awards to be given in recognition of outstanding products and achievements in connection with this year's Michigan Week May 20-26.

Wesley R. Baker, of the S. S. Kresge Co., Detroit, chairman of the Michigan Week Business and Product Promotion Board, announces that a new award will be made this year for achievement by an industry, institution, community or area.

This will be in addition to the annual Product - of - the - year award which has received wide recognition since it was inaugurated in 1959.

Winners will first be determined in each of the 16 Michigan Week regions, through arrangements to be sent up by the regional Michigan Week chairmen and their chairmen for business and product promotion.

The 1961 product-of-the-year award was won by Metrecal, the diet product of Mead Johnson and company, manufactured at Zeeland, while in 1960 the top state honor went to "Hush Puppies," the casual shoe manufactured by the Wolverine Shoe and Tanning Corporation in six Michigan communities.

☆

GUIDELINES for selecton of the product award winner are:

1. The product being judged should be something that is significant, successful and either new or recent.

2. It could be a product that has enabled the company or organization producing it to survive an economic set-back, to create a large number of new job positions, or to make it necessary to enter into a major expansion program.

3. The nomination might be the development of a new agricultural product or perhaps a new market for an old product.

4. The nomination should not be a personalty such as an entertainer, beauty queen, writer, athlete, etc.

☆

RULES FOR the achievement award have been outlined by the community as follows:

1. It might be the result of research in almost any field that can or is making an outstanding contribution to the welfare of mankind.

2. It could be the result of a civic organization or community effort that saved a company from an economic set back, or brought about the development of new industry in the area creating a large number of new job positions.

3. The recent development of an area's natural facilities into income producing advantages to the area and county. Resort facilities such as winter sports, fishing, and vacation sites are good examples.

4. It could be outstanding results obtained through the development of an industrial park or research center.

All entries should be submitted to The Tecumseh Herald along with pictures and full information on the product or achievement.

Macon Families Enjoy Cooperative Supper on Sunday

Sunday evening families and friends enjoyed a co-operative supper at 6 p.m. in the church dining room.

The Rev. Walter Damberg led the group in singing, with Mrs. Harold Ruhl as pianist.

The Rev. Damberg gave the meditation and introduced the Youth Group who in turn presented four extemperaneous skits, which were enjoyed by all.

A tape recording of a Youth Group interviewed at a M.Y.F. meeting was played.

The Rev. Damberg pronounced the benediction.

Plans are being made for another family gathering in March.

Mrs. Otto Miller Elected President of Ester Circle

BRITTON — The Ester Circle of Emmanuel Lutheran Church met in the church Thursday with a potluck dinner at noon.

A miscellaneous auction was held.

Pastor Moehring had a reading from the Bible and choice hymns were sung.

Members and guests answered roll call with a Bible verse.

Mrs. Otto Miller was elected president and Mrs. Fred Miller secretary-treasurer for the coming year.

For their project, the ladies are making baptismal napkins.

The Sarah Circle will serve as hosts and the Ester Circle will be in charge of entertainment at the next meeting of the Guild which will be held in the church basement.

'History Sings' Is Program for Music Club

The Tecumseh Music Club, an affiliate of the National Federation of Music Clubs, met at Loretta Bable's house Jan. 16 with Mrs. Arthur Schwartz as co-hostess.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Paul Brantingham.

The program entitled "History Sings" was effectively presented by Mrs. Leland Fogelsong.

Several records were enjoyed by the group. Refreshments were served.

Groesbeck Biography Available

"Alex J. Groesbeck, Portrait of a Public Man," first major biography of the former Michigan governor, has been provided to the Tecumseh public library along with a majority of the public and parochial libraries, universities and school libraries of the state.

The book by Frank B. Woodford, chief editorial writer of The Detroit Free Press, concerns the life of one of Michigan's finest and most controversial governors.

It was published by the Wayne University Press and was provided to the estate's libaries by the Michigan Life Insurance Co., headquartered in Royal Oak, which was founded by former Gov. Groesbeck in 1927.

Groesbeck was a politician as well as a statesman, a baron of finance, a forceful individual who forfeited a chance to become United States Attorney General by deliberately insulting President Coolidge, and a creator of Michigan's Administrative Board

Woodford's book, available to the public at $6.50, is a factual report on the life of a public figure.

It brings out the many forces which work to influence a governor who tries his best to establish business methods in state government and new ideas in bureaucratic control over those who might "hurt the little guy."

25 Youngsters Have Skate Party at Hidden Lake

Twenty-five members of the Baptist Youth Fellowship attended an ice skating party Jan. 28 at Hidden Lake Gardens.

Drivers were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Griewahn, Mrs. Dick Grey and Bill Bishop.

In the evening, the group returned to the Youth House for supper.

At the business meeting the members voted to attend church in a group the first Sunday of every month to receive communion.

A bake sale was planned for Feb. 10 from 9:30 until noon at the Western Auto to help with a trip to Bob-Lo.

FFA Nets $12,000

Members of the Tecumseh Chapter of Future Farmers of America have just completed 86 productive projects in the past year.

Paul Burns, FFA advisor, announced that the 47 vocational agriculture students who undertook 86 projects spent a total of $22,400 for operating expenses — all aside from labor.

They had a receipt total of $34,000 and a net profit of some $12,000.

Each student actually owns all or part of the project.

Mr. Burns said that these projects are business ventures, aimed at experience for the boy, plus profit.

Of the 86 projects six boys raised 38 acres of soybeans, twenty one raised 94 acres for corn, two potatoe projects amounted to one-third of an acre.

One boy had three acres of barley. Nine boys had 33 acres of oats, four raised 23 acres of wheat, five had home gardens amounting to 1¼ acres.

Two had poultry projects with a total of 35 birds. One boy had a one, acre orchard, twelve had hogs, 158 head; eight had sheep, 110 four boys had 16 steers, eight had 19 dairy animals. Two had 10 acres of alfalfa and one had 2 head of beef breeding animals.

The forty seven students also completed 123 improvement projects. This is an average of 2.6 per boy. An improvement project is one that increases the real estate value or the efficiency of the business.

Some examples are building a new barn or tool shed, putting in a bluk tank.

These projects are used to furnish additional experience for the boy, which a productive project may not provide, the boy has no ownership.

The 47 boys also completed 448 supplementary farm practices, an average of 9.5 per boy.

Supplementary farm practices are small jobs around the farms for additional skill and experience.

Some examples are repair, build feed bunks, feed lambs, make yield checks, prune treee.

Dr. Burkhard Holds Devotions for Workers Class

Dr George Burkhard conducted devotions for members of the Christian Workers Class of the First Baptist Church Feb. 2 when six families assembled.

40 Attend Eastern Star Gathering

[illegible] attended the meeting of Tecumseh Order of Eastern Stars February 1 when Katharine Hunt was introduced and welcomed.

A memorial, draping the charter was held for Lillie Conklin, a life member, who died Dec. 29.

The worthy matron's station was filled by Mrs. Harry Beland, associate matron.

Since it was Master Mason Night, the worthy matron read a poem honoring and welcoming them.

Invitations were read from Palmyra Chapter for their Sister Chapter Night, Feb. 12 the Tecumseh Chapter furnishing the program and for Friendship Night of the Ruth Chapter in Dundee Feb. 19.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ted Ehinger, Mrs. Roger Linger and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shervino.

The next meeting will be March 1 featuring Friendship Night.

Farmers Will Talk About Corn

Topic of instruction for the Tecumseh Adult Farmer class for Monday, Feb. 12 is "corn".

The groups will discuss corn production practices, weed and insect control for the most important crop in this area.

Mueller's Inc. from Deerfield will cooperate with the group. Ollie Mueller has George Rhoades from the Olin Chemical Corp., of Lapeer, as a resource person for the discussion.

Paul Burns will give the results of the Adult Farmer Corn growing contest and summarize the practices used by the group.

Mr. Burns welcomes all farmers in the Tecumseh school district to this meeting, which will be held in the Tecumseh High School agriculture room, and start at 8:15 p.m.

MACON NOTES

Mrs. Ford Mudgett has been a patient in the Bixby Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs Barber and family of Tecumseh, spent Sunday, with Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bigelow.

Don't be surprised some afternoon or evening as you pass by the Sage Building downtown if you notice some unusual happenings.

You'll no doubt be seeing one of the 19 cast members or some of the 30 other persons connected with the local community theatre group working on the play, "You Can't Take It With You", appearing here in two weeks.

You might see one of the costume women, Marilyn Mengerink or Irene Merx dashing up the stairs with an armful of 25 year old clothes (a few pin-striped suits have been dug up around here), or they may have what looks like a Roman toga (it will be).

Already Mrs. Mengerink and Mrs. Merx have gathered nearly all of the 20 costume changes required for the comedy show.

Or possibly you'll get a glance at one of the properties crew workers carrying up the stairs such things as a statue of Venus, a jar of flies or a strange looking apparatus that looks as if it might print something. (It is a hand operated platen press which is on loan from Boysville)

There will also be on stage some snakes and a snake solarium (the snakes are very 'stagy').

The tremendous job of gathering 105 stage and 101 personal properties has been under the direction of Pat Reganall, wife of the local high school teacher.

Her assistants are Carolyn Russell, Larayne Pihl and Pat Reed.

☆

A FAMILIAR figure dashing in and out of the Players quarters across from the Strand where the show will appear, is Richard Kureth, leading actor, director and pretty much the nucleus of the group's most ambitious production.

He may be seen going to a rehearsal carrying a skull carved out of styrofoam. It will be one of the properties for the zany Sycamore family.

Rick also provided another prop, a wooden easel that he bought in Mannheim, Germany. It will figure prominently in the play when Penny, the leading lady, played by Eve Bowen, drops her playwriting to begin painting again. Rick also will create the Roman discus thrower painting, which appears on the stage.

With nearly 15 hours a week given to directing, he says that he doesn't find his lines too difficult to learn since he is so familiar with the play and all the movements.

Rick also designed the posters for the play, which the Richard Duffins are distributing this week.

☆

AT A TYPICAL rehearsal, which lasts from about 2½ to 3 hours, everyone in the cast seems to be having a good time, yet they are seriously learning their roles.

While rehearsals are in progress, the rest of the cast study their lines or chuckle at the humorous dialogue.

They take a break about halfway, drink coffee out of their personalized cups, (painted and glazed by Mrs. Mengerink) and then return to their mad stage antic.

While waiting to go on Mary Bowers [illegible] the local optometrist, practices her ballet steps. She is taking private lessons from a local dance instructor.

Her teacher on the stage is Boris Kolenkhov, played by Fred Pokorny, who is a frequent visitor in the Sycamore "every man-for-himself" living room.

Fred, a Tecumseh Products engineer, is developing a convincing Russian accent for his character role.

Also working on a Russian accent is Ginny Snyder, wife of a local A & P manager, Alton Snyder. She appears as a former Russian noblewoman, who is reduced to waiting table at a Child's restaurant.

☆

FOR HIS role of Ed in the play, Frank Dalton operates the hand printing press and also plays the xylophone. Frank has learned in a very short time to play several tunes on the instrument.

Since he's never played a musical instrument before, it has been an amazing accomplishment.

His wife, Joy, has also been busy with the play. Her job as technical director makes her responsible for all the crew heads and workers.

If the doors are opened slightly in the rehearsal area and you hear two men shouting over the strains of the xylophone, you'll be hearing Tom Riordan, who'll appear as the Internal Revenue agent, loudly insisting that Grandpa must pay "24 years back" income tax.

The hilarious comedy of preposterous antics will bring a steady barrage of laughter in the Strand Wednesday and Thursday nights, Feb. 21-22, and the afternoon of Feb. 22.

After the nightly shows a social hour to meet the cast will be held in the Tecumseh Players headquarters, across from the theatre.

TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTO

Richard Kureth has the leading role of Grandpa and is directing The Tecumseh Players' fourth production, "You Can't Take It With You", coming to the Strand Feb. 21-22. Mr. Kureth is pictured as he appeared in "Golden Fleecing" another Players show. Audiences will remember his performance as Admiral Fitch (Old Barracuda). Other theatre experience of Mr. Kureth has been from last summer when he played the male lead in the Clark Lake Players' "The Matchmaker", from summer stock in northern New York and a traveling stock company. Mr. Kureth is a commercial artist.

Eve Bowen will be seen as Penny, the delightfully sweet, always pre-occupied, but loveable daughter of Grandpa. She writes 11 plays after a typewriter was delivered to her house by mistake, and then resumes her oil painting. Mrs. Bowen, 2541 Munger Rd., is the wife of Dale, sales manager, Western Division, Tecumseh Products. She is the mother of two children, and has six grandchildren.

Attend Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barritt Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barritt, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ricicia, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cadmus were among those who attended the wedding of Judith Schutz of Tecumseh and Gayle Eaton of St. Johns in the Ridgeway Methodist Church recently. A reception was held afterwards in the Tecumseh Union Hall.

KAROLAIRES WHO WILL PERFORM IN RIDGEWAY SATURDAY EVENING

Karolaires Will Sing Saturday

The King's Karolaires, a girls' trio from Olivet Nazarene College in Kankakee, Ill., will sing at Ridgeway Nazarene Church Saturday at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.; it was announced by the Rev. Wade Roberts, pastor.

Members of the trio are Sharon Ulmet, Oskaloosa, Iowa, first soprano; Patricia Larrison, New Castle, Indiana, second soprano and accompanist; and Sara Maddox, Indianapolis, Indiana, alto.

All three are freshmen at Olivet and all three are majoring in music.

The trio's repetorie includes hymn settings, gospel songs, Negro spirituals. Each member of the trio sings solos. Instrumental numbers are performed on two pianos and an organ.

Special programs for children and for teen-agers are featured.

The public is invited to hear the trio at the local church, and there is no admission charge, the Rev. Mr. Roberts announced.

Want To Be A Queen?

There are four requirements you need if you want to be a queen [illegible] Michigan queens told teen-age girls in a Michigan State University Farmers' Week program Thursday.

They are: education, interest in others, good personal appearance and adaptability.

"To be a queen, it is important for you to be informed," Patricia Hagan, La Grange Homemaker for 1961, will comment.

"Continue learning whether you are in school or not," she will add, and suggested adult education classes, libraries, study clubs and reading as various ways.

"To be a queen, you need to be interested in other people," Marjorie Mueller, Michigan Dairy Queen, is going to tell the girls. "Why? Your popularity depends upon others.

"You can have a smooth and happy social existence if you try to understand others and are interesting to others yourself," she will add.

A girl should have "consciousness of appearance, but not be self-conscious," Nancy Fleming, Miss America of 1961, will say in a discussion of personal appearance. She will stress the importance of hair, skin, make up and diet.

Sally Green, Michigan Apple Queen, will tell the teens they must also be able to adjust to different situations.

"Our whole life is really a series of adjustments," she will explain. Adjustment is important "if we are to mature into well-rounded young women."

She will add not to be afraid of plunging into new experiences. "Expect the unexpected," she is going to advise.

Except for Mrs. Hagan, a graduate of the University of Iowa, all the queens are students at MSU.

'Seal of Quality'

EAST LANSING—High quality and continued identification of a superior product are possible with the new "Seal of Quality" law passed by the 1961 legislature.

The seal may be used by a commodity group on any products grown, packaged and processed within Michigan, Joe E. Wells of the Michigan Department of Agriculture said at a Thursday afternoon meeting during Farmers' Week at Michigan State University.

This program was submitted for approval by the legislature each year for more than a decade, Wells said. During recent years, it had the endorsement of many of the major farm organizations.

Under this program, the consumer is assured that products have passed inspection as being of superior quality, Wells reported.

"Use of the 'Seal of Quality' can be a tremendously effective tool in the marketing kit of many commodity groups of Michigan," he said.

Boosters Dance Nets Over $200

One of the most successful Tecumseh Booster Club dances ever held here was staged Saturday night at the Products Union hall.

Ken Conway, president of the Boosters estimated a crowd of over 200 and reports proceeds from the dance in excess of $200.

The club has now raised about half of the $700 needed to finish paying off expenses of the new press box at the high school athletic field.

Those working at the dance, besides Mr. Conway, were Harold Easton, Dick Eggleston, Cal Zorn, Don Murphy and Wallace MacGeorge.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By DAVE KLAVON

Summerfield's Bulldogs rolled over the Knights of Boysville, 58-45, Jan. 25.

Poor rebounding proved to be harmful to the Knights as the Bulldogs handed them their seventh loss of the season.

Three Boysville players, however, hit in the double figures. Tony McFarr had 17, Stan Klos and Rog Jozwiak each got 12.

The Junior Knights lost a close game to the Junior Bulldogs, 43-42.

With the Knights behind by one point in the final few seconds, "Bugs" Moran had a chance at a layup and missed it, coming in from a tough angle to shoot.

√

The Freshmen of Boysville traveled to Britton Jan 25 to play the Frosh Tories.

The Knights came back with the short end of a 55-30 score.

Jim Eldrington was high-point man with 28 big markers for the Knights.

The Frosh show that they are very fast as well as being hard workers.

Another game played by the Freshmen, against Dexter's ninth graders, found the Knights on top 43-42 at the end of the contest.

At the quarter the Boysville men were enjoying a 17-3 lead, but as the game went on, the Frosh of Dexter began to hit from all corners and caught up to the Knights passing them once.

But the Knights came back to regain the lead and to hold on to the one-point margin. Jim Eldrington was again high-point man with 26.

Now that the second semester of school is started on campus, eight new boys have enrolled at Boysville. They are:

Bill Weitzel and Stan Paul, sophomores;

Jim Cooper, Jim Gulasey and Gene Nuoffer, freshmen;

Ed Armstrong, Bob Scott and Arden Valentine, eighth graders.

Nuoffer is from Hudson.

√

Sand Creek Aggies, much improved since the beginning of the season, trounced the Knights 63-43, Friday night.

High point man for the knights was Stan Klos with 12. Dave Klavon had 11.

There are hopes that the Knights will change their bad luck into a victory against Deerfield Friday night at Boysville.

The Junior Knights lost to the Junior Aggies, 34-26.

It was a slow game, being 2-2 at the end of the first quarter and 6-4 at the half.

√

The Boysville 8th grade basketball team played the Little Tories of Britton and lost a rugged game, 28-18, even after having been ahead at the half.

Brother Aloysims Glombowski's team is a hard-fighting group and the boys show great promise for the future.

The 7th graders, or smaller 8th graders, defeated the 7th grade Britton team, 16-12.

The Boysville Saddle Club, directed by Arthur Lips, was given five horses recently.

They include a roan mare, a black stallion, two bay stallions and a Shetland pony.

The boys of the Saddle Club would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Pickard, who donated the horses to Boysville.

Mr. and Mrs. Pickard live southwest of Ann Arbor on the Ann Arbor-Saline Road.

√

Honor Roll for the second quarter has been posted.

The following boys mads honors:

Seniors Jim Palko, Tony Farr, Joe Lucio and Dave Mason.

Sophomores John Casey and Pete Nicholas.

Freshman Frank Richter.

Eighth Graders Mike Frei, Jim Schwandk and Dan Maline.

Honorable Mention was achieved by:

Seniors Jerry Felling, Charlie Kramer and Louie Westfall.

Sophomores Tom Stone, Bill Moran and Rich McMillan.

Freshmen Are Misiak and John Stone.

Eighth Grader Dave Owens.

The Junior Class failed to post a representative on either honors or honorable mention this time.

Boys on honors will be treated to a dinner and movie in Ann Arbor soon.

√

Final entries in a model car and truck contest were accepted Jan 21.

Judging is in progress now, and with winners in each class will be announced soon.

√

Feb. 5 was one of the three days of recollection held each school year at Boysville.

Father Mathey, S J, a student at the University of Michigan, conducted the exercises for the day.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Little Things Count A Lot

Little things count a lot. Little folks, too.

It's time that people start to regard the little things — and the tiny citizens.

It's that late hour when we must check carefully the items we have lost in our school program because of the austere financial program, which went into effect last September.

More important, we must study other cuts which would come just as night comes at the end of day should the school cutbacks continue.

And voting down millage issues isn't the answer.

Our little folks are the ones who suffer, make no mistake about it. Maybe not this year —or so it would seem — but gradually the toll will tell.

The top 10% will probably be able to slough off the effects of half-days. The bottom 10%, unfortunately, probably won't be affected either.

But that giant 80% in the middle is where the austerity program touches with a deathly hand.

Let's examine some of the little things.

In Macon, our district built a $140,000 modern building three years ago to take care of about 60 first and second graders.

Of the cost, $11,000 went into electrical and heating capacities that were enough for a sixth-grade building — a wise provision for future expansion.

But, after only three years, the Macon buildings stands empty, unused since last June.

Is this a punishment to Macon people who voted against the last four-mill question?

Not in the least.

First graders throughout the system are going half days and this is a serious deficiency in their education, as we noted above.

Is this a punishment to adults who voted "no" in the last millage question?

Certainly not.

Tipton first graders, some of whom could walk to class, are transported to Herrick Park, a distance of almost seven miles, to attend morning sessions.

Can this scheduling be a slap on the wrist for folks out Tipton way who said "no" to the request for more operating funds?

Hardly.

Then, why close buildings? Why go half days? Why juggle little kids all over the place?

Well, the fact of the matter is quite simple. Here it is, in one uncomplicated sentence.

In order to "make-do" from a faculty standpoint, from the available facility standpoint, the administration had to make these drastic moves.

It's like the poor guy who goes shopping with his wife. She gets all the stuff and then lets him figure out how to juggle the many packages and get them to the car.

He staggers under the load, trying to hoist without dropping any packages or sacks so he can make the journey safely.

Ditto school officials with their load. Their assets — like the shopper with only two arms — are limited.

We think the real loser on this school deal is the youngster.

Wouldn't It Be Nice

A story in last week's Herald told of a local lad, Jerry Butler, completing a course in refrigeration and air conditioning at Youngstown, O. school.

Most of the work was done by the correspondence plan, but Jerry also spent two weeks in Youngstown in the wrapup part.

We mention this incident for a specific reason. Wouldn't it be interesting if there were such advance vocational courses offered at some school in this area?

It's possible.

Right now there is much conversation about a Tri-County Junior College as an expansion of the present Jackson JC. It would be for youngsters from Jackson, Hillsdale and Lenawee Counties.

Part of the program would be the conventional academic, with college-type courses.

The balance would be advanced vocational work—such as the type of course in refrigeration and air conditioning which Jerry recently completed.

Other courses could cover automobile and aircraft mechanics, printing, tool and die and pattern making.

These are the types of vocational classes which are badly needed—not on a high school level, but higher. Where graduates could step from the classroom into a skilled position with industry.

Less the readers conclude that we favor the Tri-County plan, let us add at this time, we are neither for nor against it. Rather we are all for "a junior college program" encompassing both straight academic and advanced vocational.

As we noted two weeks ago, this could mean a Tri-County plan or a Lenawee-Monroe Plan, or a Lenawee-Hillsdale Plan.

At this point, we want to examine the Tri-County setup, which is the only concrete proposal before the house. We wish that other folks, such as Mrs. Violet Backus of Britton, who wrote The Herald expressing her deep interest in a JC, might delve into the JC possibilities.

A great void now exists in the formal educational world in this area. We must start to provide for our young people, who may not have done well in high school and thus can't enter Michigan or Michigan State, but have some definite vocational talents.

If you have a specific slant, please put it in writing and send to The Herald.

Junior College Vote

On April 3, voters will be asked to approve a junior college school district of Lenawee, Hillsdale and Jackson counties.

If approved, we will then be asked to support it by passing one and a half mills.

Although April's vote will not cost the tax payer a single cent, it will certainly lead to the next step and higher taxes.

And then you might ask: How can we support a junior college at Jackson when we are unable to support our Tecumseh schools satisfactorily?

Twice, voters have turned down the local school board's request for additional millage. The board is again seeking four mills on March 20 — and prospects for passage are not good.

However, we hope that the local electorate approves the school millage, which would keep Tecumseh on the North-Central Association's accredited list, and rejects the tri- county plan for a new college school district.

We are not opposing a junior college, but feel that the one at Jackson would not satisfactorily serve students here, in Britton, Blissfield and possibly Adrian.

A junior college of liberal arts and with vocational training for this immediate area has come under consideration in the past, and efforts should be renewed as to the feasibility of establishing one close-by.

If we're to finance a junior college, let's have one closer to home.

Let's also support our own local schools before approving a junior college scheme which may offer new education advantages to Tecumseh and area students.

VOL. 111 — ONE HUNDRED TWELFTH YEAR — NUMBER 19 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1962 | 16 PAGES — TEN CENTS A COPY

Long & Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

There was a real hubbub around our breakfast table Thursday morning.

This was when our kids, ages 9 and 10, read the news that the swim fee for children at the city pool would go up this summer.

"Twenty-five cents is too much!" one of them exclaimed while viewing the front page story in our favorite newspaper.

This scene was probably multiplied hundreds of times all around the city as The Heralds arrived.

Caught right in the middle are councilmen, who are responsible for the operation of everything which the city owns.

They made the unpopular decision last week because they felt this was the best way to take up the slack when the books showed the pool operation lost considerable cash during the last fiscal year.

City Manager Ed Nelson reports the pool operation expense for one year is roughly $6,000.

The big portion of this goes to salaries.

Director of the pool receives $125 weekly and he is responsible for all personnel, maintenance and supervision of swimming lessons.

The lessons are an important part of the summer swim program and bring in nearly $1,000.

Instructors and life guards, who all must have earned Senior Red Cross life saving status, get between $1.25 and $1.80 an hour based on their years of service.

Salaries account for about $4,800 of the annual $6,000 budget, with the remainder going for materials and supplies.

Mr. Nelson personally is against a boost in pool fees. He says it's his opinion that income from admissions will not go up much beyond the usual $2,000. He feels fewer people will use the pool.

However one regards the situation, there is a problem.

If council doesn't raise rates, in an attempt to slice the deficit, it will have to take money from the general fund to make the difference.

At the same time, some will argue such a vital recreation service to the community like this should not expect to pay its way entirely.

The total parks and recreation entry on the city's budget last year was $16,850, states Mr. Nelson.

This figure is expected to go up to $23,000 next year if the plan to employ a full-time director for the Community Center is approved.

This last item is something we need.

With our beautiful Center, we must have a qualified person run it to get the greatest value from the facility for all the people of this area.

Incidentally, if you would like to file a petition to run for one of the four spots on council coming up for grabs, there is still time.

Then, maybe you could help solve a few of these problems.

All Sports at School Might Go

By JIM LINCOLN

A long and trying school board session Monday night ended with a decision as to what the Tecumseh schools will do if the four mills on the March 20 ballot are approved—also what must be done to prevent greater indebtedness if the millage fails.

Voters twice have turned the schools down for additional operating millage and approximately $79,000 was trimmed from the budget for the present school term.

Most of the cuts were made in the elementary system, including half-day sessions for the first grade.

Many of the cuts coming under consideration now will affect practically every student in the school system.

Monday night's meeting dealt largely in narrowing down a list of services which could be eliminated at the least harm to the student.

The board did not specifically select services and parts of the curriculum which would be eliminated, but picked areas, some of which would definitely be curtailed or cut out entirely.

Several elementary principals attended the meeting and requested the board not to reduce elementary services any further. Main points of their requests concerned half-day sessions for the youngsters.

☆

SUPT. JAMES McDOWELL informed board members that between $38,000 and $40,000 would have to be cut for the 1962-'63 term if the schools were to continue operating as at the present.

This would mean that first grades, for instance, would continue on half-day sessions.

The administrator also requested the board to decide whether Tecumseh will continue to participate in the Huron League.

He said it was necessary to notify league officials, other principals, and reported that questions regarding Tecumseh's status in the league have been asked by other member school officers.

The board declined immediate action, pointing out that passage or failure of the millage could affect Tecumseh's participation.

Mr. McDowell also said that a number of applicants for the head coach football post have been received, but no action has been taken, including interviews, until it's decided that Tecumseh will have varsity athletics next fall.

Tom Jacoby, spokesman for the Steering Committee of the Citizens Committee, told the board that the group would actively support the four-mill issue if the board would agree that the millage would be used exclusively to reduce the debt.

The board has approved erasing the deficit in two years with the four mills, but wants to return the first grade to a full day, employ a business manager and several other incidentals helpful to the schools.

Supt. McDowell reported that some legislation has been proposed that could give Tecumseh some additional income, including a bill at Lansing that would up state aid from $168.30 per pupil to $180.48.

He also said some county superintendents were preparing to ask the Tax Allocation Board for the County Supervisors to return a half-mill taken by the Supervisors two years ago.

It has been reported that the Welfare Board, recipients of the half-mill, has now built up a small surplus and it's questionable whether they now need the money.

Another proposed measure in the legislature would increase funds for bus transportation from $12 million to $15 million. Such an increase would pay most of Tecumseh's transportation

If 4-Mill Levy Fails

The following has been approved by the Tecumseh school board. Figures given are approximations, and the board will balance the 1962-'63 budget by eliminating certain items—not all—from the entire list as shown here.

1. Drop all physical education in grades $10,500
2. Drop all instrumental and vocal music in schools 11,250
3. Drop all sponsors salaries, for clubs, etc. 2,332
4. Drop all high school physical education 12,500
5. Drop all Varsity and team athletics 6,000
6. Put high school on four-hour day, drop study halls 6,000
7. Drop library service in high school 7,000
8. Put junior high on four-hour day 19,0000
9. Drop junior high library service 1,000
10. Reduce counseling services, junior and senior high 2,000
11. Buy no art supplies in the grades 2,000
12. Provide no noon supervision from board funds 1,500
13. Reduce school library book budget 5,409
14. Third & Fifth or Fourth & Sixth grades, half days 38,000
15. Reduce Fourth grade to half days 19,000
16. Continue cuts made for 1961-'62 term $79,000
1. Eliminate Director of elementary education with the superintendent and principals assuming duties.
2. Employ business manager, install modern office business machines.
3. Employ two additional secretaries for superintendent, business manager and four principals.

If 4-Mill Levy Passes

1. Operating debt will be paid off in two years.
2. First grades will return to full day schedule, and Macon and West Branch schools may be opened.
3. Employ three teachers for each of the two years for over 100 additional pupils entering schools each year.
4. Eliminate position of director of elementary education.
5. Employ business manager, purchase modern business office machines.
6. Employ additional secretaries to assist business manager, four full time principals and superintendent.
7. Drop all physical education in the grades.
8. Discontinue paying salaries of sponsors of clubs, annuals, newspapers, etc.
9. Discontinue purchase of art supplies for the grades.
10. Reduce school library book purchase fund.

They Help Injured Friend

TIPTON—Chain saws whirled, axes and sledges crunched into trees on the Melburne Smith farm, 8500 Pentecost Hwy., Saturday.

Twenty-one husky men were hard at work.

They labored five hours—with the fruits of their work going to a friend.

Three weeks ago, Leigh Bradish was seriously injured while felling a tree.

A limb cracked him in the head and shoulder, sent him to the hospital and sideled him from heavy labor for some time.

The Bradish family, who lives at 6548 Feller Rd., heat their home with wood.

Mr. Bradish's injury was proving a real hardship.

That's when Mr. Smith and 20 other neighbors stepped in and said they'd help out.

A work bee was organized for Saturday and Mr. Smith donated about 40 elm, maple and ash trees on his land.

Within five hours the lumber was downed and cut into almost 40 cords, then taken to the Bradish home.

Seven chain saws helped speed the task.

A potluck lunch was served in the Smith home by Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Amil Luck, Donna Baker, Mrs. Bradish and Helen Butler.

Donating their labor for the project, in addition to Mr. Smith, were Richard Gentz, Roy Roberts, Russ Daniels and his son, Larry, Richard Smith, Carl Reeves, Fred Karpo and Dale Warner.

Others were Homer Treetim, Jerry Baldwin, Merritt Wattles, Don Rose, Tom Luck, Walter Luck, Dean Brewer, Vernon Parsels, George Reichenbaugh and Norman Wilson.

Parish Deciding Building Program

A special parish meeting of St. Peter's Episcopal Church will be held next Monday night at the Parish Hall for reaching a decision on the church's building program.

The church has been offered a gift of $180,000 for a new building from Mr. and Mrs. Orville Farver and an anonymous donor.

Prior to the gift offer, made several weeks ago, the church had planned to restore the present building, constructed in 1833 and the second oldest Episcopal church west of the Allegheny Mountains.

19 in Cast of Players' Presentation

An hilarious evening in the theatre will be offered to area residents when they see "You Can't Take It With You" on stage next Wednesday and Thursday at the Strand.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. each night. There will be a matinee Thursday at 3:30.

The Pulitzer Prize winning comedy has a cast of 19 local amateur actors and actresses, who have been rehearsing for nearly four weeks.

► There is Grandpa, the central character, whose chief hobbies are collecting snakes and going to commencements—and who doesn't believe in income tax. (The role is played by Richard Kureth, who also directs the play)

► There is Penny Sycamore, Grandpa's daughter, a gentle little woman who writes 11 plays after a typewriter was delivered to her by mistake, then resumes her painting. (The leading lady's part is taken by Eve, wife of Dale Bowen, Tecumseh Products regional sales manager.)

► Paul Sycamore, Penny's husband makes fireworks in the cellar with Mr. DePinna, a man who delivered ice eight years ago and stayed. (The roles are taken by William DePuy and Duane Steele, Tecumseh Products men, respectively.)

► Essie, the daughter, has ballet ambitions but makes candy. Love Dreams, in the kitchen since it is more practical. (Mary, wife of Dr. Robert Bowers, local optometrist, plays and dances in the role.)

► Essie's husband, Ed, plays the xylophone and operates the printing press in the "every man for himself" living room. (Frank Dalton, plastics engineer, has the role)

► There is romance between Alice, the only one in the Sycamore family who is in daily contact with the world, and Tony Kirby, the boss's son—fresh out of Yale.

The handsome couple who will be seen on stage are Diane Fox, attractive dental assistant, and Sydney Turner, Blue Cross representative.

Included in the large cast are a number of character roles.

The Grand Duchess Olga Katrina, cousin of the Czar, reduced to working at Child's restaurant, is portrayed by Ginny, wife of Alton Snyder, local A & P manager. Mrs. Snyder has designed costumes and collected properties for previous plays.

Boris Kolonkhov, the Russian ballet teacher is brought to the stage by Fred Pokorny, Tecumseh Products engineer. He has a convincing accent and clicks his heels in the very Russian manner.

The rollicking part of Gay Wellington, a fading actress whom Penny meets on a bus and brings home with her, is taken by Marilyn, wife of Ed Mengerink, dental laboratory technician.

Wilbur C. Henderson, an agent from the Internal Revenue Department after Grandpa for 24 years back taxes, will be portrayed by Tom Riordan, co-editor and co-publisher of the Herald.

Rheba, the maid who never knows who is coming for dinner and who often prepares her usual menu of corn flakes, candy and watermelon, will be seen on stage with Louise Lawson in the role. Mrs. Lawson, a nurses aide at Herrick Hospital, is the wife of Vic Lawson, high school athletic director and teacher.

Donald, Rheba's boyfriend and helper, always on relief, is a great contributor of flies for Grandpa's collection of snakes. Donald will be played by Allen Russell, Tecumseh Products advertising manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby, who come for dinner on the wrong night and the event changes their lives and attitudes, will have a real life husband and wife team — Dorothy and Ralph Dabe. Ralph is a manufacturer's agent.

The G-men will be played by Dr. Robert Murray, local dentist, Tom Corkery, mortician and Terrence Mackin, concrete firm manager.

The play which reveals the mad antics of a comical but lovable family "slightly tinged with a mild insanity" will be brought to the local stage by The Tecumseh Players, community theatre group.

After the nightly shows a social hour to meet the cast will be held in the Players Headquarters across from the Strand.

A&P Completes Major Expansion

A & P will formally open its remodeled store to consumers in the Tecumseh area Wednesday, Feb. 21.

The store at 107 Herrick Park Dr. has been completely modernized and enlarged to provide more than 50% additional floor space, according to General Superintendent Philip Nyquist.

The three-year-old building has undergone an extensive remodeling.

Many changes have been made to make shopping more convenient and efficient for consumers. Aisles have been widened, departments enlarged and new equipment installed, including a 20-foot addition to the self-service meat department.

A new multi-deck refrigerated case has been installed in the produce department.

The frozen foods department has also been enlarged and will stock a comprehensive line of fresh-frozen fruits and vegetables, juices and ice cream.

The remodeled store has been engineered for quick, convenient shopping. Service highlights include five power checkout stands and additional air conditioning facilities.

☆

"WE HAVE remodeled this store after careful consideration of the food requirements of consumers in this area," Mr. Nyquist said.

"We believe our customers will find everything they need in the food line right here in this super market. We want this to be a store where Tecumseh folks may shop economically, conveniently and efficiently in a friendly neighborly atmosphere."

Completion of the remodeling program highlights more than 32 years of A & P business in Tecumseh.

Free parking facilities for more than 100 cars are adjacent to the store.

Square dancing, western style, has taken "hold of Tecumseh" according to one of the members of the group which meets regularly Thursday evening at the Community Center.

In fact, not just Tecumsehites but dancers from Manchester, Clinton, Adrian and other adjoining towns and cities are doing the "do-si-do" and "allemande left" regularly.

Some enjoy this type of recreation every night of the week going from place to place, knowing just when the activities are scheduled in each town.

The Tecumseh group have been most kind in cancelling their regular dance for March 1 in deference to the "Carribean Style Show."

Soon a picture story will appear on pages of The Herald featuring the dancers.

Sharon Mason and Jack Heisler Marry

Sharon Kay Mason and Jack J. Heisler were united in marriage Feb. 10 at the Tipton Community Church in a ceremony performed by the Rev. Paul Fredericks assisted by the Rev. Zach Hoisington.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Mason of Tipton and Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Heisler of Onsted.

Judith Allen of Onsted presided at the organ and accompanied Jack Wolf of Tipton who was the soloist.

Candelabra, palms and vases of white blossoms enhanced the altar for the wedding.

The bride chose a gown of white embroidered tulle over taffeta fashioned with satin cummerbund, fitted bodice, rounded neckline and long sleeves.

The floor-length skirt fell into a short train. She wore a pearl pendant necklace and earrings.

An embroidered satin crown set with pearls held her elbow length veil in place.

Her bouquet was a cascade of red roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Stanley F. Harsh of Kokomo, Ind. was her sister's matron-of-honor in a gown of red velveteen.

Her bouquet was red carnations with white tulle hearts.

Sandra Heisler was the bridesmaid and Sally Jo Mason was the flower girl.

MICHAEL HEISLER was the ringbearer. David McKown was the best man and the guests were seated by Larry Heisler, William and Thomas Mason and Larry Smith.

A reception, featuring a four-tiered cake made by Mrs. Clarence Randolph, was held in the church basement for 200 guests.

Those attending from away were Crystal Barnes of Jackson, Mrs. Mildred Crawford of Fayette, Mrs. Gayford Sallows, Mrs. James Chandler, Julie Edwards of Albion, Beth Preston of Adrian and Mrs. Lawrence Maynard of Jackson.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of Onsted High School and Jackson Business University and is presently employed by Radio Station WABJ.

The groom is a 1958 graduate of Onsted High School and was employed with the Adrian Steel Co. until called to active duyt.

☆

THE BRIDE will remain at home with her parents while her husband returns to Fort Benning with the National Guard.

Mr. and Mrs. Heisler gave the rehearsal dinner Friday evening and buffet supper held Saturday evening at the Onsted American Legion Hall.

Essays Are Sought

Thomas Beffrey of the Saginaw Police Department, who is President of the Fraternal Order of Police, State Lodge of Michigan, announced today that the Lodge is sponsoring its Third Annual Essay Contest among high school students in Michigan on the subject, "The Prevention of Juvenile Delinquency."

The contest is intended to stimulate the thinking of teenagers at the high school level on the subject of juvenile delinquency and, through writing and research on the subject, allow them to become better acquainted with the conditions and circumstances that usually lead to delinquency.

"The Fraternal Order of Police", stated President Beffrey, "is constantly striving through its state-wide membership to prevent conditions that breed delinquency. It is our belief that the students participating in this essay contest will be better able to avoid situations leading to breaking the law".

The Fraternal Order of Police is made up of police and peace officers from all branches of law enforcement.

A total of $1,000 in cash prizes will be awarded to the writers of the nineteen best essays. The first place winner will receive $400; the second place winner will receive $200; the third place winner will receive $100 plus sixteen additional prizes.

A complete outline of the rules of the contest has been mailed to all high school English Departments in the State. The subject, "The Prevention of Juvenile Delinquency", should be treated in not more than 1500 words and submitted for judging not later than March 15, 1962.

Winners will be announced and prizes awarded by May 18, 1962.

The panel of judges includes: Pat McNamara, U. S. Senator; Philip A. Hart, U. S. Senator; Haskell L. Nichols, Michigan State Senator; Joseph A. Childs, State Police Commissioner; Arnold Pigarsh, Sheriff, Kent County; Tom Gillespie, Chief of Police, St. Joseph; Dean Fox, Magazine Chairman, Fraternal Order of Police, State Lodge of Michigan, and Thomas Beffrey, President, Fraternal Order of Police, State Lodge of Michigan.

For further information on the contest, students are requested to contact the Fraternal Order of Police, State Lodge of Michigan, 918 Clearview Street, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Dr. Edwin Stricker of Ann Arbor presided over the Quarterly Conference in Macon last Sunday afternoon. Officers for the coming year were elected and the budget of $12,000 for the coming year was accepted.

The engagement of Cathlyn Ann Cornell to David Nelson Patterson is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris A. Cornell of Tipton. Mr. Patterson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer R. Yaxley of Willoughby, Ohio. Miss Cornell is a graduate of the University of Michigan School of Dental Hygiene. Her fiance is attending law school at Ohio Northern University and is a member of Delta Theta Phi law fraternity. An August 18 wedding is planned.

2 Tecumseh GIs Serve with Army in Germany

GRAFENWOHR, Germany — Army PFC Richard L. Harvey, 22, and Pvt. Larry R. Hand, 20, of Tecumseh are participating in the third Armored Division's month-long winter traning exercises which will end Feb. 7.

High point of the Spearhead division's annual training cycle, the training includes day and night tactical exercises emphasizing cold weather training, mobility and chemical, biological and radiological warfare.

An essential part of the training is range firing of individual and team-served weapons including the Army's new M-60 machinegun and the 105 and 120-millimeter tank guns.

The third, a major element of NATO forces in Europe, play an essential role in maintaining world peace.

The men received basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

Harvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin K. Harvey, 9460 Stone Hwy., is a mechanic in Troop C of the division's 12th Cavalry in Budingen.

He entered the Army in March 1961 and arrived overseas in October 1961. Harvey is a 1959 graduate of Tecumseh High School.

Hand, son of Mrs. Beatrice Hand, Ives Rd., is a supply clerk in Company B of the division's 122d Ordnance Battalion in Gelnhausen.

Ten $300 Scholarships Available

Deadline for high school seniors to apply for ten $300 college scholarships offered by the Institute of Food Technologists is March 1.

Candidates interested in pursuing a course in food science at MSU should request forms from the department at East Lansing.

This is the second year the Institute of Food Technologists have offered the $300 scholarships to high school.

Other scholarships are also available in the Department of Food Science through funds provided by the Michigan Food Industry, he said.

Food science is "the application of science and engineering to the processing, packaging, distribution and utilization of food."

Michigan State's department has attained national recognion in his field.

Warm Comedy Gets Frozen Region Setting

Warm comedy gets a frozen, polar region setting in the hilarious show, "Petticoat Fever", the Jackson Civic Players' fourth production of the 1962 winter theatre season Friday and Saturday.

The farcical comedy takes place in a Labrador wireless station where the bachelor wireless operator and a stodgy British gentleman maneuver for the affections of a lovely girl, while gleeful Eskimos cheer them on.

The theatre is located on the third floor of the Jackson City Hall at S. Jackson St. and Washington St. Call ST 4-3472 for reservations; curtain time is 8:30 p.m. sharp.

Parents Urged To Attend Session

Neville Hart is urging parents to attend the final session of the Parent Study Group Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the High School.

He said that this is the "wrap up session" and finance will be the main topic discussed.

He said, "We have had a small but extremely enthusiastic group attending these meetings and our teachers have done a fine job."

If you plan to build or buy a home of your own, why don't you and your wife let us help you finance it.

GOPs Gather Saturday

First major banquet to be staged in the new Community Center will be Saturday's Republican Lincoln Day event.

The annual dinner for Lenawee County GOPs will feature Congressman Robert Griffin as speaker.

Beginning at 6:30 with a social hour, the dinner is slated to attract about 250. Roast prime beef will be served buffet style.

Following the program, a dance to the music of the Cal Damon Combo is slated.

Congressman Griffin, who co-authored the Landrum-Griffin bill, is a native of Traverse City.

His name has been linked in recent weeks with George Romney as possible running mates for the Michigan governor and lieutenant governor's chairs.

However, indications are that Mr. Griffin will seek re-election to the Congress.

Among Tecumseh Republicans making arrangements for the banquet are Charles Trickey, county chairman; Mrs. Robert Murray and Wayne Reginall.

The Rev. Frank Hawthorne, rector of St. Peter's Church, will offer the benediction and Tom Riordan of The Herald is toast master.

Celebrate 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wiemer will observe their 25th wedding anniversary Feb. 14.

Walter H. Wiemer and Margaret Wright were united in marriage by the Rev. Howard Archer at the United Brethren manse in McClure, Ohio Sunday morning, Feb. 14, 1937.

MR. AND MRS. WALTER WIEMER

Nearly all of their married life has been spent in Lenawee County, the last 20 years in Tecumseh where Mr. Wiemer is employed by the Tecumseh Products Co. as a pattern maker in the Advanced Engineering Department.

Mrs. Wiemer is a staff member of the Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Sunday evening the Wiemers were guests at a surprise reception sponsored by members of the Youth Fellowship of the Tecumseh Friends Church. The Weimers are counselors for the youth group.

A piece of silver was presented to the honored couple by fifty young people and their parents.

Previously they were entertained at dinner by their children, Judy and Dan, who both live at home.

The family home is at 7395 Smith Rd.

Spaghetti Dinner Coming

Annual spaghetti dinner, sponsored by St. Elizabeth Rosary Altar Society, will be held Sunday, March 4 in the school auditorium.

The event which will be from 3:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. will have Mrs. Ivan Lindstrom as chairman and Mrs. Richard Refner, co-chairman.

As in the past, Mrs. Eugene Rehottaro will make her locally famous spaghetti sauce.

In charge of the dinner service are:

Mrs. Elmer Dick and Mrs. Cletus Fuhrmann, dining room.

Spanish-Speaking Folks To Hold Benefit Dance

The Spanish people of the area are holding a benefit dance Saturday, Feb. 17, at the St. Elizabeth School for the March of Dimes.

This is the second year that Mr. and Mrs. Armando Garcia, 812 Oak St., Adrian have been instrumental in organizing an event for the charity.

One of the children of the Garcia family is afflicted with Polio.

Organizations cooperating in the arrangements are:

The Sacred Heart Society of Tecumseh

Guadalupe Societies of Tecumseh and Adrian

Britton G.I. Forum and Auxiliary

Cardinal Club of Adrian and Auxiliary

Debuants of Adrian

The Spanish orchestra members are donating the music, thus all proceeds will go to the March of Dimes.

Houck Says He Is Guilty,

Lynn E. Houck was sentenced to life imprisonment Feb. 9 after pleading guilty to the second degree murder of the Rev. Roy Decker at his farm home near Brooklyn.

Houck was immediately taken to Southern Michigan Prison in Jackson.

Sentence was pronounced by Jackson Circuit Judge John C. Dalton.

The Rev. M. Decker had been a resident of Tecumseh for about two months before the murder.

Big Crowd See Indians Fall, 65-64

By JIM LINCOLN

Blissfield avenged an early season defeat here last Friday night with a come-from-behind 65-64 victory over the Tecumseh High Indians.

Biggest Tecumseh crowd of the season watched the two clubs see-saw back and forth in a thriller that was decided in the final 10 seconds of play.

If the Indians play comparable ball this Friday evening, they'll have a chance to upset the Milan five on their rival's floor.

A mental lapse in the final seconds against the Royals proved fatal for Tecumseh. With the score tied, 62-62, Dan Greene missed a free throw.

Blissfield grabbed the rebound, whipped the ball down to Mike Hermansen, who with no teammate, drove in for the deciding bucket against a lone Tecumseh defender.

Hermansen, fouled on the layup, dropped in a one pointer to give Blissfield a three-point edge with just three seconds remaining.

The Royals didn't even attempt to guard the Indians in the remaining seconds and allowed Jerry Hebb to hit on a bunny as the buzzer sounded.

☆

THE WILD GAME was marked by 48 fouls, which aided the winning Royals who hit on 19 of 35 attempts. Tecumseh collected 16 of 29 free throws.

The lead changed hands 11 times and eight times the score was tied. The Indians held the biggest lead late in the fourth period when they ran up a 14-8 margin.

Blissfield's high scoring Jack Cory, held to just seven points in the first three periods, poured in 10 points in the fourth before fouling out of the game.

Biggest thorn in Tecumseh's side, however, was center Doug Schaedler who controlled the boards and dropped in 19 points.

John Britton topped all scorers, netting eight goals and six fouls for 22 points. It was his best game of the season and may be indicative that the senior forward is returning to form displayed last year when he was one of the top scorers in the area.

☆

JIM BAKER paced the Tecumseh Jayvees to an easy 43-31 win over their opponents. Baker hit for 13 points in the rout.

Coach Jim Höffman's team won the game in the third period when the young Indians bombed the nets for 14 points while holding Blissfield to just two.

BULLETIN

Tecumseh, despite the Indians best offensive effort of the season, bowed to Airport Tuesday night on the Jets court, 89-76.

The Indians, leading by one at the end of the first period, dropped nine points behind at the half. Midway through the second half, Tecumseh pulled to within five points but were never able to get any closer.

John Britton netted 26 points for Tecumseh, Jack Dick 11, and Jerry Hebb 14. Tom Haws and Al Potratz each collected 27 points for the high ranking Airport five.

News from Ridgeway

The Ridgeway Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service met in the home of Mrs. Raymond Bird, with Mrs. Dewey Sturtevant as co-hostess.

The President, Mrs. Raymond Bird, called the meeting to order with a reading of a poem and Mrs. Tom Birdsall led in a guided prayer followed by "The Lords Prayer."

After the business session, the leader of the program, Mrs. Charles Bishop, gave the devotion and asked for two hymns for group singing.

She then introduced the speaker, Linda Dean, who graciously gave an interesting discription of her tour in South America and Mexico.

Refreshments were served during the social hour and 17 shut-in-calls were reported. Announcement of the March meeting with Mrs. Fred Long, will be made at a later date.

Cubmaster Bernard Hackett of Cub Pack No. 24, presented awards Tuesday evening to Frank Flores, Michael Bishop, James Yoder, Tom Drouillard, Jeffrey Filter, Mark Service, Alex Gibson, Russell Johnson and Harold Sackett.

The theme for the evening was "Knights of Yore"

Pack No. 24 with their leaders, attended the Methodist Church in observance of Scout Sunday.

The study and fellowship group will meet the evening of Feb. 17, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bird. The Message of Jesus, is being studied and everyone (regardless of age) is welcome.

The W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church, will meet Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Bailey. Nancy Bishop will be program leader and Mrs. Dewey Sturtevant will be co-hostess. Linda Dean will give a talk on her trip to South America and Mexico.

Carl Bower, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bower, 4346 Ridge Hwy., won first place in the district Future Farmers speech contest, which was held Feb. 7 at Hudson High School.

Carl is a sophomore at THS. The topic of his speech was "Hog Cholera".

Feb. 28, the Future Farmer will complete in the regional contests which will be held at the Manchester High School.

Carl will be accompanied by his FFA adviser, Paul Burns.

Four Common Errors Slow Up Refund Checks

R. I. Nixon, District Director of Internal Revenue, issued an announcement today urging all taxpayers to check and double check their 1961 returns carefully, before sending them in.

The Director stated that many incomplete and imperfect returns have been filed.

The four most common errors being:

- Failure to sign the returns
- Failure to attach W-2 with holding statements
- Mistakes in arithmetic
- Incomplete exemption information.

The Internal Revenue Service is concerned about these errors, which not only entails a great deal of work to correct, but in many cases delays the issuance of refund checks.

SCOUTS RECEIVE "GOD AND COUNTRY"—Awards were presented Sunday to Normal Beal (right) and James Ver Hage (center) Scouts of Troop 73, who have earned this honor by showing their capabilities in five areas of responsibility broken into three stages: study, experience and service to the church. Fred Filber (left) is their Scoutmaster. The scouters are standing behind a display at the Adrian Federal Savings and Loan Association building placed to commemorate Boy Scout Week.

What Abe Has To Say to Us

Members of the Women's Society of the First Baptist Church viewed a film, "Latin American Highlights", depicting Baptist mission work in the Latin American Countries.

The film vividly showed the work being done with members missionary money.

Mrs. Orville Bishop, who led the meeting in the absence of the president, was the narrator assisted by Mrs. Eddie Kirkland.

Mrs. Floyd Bryan led devotions, "What Lincoln has to say to us now". Members counted their patriotic duties and privileges.

Mrs. Charles Beland read letters from mission fields telling of the drastic need for White Cross supplies.

A gift of $50 was voted by members for the work in Latin America. A love gift of $20 was received and dedicated.

It was announced that the First Baptist Church will host the World Day of Prayer meeting at 8 p.m. Friday, March 9.

This idea was born 76 years ago and has become one of the high points for some 12 million Protestant and orthodox church women in 23,000 communities in this country and 145 countries throughout the world.

Mrs. Claude Sebring and Mrs. Kirkland poured beverages from a table with Valentine appointments.

Mrs. Stanley Cook, Mrs. Norman McConnell, Mrs. Ward Perso and Mary Snedecor were the hostesses.

At the March 12 meeting Mrs. J. D. Cook will be hostess chairman and Mrs. Clifford Curran will present devotions and the program.

Presbyterians To Observe Youth Sunday

Youth Sunday will be observed at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday, Feb. 18, with special music by the Chapel and Junior Choirs.

The entire service will be planned and led by the young people.

The theme, "Responsible Freedom," will be considered in talks by Terri Clark, Tom Dickinson and Tim Sisson.

Others taking part will be Greg King, Marielle Lugard, Janis Hall, Mike Carney, Jeff Long, Bob Titley, Jim Pihl, Tim Dickinson, Linda Bush, Jeffyn Robinson and Janice Reed.

Arrangements have been made for a nursery to care for infants during the Valentine tea Friday, Feb. 16, at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Neville Hart has planned a program to interest all ages and pretty refreshments will be served.

The Rev. Julian Gresham announced that a communicant's class for young people will be started Thursday, Feb. 15, at 3:30 p.m.

He said that young people desiring to unite with the church must attend these classes which will meet for 10 weeks and also meet with the minister individually prior to these meetings if they have not already done so.

The Senior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 6 p.m. at the home of Tim Sisson, 200 Chippewa St. A pizza party is planned for Feb. 25.

Plans for a one-act play were made by members of the Junior High Fellowship recently. Parts will be given out at the next meeting and rehearsals will begin.

Church Is Identified by Its Marks

"Walking Sermons" will be the subject of the Rev. Paul Brantingham when he speaks at the 10 a.m. worship service Sunday in the Tecumseh Friends Church.

"Surely more people are won to the church by its good spirit than by its eloquent presentation of truth," states the Rev. Mr. Brantingham.

"A congregation may be doctrinally sound, but spiritually dead," he continues.

"A church is identified by the marks and characteristics it possesses.

"Probably the chief criticism leveled so often against church people is, that there are too many hypocrites and most people feel, with the late Edgar Guest, 'I'd rather see a sermon than hear one any day'."

"However," he reminds us, "let critics remember that it is one thing to criticize, but another thing to produce."

Guest Will Speak Sunday to Methodists

Dr. Edwin Stricker, superintendent of the Ann Arbor District, will be the speaker at First Methodist Church Sunday, at 10 a.m.

His subject will be "The Promise Is Unto You."

Following the service, at 12 p.m., the Official Board and Quarterly Conference will join with their families at a potluck dinner in the Social Hall.

The main dish, bread, butter, coffee and milk will be furnished. People will bring a dish to pass or desserts and their dishes.

The Quarterly Conference will follow the dinner. Reports and recommendations will be given from the various departments of the church.

Nature of True Happiness

The nature of true happiness will be brought out Sunday at Christian Science church services.

Selections from the Bible in the Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Soul" include these verses from I Chronicles (16): "Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord . . . . Glory and honour are in his presence; strength and gladness are in his place."

3 Will Run for Re-election

Three present councilmen, Mayor Harold Easton, Carl Lamb and Terry Mackin, have taken out petitions seeking re-election to Council.

Arthur Schwartz, incumbent, announces that he will not run for another term.

Gene Tuckey, 416 E. Shawnee, has taken out a petition. Mr. Easton's petition has been completed and returned.

Archers Form Teams

Six teams, made up of four archers each, are shooting at the Community Center Tuesday evening at 7:30.

Each team has a captain to keep score.

Sponsors are National Industries, Roberta's Yarn Shop, R. F. Helzerman, Smith's Orchard, Hite Hardware and Ernie's Sporting Equipment.

The teams cordially invite anyone interested to join them.

Recent scores were:

Dan Bush — 770
Jim Bliesner — 736
Ernie Hammack — 724
Dr. R. F. Helzerman — 722
John Curth — 675
"Bus" Smith — 668

Florence Horan — 331
Chuck Holmes — 241

Dan Bush now holds the top score, 770.

Auxiliary Giving $25

Mrs. Kenneth Herrick, Legion Auxiliary Americanism chairman, read a letter from the state chapter Thursday evening for members here.

It was in regard to the John Morton "Cold War" briefing room under construction at Valley Forge, Pa. This is a project of the national president, Mrs. J. Howard McKay.

The research room is available to students, individuals or organizations.

Members voted to contribute $25 to the project.

It was decided that the American Legion birthday party will be held March 17 with Mrs. Douglas Tate, Mrs. Albert Seitz and Mrs. David Higgins on committee.

Only 200 tickets will be sold with Legion and Auxiliary members given priority.

The Auxiliary will serve the 40 et 8 banquet Feb. 28.

John Pobuda was the guest speaker of the evening. His topic was of "Education and Scholarship" and he remarked that students should prepare for future education as soon as they enter high school and not wait until their senior year.

He also recommended the book, "Need a Lift" compiled by the American Legion, saying that it is an excellent book on scholarships.

Mrs. Albert Bagshaw, Mrs. Robert Koffron and Mrs. Richard Eggleston served doughnuts and coffee.

NOTICE

During the past months people have called the Tecumseh Fire Department to pump out their basements during the rains and thawing.

Please refrain from calling the fire department to do this work. We would need all of the equipment we have, in the event that we would have more than one fire at a time, and this could happen any time.

The water department will do all they can to help you with their equipment.

Mrs. Terrance Wagner Wins

This will be a busy week for Mrs. Terrance J. Wagner, 411 E. Chicago Blvd.

Besides her usual household duties and her daily stints as a cashier at the Woolworth Store, Mrs. Wagner has a new task.

She's got 10,000 Top Value stamps to glue into premium books — 6⅝ to be exact.

That's quite a bit of sticking. Mrs. Wagner came upon the bonanza of stamps in the Saturday evening drawing, held in conjunction with the current ——— Vacation give-away.

One of Mrs. Wagner's coupons for the contest, which had been deposited at Hodges Drug Store, was selected from the giant drum.

It brought her the 10,000 TV stamps, which had been given by Tecumseh Kroger for the weekly drawing.

Other winners in last week's event were:

►Sam McCarty of Britton — six guest tickets to the Strand Theatre, donated by Walt Nichols, Strand manager.

►Mrs. Eileen Miller of Tipton — one-year subscription to The Herald.

►Hugh Walter, 1013 Red Mill Dr. — one-year subscription to The Herald.

This Saturday's first prize will be a double header. Hodges Drug Store is giving two large bottles of Pharma-VITE vitamins, each one worth $4.79.

Two lucky kids will be drawn for the top awards, and then coupons for the theatre tickets and two subscriptions.

A record 8,403 coupons were deposited last week. This brings the total for the first half of the Florida Vacation fun to more than 17,000.

All weekly winners are re-deposited so as to be eligible for the final drawing, which will take place March 17.

The top prize, one week in Florida at the Monte Carlo Hotel, flying via Delta Air Lines both ways, is worth $345. The trip is the prize. If the person who wins it does not wish to go, he or she may give or sell it to someone.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By DAVE KLAVON

Third Annual Talent Show, sponsored by the Junior Class under the direction of Brother Philip Armstrong, CSC, will be held on March 3.

This yearly event furnishes all the boys with a chance to show their ability at some talent they possess.

Boys are already getting ready for the big night. An instrumental combo is really "swinging," and a vocal group is ready to start practicing.

In addition there will be several "solo" acts.

√

Freshmen took on Morenci and ran away with another victory, 38-30.

On Feb. 6, though the story was different. A rough and tough freshman team from Monroe CC upended the Frosh Knights, 66-48.

Frank Hines of CC hit 36 markers for the victors, and Jim Eldrington had 23 for Boysville. Doug Paize put in 10 for the losers, taking over the scoring punch for the Knights after Eldrington fouled out in the fourth quarter.

Last Friday, the Deerfield Minuteman invaded the Boysville gym with what they thought would be an easy victory in store.

But the Minutemen found themselves playing a changed Boysville squad.

For the first time this season Boysville used a successful full-court press.

High scorer for the Knights was Stan Klos with 26.

Friday night the Bobcats of Whiteford come to the Boysville

The Junior Varsity Boysville team, led by Al Padilla and Bill "Bugs" Moran, beat the Junior Varsity of Deerfield 33-22. Al Padilla was high scorer for the night with 16 points. Moran had 12.

The eighth grade team, coached by Brother Aloysius Glombowski, CSC, met a rough team from Ida last Thursday night and lost, 34-23.

High scorer for Boysville was John Klos with nine points, followed closely by Jim Smith with eight.

The littlest team of Boysville, which is known as the seventh Grade team, lost a thriller to the seventh graders from Ida, 23-14.

Rules Are Rules — So We Can't

Unfortunately, rules are rules.

Thus, a Florida Vacation coupon, signed by Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Gillette, won't be dropped into the container at Proctor's Shoes .

It started with a letter from Mrs. Gillette, who resides in St. Petersburg, Fla.

She enclosed a coupon on which is printed, "Deposit at Proctor's Shoes" and asked The Herald to deposit it.

However, according to the Florida Vacation rules, this must be done by the signee.

Actually, we think Mrs. Gillette was kidding us. Here's the note she wrote:

Dear Sir,

This may sound funny to you all up north but we sure could use some warm weather in St. Pete. Ask Mr. and Mrs. Doug Hall of 116 S. Evans. They spent Christmas with us and they about froze.

My husband is the manager of Cannon Shoes down here. Are there any openings up there? It couldn't be much colder.

It has gotten down to 30 degrees here but we don't have any snow.

My folks receive the Tecumseh paper every week and I always read it. I get homesick to go up there.

Your cold southern friend,
Mrs. Gayel Gillette

P.S. I wish you would print this and tell them it is a lot warmer in Miami and real nice. About 80 degrees. Also it was warm here last week. It went up to 75 and then got cold again. Usually it stays about 65.

TO THE EDITORS:

While reading a Judd Arnett's column in the Detroit Free Press about "Nick Names", in his old Ohio home town, I remembered a picture in your paper about the retirement of Stanley Packard.

In our school days he was "Bingo".

In a later issue you mentioned "High Pockets" Moore. This got me to thinking of some of the other names, in my old home town and I jotted down a few.

Some of these people have probably passed on and others might have outlived them, but this is what we called them in the old days.

If Don Blesing is still with The Herald he should remember some of them.

TO THE EDITORS:

I am one of the older citizens, who hopes that something will happen that we will not lose St. Peters' Church.

I have received many booklets and other advertising materials from Michigan Tourist and Resort Associations and all feature the old Colonial Church in their mention of Lenawee County.

I rather think that quite a few people outside of the immediate congregation would help financially to preserve the historic building.

Would it not perhaps be possible to build a new rectory and maybe a youth center and hang onto the best example of pioneer spirit that we have in the City?

I also feel that some of our local builders should be asked for opinions rather than outside architects, who might be chiefly interested in just a big project.

Anyhow — good luck to our Episcopal friends.

W. G. Waldron

Residents Can Still Aid Drive

Lenawee County residents who have not done so were urged today to join in a statewide surge of Christmas Seal giving that is sending the 55th annual campaign toward a record $1,000,000 goal.

Contributions are continuing to reach headquarters of the Michigan Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association in Lansing.

Thus far, the state campaign total is $932,758.34 compared with $859,674.77 at this point last year, and a campaign total last year of $915,509.

Residents from Lenawee County have given $8,704.00 thus far, compared with $7,948.00, during the same period last year and a total throughout last year's campaign of $8,189.

Beginners Start Class

Beginners classes in western style square dancing will start Wednesday, Feb. 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Center.

Bonnie and Ray Mattis will be the instructors. The advanced group of dancers are enjoying such success that they are inviting anyone interested to come and have a good time.

LAMBS WILL GAIN FAST with a ration of 84 percent ground corn, 16 percent ground corncobs, 10 percent soybean meal, 5 percent alfalfa meal, plus vitamins, minerals and antibiotics. In feeding trials with this ration, lambs averaged .44 pound daily gain for a 2.8 pound daily feed intake. That's a 6.4:1 feed conversion ratio. Watch out for "overeating" disease, though. Lambs on a highly concentrated ration are susceptible.

GOOD SEED DOESN'T COST — IT PAYS. Other costs in producing a crop are high. Don't waste them by skimping in seed quality. Read the seed tags attached to the bags to know what you are buying. Seed should be high in germination, a variety adapted to the area, properly cleaned and graded, pure with respect to the variety being used and free from weed seed and foreign material.

TO WIN THE SPRING PLANTING RACE, your tractor carburetor must be in proper adjustment. Tractors need one part of fuel for 15 parts of air. Too rich a mixture will waste fuel and cut power. Too lean a mixture causes sluggish operation and misfires under heavy loads. Not only can you get full power and smooth performance, but you can save 2 to 3 gallons of fuel per day with correct carburetor adjustment. Start getting your tractor ready for the spring race ahead.

A LARGE LAWSUIT COULD COST YOU YOUR FARM. People are more likely to sue now than in the past and for more money. Carry enough liability insurance to cover your equity.

IN MEMORIAM — In loving memory of our wife, mother and grandmother, Mary Pauline Jones who would have been 56 years old on Feb. 17.
The sun and moon are shining
On a lone and silent grave;
Beneath lies the one we dearly loved,
But whom we could not save.
Friends may think we have forgotten
When at times they see us smile;
Little do they know the heartaches
That our smiles hold all the while.
Sadly missed by her husband, John, son, John Paul and family, daughter, Lee Horton, and family. F15,p

Cubs Are Baptist Guests

The Primary Two and Three classes of the First Baptist Church will hold class parties Saturday, Feb. 17, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the Youth House.

The Pythians will be guests at the morning worship service Sunday at the First Baptist Church.

Cub Scout Pack 4 with their Cubmaster, Dr. Robert Laidlaw, attended the service Feb. 11. The Cubs led the congregation in the Pledge to the Flag and gave their own Cub promise.

Women like to look into a mirror, except when pulling away from a parking place.

IN COMEDY CAST—Mrs. Ed Mengerink and Duane Steele will make their stage debuts next week in the Tecumseh Players' production of "You Can't Take It With You." Mrs. Mengerink, a bookkeeper for a local physician, has the role of a faded actress who arrives unexpectedly in the zanzy Sycamore living room. Mr. Steele portrays Mrs. Depinna in the role that brings much merriment to the show.

Great Satisfaction

The Senior Girl Scouts of Tecumseh realized great satisfaction from their efforts in serving a cafeteria supper Friday evening.

The proceeds will be used to carry out their many projects.

The net profit will be printed in the Herald when it is determined.

Mrs. Stanley Miller of Troop 136 was chairman for the event assisted by:

Mrs. Howard Morris No 79
Mrs. Wallace Rutherford No. 102
Mrs. Donald Creger No. 117
Mrs. Merrill Murphy No. 123
Mrs. Stanley Kruse No. 54
Mrs. Jim Murphy No. 133
Mrs. Jerry O'Brien No. 131

In Tecumseh the general and trail blazer programs are conducted when troops spend weekends in pioneer and establish camp at Camp 'O the Hills.

Most troops are working on service programs such as packing baskets for the needy, collecting and repairing toys at Christmas, helping cerebral palsy schools and sending boxes to the State Hospital.

Many troops assist senior citizens, remembering them at the time of their birthday anniversaries and at holiday time.

The Girl Scout Service program is based on troop financing.

An International dinner is planned by the Junior High and Senior High Girl Scouts to be held Tuesday, Feb. 20, at 5:30 p.m.

Each troop has selected a country for the evening. Table decorations and food will be in keeping with the country which they represent.

Following the dinner the program will feature customs of the various countries. At this time the girls contribute pennies for the Friendship Fund.

Mrs. Howard Morris will be chairman of the event.

OBITUARIES

● JAMES ROBERT BOYCE

Services were held Wednesday at the Collins-Corkery Funeral Home for James R. Boyce, 74, who died Monday at Bixby Hospital where he had been a patient for two weeks.

He had been a resident of an Adrian nursing home for the past two years.

Mr. Boyce was a former employee of the Tecumseh Products Co. and also had been engaged in farming.

He was born in Franklin township Oct. 9, 1887, the son of John and Caroline Boyce, and was a former Tecumseh resident.

Mr. Boyce is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frank Creger and Mrs. Leola Rutledge; both of Tecumseh; a brother, Richard Boyce of Pontiac; a sister, Mrs. Florence Shaffer of Tecumseh and four grandchildren.

● JOHN R. FOWLER

Services were held Tuesday at the Niblack Funeral Home for John Fowler, 57, of 1200 Ford Rd., Macon who died on admittace at Herrick Memorial Hospital Saturday evening.

He had been ill at his home.

He was born Aug. 30, 1904, at Harlan, Ky. He came to Michigan in 1939.

Mr. Fowler, a coal miner until forced to retire through an injury had been engaged in farming in recent years.

He was a member of the Lakeside Baptist church at Monroe.

Mr. Fowler is survived by his wife, Loanle; five sons, James of Monroe, Edward and Phillip of Petersburg, Joseph of Britton and John at home; four daughters, Mrs. Jessie Giles of Monroe, Mrs. Melba Poley of Clinton, Mrs. Pauline Ordiway of Saline and Mrs. Kathleen Starr of Britton.

Twenty - six grandchildren; three brothers, Woodrow and Charles of Monroe and Phillip of Florida and two sisters, Mrs. Ethel Ellison of Monroe and Mrs. Nancy Hensley in Kentucky also survive.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Willis, Uhle and David Fowler.

Burial was in Pleasant View cemetery at Petersburg with the Rev. John Webb of Monroe officiating.

A military service was held at the grave.

● CARRIE MARIE RUDD

Graveside services were held Tuesday morning at Brookside cemetery for Carrie Marie Rudd, day-old-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rudd, who died Sunday evening at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Besides her parents, she is survived by her grandparents, Mrs. Dalton Walper and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rudd, all of Tecumseh.

Arrangements were made for the burial by the Collins-Corkery Funeral Home with the Rev. Fr. Harold Leach of Detroit officiating.

● MRS. MILTON FLYNN

Services were held Saturday at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church for Mrs. Milton Flynn, 70, who died suddenly Wednesday at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Flynn was the mother of Mrs. Robert French, 306 W. Cummins St.

She was born May 12, 1891 at St. Louis, Mo., the daughter of Andrew J. and Elizabeth Rosch.

Beside Mrs. French she is survived by another daughter, Sister Terese Josephine of South Orange, N. J.; two sons, Robert of Chicago and John of New York City and two grandchildren.

A sister, Mrs. Benjamin F. Pinder of Leomister, Mass. also survives.

She was preceded in death by her husband in 1961 and two brothers.

The Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins and the Rev. Fr. Charles Theobald officiated and burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

The Rosary was recited Friday at the Collins-Corkery Funeral Home.

● WILLIAM J. CRAIG

William J. Craig, 95, died at 8:30 p.m. Monday in his home at 19731 Milwaukee Rd. where he had lived for the past 42 years.

He was born Jan. 31, 1867 in Macon Township and had spent his entire life in this community.

Mr. Craig was a member of the Tecumseh F & A M and had served for many years on the school board in the Caswell District.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret; a son, Gerald, at home; four daughters, Mrs. Viola Schinzel and Mrs. Wilda Downing both of Toledo, Mrs. Margaret Johnson of Overland Park, Kansas and Mrs. Irene Davis of Hillman, Mich.

Nine grandchildren and six great grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Della Patterson, of Britton and several other relatives also survive.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, James and Charles Craig; five sisters, Mrs. Anna Hendershot, Mrs. Ellen Hoagland, Mrs. Margaret Jane Wright and Mrs. Elizabeth Wright.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday in the Niblack Funeral Home. The Rev. Ronald Cort will officiate and burial will be in Ridgeway cemetery.

Masonic services will be held in the Funeral Home at 8 p.m. Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Les Calhoun Tells Rotary About Mexico

Mrs. Leslie Calhoun, native of Mexico, was the principal speaker at the Rotary Club meeting last week.

She discussed her country briefly and then showed colored slides of Mexico City and the country.

Mrs. Calhoun, who lives just a few miles south of Tecumseh is an instructor in Spanish, having taught some classes in the local mgh school and regularly at Adrian College.

The Tecumseh Rotarians will observe the club's 57th anniversary this week.

Maynard Lucas, Tecumseh president, Robert Aten, Ron Dillingham, Glenn Driscoll, Robert French, Bert Ousterhout and Mel Partridge have maintained perfect attendance during the past year.

No One Injured as Heating Pipe Bursts Monday

A baky steam heating pipe burst in the first grade room in St. Eliabeth School Monday morning.

No one was in the room at the time.

The students had been moved to the gymnasium for classes because the heating units in the first grade room weren't working properly.

Classes in the entire school were called off for the balance of the day as repairs were started.

The school was closed Wednesday due to the ice storm.

Volunteers Meet

The Volunteer Sunday School Class of Holloway Presbyterian Church will meet Saturday, Feb. 24 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Austin, 9474 Britton Rd.

Tories Go for No. 14 Win of Year

BRITTON—Next stop: Ida.

That will be Friday evening when the Britton-Macon Tories go for their [illegible]st win of the year.

The Tories also will be out to protect their fifth-place Free Press ranking among all state Class D schools.

Posting No. 13 was a bit rugged.

To do it, the Tories had to go all out, finally beating Adrian Catholic Central, 56-47, last Friday night on the Irish court.

At the end of the third quarter, Central led, 40-34.

But Britton came alive in the final period, mainly on the shooting of Phil Benedict and outscored the Irish, 21-7, to insure the victory.

Big Phil dunked 17 tallies and Dave Bailey had 12 to pace the winners.

In the junior varsity battle, Adrian CC won, 45-29.

Marilyn Korican Hits 10

BRITTON — The Girls Athletic Club's basketball teams defeated the Girls Training School, 36-13, in Adrian last Monday evening.

Britton's junior varsity played the first half of the game and the varsity the second half, as the losers have only one team.

Marilyn Korican was high scorer with 10 points, Susan Rowlands next with eight, Judy Rohrback and Kathy Forsyth had six and Judy McClue, Carol Barrett and Mary Lou Hall each contributed two.

Following is the score by quarters:

Britton	-	11	18	32	36
GTS	-	4	9	9	13

The Torie gals will host Girls Training School Monday, Feb. 19.

Ed Faust Breaks Hip

BRITTON — Ed Faust is in St. Joseph Hospital at Ann Arbor as a result of a tobogganing accident Sunday afternoon.

Four young people, Gloria and Larry Hummel, Laura Segert and Ed were in the Irish Hills for an outing when their toboggan struck a rock.

All were injured and taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Following X-rays, Ed was transferred to Ann Arbor, suffering a broken left hip. He underwent surgey Monday morning.

Gloria was treated for a badly bruised left leg and released.

Laura and Larry were bruised and shaken from the accident.

Heart in Bible

BRITTON — Fourteen members and two guests of the Priscilla Circle met last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Ash.

The business meeting was opened by Mrs. Charles Patterson. Devotions, by Mrs. James Squires, were based on the "Heart" and she told of the many times that the heart appears in the Bible.

Mrs. William Gibson presented a program on the lives and achievements of Thomas Edison and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, whose birthdays was observed in February, as well as Washington's and Lincoln's.

The ladies voted to purchase a book pertaining to the Bible to be used by the Circle for future programs.

Members were asked to take wash cloths, scraps of yarn and elastic to be made into slippers to be sent to various hospitals for the April meeting at the home of Mrs. Leland Bush.

The Golden Rule and Priscilla Circles will work in the kitchen for the ABA Banquet, March 1.

Members Donate Clothes for Youth at Otter Lake

BRITTON—Eight members of the American Legion Auxiliary met last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Harold Osterhout.

The ladies brought articles of clothing to be sent to the Children's Billet at Otter Lake.

Plans were discussed for the Hospital Party, which the Auxiliary holds annually at the Veterans Hospital in Ann Arbor.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Cline.

Mrs. Osterhout served angle food cake, ice cream and coffee to her guests.

BRITTON BRIEFS

By MRS. PAUL ROWLANDS
Please Phone Britton GL 1-2311

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hummel were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Palmer and family were Sunday guests of Emery Downing.

Mrs. LaVern Weyher was hostess for the Mary Martha Circle of the Congregational Christian Church in her home last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Fay Hindes spent Saturday evening and Sunday as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Roland Marsh of Tecumseh.

Mrs. Edward Kanous and and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill of Ann Arbor were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Myers in Fairview Park, O.

Mrs. Virgil Bortel, Mrs. Clay Croll and Mrs. Edward Kanous attended a "Seminar In Miniature" at the Methodist Church in Wayne on Tuesday.

Mrs. Edward KKanous and Mrs. Fred Schober were in Detroit Monday attending the staff meeting of the Detroit Conference News of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church. Mrs. Kanous is a member of the staff.

'Managing Family Credit' Discussed

BRITTON — The L and M Extension Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Bernard Clement on Rankin Rd.

Sixteen members enjoyed a turkey dinner prepared by the hostess and her co-hostess, Mrs. G. O. Hannevik.

Mrs. Leslie Downing assisted by Mrs. Lee Keeling, presented the lessons on "Trend in Major Household Appliances" and "Managing Family Credit."

Mrs. Paul Bailey presided at the business meeting, at which time the club voted to contribute to the IFYE Fund.

The style show at Penney's Department Store in Adrian was announced and Mrs. Anthony Ivan, Mrs. August Maska and Mrs. Bailey will attend.

Mrs. Gerald Benedict won the mystery prize. Mrs. Benedict will be hostess in March, with Mrs. George Price assisting.

The members should bring materials for making 'tote bags". Roll call will be answered with a household hint.

Linda Pilbeam Luncheon Guest of Sunshine Circle

BRITTON — Mrs Howard Heiden and Mrs. Mae Willis were co-hostesses to the Sunshine Circle last Wednesday for a noon luncheon in the Heiden home.

Fourteen members and one guest, Linda Pilbeam, were present and answered the roll call with a favorite Bible character and why.

Mrs. Willis opened the meeting with a prayer and the program by Mrs. Kenneth Knudson was on the "Power of Prayer."

The group voted $3 per year per member to help meet their church pledge.

The Circle will serve as hostesses, present the program and give the devotions for the Fellowship meeting to be held at the Congregational Christian Church, Wednesday, March 7 at noon.

Ex-Brittonites Are Now Living in West Pakistan

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. William Dettman have received word from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Packingham, former Britton residents, that their daughter Phyllis and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Saltz are now living in West Pakistan.

Mr. Saltz has accepted a position as a consulting engineer on the staff of Ebasco Services, Inc., of New York, N.Y.

He will spend three years studying manufacturing requirements and setting up plants in a large factory complex near Rawalpindi, West Pakistan.

Their address is:
Mr. and Mrs. Care F. Saltz,
Wah Cantt,
West Pakistan.

It's Pizza, Potato Chips, Punch, Pop

BRITTON — Seventeen boys and girls were on hand last Saturday to help Judy Faust celebrate her birthday.

The kids enjoyed dancing and card games.

Judy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Faust, served refreshments of pizza, potato chips and dip, nuts, birthday cake and ice cream, punch and pop.

After the boys left, nine girls held a pajama party until 10 a.m.

"The man who's waiting for something to turn up might [illegible] his shirt sleeves."

Donations To 'March' Total $170

BRITTON — The Ridgeway Township "Mothers March" netted $170.86, which is considerably less than last year's drive.

It was by no means the fault of the following, who gave so freely of their time.

Village of Britton
Mrs. Forrest Weichner
Mrs. Bill Gibbs
Mrs. Dale Monagin
Mrs. Carl Hawkins
Mrs. Delmar Dunham
Mrs. Herman Bates
Mrs. Sam Watkins
Susan Rowlands

Village of Ridgeway
Mrs. Harley Slick
Mrs. Ronald Purple

The Boy Scouts collected in rural Ridgeway Township.

Donations will still be accepted, says Mrs. Eliabeth Spohr, chairman for the March of Dimes Drive.

Mrs. McCrate Will Lead Program

BRITTON—The Britton Women's Club will meet Tuesday, Feb. 20 at the Britton Library at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Robert McCrate, program leader has planned an interesting program which will include a book review and a short history of the library.

Roll call for the day will be "A Good Book I Have Read."

If each member will respond it will make a well rounded program for the day, says Mrs. Walter Prill, club president.

7 Couples Play Cards Saturday

BRITTON — Valentine theme was carried out by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patterson when they entertained their Couples Club Saturday evening.

The seven couples played cards with prizes going to Mrs. Donna Bruce, Mrs. James Arft, Ben Ball and Larry Kanous.

Mr. Kanous and Sharon Hinkle were guests for the evening.

The group will meet next with Mr. and Mrs. Keith Swain.

Residents with positive tests may have other members of their family x-rayed when the mobile unit is in Adrian the week beginning Feb. 9.

The unit is brought to the county to detect unknown cases of tuberculosis, lung cancer, heart conditions and other chest abnormalities.

In the last five years, 212 new active cases of tuberculosis were reported in Lenawee County.

Troop 73 Plays Host To Britton

Boy Scout Troop 73, sponsored by the United Products Workers Union, started celebrating Boy Scout week early this year.

They invited members of the Britton troop to the regular meeting last week.

Two films on safety were shown by a trooper from the State Police Post at Clinton.

Ginger molasses cookies, baked by senior patrol leader Bob Brown and the leader of the Otte Patrol, Ricky Filber, were served after the show.

During Boy Scout Week, Feb. 7 to Feb. 13, a display from Troop 73 will be shown in the window of the Adrian Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Feb. 3 and 4 Troop 73 members went on a winter camp out accompanied by Scoutmaster Fred Filber.

They hiked from the Scout Cabin to the Clare Gillespie farm near Clinton, about five miles. They slept in tents and did their own cooking out-of-doors.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

OH — POSSUM

About eight o'clock several Mondays ago. Outside the daily struggle between night and day was being waged, and, although it didn't promise to be a bright and brilliant day, slowly the darkness was receding.

Inside things were going much as usual. Mom was upstairs getting ready to go to work. In the kitchen, Gram was doing up the breakfast dishes and Ida was downstairs loading the washer.

Suddenly I was wide awake and all alert — something was crossing Doctor's yard and of all things, it was a 'possom!

What a surprise and yet there was no possible mistake. Larger than a cat, unfurred tail, short legs and a small head with a pointed snout — an oppossum it really was.

I started calling for someone — anyone to come and see — after all, this was our first 'possum. No response and at a surprisingly fast pace the animal was working toward the creek bank.

Soon he would be out of sight. I called louder and finally made Gram hear. She caught just a glimpse, but at least I wasn't the only one who saw him.

☆

ACTUALLY, had no one come I would not have been kidded too much about seeing things because for some time, we have known that there were 'Possums around.

One night Marshes had an occasion to turn their outdoor light on and who was sitting on their feeding chalet, enjoying a post-midnight snack, but a big fat 'possum.

He ran away, of course, but it was interesting to hear that he went down the outside, or dark side, of the post and stayed in its shadow all the way to the creek-bank.

Not a handsome, attractive animal by any means, the 'Possum has other traits which make him noteworthy.

Among other things, it is this country's only marsupial, or pouched, animal and its tail has a prehensile tip, a grasping tip which acts much like a third hand.

This animal has a tiny brain and is placed by most scientists far down the intelligence scale. Its habit of "playing 'possum" is not a willful voluntary means of protection, but is instead completely automatic and uncontrollable.

"It is so shocked at being confronted with danger that its limited mental capacity is overwhelmed. The 'possum suffers a temporary paralysis, falling into a state of coma."

So says "The Animal Kingdom" edited by Frederick Drimmer.

☆

THAT SUCH seemingly stupid animals survive and, in fact, are even constantly extending their range is due primarily to the easy fulfillment of their simple needs, and their being very prolific.

Almost anything makes suitable eating — insects and rodents are the staples, but an occasional egg or baby chick has given them a bad name among farmers.

As for family raising, it's quite a story. Sometimes as many as 20 honey-bee sized babies are born and those able to reach the pouch and find the eight to eleven filling stations survive, while the rest starve.

It's a combination of the "survival of the fittest" and "first come first served."

I SUPPOSE an article about oppossums would not be complete if I didn't tell all. (The family I'm sure, would never let me forget it.)

Many long years ago Mom looked out the window and saw her little girl proudly dragging something across the yard.

I had a tight grip on a long, scaly tail of the something that had been dead much too long a time.

Needless to say, Mom was horrified—I merely curious. Having encountered something unfamiliar, how better to find out what it was than bring the new found prize home?

It was, of course, a 'possum, but you know; somehow Mom wasn't nearly as thrilled with it as I was!

So it is that there is much to be said about those ugly, but surprising animals, oh-'possums.

NOBODY KNOWS MY NAME by James Baldwin — This is part of a private log-book, written over the last six years, in various places and in many states of mind. It brings out the relations between blacks and whites, the role of the Negro in America and in Europe.

THE SMALL ROOM by May Sarton — A perceptive and deeply questioning novel of a New England college, its students and its faculty. Written in delicate prose.

MISTRESS NELL by F. W. Kenyon — Nell Gwyn began to prosper when Charles II came to the throne of England. In those gay and boisterous days of the Restoration Nell became an orange girl in the theatre, then reigning comedienne and finally King's mistress.

ABOMINABLE SNOWMEN: LEGEND COME TO LIFE by Ivan Sanderson — The story of sub-humans on five continents from the early ice age until today.

PETER FREUCHEN'S BOOK OF THE ESKIMOS — An absorbing and informative introduction to the life and customs of the mysterious people who live at the top of the world.

THE COMING FURY by Bruce Catton — In words that weave history into art, Bruce Catton has created a book about the coming of the Civil War that is at once a broad canvas and a revealing close-up.

THEY CAME TO KILL by Eugene Rachlis — The true story of eight Nazi saboteurs in America who landed at night by submarine — their purpose: to cripple America's war production.

MY LIFE IN BASEBALL by Ty Cobb — The most competitive player to take the field and a fearsome man both at bat and on bases, Ty Cobb played baseball with his head as well as with his muscles.

ORDINANCE

WHEREAS Registration facilities have been maintained by the City of Tecumseh for Bicycles for a number of years; and

WHEREAS such Registration facilities are of and in the identification of lost or stolen bicycles and further permit the Police Department to ascertain that bicycles are in good operating condition; and

WHEREAS it is now decided that such procedures be made mandatory by Municipal Ordinance.

NOW THEREFORE THE CITY of TECUMSEH ORDAINS. (Effective 1 March 1962):

Section 3.575 REGISTRATION OF BICYCLES. It shall be illegal to operate a bicycle upon a public thoroughfare within the City of Tecumseh unless the same has been registered with the Police Department for which the applicant shall pay a fee of 50c annually and shall receive in exchange therefor an identification sticker to be placed upon the bicycle. The Police Department shall not issue such a sticker unless it is satisfied that the particular bicycle is in good operating condition. All registrations are to be renewed before the first day of March of each year.

ORDINANCE DECLARED ADOPTED:

AYES: Unanimous
NAYS: None
Attest: Naomi Sallows,
City Clerk

Motion Lamb and seconded Mackin to accept for the first reading the ordinance on a MEDICAL AREA. Motion carried unanimously.

ORDINANCE

WHEREAS recent developments in the hospital area have indicated the necessity for a new zoning classification; and

WHEREAS such new classification should embrace kindred usages.

NOW THEREFORE THE CITY ORDAINS (Effective 1 April 1962):

Section 7.078. MEDICAL AREA * By the term "medical area" is meant that area in which the following usages, or other usages substantially similar thereto, are permitted: office of a physician, surgeon, dentist therapist, or other persons whose primary occupation is treatment for the abatement of disease or disability, or the promotion of good health. Further permitted usages are hospitals, clinics, homes for aged, therapeutic baths, private gymnasiums and the like.

Motion Schwartz and seconded Mackin to adjourn the meeting. Motion carried.

Clerk: Naomi Sallows
Mayor: Harold Easton

Sunday's Fire at Nick's Tavern

Fire inflicted only minor damages to Nick's Tavern, on S. Evans St., late Sunday afternoon.

Joe Nykodym, tavern owner, said the fire probably started when someone tossed a cigarette or match in a waste can. The rear kitchen door of the tavern was set afire before a passerby noticed the flames.

Some smoke damage also was reported.

Same Team Runs Enlarged A&P

A familiar figure will continue to direct the activities in Tecumseh's remodeled A&P super market.

Manager of the revamped, one-stop shopping center is Alton Snyder, who opened the store in 1958.

He also managed A&P's former location on N. Evans St., which is now Van-Mers Dept. Store, for three years prior to completion of the present building.

Mr. Snyder, who has been with the food chain for more than 20 years, runs a modern food department store selling upwards of 3,000 items.

Mr. Snyder first joined the food chain in 1940 as a grocery clerk in his home town and was promoted to assistant manager in 1947.

He was transferred to the company's super market at 2808 Monroe St. in Toledo in 1954, where he served in a similar capacity until his promotion to manager of the Tecumseh store in 1955.

Snyder is married to the former Virginia Balzumitti of Monroe. They have two children, Roger, 18; and Barbara, 19.

☆

HERBERT T. SIMPSON, an A & P employee for nearly 13 years, will continue to assist Manager Snyder in directing the store's activities of some 30 men and women employees.

Mr. Simpson came to Tecumseh in September 1958 from Monroe, where he had served as an assistant for nearly two years.

He first joined the food chain in his native California as a head stock and receiving clerk in 1949. He had previously worked as a part time clerk in LaJolla, Calif.

He was transferred to Tecumseh in 1950 and three years later to Monroe, where he served as dairy department head and produce department head prior to his promotion to assistant manager in 1957.

Mr. Simpson is married to the former Mary Louise Erhart of Tecumseh. They have two children, Herbert, 11; and Michael, 9.

☆

KEITH K. KURTZ, an A & P employee for more than eight years, heads the self service meat department.

Mr. Kurtz started with A & P in 1953 as a clerk in Adrian, and later served as head stock and receiving clerk, butcher and meat cutter.

He came to Tecumseh in 1957 to head the meat department at the store's former location on S. Evans St.

1962 CHEVROLET JOBMASTER TRUCKS

built better...work longer!

When Chevrolet builds a truck, it builds a quality truck. This policy makes sense. Chevrolet trucks work a long time . . . cost less than many other makes to operate and maintain over the years . . . consistently bring a higher trade-in price . . . and, as a result, are bought by more people.

We invite you to come in and examine this quality closely and to take a 1962 demonstrator out for a good long test drive. Note the cab comfort, the good visibility, the smooth ride, the solid feel of its quality. Compare Chevrolet truck features with those of other makes. Then decide which are your wisest investment. We're sure it will be Chevrolet's.

Note how this Chevrolet cab roof is made of two sheets of metal, instead of one, with a layer of felt in between as insulation against cold, heat and noise.

A Chevrolet truck tailgate is sturdier because it has double-wall construction and strong steel chains in tough rubber casing to support it.

Quality independent front suspension fights road shock more effectively than other types—provides more protection for the truck, load and driver.

The standard 235-cu.-in. 6-cylinder Chevrolet truck engine has worked more miles than any other. There are nine more engines to choose from.

CHEVROLET See your Chevrolet dealer for trucks that keep running and running!

GI insurance dividend payments totaling $11,016,700 will be made during 1962 to 216,946 Michigan veterans.

The annual payments have already begun and will continue throughout the year, with checks being issued on the anniversary date of the policies.

Nationwide, more than 4.7 million GI insurance policy-holders will participate.

Dividends will average $50 for World War Two veterans and $70 for veterans of World War One.

The annual dividends are primarily a return to the policy-holders of part of the premiums they have paid since the death rate of veterans continues to be less than estimated in mortality tables upon which the premium rates were set by law.

JCs Holding Paper Drive on Sunday

Jaycees will hold a paper drive beginning at noon Sunday.

Those wishing to contribute used magazines and any old paper may place it on their porches or beside the curbing. Members will pick it up with their cars.

Proceeds will be used for the various projects conducted by the Jaycees during the year, such as Boy's State and the recent trip made by high school seniors to the Con-Con sessions at Lansing.

Parents View 1,000 Books At School

An exhibit of over 1,000 of the best books for children and young adults, published in 1961, attracted several hundred Tecumseh residents last Wednesday and Thursday at the Herrick Park elementary school.

Sponsored by the Michigan State Library and the 54 national publishers whose books were on display, the exhibit gave area parents and teachers an opportunity to peruse the best in recent elementary and high school books.

In charge of arranging the Tecumseh display were Mrs. Robert Blanks, elementary librarian, and Mrs. Kenneth Suydam, high school librarian.

Thomas Edison – Inventive Genius

This week—National Electrical Week—marks the 115th anniversary of the birth of Thomas A. Edison. During this week the whole nation pays tribute to this "electrical genius."

Edison brought electricity out of the laboratory and into practical use for the benefit of mankind. He worked untiringly to develop the first practical electric light bulb and the equipment needed to bring it into the homes of America. In addition, he discovered "Etheric Force" which gave us wireless telegraphy, and the "Edison Effect" which gave us the vacuum tube for radio, electronics and the fluorescent lamp. He gave us the pleasures of the phonograph, motion picture camera and projector, and the "talkies." To industry and transportation Edison gave the practical electric generator, the "universal" electric motor, the Edison alkaline storage battery, the "universal" stock ticker, the telephone transmitter, and microphone.

Vital as these "ends" are, the "means" Edison used to achieve them has even greater significance. His revolutionary example of systematic research (harnessing the combined efforts of an organized team of specialists) set the pattern for modern technological development.

Marvelous comfort

The remarkable new comfort that is built into the 1962 Cadillac is a delight even to long-time Cadillac owners. And it's an even more marvelous experience to those who are learning the luxury of the "car of cars" for the first time. Nowhere in motordom are seats more buoyant . . . space more generous . . . handling so satisfying . . . or roads so smooth. Your Cadillac dealer will be pleased and proud to arrange the luxury drive of your life. It will be worth your time for the revelation alone.

She's Busy Gal

Fran Wheeler, coordinator of Women's services for Delta Air Lines, is a young woman on the go.

Miss Wheeler travels Delta's system to make ... ordinate the airline's participation in fashion shows and special promotions fostering air travel among women's groups.

This might mean talking to a ... secretaries one week on how to make a reservation and to a garden club the next week on the flora in Haiti.

Her subjects are as varied as her listeners, and she lets ... group she's addressing decide what the topic shall be.

Miss Wheeler will be in Tecumseh Thursday, March 1, to stage the "Caribbean Holiday Style Show" at the Community Center.

Her visit is being sponsored by the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, which will use proceeds from the event towards its spring project of landscaping hospital grounds.

Starting at 8 p.m., the show will cost $1, with tickets currently available at Bea Ring's Gift Shop and Pickard's loral Shop.

☆

FRAN'S CAREER would seem to be an exhausting job. But to Miss Wheeler, it's an exciting pastime, and she stays packed, ready to travel on a moment's notice.

The secret, she says, is to place all your clothes in the dresser drawer folded exactly as they would be for a suitcase.

Then when you're ready to leave, all you need to do is to lift them into the luggage, fold the dresses and you're off.

Eating ... ... keeps a day keeps her going too, she admits. She likes to cook, and her hobby is trying out those exotic recipes she often brings back from trips to the Caribbean.

Miss Wheeler joined Delta in 1957 and worked in reservations until her present position opened in April, 1958. She has an extensive background of experience in the promotional field.

☆

DURING THE Korean War she was director and administrator of Special Services for the Third Army, and she even flew once as an airline stewardess.

A native of Atlanta, she is a member of the Women's Chamber of Commerce, and is a former member of the Personnel Club of Atlanta, which bestowed its achievement award on her in 1956.

Travel has always been one of Miss Wheeler's hobbies, and as field executive for the Farrington Manufacturing Co. — originators of the air travel plan — she covered the East Coast from Canada to Florida.

Today she's covering Delta Air Lines' system from New York and Washington, Chicago and Detroit, to the principal cities in the Southeast, Southwest, West Coast, The Caribbean, and Caracas.

VOICE of THE HERALD

A Great Competitor

What makes Georgie run?

Well, a lot of things.

First of all, we think George Romney is going for governor of Michigan because of a genuine desire to help his home state.

We think Georgie runs because he is basically a great competitor.

How he cut down the Big Three in the automobile field with his compact Rambler is a success story of the Believe It or Not strata.

Ten years ago if you had tried to convince an average American that little American Motors would one day set GM, Ford and Chrysler on their collective ears, you would have been laughed out of the room.

But that's the way it happened — thanks mainly to the driving force of one George Romney.

When George said he was going to retire for an evening's meditation before making the decision to run, Augie Scholl, who is an unhappy Democrat, sneered at this. Augie claimed he had a pipeline to God.

You recall it was Augie who chirped after seeing the Republicans sweep the Con-Con delegate race, that no wonder, the Democrats were working men, not the idle rich. Meaning of course that his people didn't have time to vote since they all work about 20 hours every day.

Well, he was straightened out post haste by Mr. Romney on the current outburst when Augie was told anyone could enjoy the same "pipeline".

Augie will suffer further rebuff, we suspect, when the votes are all in next fall and many of the state's Democrats and independents have swung over behind Mr. Romney to give him a resounding victory.

Like Well-Played Athletic Contest

May we quote from the Feb. 1 Long & Short column?

This was the one about a fellow in Lapeer who took an ad in the local paper to pat his competitor on the back.

One statement in the ad makes a lot of sense.

"Your aggressive advertising, your salesmanship, and your big inventory brought buyers here from long distances. That helped all of us. You stirred us all to work a little harder, too, and figure a little closer."

That's the beauty of a free economy. Having a competitor makes a fellow react a little sharper. It eliminates sluggishness, any smugness that might prevail one's thinking.

With on-the-ball competition, a businessman has got to be on his toes.

The battle that ensues—like the clean, well-played athletic contest—results in a stronger economy for the area in which the competitors flourish.

Both businesses will prosper. Big winner in the long run is the consumer, the customer.

Having someone, just down the street, selling the same thing you do, isn't bad.

This is what makes America great.

Pythians Celebrate Birthday No. 98

Tecumseh Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters will attend worship services Sunday at the First Baptist Church in celebration of their 98th birthday Feb. 19.

The Pythian Order was founded on friendship, charity and benevolence by Justus H. Rathbone, who came from Deerfield, N. Y.

In the spring of 1858 he went to Eagle Harbor, Mich., on the shores of Lake Superior to teach.

While there he organized the Stevens Dramatic Society and from this sprang the drama, "Damon and Pythias".

It based its lessons and ritual on the familiar story of Damon and Pythias, who were Historical Characters living about 400 years before Christ.

They were members of a school founded by Pythagoras, who was known as the father of Greek philosophy.

Mr. Rathbone was impressed by the story and was determined that all men follow their example.

☆

THUS, AT the little school house at Eagle Harbor he wrote the Ritual of the Pythian Order.

In May, 1881, Mr. Rathbone returned to Washington, D.C. where he was connected with various government departments.

Mr. Rathbone became acquainted with Robert A. Champion, who read the ritual and together they planned to form a lodge.

On Feb. 15, 1864, he called four friends together, took from his pocket a Bible given him by his mother, administered to the friends the obligation, and read them the ritual.

On Feb. 19, 1864, in the city of Washington, D.C., assisted by his four friends, Washington Lodge No. 1 with 13 members was instituted.

The Pythian Sisters were founded by Joe Addison Hill on Oct. 25, 1888.

There are numerous Pythian Lodges in the State of Michigan, in almost every state in the Union and Canada.

The little school house at Eagle Harbor has been made into a Pythian Shrine. It is visited yearly by Pythians and their friends.

ATTENTION:
MAIL SUBSCRIBERS

- A recent edict by the United States Post Office has resulted in a charge of ten cents (10c) to the publishers of the Tecumseh Herald for each such paper incorrectly addressed.
- This is as much as we charge you for that paper on the newsstand.
- This is almost twice as much as we charge you for the paper by mail.
- This is not very cotton-pickin' profitable for the publishers of the Tecumseh Herald.
- SO . . tell us before you move. Send your correct mailing address as soon as you get one.
- Be explicit. If you move to New York City, or Adrian, or some metropolis like that, give your street number. The postman might not know you.

Long & Short

By TOM RIORDAN

With Washington's birthday (happy, holiday, George) this Thursday—and no mail service—we moved up our press schedule 24 hours.

☆

Hold on to your hat.

Tecumseh might be in LIFE magazine come April.

Several other towns are also under consideration.

A representative of the publication was in town Friday and Saturday to make preliminary preparations and gather information.

Another LIFE'er is due back this week and will continue the task, then bring in the photographers.

The story line is this:

What happens to money paid out by an industry, when it is primarily the only one in a small community?

LIFE plans to follow the dollars from the Products as they course through local and area economies.

It should make a fascinating piece and obviously is going to be a giant task for the LIFE reporters.

If all goes well and the story makes the magazine as presently scheduled it will be a tremendous bit of publicity for our town.

Can you imagine, Tecumseh spread around the world in a publication with nearly 4½ million circulation? That figures about 12 million readers.

So keep your hair combed and your shoes shined. That cameraman who has you in his viewfinder may be putting you on film for LIFE!

☆

The weeks of practice and preparation are over—the show goes on.

For the better part of two months, nearly 50 people have been taking great care in every detail for the staging of "You Can't Take It With You."

"Never again,' many might say, mulling over the hours of work they put in.

But after the curtain goes down and they feel good all over for a job well done, they'll ask, "When do we start on the next one?"

☆

Charlie Butler jots a line from Florida to send his congratulations on The Herald's recent General Excellence award.

He also asks that we drop a coupon into the container at Tecumseh Motor Sales for him so he'll get another week added to his stay.

(Sorry, Charlie, you know the rules, coupons must be deposited by you.)

Charlie closes, "Ho hum, gotta take a swim and cook some steaks outside. Having a good time, wish you were here. Inclosed is a check for the 'Rag'." "Thanks, Charlie."

$380,000 Faraday Loan Gets OK

Faraday, Inc. of Adrian is now definitely moving its operations to Tecumseh.

The Small Business Administration officially approved the loan Monday which now enables the Tecumseh Area Industrial Development Association, Inc., to build and finance an 83,000-square foot plant for the Adrian firm.

SBA's acceptance of the loan climaxed about eight months of work and worry for TAIDA, and other local, interested parties.

About three weeks ago, in an emergency and vital move, the State Savings Bank of Clinton offered to cooperate and participate with TAIDA, for the SBA loan. This offer by the Clinton bank saved Faraday for Tecumseh, after reliable reports indicated that the Adrian company would have to look elsewhere if arrangements here failed.

The new plant, which could give Tecumseh and the area a booming climate after months of a poor economy, will cost $504,172.66.

Responsible for bringing Faraday here through contributions were:

W. J. Rumpf, $15,000.

City of Tecumseh sewer and water mains, $67,316.00.

Goodrich-Hazen, Adrian builder who has been awarded the contract, $30,000.

State Savings Bank of Clinton, $38,000.

SBA, $342,000.

TAIDA, $11,856.66.

Work on the building will commence as soon as weather breaks, and completion is scheduled in late summer.

Faraday's new plant, consisting of concrete block with a paneled front, will be located on S. Maumee St. at Russell Rd.

Fred Worden, vice president and general manager of Faraday, says the company is presently employing 210 and expects employment of about 300 after moving to Tecumseh.

Tecumseh, Clinton and the entire local area will realize benefits from Faraday locating here. Practically the entire community and nearly all leading Tecumseh citizens were behind the negotiations.

In recent weeks, TAIDA officials often were despaired over failures of local cooperation and developments.

Working with W. P. Van Tuyle, president of State Savings Bank of Clinton, and his son David Van Tuyle, cashire, TAIDA, president Jack Osburn and Karl Schneider, secretary, arranged for bank participation and completed necessary paper wok.

Assisting in legal matters was Tecumseh attorney James P. McKenna.

Wednesday through Friday, Feb. 7-8-9, Mr. Osburn and Mr. Schneider along with Steven Bromberg Detroit lawyer presented the Faraday loan application to SBA in Washington.

The offices of Senators Philip Hare and Pat McNarama wired TAIDA officers Monday that their loan had been approved.

Junior High Hoop Tourney Opened Tuesday

The Junior High Invitational Basketball Tournament, being held in Tecumseh high gymnasium started Tuesday and will continue Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday.

In the opening round Britton met Airport and Tecumseh took on Milan

Remainder of schedule:

Wednesday, Feb. 21 — Dundee vs. Blissfield at 7 p.m.

Thursday, Feb. 22 — Winners of Tuesday games at 7 p.m.

Saturday, Feb. 24—Winners of Wednesday and Thursday games at 7 p.m.

Vestry, Parish Vote To Build New St. Peter's

By JIM LINCOLN

St. Peter's Episcopal vestry and parish voted Monday night to destroy the present historical building for a new, modern, stone church.

Approximately 100 members of the church attended the meeting and heard one of the donors present his plan for the new church.

Lawrence Blum, senior warden and spokesman for the vestry, announced at the beginning of the meeting, before the donor's presentation of the architect's drawing and rendition of the new church, that the vestry had unanimously approved the new church.

The present structure was built in 1833 and is widely admired for its beauty. Restoration plans had been completed, before the church was offered a gift of $180,000 for a new building, about five weeks ago

A drive to raise restoration funds was scheduled for February. Costs to restore had varied from the Krieghoff's Company's estimate of $17,700 to an architect's figure of $80,000.

☆

ABOUT THREE weeks ago city building inspection officials had found the building structurally sound, but in need of a new foundation and a few minor supports.

The bell chandelir are expected to be preserved.

Church officials have asked City Council to close Church St. for the erection of the new building. It will face south along the railroad tracks and towards the rear of the Moore lumber yards.

It will consist of limestone exterior, including the present parish hall, and will increase seating from 275 to 312, plus additonal classrooms.

Cost of the building is an estimated $210,000. The parish will be asked to raise about $40,000 or $50,000 for the difference between the gift and cost of the church, grading and construction of a parking lot, landscaping, demolition of the present church and rectory.

☆

THE VESTRY also announced that an option had been taken on a Bidwell St. home, formerly owned by the Virgil Tuckers and the Earl Kotts.

Some interest by historians, and town folks, have been made known in regards to the present building which was financed in part by Pres. Andrew Jackson and Congressman Daniel Webster and Henry Clay.

Henry Ford also contributed to the church before his death.

$36 Cart Load of Food

Whoever wins this week's top prize in the Florida Vacation drawing is going to be well fed.

The award: a cartload of groceries donated by the A&P store. Manager Al Snyder ran a tape on the booty after selecting it and the total ran $36.47.

Winner will be selected from among all Florida vacation coupons deposited as of this Saturday.

Drawing is to be held in the Strand Theatre at 8:50 p.m. Saturday. Also being given are six guest tickets to the Strand and two subscriptions to The Herald. Winners need not be present.

In last week's drawing, Hodges Drug Store gave two large bottles of vitamins. Winners were:

► Mrs. Doug Palmer, Britton (on coupon deposited at Kroger.)

► Edward Zick, Clinton (on coupon deposited at A&P).

The six Strand tickets were won by:

► Gerald Richards, Britton (on coupon deposited at Fabricare Center.)

One-year subscription to The Herald were won by:

► Mrs. L. B. Milheim, 7488 Billmyer Hwy. (on coupon deposited at Hodges Drug Store.)

► Mrs. Basil Kittell, 1305 S. Western Dr, (on coupon deposited at St. and Theatre.)

Total coupons in the giant container has reached the 22,906 mark. Of last week's 5,573 coupons, 19 had to be voided because they had been deposited in the wrong stores.

Participants are reminded that they must drop their coupons into containers of stores, whose name is printed on the slip.

Hodges Drug Store again got the greatest number of coupons, 751, of any place of business taking part.

Grand drawing for the one-week vacation in Miami, flying both ways via Delta Air Lines, will be March 17. The trip is valued at $345.

Packed Houses Anticipated for 2 Nights of Comedy

Due to the large pre-show amount of ticket sales in Tecumseh and surrounding towns, sell-outs are expected for all performancee of "You Can't Take It With You."

The comedy will be staged Wednesday and Thursday at the Stand Theatre. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

There will be a 3:30 matinee Thursday

The most ambitious production of The Tecumseh Players has had some 50 persons working on the local community theatre stage comedy

Members of the cast — all of Tecumseh — are amateur thespians, directed by commercial artist and amateur actor Richard Kureth, who also has the leading male role of Grandpa, Martin Vanderhof.

Commenting on his job for the past four weeks, Mr. Kureth said:

"I consider this a particularly thrilling experience because of the fact that out of a cast of 19, 11 have never been on a stage before.

"The way they have grown in their parts bears out my earlier comment to the effect that there is no such thing as an ordinary person," he added.

None of the characters in the comedy by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman are ordinary, for their zany antics have brought a steady barrage of

No Race, Only Four Have Filed for Council Race

Three incumbents, Mayor Harold Easton, Carl W. Lamb, and Terrence J. Mackin, filed petitions for re-election to Council.

Newcomer Harold Gene Tuckey also filed.

Since there will be just four vacancies, no race for the posts will be held. Petitions had to be filed Monday.

Quit Claim Deed Ends Problem

Construction of Tecumseh's new library will continue without concern as to who owns the land beneath it.

The Lenawee board of supervisors adopted a resolution Feb. 14 to grant the city of Tecumseh a quit claim deed to any county interest in Military Park, just west of the Junior High School, site of the library.

The need to borrow money for the completion of the building brought about the investigation by the trustees represented by James C. Beardsley.

Three Join Kiwanis Club

Tecumseh Kiwanis Club members and their wives gathered at Roumell's in Clinton last Thursday evening for dinner and induction of new members.

Those inducted were Don Clark, Harold Collins and Sidney Turner.

Worker's Condition Now Is Satisfactory Following Explosion

Raymond Shepherd, 41-year-old Tecumseh Products Co. maintenance man injured in last week's plant explosion, is resting in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph's Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Suffering from fractures of both legs above the ankles and possible internal inuries, Mr. Shepherd, who lives at 218 Kelly Lake Rd., spent three hours in surgery Saturday.

His condition was listed as serious that day, becoming satisfactory by Tuesday.

In the blast, which took place in K Building, Mr. Shepherd was standing on top of a dehydration oven that had just been repaired.

It errupted upward, sending him sailing towards the roof, which was blown out and set on fire.

Poured concrete walls of the building were buckled.

Two others were also hospitalized in the mishap, worst in the 27-year history of the company.

► James Poll, 22, of Addison, suffered third degree burns of his back.

► Frederick Birdsell, 44, rural Blissfield, had lacerations of the head and nose.

Both were admitted to Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Two others were treated:

► Rafe Reese, rural Milan, was burned on both arms.

► Don Purkey, Tecumseh volunteer fireman, had burns on the back of his right hand.

Seven more Products men working in K Building at the time were checked at the Hospital and released.

The accident took place Friday morning at about 8:30.

Post Office To Be Closed

The post office will be closed for George Washington's birthday anniversary, Thursday, Feb. 22, according to postmaster Jack Metcalf.

Griffin Endorses Romney

Congressman Robert Griffin gave his full backing to George Romney in the coming race for governor.

Mr. Griffin told a Lincoln Day Banquet audience of 175 in the Tecumseh Community Center Saturday that he liked Mr. Romney for three reasons:

► He believes strongly in importance of individual.

► His work as a Con-Con delegate showed his concern for strengthening state and local governments.

► His dedication to the philosophy of the free enterprise system.

The speaker said that he has been asked, "But is Romney a Republican?"

Mr. Griffin said there is no question in his mind, based on the three characteristics of the auto industrialist.

IN HIS talk, the Congressman from Traverse City emphasized the fact that it's the duty of the "loyal opposition" to criticize the president and his administration.

"We'll have a dictatorship if we ever get to the point where the opposition cannot criticize," he added.

Congressman Griffin lashed out at the lack of leadership by President Kennedy and said his proposed Department of Urban Affairs is merely a smoke screen to cover his lack of action in civil rights.

☆

THE AFFAIR earned a profit of $100 for the Republican party in Lenawee County, reports Charles Trickey, county chairman.

In the course of the banquet, gifts were presented by the party to Mr. Trickey, Vice-Chairman Mrs. Ron Fritz and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Reganall.

School Board Member Speaks Mind on Issue

By MRS. ROBERT STONE
Member Board of Education

Last week this newspaper gave full and competent coverage of the alternatives now facing the school system of Tecumseh district, either some millage voted for operating or drastic changes in school services.

At this time last year I was not serving as a school board member and I was adamantly opposed to the proposal for four mill for four years.

Today I would still be opposed to that proposal, but I feel that I can support four mills for two years.

My reasons have changed during this past year. I cannot today afford more taxes any better than I could last year, but during the many hours of board meeting I have faced, with the rest of the board, the drastic changes that would be necessary to operate with present millage and retire the debt.

By limiting the duration of the millage to two years the community would have opportunity at the end of the shorter period to reassess the situation in the light of any changes that may have occurred in those two years.

☆

BY NOW the district has had opportunity to take a look at how this year's school operating changes have affected the individual family.

It would appear to me that they have not bitten too deeply into any one group except the families with first graders.

The proposed milage, together with some additional service changes, would return the first graders to full time and "hold the line" in the rest of the system.

The greatest proportion of the money would pay off the $150,000 debt, accumulated over several years.

There seems to be no advantage in attempting to fix the blame for the debt accumulation, although there are several reasons that can be cited.

A primary reason is that the state money paid to school districts has steadily declined over the past five years as a result of more school children in the state sharing a fixed amount of money, and a decline in revenue from the state sales tax of which the schools receive a percentage.

☆

LOCALLY the school board and administrator have been too optomistic about receiving more state aid and did not start paring services soon enough.

No one likes to face "cutting down" once advantages have been enjoyed, either as individuals or groups.

The point has now been reached where the debt must be retired as quickly as possible, or the school system will be fighting an extended battle to pay it out of operation funds, almost an impossibility unless the system is stripped to a skelton.

I am aware that the community feels as a resentment against the board and the administrator for the situation, and if only resentment would solve anything I'd say "Go ahead and get good and mad and get it out of your system."

The only result would be an impasse, an angry community, a big debt, and the children's education cut to a tragic degree.

☆

WE HAVE the right to speak our piece and vote as our conscience dictates, but in this instance I hope the school district voters will answer the request for millage in the spirit in which it is being asked, to put the system on a debt-free basis from which we will proceed to spend only what we can afford and for which we can pay.

Past Presidents Honored At Child Study Gathering

Child Study Club No. 1 met recently at the home of Mrs. Robert Ries with 16 members and three guests, Mrs. H. W. Truesdale, Mrs. Donald Cobb and Mrs. Frank Schroeder.

Mrs. Al Merz, president, paid tribute to the past presidents.

Among past prexies present were Mrs. H. W. Truesdale, Mrs. L. H. Titley, Mrs. Ries, Mrs. Ben Gillies, Mrs. Norman Bailey and Mrs. Neal Brazee.

Mrs. Benjamin Ross was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. Gillies, program chairman, introduced five members of the Tecumseh Players, who entertained with two short plays.

Refreshments were served by the hostess with Mrs. Doug Murdoch and Mrs. Don Sunderland assisting.

Favors of Valentine candy cups were brought by Mrs. Hugh DesErmia and Mrs. Arthur Schwartz.

The March meeting will be in the form of a family supper at the Presbyterian Fellowship Center.

Councilmen To Approve $67,000

Councilmen generally agreed Monday night to approve sewer and water mains to the new Faraday plant at the next meeting.

Costs of the projects, which will include street improvements will exceed $67,000.

At the March 5 meeting, final approval is expected and work will then proceed.

The public hearing on March 19 was approved in regards to closing Church St., behind St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

In other action, Council went on record as being opposed to the establishment of a Department of Urban Affairs, in the Federal government.

The new department has been reported as relieving city governments of some of their duties and home rule.

400 Tickets for Fashion Show Sold

So far, 400 tickets have been sold for the "Caribbean Holiday Style Show."

Being sponsored by the Hospital Auxiliary, the event will be staged Thursday, March 1 in the Community Center.

Tickets are still available and can be obtained at Pickard's Floral and Bea Ring's Gift Shop.

In addition to showing of exotic Caribbean fashions by Delta Air Lines, there will be calypso dancing by students of the Peg Harris Dance Studio and vocal entertainment by the THS Madrigal Singers.

Grinnell's of Adrian is donating the use of an organ, which will be played during the show by Mrs. Glenn Driscoll.

Punch and cookies will be served guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Woodward of 5337 Centennial Rd. observed their 50th wedding anniversary Tuesday with a family dinner. The couple were married Feb. 20, 1912 in the parsonage of the United Brethren Church in Blissfield. They are the parents of three children, Mrs. John McKenzie, and Mrs. George Ewing of Monroe and Ronald at home. They have four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Plaques Given 2 Teen Benefactors

Teen Club and chairman of advisor, John Hamilton presented two plaques, one to Ray W. Herrick and one to Mrs. Charles F. Sage on Feb. 11.

Lettering on the plaque for Mr. Sage reads:

"This community shall be perpetually in debt to C. F. Bill Sage for his silent and unselfish generosity to the youth of Tecumseh. Tecumseh Teen Club, 1961"

The plaque to Mr. Herrick reads:

"R. W. Herrick will be enshrined forever in the hearts of grateful teenagers for his continuing contribution to the cause of Tecumseh Youth. Tecumseh Teen Club, 1961"

Officers of the Teen Club include Charles Osburn, Mary Ann Mead, Barbara Colgrove and Mike Rohrer.

Past President Honored By County Federation

Mrs. J. Cleon Mason and Mrs. Herbert Murphy were among the past presidents of the Lenawee County Federation of Women's Clubs honored at a meeting held in Adrian's First Baptist Church Feb. 14.

Others from Tecumseh who attended the meeting were Mrs. Clifford Knudson, Mrs Roland Mohr and Mrs. Ralph Westgate.

President Mrs. Ivan Crist of Deerfield presented the officers and each past president with a hand-made taffeta tissue holder for her purse.

Mrs. Cora Shoecraft, director of the Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic, and Martha Pfund, assistant director of the Lenawee County Youth Center, were the principle speakers for the afternoon.

Mrs. James Richmond accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Clarence Ferris, Jr., of Manitou Beach and played accompaniment for assembly singing.

Announcement was made of the annual Drama Festival to be held March 15 at the Patterson School in Tecumseh.

Mrs. Murphy is the drama chairman for the 1961-62 year for the Federation.

Addison, Onsted, Adrian and Macon have already made entries for the festival.

Federation officers will be the hostesses and ushers for the evening.

Ralph Helzerman, Jr. Sings On West Coast With 'M'

Ralph Helzerman, Jr., with seven other members of the Friars of the University of Michigan Glee Club, left Feb. 7 to go to Seattle, Wash. to sing at the University of Western Washington.

Thursday he telephoned his family telling of various other places that they would sing including Bellingham, Wash. University of Puget Sound, and the University of British Columbia at Vancouver.

They also visited the site of the World's Fair at Seattle.

It was quite by accident that the young men were invited to make this expense paid tour.

The Glee Club was returning from the spring tour to the West Coast and entertained university students who had been attending the National University Debates.

Students and their deans invited the Friars to make the trip during the semester break.

The Friars have a busy schedule, having recently sung on the Bud Guest program, entertained at Herrick Hospital staff party.

Nurses Set Dance Date Of March 3

Saturday, March 3, is the date of the dance sponsored by the District Nurses Association at the Tecumseh Country Club to replenish their scholarship fund.

This is the only project the group use for obtaining funds for the two $300 scholarships, which they present to girls entertaining the nursing field.

Two nurses, Janet Broiller and Norma Jewell Emery, of the eHrrick Memorial Hospital have been recipients of the scholarships.

Mrs. Emery is at present on leave to be with her husband in Georgia.

Mrs. Charles Newell is chairman of the event and Mrs. Kenneth Connair has charge of the advertising.

Mrs. Howard Furry is ticket chairman.

75 Help with Dinner

Nearly 75 parishioners of St. Elizabeth Church will be preparing and serving the annual Altar Rosary Society's Spaghetti dinner.

The popular event, which each year attracts some 500 diners, will be held from 3:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m., Sunday, March 4, in the school auditorium.

The menu will include Italian spaghetti, as prepared by Mrs. Eugene Rebottaro with her own recipe she has used for the past four dinners. Salad, rolls, home made pie, tea or coffee will complete the menu.

Members of the church are donating nearly all of the food. A number of husbands and wives will be working together on the dinner and many will also have their teenagers helping as tray boys and check room clerks.

The largest work crew will be the 19 waitresses, who will serve the meal, according to the dinner work list announced last Sunday by Mrs Ivan Lindstrom and Mrs. Richard Refner, co-chairmen.

Twelve men and women will serve on the next largest work crew — dishwashing.

Decorations, in keeping with an Italian setting, are being planned by Mrs. Tom Riordan. Candlelight service and a Venetian flower cart will carry out the motif.

Tickets for the dinner will be available at the door only.

ing had blown out its gas-fired heating element Monday and was being repaired.

Maintenance men had completed the job and were re-lighting the oven. Cause of the blast is unknown and dollar estimate of the damage has not been released.

The blast caused the building's sprinkling system to rupture and sent water cascading throughout the area. Firemen quickly smothered the burning roof as victims were rushed to Herrick Memorial Hospital by Collins-Corkery and Green-Dunn ambulances, as well as a Products station wagon.

With badly mangled legs, Mr. Shepherd was given immediate treatment and then sent to St. Joseph's about 10 a.m.

Ridgeway Library Gets $140

The 74th annual meeting of the Hall Memorial Library Association was held in the library in Ridgeway Feb. 7.

Treasurer Norman Johnson reported that friends of the library contributed $140 during 1961, thus enabling the library to keep open as a branch of the Lenawee County Library system.

In addition to the 2,000 books in the collection of the Hall Library, 504 adults and 656 juvenile books from the county library are available for circulation.

During 1961, a total of 2,133 books were loaned to adults and children of the community.

Officers were elected to serve during 1962.

President — Robert Ries
First vice-president — Mrs. John Slick
Second vice-president — Mrs. Albert DeJohnghe
Treasurer — Norman Johnson
Secretary-librarian — Mrs. Gerald Miller

A special program will be planned for the observance of the 75th anniversary this year.

"Continued financial support by friends of the library will be necessary again in 1962" states Mr. Ries, "and contributions may be sent to Norman Johnson in Ridgeway."

Hats Off!

A statement from F. J. Worden, vice-president and general manager of Faraday, Inc., touted the local Tecumseh industrial group Monday afternoon.

"We of Faraday are naturally very pleased that the Tecumseh Area Industrial Development Association has completed arrangements for financing the plant we are to occupy in Tecumseh.

"Since this was accomplished well in advance of our agreed upon deadline, we have every confidence that the new plant will be constructed and ready for our occupancy as planned this coming summer.

"Jack Osburn and his associates in TAIDA have our congratulations and best wishes for their effort in behalf of Tecumseh and our company."

80 Attend

About 80 attended the Parent Study Group meeting Thursday evening at Tecumseh High School.

James McDowell and Neville Hare and three board members, Aden Mead, Dr. Richard Dustin and Dwight Hodges, were on hand to answer questions.

Some of the items brought up:

Q. Will this millage be for two years only?

A. The four mills, yes. Future years depend on the need then, and whether or not there is more state or federal aid.

Q. Why did you increase base pay?

A. To get better teachers — almost none available under $4,500.

Q. When would debt be retired if vote is "No"?

A. Could possibly pay half of it in one year, but it might take 10 or more years to pay balance because of increased expenses.

Q. Why is there on increased need for money?

Next year we lose a $25,000 gift. Three additional teachers for every new 100 pupils annually need.

Q. Are more teachers really leaving this year?

A. Some positively. Many have applied to the administration for their credentials, ready to go if the vote is "No."

Those attending were told that an increased enrollment in high school will necessitate staggering classes next year.

Fairbanks Clan Holds Gathering

BRITTON — Mrs. Elwood Fairbanks and daughters entertained at a potluck birthday supper honoring Mr. Fairbanks Sunday evening.

Family members who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mull of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hilgeneck and daughter of Dundee, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Arft, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fairbanks and family and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks and children.

Roger Maynard of Tecumseh also helped in the celebration.

Laden with Tables

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Reeck were completely surprised Saturday evening about 10 p.m. when a group of friends and neighbors arrived, laden with tables, chairs, food and a gift.

The housewarming, which was planned for an earlier hour, was delayed because Mrs. Reeck was one of a committee who served a supper that evening at her church and she arrived home much later than anticipated.

Twenty guests helped in the surprise and spent the evening [illegible].

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Elwood Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rowlands, Mrs. Charles Fairbanks and Russell Cheever.

The honored couple was presented with a wall clock to be used in their new home, in which they recently moved.

Refreshments of assorted sandwiches, chips, relishes, ed beans, cake, Jello and coffee were served.

Top Scholars Named

BRITTON — Top students of the 1962 Britton-Macon Area graduating class have been announced by Supt. Russ Spalding.

They are Evelyn Graham, valedictorian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Graham of rural Tecumseh and Rebecca Austin, salutatorian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Austin of rural Tecumseh .

These students have shown outstanding scholastic achievements in their pursuits of their respective high school curricula.

Evelyn has been active as a member of the Student Council, Math Club, junior and senior play cast, the school paper, school annual, and student librarian.

Evelyn attended Girls State and was named DAR Good Citizen.

Becky has been included in many school activities such as membership in Student Council, Math Club, Future Home Makers, Business Education Club and Girls Athletic Club.

She also served on the school paper and is business manager of the school annual.

"Our sincere congratulations to the senior students on their achievements," states Mr. Spalding.

Mrs. Covell Gets Party On Birthday

BRITTON — Mrs. Byron Covell, who is a patient in the Shelhart Nursing Home, 613 South Evans St., Tecumseh, was honored on her 78th birthday Sunday.

She spent Saturday evening and Sunday in Plymouth as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Covell.

Other guests were her granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hinshaw and two daughters of Lansing, and her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Miller of Howell.

BRITTON BRIEFS

Mrs. Byron Covell received word last Thursday that her sister, Mrs. Mamie Palmer, passed away that day at the Forbes Nursing Home in Plymouth.

Mrs. Palmer was 94. She leaves one son, Vern Palmer of Trenton, a brother, Peter Keller of Northville, one sister, Mrs. Covell, one granddaughter and one great granddaughter of Trenton.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bailey spent the weekend in Chicago visiting their daughter Betty Bailey who is employed with the Santa Fe Railroad there.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rowlands were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Taylor.

√

Lynn Palmer was a weekend guest of his grandfather Emery Downing of County Line Rd.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Robertson of Utica were weekend guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rohrback.

Move To Britton

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zeemen of Monroe have recently moved to 7897 Britton Hwy.

Church Notes

Vital Needs Are Not Being Considered

"Every avenue of communication dwells on evidences of greatness," says the Rev. Allen Wittrup.

"We are led to believe that the size of bombs, planes, aircraft carriers, factories and bank deposits determine our security in an uncertain world.

"Yet there are great needs that men have that are not being taken care of by these things.

"Where can a person find peace of mind, a feeling of significance, firgiveness, understanding and love?" he asks.

"Needs of the Soul" will be the Rev. Mr. Wittrup's sermon topic at the First Methodist Church Sunday at 10 a.m.

The Class for New Members will meet at 3 p.m. in the Social Hall. An invitation is extended to persons interested in membership in First Methodist Church.

Guest Will Fill Pulpit

Albert Riddering will occupy the pulpit at the 11 a.m. service of the Presbyterian Church Sunday.

He is at present on a year's sabbatical leave from his work, under the board of Ecumenical Missions and Relations, of the United Presbyterian Church of the USA at Turner-Hodges in Marida, Yucatan, Mexico.

Brotherhood To Be Stressed

Brotherhood will be stressed at Christian Science church services Sunday.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind" will include this advice of Paul: "Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment" (I Cor. 1.)

THE REV. FR. BEDE DOYLE

Passionist Priest Gives Mission Here

The Rev. Fr. Bede Doyle, CP, a Passionist Missionary from Chicago, will conduct a one-week Mission at St. Elizabeth's Church from Feb. 25 to March 3.

Father Doyle, with the exception of about four years spent as a missionary at the Colored Missions of the Passionist Fathers in Birmingham, Ala., has been engaged in mission and retreat work since completing his studies for the priesthood.

The mission services will be at 7:30 each evening. Non-Catholics are welcome to come.

'Too Much Religion' Is Sermon Topic

"Too much religion" will be the sermon subect of Pastor Paul Brantingham at Tecumseh Friends Church Sunday at the 10 a.m. service.

"People often say, 'yes' I think it is all right to go to church, but one needs to be careful lest he get too much religion."

"The question is" states the Rev. Brantingham, "how much is too much religion for Jesus said, 'except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees ye shall in no wise enter the kingdom of heaven' and again Peter says 'and if it is hard enough for the righteousness to be saved what will become of the impious and sinful.' "

Hearing Aids Are Available Through K Wives

Mrs. Don Judd was hostess Wednesday when the meeting of Kiwanis Club wives was held, followed by a social period of games.

A bake sale, to be staged Saturday, Feb. 24, was discussed, as well as blankets and clothing for a needy family.

Mrs. Gene Tuckey, president, announced that two hearing aids for needy people are available at this time. Anyone desiring information may call her.

The K wives would be glad to accept any donations of used hearing aids that might be repaired and used by a needy child or adult.

Coffee, cake and ice cream were served by the hostess.

Girl Hoopsters Try Rover Plan

The Tecumseh team of the Girl's Athletic Association experienced their first games with roving players.

This type of game allows one forward and one guard from each team to play the entire floor.

These rules are proposed for Tecumseh next year. The Napoleon team has been playing them all year.

Thursday evening the Tecumseh team was victorious over Napoleon 42 to 13.

Betty Barth and Nancy Goodin led the scoring on their own floor and Joy Bays led the play of the guards.

Tecumseh Jayvees won over Napoleon with a score of 19-8. Barbara Colgrove led the scoring with five points.

The varsity girl's defeated Britton Monday night 30-18 with services of a guard required to turn the tide.

Sheryl Moon, first string guard, scored 15 points while playing the third and fourth quarters as a forward.

Her services were demanded when the regulars missed the game because of illness.

Sheila O'Neil and Susan Frost, playing her first varsity game, were outstanding as guards.

The Jayvee's came from behind to win a thriller in overtime by a score of 21-17.

Jessie McKinney made a basket for Tecumseh with nine seconds to play to force the game into over-time.

Miss McKinney and Barbara Colgrove each made a basket in the over-time period to secure the win for Tecumseh.

Jessie McKinney was high scorer for Tecumseh with seven points. Miss Mann scored 11 points to lead Britton's scoring.

Lutheran Ladies Aid Learns Work of Society

Grace Lutheran Ladies Aid society met Feb. 14 when Richard Whelan, congregational treasurer, addressed the members briefly.

Mrs. Burton Goodwin, Mrs. Herbert Simon, and Mrs. Edgar Jordan were appointed to serve as a committee to review the constitution.

It was decided to have the committee of the month act as the visiting committee.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harry Hans, Mrs. Frank Humble and Mrs. Edgar Jordan.

Members were hosts to the quarterly meeting of the Ann Arbor Auxiliary of the Lutheran Children's Friend Society following the meeting.

Mrs. Winifred Gall conducted the business session when the Rev. A. W. Voges gave a report on the financial status of the Society, and also explained the services offered by the LCFS.

The Society maintains offices in Detroit and Bay City, as well as a Children's Home in Bay City.

It handles hundreds of cases each year, offering counseling and help to many families, placing some children in foster homes.

Fewer than 20 children are kept at the Bay City Home.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

TO THE EDITORS:

Let's not confuse the Tecumseh School District four-mill issue.

It's a case of simple economics. The fact is, the Tecumseh school is indebted in the area of $150,000 with no way to retire this debt except by curtailing the school activities or by levying the four-mills.

Incidentally, many thousands of dollars are paid in interest on this debt yearly. (Money down the drain).

As a citizen, taxpayer or parent it is our civic duty to vote YES on the four-mill issue.

Our greatest defense against Juvenile delinqnecy is education. Our greatest defense against communism is education.

Up to this time our school system has been as good as the rest and better than the best. Let's not settle now for second best.

For a few pennies a day, or the cost of ½ package of cigarettes, this debt can be paid by you and I over a period of two years.

Let's give the boys and girls of Tecumseh High School first class education ! ! ! ! Let's keep America free.

Vote yes next Thursday on the four mill levy ! ! ! !

Guest Can't Make Party, So It Goes To Him

A spaghetti dinner was arranged Feb. 8 by Mrs. Leland Fogelsong for the pleasure of her daughter, Deborah, who was observing her sixth birthday anniversary.

The dinner at 11 a.m. followed games and the opening of gifts by the honored little guest.

A heart-shaped cake, decorated with roses made by Mrs. Jack Smith, Jr., was a feature of the meal.

The guests were Paula Brantingham, Bruce Fogelsong, Judy and Kent Sommers, Keith Lochridge, Julie Parros, Sharon Furgason and Michelle Lord.

Brent Lochridge was unable to attend as he was ill with chicken pox. His spaghetti dinner was taken to him at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hill spent Sunday in Swanton, O. visiting Mr. Hills' sister.

Milan Wins 59-48

A big third period by Milan eliminated any hopes of Tecumseh upsetting the league-leaders last Friday night.

Milan posted 20 points to the Indians 10 in the third stanza and went to win 59-48.

John Britton and Norm Tucker paced Tecumseh with 14 and 13 points.

CURRENT LEGAL

RESOLUTION

Meeting of the Common Council of the City of Tecumseh, County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, held on the 19th day of February, 1962 in the Council Chambers of the City Hall, Tecumseh, Michigan.

PRESENT: Mayor Easton, Councilman Bonner, Hamilton, Lamb, Mackin, Schwartz, Welch.

ABSENT: None.

The following Preamble and Resolution was offered by Councilman Welch and supported by Councilman Mackin.

WHEREAS application has been made by St. Peter's Episcopal Church to close and vacate that portion of Evans (now known as Church Street) which is adjacent to the St. Peter's Episcopal Church on the West side of Lot 97, Assessor's Plat No. 1; and

WHEREAS the street is of no utility to the City or to the public and it appears that the vacating thereof would be of benefit to said Church.

NOW THEREFORE THE CITY OF TECUMSEH RESOLVES:

1. That Monday, 19 March 1962 at 8:00 P. M. at the Council Chambers of the City of Tecumseh, situate in the City Hall of 309 East Chicago Boulevard, Tecumseh, Michigan is designated as the time and place at which the Common Council shall hear objections there be. Objections to the closing should be filed with the City Clerk before the hour of hearing.

2. That the portion of land affected by this Resolution is that portion of Church Street (formerly known as Evans Street) the North boundary of which is a line extended from the Northwest corner of Lot 97, Assessor's Plat No. 1 to the Northeast corner of the former Railroad property as so designated on said Plat; the East border of which is described as the West line of Lots 97 and 98, said Plat; the South line of which is a line drawn from the Southwest corner of Lot 98, said Plat to the intersection of the West line of Evans Street with the North line of Shawnee Street; the West line of which is described as the East line of property designated as New York Central Railroad property on Assessor's Plat No. 1.

ORDINANCE DECLARED ADOPTED.

AYES: Unanimous

NAYS: None

Attest: Naomi Sallows

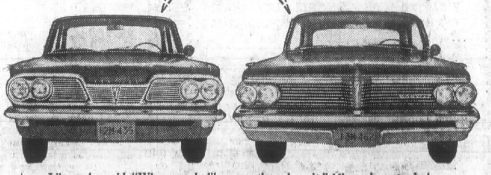
Heard the word? We were third in sales in '61. Third!

It's nice to be loved.



Like we've said: "When people like a car they show it." All you have to do is put together a car that's sharper looking, smoother running and a bigger value That's why Pontiac and Tempest stormed into third place.* Why don't you see your Pontiac dealer (a very happy man these days) and go with a winner?

*Based on final, official R. L. Polk combined Pontiac and Tempest registration figures for 1961.

FIVE POWERED CHECK-OUT STANDS — The new addition at the A & P food store features five powered check-out stands to speed the customers on their way. More than 50% additional floor space will provide easy, convenient and efficient shopping in the many departments of the remodeled three-year-old building. The store at 107 Herrick Park Dr. has been completely modernized and includes a 20 foot addition to the self-service meat counter, a new multi-deck refrigerated case in the produce department. Frozen foods stock is enlarged to include a comprehensive line of fresh-frozen fruits and vegetables, juices and ice cream.

Tuttle Co. Introduces New Unit

H. W. Tuttle & Co. of Tecumseh announce a new series of supplimental electric heaters.

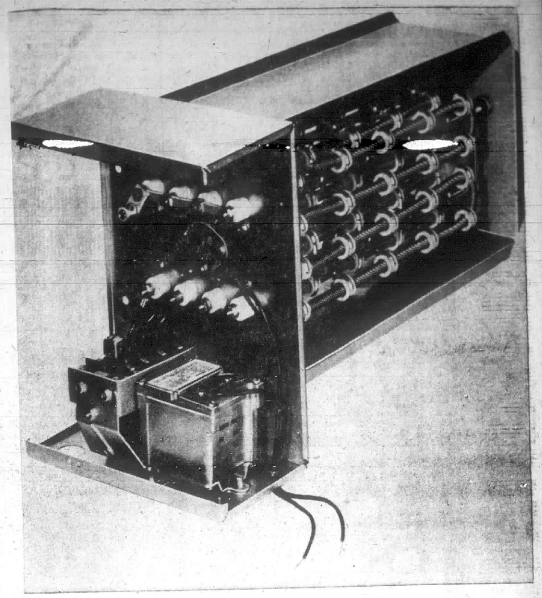
Designed for use with any forced air system, the new 1200 Series incorporates the new Minneapolis-Honeywell R8154 silent switch which provides instant response.

A fan switch is included so there is no need for a separate fan interlock control. The 1200 Series heaters are listed with Underwriters' Laboratories.

Standard models are available to fit most ducts with wattage ratings from 2,000 to 20,000 in each size. Units may be specified for either single or three phase operation.

Installation of the new heater is simple. A hole is cut in the side of the duct, the unit slipped in, fastened with sheet metal screws and wired in.

An installation manual, furnished with each unit, includes wiring diagrams and a performance data chart for each rating.



THIS IS THE NEW UNIT NOW BEING MANUFACTURED BY THE H. W. TUTTLE CO.

Hite Archers Win 3 Points in Match

Six archery teams are shooting Tuesday evenings at the Community Center and extend an invitation to the public to come and enjoy the fun.

They begin activity at 7:30 p.m. Each of the teams has a sponsor.

The team with the highest score for the first half is awarded one point. The second half and the total score are kept the same way with a total of three points in all.

Scores Feb. 13 were:

Hite Hardware defeated Dr. Helzerman, 3-0.

Ernie's Sporting defeated Roberta's Yarn Shop 2-1.

National Industries defeated Smith's Orchard, 3-0.

Older Citizens Booklet Available

A booklet, "Services Available to Michigan's Older Citizens," has just been issued by the Michigan Commission on Aging.

The booklet describes the kinds of services that are available in many communities and indicates how they can be located.

It includes information about using free time, seeking employment, getting health care, getting money on which to live and suitable housing. It also has sections on getting advice and counsel and legal help.

The material on using free time includes information about recreation opportunities, about using libraries, about going to school and about doing volunteer services.

[illegible]ation on getting money on which to live includes information about Social Security, Old Age Assistance, general relief and the relatively new medical assistance program.

The housing section gives current information on assistance in remodeling or building housing that is available to older people themselves from federal sources.

The addresses of five public services available in all or nearly all counties are listed by county.

Copies are available to those who write to our office, 404 Tussing Building, Lansing 7.

Child Study Hears Talk on Happiness

Mrs. Bertram Updike spoke to members of the Child Study Club No. 2 recently.

Her topic was "Gift of Happiness."

She also displayed many pictures made by the kindergarten children and explained that it is always wise to ask the child to explain his picture rather than to attempt to analyze it ones self.

Mrs. Russell Williams was the hostess assisted by Mrs. Stanley Cook and Mrs. Kenneth Kitson.

Animal Valentines made of Tootsie Rolls and pipe cleaners were furnished by Mrs. George Burkhard and Mrs. Richard Lask.

The next meeting will be held March 8 at the Lask home.

Guidance Clinic Representative Is Speaker

Mrs. Dennis Richmond was hostess to 15 members and five guests of the Young Mothers Club Wednesday evening.

The guests were Mrs. Lee Phibbs, Mrs. Curtis Isom, Mrs. Harold Offland, Mrs. Don Cole and Mrs. Robert Schiller.

Paul Diller of the Family Guidance Clinic of Adrian was guest speaker. A question-and-answer period followed his talk.

Mrs. Raymond Seitz conducted the business meeting, which was followed by refreshments served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Jerry Tomecek.

Mrs. William Bale will be the hostess for the meeting March 14 assisted by Mrs. Thomas Kampmueller. A white elephant sale will be held.

Herb Cleveland Accepts Post with Air Force

Herbert L. Cleveland of Adrian has accepted a civil service position with the Air Force Technical Training Command at Wichita Falls, Texas.

Mr. Cleveland is the son of Mrs. Don Cleveland, 5803 Milwaukee Rd.

He resigned his position as civic teacher at the Adrian Junior High School recently.

He had taught in the Adrian public school system for 11 years

He is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and Adrian College.

His wife, Margaret, and children, Mary Jean and William, plan to join him at the end of the school year.

Human Element

A home should contribute to physical and mental health and to spiritual development.

Dr. Gertrude Nygren, a housing authority at Michigan State University, will tell families at Farmers' Week Thursday that health and spiritual development are more important than other factors we associate with housing, such as cost, efficiency, durability, style or prestige.

She maintains that we still have a long way to go before we eliminate all hazards to physical health in houses. Our lighting, for example, is often inadequate.

With regard to mental health, she will say the idea of having individual everything — bathrooms, closets and television sets — has its drawbacks.

"I don't see why we should take the fun and experience from the give and take in everyday living and pay to learn it in nursery schools and sororities," she will state.

"Without a doubt we could do more to foster a religion, the arts, the search for life's meaning," she will assert.

She suggests setting aside places for quiet meditation, for family discussions, for singing, for enjoying fine music or for oral reading of significant books.

Variety of Courses

(Editor's note: This is the second in a series of articles about the industrial arts program at Tecumseh High School.)

A variety of courses are now offered in the industrial arts program, including general shop and metals, machine shop, advanced woodworking and drawing.

Arts and crafts and power mechanics are not presently being taught due to lack of space and instructional time.

Here are the current courses:

INDUSTRIAL ARTS I
GENERAL SHOP

An introduction to the field of industrial arts for the beginning student, serves as the basic course for all advanced work in industrial arts.

Students work in and study the following areas: art metal, leather, enameling, woodwork, metal work, plastic, electricity, finishing, concrete, sheet metal, bench metal, and household mechanics.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS II
GENERAL METALS

To develop a working knowledge of all metal working equipment both hand and power. To develop a basic understanding of welding practices — arc and gas — and working knowledge of foundry operations.

To develop an understanding of the machine metal operation and the skills of hand tools and metal operations such as soldering, riveting, tapping, threading, hemming and seaming in sheet metal, plus an overall view of metal and how it is processed and used.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS III
MACHINE SHOP

In this course, the students are instructed in advanced machine shop practices. Students operate the metal lathes, shaper, welders — gas and electrical — grinder, foundry and heat treat furnaces.

Each student is assigned projects in the areas according to his basic needs. Students work and study in the following areas — welding, sheetmetal, development and metalurgy.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS IV
ADVANCED WOODWORK

Built around machine woodworking. Emphasis is placed on the safe operation of the planer, lathe, universal saw, jointer and mortiser.

A study is made of furniture styles, cabinetmaking, woodfinishing, woodworking joints and terms related to this field.

Students work in the areas of carpentry, cabinet making, pattern making and construction practices.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS IV
POWER MECHANICS

Students are instructed in the fields of gas engines and electrical equipment. Consumer education is stressed in care and use of these.

Laboratory experiences are given in small gas engine and auto engine repair, motor analysis, and repair, electrical and hydraulic systems, electricity and electric motors, electrical wiring and circuits and electronics and transformers.

MECHANICAL DRAWING I

Basic course in drawing fundamentals. Emphasis is placed on lettering, graphic language, views of objects, one view drawings, two and three view drawings, sectional views, dimensioning, auxiliary views, shop processes, revolutions, working drawings, orthographic projection, isometric projection, charts and graphs and blueprint making and reading.

MECHANICAL DRAWING II

Advance work in machine drawing and architectural drawing is stressed. Drawing experiences are given in several areas including cams, gears, stampings, patent drawing, wiring and schematic diagrams, elevations, perspectives and structural drafting, map drafting and production illustration.

Practice is given on the drafting machine and lettering equipment. Many of the assignments are on the individual basis are designed to help the student in his chosen field. Advance blueprint reading is a required part of this course.

JOHN BOYES CONCENTRATES AT MECHANICAL DRAWING BOARD

Lenawee Farms Gets Big Yield Using 'Train' Idea

Mechanization is taking over modern farming.

Agricultural engineers at Michigan State University have found that farmers can plow, apply fertilizer, plant corn and control weeds with one trip over the field.

While the method works well for corn, it also shows promise for other crops.

"Yields with the plow-plant system are equal or better than those with conventional seedbed preparation methods," according to Clarence Hansen of the MSU Department of Agricultural Engineering.

Plow-planting can be done with a one-row planter mounted on the tractor and pulling a three-bottom moldboard plow. A two-row planter can be drawn behind a tractor and five bottom plow.

The plow moves ahead of the seed, fertilizer and herbicide applicators.

Soil firming ahead of the planter can be done with the tractor wheels or press wheels mounted on the tool bar or planter.

Another wheel should firm the soil after planting but before the weed spray application.

☆

HANSEN emphasizes that it is important to do a good job of plowing at the right time. Fertilizer should be placed beside and below the seed. The weed killer should go in a band over the row.

Last year Richard S. Walters, a Lenawee County farmer in Ogden Township, got 148 bushels of corn per acre using the corn planting "train."

In one operation with five tools that trail out to a length of 31 feet, the field is plowed, fertilized, sprayed for weeds and planted.

Walters described the "train" to a Farmers' Week audience and explained that his "train" consisted of two tractors hooked together, a five-bottom plow, liquid fertilization equipment and a corn planter.

He planted 400 acres last spring and reported that the "train" can be easily operated by one man, but it helps if a second can keep the equipment supplied with fertilizer, seed and tractor fuel.

Postal Costs Will Go Up Over $16,000

(Special to the Herald)

NEW YORK — To what extent will the current bill to increase postal rates affect people in Tecumseh, if approved? What will it cost them on an annual basis?

As estimated, local residents and business concerns will have to pony up an additional $16,206 a year.

The measure has already breezed through the House on a voice vote and is now before the Senate. Quick approval of it by that body is also expected.

The scheduled rate rise, $701 million goes beyond the amount sought by the Kennedy administration in its proposal to Congress. It asked for a $621 million boost in revenue to cope with the annual deficit incurred by the Post Office Department.

☆

SOME $455 million of that sum are to come from an increase in first class rates. This will be accomplished chiefly by charging 5 cents instead of 4 cents on ordinary letters.

The measure will also have a big impact on newspapers, magazines and other commercial mailings, with an increase of about $53 million.

Third class mail will also get a huge hike. The bill calls for $79 million beyond the $93 million requested by the administration. This affects bulk mail.

In Tecumseh, in the past fiscal year, a total of $85,284 was spent for stamps and other postal services, according to the official government figures.

This will rise to an estimated $101,490 under the new rates, assuming average conditions locally.

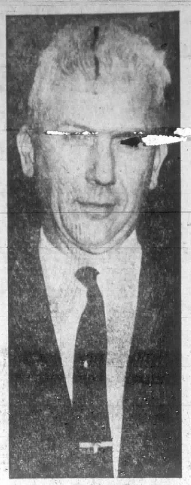
☆

STRONG OPPOSITION has come from the publishing industry, which claims it will be hard hit by the increase.

Users of first class mail are also objecting to the 25 percent rise for ordinary letters, on the ground that such mail is more than paying its way already.

The administration, however, seeks to put the postal service as a whole on a self-sustaining basis, holding that it is purely a business operation and should stand on its own financial feet.

The opposing attitude is that carrying the mails is a public service and that any deficits should be paid out of general revenues.



Guillford Rothfuss, who resides at Wamplers Lake and is employed at the Ford Motor Co., at Dearborn, is taking graduate work at Eastern Michigan University in Guidance and Counseling. Under the direction of John Pobuba, he spends one day at week in the Tecumseh High School guidance department to fulfill the requirements of practicing counseling.

Bridge, Canasta Played by 8 et 40

Mrs. Percy Bowen was the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Fred Marsh, for the Petite Salon 8 et 40 Feb. 12. Dessert was served at 8 p.m.

Following the business session bridge and canasta were played with prizes presented to Mrs. LaVere Mapes, Mrs. Albert Bagshaw and Mrs. Ray Sluyter for bridge and to Mrs. Edward Brooklet for canasta.

The next meeting will be held in Adrian.

Macon Lady Is Teacher of Month

Mrs. Lyle Riddell, 12400 Saxon Rd., was honored at a reception in the hall of Citizenship at the Detroit Historical Museum recently.

Librarian at the Roberts Burns Elementary School in Detroit, Mrs. Riddell was selected February's teacher of the month for work beyond the call of duty" by the Detroit Education Association.

Puplis at Burns have formed a Story-Tellers Club under her guidance and Mrs. Riddell also sponsors a library assistants' group for seventh and eight graders.

These groups often are rewarded for their efforts with excursions to various entertainment programs and picnics at the Riddell's country home near Macon.

Neil DePuy IS Speaker at Dance

Heart-shaped boxes of cinnamon hearts were the prizes won by Gordon Gibson, Pam Williams, Linda Bush and Kingsley Dunn at the Junior High dance held in the Youth House Feb. 9.

The ceiling was decorated with red-and-white streamers with a white ball hanging at the center.

Seven members of the Youth Fellowship of the First Baptist Church went coasting near Tipton Sunday. Drivers were Bill Bishop, Mrs. Glen Griewahn and Mrs. Dick Gray.

Sloppy joes were served at the Griewahn residence following the outdoor fun.

Neil DePuy was guest speaker for the group Sunday evening. He told about sponsoring a Korean child and displayed pictures of orphanages and Korean children.

A skating party is planned for Feb. 15.

Hustlers Wear Pins at Session

Carol and Karen Davenport were the hostesses for the February meeting of the North Franklin Hustlers when seven members and four guests were present.

Members decided to wear their 4-H pins in observance of National 4-H week, March 3-10.

A meeting will be held March 10 at the home of Danny and John Dewey to pack boxes of cookies and cup cakes for shutins.

A donation was made to IFYE for Sharon Ries.

John Kotts will host the March 12 meeting.

Refreshments of lemon chiffon pie and hot chocolate were served by Mrs. Davenport.

European Scenes Shown to ULCW

Mrs. Norman Bless of Onsted presented colored slides of her recent trip to Europe for 17 members of the Gloria Dei ULCW Feb. 12.

Mrs. William Rohweder gave devotions. Salad and crackers were served by Mrs. Floyd Lane and Mrs. Fred Weseloh.

PHOTOS BY HERALD

Taking part in this week's Tecumseh Players' production of "You Can't Take It With You" are these three gentlemen. In the photo above are Tom Corkey and Allen Russell. At left is Ralph Dabe. Mr. Russell, who will play the black-faced role of Donald, is hitting the boards for the first time. Both Mr. Corkery and Mr. Dabe had roles in "Golden Fleecing," which was one of the Players' most successful offerings during its year and one-half of operation. Apparently, Mr. Dabe is being type cast because his roll in "You Can't Take It With You" is quite similar to the one in "Fleecing" — a rather pompous gentleman of wealth. Mr. Corkery goes from a member of the shore patrol in "Fleecing" to a Jman in "You Can't Take It With You."

WSCS Hears Program on Latin America

Mrs. Edna Wilcox, assisted by Mrs. Lenore West, presented a program on Latin America for members of the WSCS of the Methodist Church, Feb. 7.

Katharine Hunt opened the meeting with devotions.

Mrs. Wilcox said that until 10 years ago little missionary work had been done in any of the 20 independent Latin American countries.

Since that time all Christian denominations have established church and schools, mostly in cities of 20,000 or more.

She added that a great need is felt in the rural areas and smaller towns. She closed the program by showing slides she had taken of her trip to South America.

Mrs. Paul Hadsell conducted the brief business meeting when several important announcements were made.

The World Day of Prayer will be held March 9 at the First Baptist Church at 8 p.m. with all churches participating.

The Father and Daughter banquet will be held Wednesday Feb. 21, at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are available from Mrs. Erwin Buss.

No regular meeting of the WSCS will be held in March in deference to the lenten service in the sanctuary March 7.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Walter Hizer and Mrs. George Green.

EVANS CREEK'S BATHING BUNNIES

All last summer Gertrude enjoyed the two baby rabbits who used her back yard as a playground and the ducks' feeding dishes as snack-bars. They made their first visit when very, very small and soon became regulars.

They also became surprisingly tame and would go close to the porch to nibble at the duck's corn.

This became quite a performance—the rabbits seldom noticed or minded that they played to an audience. They were polite and each kernel was chewed and chewed and chewed.

Last summer we did not see many rabbits, just the evidence of their having been here. Tulip and crocus leaves were nibbled off.

In fact, several clumps of tulips were sheared off so evenly, it looked as though they had been cut by hand.

This happens every year, but finally the tulips did beat the rabbits and for the first time, we saw the little striped tulips we planted several seasons ago.

Always before they have been eaten but, at least, two or three blossoms opened between rabbit visits. Very pretty: if they tasted as good as they looked we didn't blame the cottontails.

☆

DO YOU remember how beautiful the nights were several weeks ago? The moon was full, the ground covered with snow and everything was all shimmery and shiny.

The moon-lit window pictures were truly lovely. We thrilled at ours, but Gertrude had excitement in hers as well as beauty.

She looked out one night and there were her summer friends. Now all grown up, of course they were having a wonderful time playing.

Hopping and running, however, builds an appetite, so soon they stopped play and went to the ducks' dishes for a midnight snack.

Someone had told Gertrude that their ducks enjoyed lettuce leaves, celery tops, etc.—some ducks, maybe, but I guess the "neighborhood flock" doesn't realize they are ducks because they completely ignored the green-salad she set out for them.

The rabbits liked it, though, and dug right in. They still had their nice table manners and were very polite. Taking small bites, chewing carefully but fast, they thoroughly enjoyed the lettuce leaves.

No discussion of rabbit acts would be complete without the experience our across-the-creek neighbors, the Orville Laidlaws, had.

They were at lunch one day, maybe it was breakfast but that doesn't really matter, when a big cotton-tail hopped-scotched across their lawn.

He was in no particular hurry. There were no dogs giving chase, but neither was he loitering. Straight for the creek he headed and at the water's edge, with out the slightest hesitation at all, he jumped in and swam across.

Just imagine — our friends could hardly believe their eyes but, while they watched from their window, the rabbit really did swim across the creek.

How's that for a rabbit tale?

☆

SEVERAL WEEKS ago we had much the same kind of thrill A big fat bunny sat for a few minutes under the barberry bushes—a favorite spot by the way—and then with long hops worked his way along the fence towards the creek.

As he disappeared over the top of the bank we had a look at his enormous powderpuff tail —it was bigger and whiter than any I've ever seen.

Out of sight but for a second, he re-appeared at the creek's edge and well, for gracious' sakes—

The creek was frozen over, but because of the day-before warm spell, a shallow but fairly fast flowing stream of water covered the ice.

Our rabbit pussyfooted through this icy water, apparently not minding getting wet, but the slippery underfooting made him step carefully and lift each foot extra high.

Having safely attained the other side with neither a slip or a fall, he shook himself dry, then bounded into the under-brush.

So it is that every once in a while the rabbits in the neighborhood put on some stellar performances and certainly the star act must be "Evans Creek's Bathing Bunnies."

Youths Can Get Jobs, Education

LANSING — Applications will be taken through Feb. 26 for the Michigan State Highway Department's three-year work-study student technician program, the State Highway Department has announced.

Applications must be received by the Civil Service Commission at Lansing by 5 p.m. Feb. 26.

Applications may be obtained from offices of county clerks, the Michigan Employment Security Commission or the Michigan Civil Service Commission.

Civil Service tests will be held early this spring to select 50 students to participate in the three-year program, which includes both on-the-job training and classroom study.

Students will work on various Highway Department jobs such as drafting, design and survey for a period of six months at a salary ranging from $159 to $194 every two weeks.

Students will then attend either Ferris Institute at Big Rapids of Lansing Community College for the next six months.

Students selected for this year's program will begin on-the-job training at construction sites and at Lansing Highway Department offices in July to make full use of the summer construction season.

Class work will start next December.

Any high school graduate under 21, including those who graduate this June, is eligible to take the examination.

Youth Hostels Offers Variety of Unique Trips

The American Youth Hostels, Inc. offers a trips program which puts world travel within the reach of every energetic American.

AYH is a national non-profit organization dedicated to the furtherance of international understanding through low cost educational travel.

Costs are kept to a minimum through use of the more than 3,200 overnight shelters, called hostels, in 34 countries throughout the world; and by getting off the beaten track.

Trip prices are all-inclusive, with the exception of personal spending money, and range domestically from a four week trip up the beautiful Connecticut River Valley, through Vermont, New Hampshire and on to Cape Cod, Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard, at a cost of $170 to the more ambitious seven week Transcontinental trip coast to coast via train and bicycle at $600.

Six to eight week European trips range from the low-budgeted Saddlebag Special at $685 to $1,000 for the exciting package tour which takes youths all across the Continent.

Travel information is available at the American Youth Hostels, Inc., 14 West 8th Street, New York 11, N.Y.

Learing Chinese

Lavely Sharon Ries is really extra busy these days.

The Michigan State University senior from Tecumseh has her regular class schedule in social work—and other extra curricular activities.

Besides this, she is taking special classes in Chinese.

Sharon is preparing for a six-month visit to Formosa under sponsorship of the International Farm Youth Exchange Program.

She'll leave in June, immediately after graduation.

IFYE is a people-to-people program financed by 4-H Clubs, the Michigan 4-H Foundation, local merchants, business and industrial firms, and individuals.

The National 4-H Club Foundation conducts the effort in behalf of the Cooperative Extension Service.

IFYE has "exchanged" about 2,750 young people over the past 15 years. About 20,000 families have been hosts to the young delegates.

A total of 57 Michigan youths have gone to 39 countries, while 115 exchangees from 48 countries have lived with 327 families in the state.

In addition to Sharon, three other IFYE's from Michigan will go abroad this summer and fall. All have excelled in 4-H church, school and community activities.

Beverly Malnar of Route 1, Ewen, northwest Upper Peninsula, will spend six months in Japan beginning in June. Beverly is now a senior at Northern Michigan College in Marquette.

Ferdinand Thor of rural Decatur is going to Yugoslavia.

In September, Robert Harter, rural Carson City, Macomb County, will head for Nepal—a tiny kingdom on the northeast border of India.

SHARON RIES SHOWS SISTER, MARY, HER DESTINATION

VOICE of THE HERALD

Confidence in Tecumseh

When officials of A&P in Toledo Division headquarters decided to enlarge the Tecumseh store nearly 50%, they were voicing renewed confidence in the future of this community.

The job is now complete and the remodeled outlet has its official opening Wednesday.

However, the A&P has unofficially been using the extra section and the housewives seem to enjoy it, especially the increased aisle room.

The comment of one housewife, about how much she liked the wide walkways, reached Cliff Smith, sales manager of the Toledo Division.

"Will this ever be changed?" Mr. Smith was asked. "Will the aisles be filled with displays?"

"No, the aisle belongs to the shopper," he smiled.

We congratulate A&P on its enlarged store.

With This, We Agree

Robert Griffin, Michigan Congressman from the 9th District, is certainly an alert, articulate young man.

He was most impressive in his talk Saturday night at the annual Lincoln Day Banquet.

Mr. Griffin told his audience that work must be started now to get Republicans re-elected to Congress and more new GOP faces there, too.

He underlined the importance of sending a Republican administration to Lansing, putting his full support behind the candidacy of George Romney.

We think that Congressman Griffin is correct.

We know that Mr. Romney would make an excellent governor and we'd like to see a new state team elected along with him.

Voting day may seem a long way off, but there is work to be done. If Republicans expect to get these things accomplished they're going to have to start hustling right now.

Still Thing Called Love

Stories we love to see on the pages of all newspapers are the kind that make a fellow glad he lives in this old world.

Like last week, when we reported the kind deed of 21 Tipton men who felled trees and cut them up for an injured friend.

The man behind the idea and the chap who donated the trees from his land was Melbourne Smith, pictured at the left sawing up chunks of tree.

In these days of international strife and problems, when it would seem that man can't possibly get along with his fellow man, news of an event like the Tipton work bee comes along to give us renewed faith that there still is a thing called love.

Think It Gets Cold Here—Just Read This

PFC Ronald D. Murphy, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy of Allen Rd., is with the 712 Engineers from Fort Devon, Mass. who are now at Tanacross, Alaska in the Great Bear Exercise.

Pvt. Murphy left Massachusetts Jan. 25 with 3,000 other men to join in a training problem to see if they can survive the sub-zero temperature as the army feels the need for more bases in Alaska.

Pvt. Murphy is the son of Mr. and Mrs Elwyn Murphy of Brooklyn, Mich.

Pvt. William M. Wolf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wolf, also of Brooklyn is participating in the training problem too.

The boys are living in a "Tent City" where temperatures reach 79 degrees below zero at times.

Pvt. Murphy's company said the low on record is 87 degrees below zero, but believe it will break the record while they are there.

The boys can only be out in the cold for 15 minutes at a time He says the mountains are beaufrostbite, but nothing serious. He says th emountains are beautiful.

The two Brooklyn boys have not seen each other for a year and so hope to meet soon.

Surprise Leader

Eight girls of Girl Scout Troop 123 pleasantly surprised their leader, Mrs. Merriil Murphy, on her birthday anniversary.

They presented her with gifts and served ice cream and a birthday cake made by Mrs. Francis Packard.

Brynn Packard, Caroline Morley, Kathy Mitchell, Pam Dabey, Cora Murphy, Shirley Fielder, Linda Sinkey and Kay Southard are members of the troop.

What size Chevrolet do you want to save money on?

CHEVROLET IMPALA Room, refinement and riding comfort. Foreground, the Impala Sport Sedan.

CORVAIR MONZA Sports Car spice without a sports car price. At rear is the Monza Club Coupe.

CHEVY II NOVA The frisky family-sized Chevrolet with a low, low price tag. Above right, Nova Sport Coupe.

Like your driving sporty, with quicksilver steering, flat-as-a-pancake cornering, sure-footed traction? Then a Corvair Monza's for you.

Or maybe the new-size Chevy II is more to your liking. Built for big families and still slips neatly into small parking places. And, with this, the kind of ingenious engineering (new easy-riding Mono-Plate rear springs, for example) that won this year's coveted Car Life Magazine Award for Engineering Excellence.

But say you want to go all out—to get the full treatment in space, spirit and splendor. Then there's nothing like a Jet-smooth Chevrolet. Makes paying more pointless.

So size 'em up—then save it up—at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Kureth Stars as Players Score Hit

(Editors note: John Babcock is chairman of the English department at Tecumseh High School and handles dramatic works there. He is also working on his doctor's degree at the University of Michigan in theatre arts.)

By JOHN BABCOCK

The Tecumseh Players presentation of Moss Hart's and George F. Kaufman's play "You Can't Take It With You" proved one thing. After four productions and three directors, they are making progress.

Comedy is the most difficult of theatrical idioms and the fine sense of restraint and timing displayed by the cast is commendable.

As viewed by the modern generation, many of the laugh lines fell flat. But to those who remember the depression years, Queen Mary and the "Red Scare", a stinging attachment could be made.

There were many fine performances given, with the exception of three FBI agents, who apparently thought that the show was a Thursday night version of "The Untouchables".

The other characterizations were consistent. Of note were Eve Bowen's Penelope and Rick Kureth's Martin Vanderhof.

Mr. Kureth seemed to be almost unconsciously playing a real "Grandpa" on a stage full of actors. He anticipated each change of mood and feeling accurately.

SHOW STOPPER—One of the funniest scenes in "You Can't Take It With You" came when Mrs. Mary Bowers, as the ballet dancer, took her lesson from Fred Pokorny while Frank Dalton provided the music. The instructor was so busy talking he forgot his pupils.

THEY WERE TOPS—Rick Kureth and Mrs. Eve Bowen drew star mention in the review of "You Can't Take It With You" by THS English department head John Babcock.

Spring is coming, the Canada geese are heading home.

A flight of between 100 and 150 was sighted Sunday evening about 6 o'clock by a group of fishermen at the Iron Creek Mill Pond, north of Clinton.

Charles Ball, who is spending the winter with the Oram Burkheads, 900 River Acres Dr., reports the good news.

He and companions Ed Claus and Gene Skinner were angling through the ice at Iron Creek when the ganders zoomed overhead.

Best report we've had since autumn faded away.

LIFE magazine's Jane Estes, who works out of the New York office, was in town twice last week.

She tells us that Tecumseh is still in the running — with Fremont, Mich. and two cities from Indiana.

This is for the story we spoke of last week which will follow the dollars as they flow from industry in a small community into the local economy.

LIFE has the yarn slated for April publication. A decision on which town is to be done will probably come this week.

Socialism in America is inevitable, an attractive young lady told me Saturday night as we sat chatting at a party.

Considering the gay surroundings at the time, the tone of the conversation was most foreboding.

This gal is a teacher, recently graduated from college.

She is convinced that eventually this nation is going to fall under the complete domination of socialism.

To her, this seems perfectly OK.

Probably, to many young folks, who have been exposed to some of our bright and effervescent campus dimwits, socialism may seem to be part of our future.

But need it be?

My answer is a firm "NO!"

There are a lot of government lads who would like to take over more and more of this nation's industries.

They'd love to gobble up the entire electrical industry, so they could sell you "cheap" electricity. Only problem would be that the taxpayer would underwrite everything, instead of the investor shareholder who willingly does it to earn a fair return on his money.

Then, they'd like to take over the railroads and steel.

Of course, the real plum would be the medical and dental professions.

Socialism is nothing but a step backwards. Free enterprise, with initiative of the individual playing a key part of our progress, is the thing which has rocketed the United States into the greatest nation in the history of the world.

Our pals behind the Iron Curtain are selling a pretty worn-out dream of paradise — socialism. They say it's the ultimate life and the whole world will be there soon.

The gimmick is that the US already has everything — and in spades — that the Communists say they're working for.

Government has a duty towards its citizens. The United States nominally follows the philosophy of Thomas Jefferson, "Let the people do what they can for themselves and the government do the rest."

This thinking has spirited the tremendous growth of our nation.

And if the government gadflies will keep their hands off, America will continue to prosper and expand.

We need socialism like we need a hole in the head, whether it's in medicine, education, steel or the newspaper profession.

'How Much Ground Beef?' 'Oh, Make It 125 Pounds'

When guests for a spaghetti dinner number about 800, the various ingredients reach astronomical numbers.

Take the pure ground beef, which is a key to tasty sauce. About 125 pounds are required.

That's enough to keep a family of four in hamburgers the rest of the year.

But it will last only about three hours Sunday afternoon when St. Elizabeth stages its annual Spaghetti Dinner.

The doors open at 3:30, with serving continuing until 6:30. The general public is welcome.

Mrs. Eugene Rebottaro will supervise the entire spaghetti making as she has done for the past five years.

She will also use nearly 80 pounds of Italian spaghetti for her locally famous dish.

She will begin her sauce around 10 a.m. Saturday and will cook it for about eight hours.

Mrs. Rebottaro will resume cooking the sauce on Sunday morning until the dinner.

The rest of the menu will include cole slaw, rolls, home made apple or cherry pies, coffee, tea or milk. Take-out dinners will be available.

The candlelight setting will have a fountain on the stage and flowers decorating the room.

Background dinner music will be provided by a stereo hi-fi, made available through the courtesy of Wolf's Tire & Appliance.

Tickets will be available at the door only. Adults are $1.25 and children, .75.

Co-chairmen are Mrs. Ivan Lindstrom and Mrs. Richard Refner.

Services to Start

The first in a series of lenten services sponsored by the Ministerial Association will be held Ash Wednesday, March 7, at 8 p.m. at the Methodist Church.

Dancers, Singers To Perform at 'Caribbean Holiday' Show

Fascinating entertainment is planned for the "Caribbean Holiday Style Show" to be presented Thursday, March 1 at 8 p.m. in the Community Center.

The Madrigal Singers from Tecumseh High School will appear, presenting several calypso numbers.

Dancers from the Tecumseh Peg Harris Studios will also take part, giving some popular Caribbean area dances.

Music will be played by Mrs. Glenn Driscoll on an organ furnished by Grinnell Bros. of Adrian.

Nearly 500 tickets have been sold for the show, which is being sponsored by the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. Nearly 20 door prizes will be awarded to guests.

Mrs. Neville Hart will introduce Fran Wheeler of Delta Airlines, who will be the narrator.

Models for the style show include Mrs. Curtis B. Brown, Mrs. William Damon, Linda Dean, Mrs. J. A. Galazzi, Mrs. Donald Ketteman, Mrs. James Osburn, Mrs. Donald Purkey, Mrs. William Schroer and Mrs. Virgil Tucker.

☆

SINGERS in the Madrigals, under the direction of Miles Cowdrey, are Ann Marks, Judy Martin, Janet Forrester, Jean Preston, Jeanette Allen, Kay Becker, Cathy Merritt, Robert Bonner, Robert LaPrad, Roger Wittrup, Dale Close and Bruce and Greg King.

Dancers will include Anita Krelan, Denny O'Donnell, Christine Kuzma, Debbie Blanchard, Martin Korth, Prudence Thoma, April Dawn Clawson, Susie Smith, Linda Bush and Kathy Keran.

Faraday Plant Job Will Get Started About Mid-March

By JIM LINCOLN

Construction of the new Faraday plant is expected to start here between March 15 and April 1.

The Tecumseh Area Industrial Association received a letter from the Small Business Administration last week confirming telegraph wires received previously that SBA had approved the $380,000 loan.

Since the letter has been received, Council is now expected to authorize construction of water and sewer mains to the plant, and paved improvements of S. Maumee St. and Russell Rd.

Architect Ed Mossing of Tipton, is expected to have plans available next week for local sub-contractors, who have been requested t ocontact Goodrich-Hazen Co., general contractor, at Adrian.

The new plant or approximately 83,000 square feet will cost $504,000. Employment is expected to reach about 300 people when operations are moved here from Adrian late this summer.

Faraday will be the second largest employer in Tecumseh and the second largest tax payer for the community.

Planning Is Vital To Cities

Louis A. Wolfanger of Michigan State University talked about city planning at last week's Rotary meeting.

Every community changes continuously, he said, because this is "a law of life."

Intelligent planning for the future pays premanent dividends to individual citizens and the community in health, happiness and the pocketbook, he explained.

Mr. Wolfanger asked:

► What is happening to your community?

► Is it getting better each year?

► It it going down hill gradually?

► What will it be like 10 years from now?

World Traveler Speaking at '62 Layman's Banquet

Third annual inter-church Layman's Banquet will be held Thursday, March 22, at the Youth House of the First Baptist Church.

Sam Bender will speak, following the dinner served at 6:30 p.m.

Mr. Bender is an engineer, world traveler and Christian layman of Toledo.

This project is sponsored by layman representatives from most churches in the community.

Friendly Concern for Everyone Is Real Brotherhood

The Rev. Paul Brantingham, pastor of the Tecumseh Friends Church, was the guest speaker at Kiwanis last Thursday.

His talk centered on Brotherhood Week.

He gave three reasons why brotherhood is becoming more important:

► The fact that man now possesses the power to destroy human life.

► The world is decreasing in size as men acquires more rapid means of transportation.

► Interdependance between men, which must be based on morality and ethics, the spring and foundation of which is God's law.

The pastor concluded by stating that brotherhood is manifested by a friendly concern for all others—friends and rivals.

Artwork Displayed By Youths

This is the work of an elementary art class taught by Mrs. Richard Kureth.

The young artists range from 6 to 12 years of age, and have met together for six weeks.

They have worked in basic design, sketches from still life and imaginative drawing from poetry reading.

There is also a bust on display, which was an experiment in using styrofoam and plastic for a medium. It was done by Mrs. Kureth and is a study of the head of her youngest daughter.

"You are cordially invited to come to see this interesting exhibition downstairs in the children's room, and upstairs as well, states Mrs. Murray Day, assistant librarian.

Sunny Rays 4-H To Place Display in Store Window

Nancy, Carol and Sharleen Bird were hostesses for the Ridgeway Sunny Rays 4-H Club Feb. 15.

Plans were made for 4-H Club Week, beginning March 4.

Carol and Sharleen Bird, Alice LoPez and Anna Drouillard will have charge of a display to be placed in a local store window.

Games and refreshments followed the meeting.

Jacqueline Dunn Gets Nurse's Cap

TOLEDO — Jacqueline Dunn, 403 W. Brown St., is among the members of the Mercy School of Nursing freshman class who will receive their nursing caps at a special ceremony Sunday, Feb. 25.

The students have successfully completed the first six months of academic and clinical work to merit their caps.

Trading Stamps Sought

If you have a batch of trading stamps you don't know what to do with, here's an idea.

A group of young swimmers, hoping to get to the National AAU meet in California in April, are going to meet travel expenses with trading stamps.

One book will take a swimmer 90 miles.

This is the Ann Arbor Elks Swim Club, organized and coached by Mr. and Mrs. Buck Dawson. Mrs. Dawson is the former Rosemary Mann, daughter of the famous college coach, Matt Mann.

The club will welcome any kind or number of stamps.

For Tecumseh and Britton residents, trading stamps may be left or mailed to Eggleston's Jewelry.

Mr. Eggleston, whose daughter, Pam, is a member of the club, will bring the stamps to Ann Arbor each week.

The Dawsons plan to take five or six girls to the nationals, including June Mori of Tokyo, Japan, a foreign student at the University of Michigan.

Miss Mori is being sponsored by the Dr. Robert Laidlaw family. She is an outstanding diver and will probably compete for Japan in the 1964 Olympic Games.

Retailers To Gather March 2

Members of the retail division, Chamber of Commerce, and their wives will dine together Thursday, March 2 at the VFW hall.

On the business agenda for the evening will be the annual promotional calendar.

Plans for coming sales events were prepared by the division's board last week. These will be submitted to the general membership for approval.

Heading up the division is Carl Lamb.

Others on the board include Don J. Martin, Dick Eggleston, Harold Pickard, Mrs. Sally Pope, Al Snyder and Jim Merritt.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

"I really wouldn't have known him," said one theatre-goer of Al Russell after the play Thursday night. Many others felt the same way, thus complementing the able fingers of Russ Steinke, and his helpers, who did the make-up for those appearing on stage in the production last week of "You Can't Take It With You."

For his role as Donald, the maid's colored boyfriend, Mr. Russell's hair was put in place in small patches, a lengthy process.

Mr. Steinke spent two hours and 40 minutes transforming Mrs. Vic Lawson for her role as the maid, Rheba.

Guests from Lansing of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Turner Wednesday evening attended the play at the Strand Theatre. Thursday evening, relatives of the Turners including his mother, Mrs. Leah Turner of Windsor, were their guests and attended the play.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clough and Mrs. Thomas Brooks, Jr. attended the funeral service of Mr. Clough's brother, Solon D. Clough, last Saturday in Blissfield.

Mrs. Darrell Lowery, who is with her husband Lt. Darrell A. Lowery, stationed at the Toul-Rosieres Air Base near Toul, France has written that he is participating in the helicopter rescue work in Hamburg Germany. The location has been declared a total disaster area. Lt. Lowery is the son of Mrs. Sarah Lowery and his wife is the former Mary Lou Perry.

Mrs. James Blocker, Mrs. Elizabeth L. Wing, and Dr. Arthur H. Brown returned Thursday from Chicago where they have been attending the annual Oral Surgery Clinics of the Chicago Dental Society.

Mrs. Fred Marsh and Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hartsell entertained Mrs. Harry Dernberger, Sharon Coggins, and Charles Hartsell of Pontiac and Mrs. James F. Hartsell recently.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jewell were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jewell of Swanton. O. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. orest Snyder of Palmyra.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Finch of Jackson are parents of a baby boy, David Lee, born Monday at Foote Hospital. He weighed 7 lbs. 3 oz. Mrs. Finch is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Meads of Addison.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zornow and daughter, Renee, returned Saturday from a 4,000-mile tour of Florida, including Cape Canaveral. They were guests of his brother and family at Ft. Myers. Mr. Zornow said that they never had a day when the temperature was below 75 degrees.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bonner, Bob Bonner and Niels Hansen entertained Mr. and Mrs. Charles Figy and Congressman Robert Griffin following the Republican banquet held recently. Mrs. Bonner is a former teacher of the congressman. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Reganall, Mrs. R. D. Walker, Roberta and Mark Vaillancourt, Virginia Ann Hodges, Arthur Collingsworth, and Winfield Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hubbard and sons were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hubbard. Mrs. R. Hubbard flew to Miami from Selfridge Field.

Mrs. Maude Bolender is a patient at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Richard Schwartz of Dover, Del. is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Manchester, for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Seizert returned last Sunday from Van Buren, Ark., where they were called by the death of his brother, Burdette F. Seizert, which occurred suddenly Feb. 13.

James Covell arrived home Feb 17 from the Panama Canal Zone where he had been serving with the Army. He is the son of Mrs. Ruth Covell.

A baby girl, Paula Kay, was born Feb. 22 to Dr. and Mrs. Carlos Knisely at Mercy Hospital in Monroe. The baby weighed 6 lbs. 8½ oz.

SOON THEY'LL BE FILLED — Mrs. Ivan Lindstrom (right) and Mrs. Richard Refner, co-chairmen of the fifth annual St. Elizabeth Spaghetti Dinner, inspect the kettles which will hold the sauce. The kettles were purchased by the Altar Society for the annual dinners. This year's affair will be Sunday with serving from 3:30 to 6:30.

Barretts Moving to Sturgis

The Maples Farm Bureau Group met at the Kenneth Ernst home recently for a farewell party for the Gordon Barrett family, who are moving to a location north of Sturgis.

Twenty-seven members were seated for a planned potluck supper.

Marielle Lugard, exchange student from Holland, spoke and showed slides of her country.

Lester Munger, chairman, conducted a business session and presented the Barretts with a gift from the group.

Attends Meet

Carl R. Powers, 702 N. Evans St., attended the 55th annual meeting of the Mill & Elevator Fieldmen's Association at Hotel LaSalle in Chicago.

Forceful Speaker To Appear as Guest at Monday Club's Family Night on March 19

Members of the Tecumseh Monday Club are looking forward with anticipation to the annual Family Night March 19 at the Tecumseh Grange Hall.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. by the Grange kitchen staff, accredited by some as being the best cooks in Lenawee County.

Professor Milton K. Kelly of the Ferris Institute, will be the speaker.

Club members, who heard him at the annual convention of the Federated Clubs of Michigan last March, agreed that he is a most able speaker on world affairs.

One member said, "He is indeed a man of great insight with ability to express himself."

She continued, "His talk was a challenge to mankind when he asked, "Does Your Social Conscience Sleep'?"

Members of the Monday Club feel it their duty and privilege to share their Family Night with the community and so issue a cordial invitation to all who wish to hear Professor Kelly.

Reservations must be made by March 16 with Mrs. Ralph Westgate, HA 3-2618. Tickets are $2.

Baptist Youth Fellowship Give Advisors Chocolates

A large, red, heart-shaped box of chocolates was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Glen Griewhan Feb. 18 at a Valentine party by the members of the Baptist Youth Fellowship.

The Griewahns are advisors of the group this year. The party was held at their home with Charles Beland, Bill Bishop and Stanley Miller driving members out for a 6 p.m. meeting, before the party.

Devotions were conducted by Pam Brooks on the topic "What'ere Your Race or Sign."

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grey were chaperones for 20 members attending.

Eleven members of the group with Bill Bishop and the Rev. Blair O. Bashore as drivers, attended the George Washington Associational banquet in Monroe Saturday evening.

Sunday evening, the local group sponsored a potluck meal for their parents. Special guests were Mr and Mrs. Roy Dahlke, former advisors, and the Rev. and Mrs. Bashore.

A discussion of recent activities took place before Mr. Dahlke showed slides of Jack Miner's bird sanctuary in Canada.

Tipton Scouts Take Part In Rugged Klondike Derby

TIPTON—Troop 17 of Tipton took part in the Klondike Derby at Camp Kanestake, Feb. 17.

Patrols 1 and 2 made new Klondike sleds for the big race.

Among boys who attended were Collin Burnett, Deward and Ronnie Gaydosh, David Sneary, Joe Vogel and Howard Eisenminger.

Tim Baker, Michael and Richard Jackson, Joe Ohlman, Danny VanSickle, Steve Daniels, Jim Wimple, Ricky Piercy, Norman Jone, David Beaty, Tim Fowle and Richard and John VanSickle.

Troop leaders on hand were Scoutmaster William Kukral, Don Daniels and Richard Eisenminger, who enjoyed the event as much as the scouts.

The Klondike Derby is a rugged Scouting event with ten outposts and check points.

Part of Army's German Exercise

GERMANY Army Specialist Four David A. Linden, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Linden, 4600 Blood Rd., participated in Exercise Long Thrust II, a month-long field training exercise here.

During the exercise more than 6,000 troops from the 4th Infantry Division, which is regularly located at Fort Lewis, Wash., were flown to Europe in one of the Army's largest peacetime deployments overseas.

Units regularly stationed in Germany provided 17,000 combat and support troops for the provide the participating units with long range mobility training and to test their combat readiness.

Specialist Linden, a radio operator in the 7th Army Aviation Group's Headquarters Co. in Ludwigsburg, entered the Army in April 1960 and arrived overseas the following October.

COMEDIAN IS BORN—Duane Steele, as Mr. De Pinna, stole a flock of scenes in the Player's comedy last week. His biggest laugh came when he posed for a painting as the discus thrower—while reading a newspaper. This was Duane's first stage appearance and he scored an immediate hit.

New Words Given Some Old Melodies

Twenty-three voices singing new words to old melodies was one of the highlights of the meeting of the Power Class of the Tecumseh Friends Church February 24.

The group met in the basement of the church for a party built around the Valentine theme.

Improvisations of old songs along with games concerning hearts and love, provided entertainment for the evening.

Mrs. Paul Brantingham was in charge of devotions and was assisted by her husband.

Mrs. Richard Butler, Marjorie Martin and Ardis Drewyor, hostesses, served refreshments.

Guests at the party included Mr. and Mrs. Willis Kilborn, of Milan, former members of the Power Class.

Mrs. Fogelsong Attend Session

Mrs. Lee Fogelsong of Tecumseh Home Products was a recent participant in a kitchen planning workshop sponsored by Tennessee Stove Works, the manufacturers of modern maid built-in ranges and appliances.

The workshop under the direction of W. Paul Breckley II, design editor of Kitchen Business magazine, is one of a series being held throughout the country to acquaint kitchen dealers with the latest trends in kitchen planning and to introduce an entirely new concept of showing a proposed kitchen to a client.

Mrs. Ernest Van Vleet returned to her home Tuesday after undergoing eye surgery at Bixby Hospital.

'YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU'

picked up some of Mrs. Bowen's and Kureth's suburb timing, but these were occasions and not the show.

Diane Fox, as the simple, sweet girl Alice and Sydney Turner as her lover, scaled lesser peaks than Mrs. Bowers and Dalton, but again occassionally. They were never particularly interesting characters themselves.

Fred Pokorny as Kolenkov, and Duane Steel as Mr. DePinna were outstanding comedians. When they were offstage, the audience anticipated with delight their re-entry.

OF THE remaining members of the cast, Virginia Snyder, Dorothy Dabe, Tom Riordan, Marilyn Mengerink and William DePuy deserve mention for their fine characterizations.

Most of the other minor characters suffered from a lack of understanding role playing, forced dialect and inadequate memorization.

The set was rather garish and not in keeping with the mood of the play. The costumes were rather dull and apparently reused in areas, which points out the need for the Tecumseh Players to find an adept director and a costumer to help iron out the rough spots.

Mr. Kureth did a competent job of direction, however it is generally unwise to act and direct the same show.

Tecumseh can be proud of having a cultural group which displays such a nucleus of talent, ambition, drive and interest. It takes an infinite amount of hours to construct a show.

The evening was fine because of the delightful play and I am certain that the audience felt it was an exceedingly pleasant way to spend a snowy winter night.

Woolworth's Opens Credit Plan Here

A new era in merchandising for F.W. Woolworth of Tecumseh begins March 8 when patrons may start charging their purchases.

Applications are now being taken. A short time later charge plates will be issued.

The credit plan has many features, according to John Day, Woolworth manager.

Brittonite's Coupon Is Winner

Henry Filter of Britton was the big winner in last Saturday's weekly drawing held in conjunction with the Florida Vacation promotion.

A coupon he had deposited at Tecumseh's Fabricare Center was selected from the giant container.

Henry's prize: $36 worth of groceries from the local A&P store.

Other's getting prizes last week:

► Lena Judd, 114 W. Kilbuck St.—six guest tickets to Strand Theatre (Coupon deposited at Sluyter's Electric.)

► P. J. Breitenwischer, 615 Outer Dr.—one-year subscription to The Herald (Coupon deposited at Baldwin's Hardware.)

► Richard Covell, 502 Adrian St.—one-year subscription to The Herald (Coupon deposited at Hodges Drug Store.)

This week's top award is being given by Ken Blumerick of Meadowridge Dairy. It will be a one-week supply of milk for a family of four.

If the winner lives on a Meadowridge route, the milk will be delivered, otherwise the lucky coupon owner may pick it up at the dairy.

Other prizes will be the six guest tickets to the Strand and a pair of Herald subscriptions.

Climax to the promotion is rapidly drawing to a close—just two more weeks.

Grand drawing for the week's vacation in Florida on Miami Beach, flying both ways via Delta Airlines, comes March 17 at the Strand.

Last week, 6,243 coupons were deposited at the 39 participating business places. This brings the total to 29,149.

Family Honors Perl Ash

Seventeen members of the family of Perl Ash gathered at the home of his daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jewell on Billmyer Rd. Sunday evening.

The occasion honored the 76th birthday anniversary of Mr. Ash. With the assistance of Mrs. Ash, the family were able to keep knowledge of the party from the honored guest until his arrival.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Snyder, sister of Mr. Ash, from Palmyra, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gilman and family of Willis, Dorothy Jewell of Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tarris of Adrian, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ash and family of Ridgeway.

During the dining hour, Roy Jewell of Washington, D.C. telephoned a birthday greeting to his grandfather.

Belling Held for Couple Just Married

BRITTON — An old fashioned "belling" was held last Saturday on Mr. and Mrs. William J. Eddinger, who recently returned from their honeymoon.

About 20 people met at their apartment on N. Main St. an the couple was pulled around town in a minature housetrailer pulled by a minature car.

Following the ride everyone returned to the couples apartment and enjoyed refreshments of cookies, punch and coffee.

DON'T FORGET COFFEE—A&P manager Al Snyder presents a $36 cart load of groceries to Henry Filter of Britton. This was first prize in last week's drawing as part of the Florida Vacation promotion.

Born In Tecumseh, She Opened First Brokerage Office Just For Women

Special to The Herald

LOS ANGLES — Hazel Zimmerman, pioneer woman stock broker, and a Tecumseh native, died at her home in Hollywood Feb. 9.

Miss Zimmerman started dealing in investments suitable for women 30 years ago in San Francisco, opening the first brokerage office for women which was owned by a woman.

This was at a time when most investment houses would not handle accounts for women under a half-million dollars.

She saw the tremendous need for informing women on the subject of investments and finance and delivered lectures both in the Bay Area and Southern California.

In 1949 she moved her headquarters to 632 South Westmoreland Avenue, Los Angles, where she continued advising investors until her death.

Her courage in invading what was considered a man's field opened the way for other women brokers and contributed greatly to the development of more women investors.

☆

AS EARLY as 1937 her views on the spiral of inflation were quoted by Roger Babson in his book "If Inflation Comes." She was one of the first to sound the alarm.

She was also a personal friend of Bernard Baruch, who commended her on her courage in the investment business. She wrote a financial column for The Los Angles Times and was the first woman to write for The Wall Street Journal.

She contributed articles to the Hollywood Citizen News and The Christian Science Monitor, as well as publishing a monthly market letter "IN MY OPINION," for her clients.

Paralleling her investment business, she was known as one of America's great poets. In the field of poetry she had received all the top awards given in this country including the Eugene Field Award, The Mark Twain Award and the Commonwealth Award.

Her sonnets have been compared by critics to those of Shakespear.

☆

KATHERINE CORNELL felt she was the only contemporary poet whose work could be compared to that of Elizabeth Barret Browning.

She had five books of poetry published and was working on a drama in verse at the time of her death.

She was born in Tecumseh, May 23, 1896 and is survived by a sister, Mrs. Stella P. Jackson of San Jose, California.

She studied music in Chicago which was later reflected in the rhythmic quality of her poetry.

Her early business career included several years in the field of advertising with the Curtis Publishing Company of Philadelphia and later with The Christian Science Monitor in Boston.

Interment was at Tecumseh Brookside Cemetery.

Band Series Will Begin Saturday

First in a series of instrumental school band concerts will be heard in the high school gym, Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

The seventh grade band of 58 members will open the concert with "Erie Canal," "Yankee Doodle Boy," and "Over the Rainbow."

These will be augmented by several solos and duets.

The highlight of the 54-piece eighth grade band will be "Serenade to an Insomniac," featuring Herman, a well-known junior high student.

Other numbers will feature a fine quartet of trombones. Some of the numbers played by the whole band are "The Waltz King" and "Beguine Festival."

The THS Cadet Band will play LeRoy Anderson's "Phantom Regiment," "Slumber Land Suite," and "Desert Song."

One of the features of this group will be "Syncopated Clock," played by the band under the baton of Larry Chase, student conductor.

There will be no admission charged for this event, according to Don Johnson, director of bands.

Poem Tell the Story

Nearly 180 million American hearts fused into one as Col. John Glenn sailed around the world three times last week. This great act of heroism—in the best traditions of our nation—was a thrill that will never be forgotten by those who watched and heard the event.

While many may have thought of writing poetry about the Glenn flight, one Tecumseh citizen, Mrs. Leslie Calhoun, did just that. Her work best tells the story.

Here is the poem.

TO ASTRONAUT JOHN H. GLENN, JR.

By Gloria Calhoun

Astronaut, fearless, through deserts of space
the great fires of dawn you and your Pegasus race!
Your goal, the infinite: destination: the unknown,
Paladin of the sun! You weren't there alone!

The faith and courage of your wondrous deed everyone will remember for centuries indeed!
The stars your court and the earth your throne,
the spaces your dominion, you weren't there alone!

Astronaut, tell me, when you reached the sky and saw one world that silently went by and the regions no one has ever flown, did you look up and see? . . . You weren't there alone!

Unlimited devotion you have given your nation,
that while you rode the world,
every heart has been filled with a great inspiration, because through this big task you let it be well known
YOU WEREN'T THERE ALONE!

Spiritual and Academic Education Vital Pillars

By MRS. MURRAY DAY

Spiritual education and academic education — vibrantly and understandingly taught — are the two indispensable pillars of our American democracy.

Surely these are the things we value above all else for the childrens' sakes.

So let us do with a little less smoking, a little less bowling, a little less pleasure-seeking if need be, so that we can pay the taxes necessary to erase our local school debt.

However, let us emphatically demand of our school board, whose members represent us as taxpayers:

1—That this added millage definitely be used to pay off that debt.

2—That any waste and inefficiency in the use of school funds be routed out through their vigilant action (and ours as good citizens)

3—That, in spite of the increasing numbers on our teaching staff, they make every effort, within the limits of human fallibility, to see that teachers are hired, who command the respect and admiration of the parents of school children.

This is a tall order, but we are paying tall taxes, ever mounting.

As a parent, a farmer's wife, a librarian and a taxpayer, I firmly maintain that good education is worth every cent we may ever be called upon to raise.

But it must be spent wisely and well.

The M Y F Sub-district rally will be held at the Blissfield Methodist Church, Mar. 4 at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Merchant will speak on "Skid Row". The Ridgeway youth will present the devotions.

St. Elizabeth NEWSETTES

Last Saturday the eighth grade boys visited Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit The tour, which lasted from three hours, gave the boys a better understanding of seminary life.

James Greene

The Cubs of the second team were in a tough battle recently when they met Boysville. In the fourth quarter, it was tied 9-9. Boysville dunked the last basket for a win. High scorer for the Cubs was Tom Niedlinger with four points.

Kenneth Bagby

Triumphant shouts were certainly heard all over the Boysville campus on Feb. 11, but not from the Boysville fans. The Cubs won, 35-26. Eric Wilkins scored 21 points for the Cubs.

Marilyn Willis

The eighth grade class had their first meeting under the new officers for this semester. One of the items discussed was class dues and how they might be used. Students agreed to leave some gift to the school in memory of the class of '62.

Michael Velandra

The sixth graders surprised Sally Peterson with a farewell party recently. As it was her last day at school before moving to Muskegon, treats of candy, cake and cookies were served by the girls.

Sally was given a statue of the Blessed Virgin by Sister Mary Alma, O.P., and the class gave her a hand-made bracelet. Later games and records were played.

Barbara Brown

To observe Catholic Book Week, Feb. 18 to 24, and at the same time promote the Catholic Press, numerous projects are in preparation at school.

The seventh graders are preparing reports and eighth graders are rehearsing a skit which will be presented at an assembly this week. The purpose of these endeavors is to encourage and stress good reading.

The seventh grade had a going away party for Joesph Peterson. The class was entertained by Pamula Weasel, who played several selections on the clarinet.

They also enjoyed cookies and cupcakes generously supplied by the refreshment committee, Sharrie Osburn, Elise Buku, Sharon McVay, Joann Biscupski and Cathy Peters.

2 Parties Are Staged at Goodman's

James and John Goodman, assisted by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Goodman, entertained members of the seventh and eighth grade basketball teams this past week.

Thursday evening 15 members of the seventh grade team two managers and Coach Don Bekley and his wife gathered at the Goodman home for an after-game party with refreshments.

Saturday evening, 16 members of the eighth grade team three managers and Coach Dermont Poley enjoyed sloppy Joes and other goodies.

Mrs. John Snyder assisted the Goodmans Saturday evening.

Supervisors Gather Here

The Lenawee County Board of Supervisors was host here last Thursday for the 9th District Meeting of State Association of Supervisors.

Registration and morning meeting were held at the Tecumseh Community Center, and a luncheon and afternoon session at the Union Hall.

Exotic Foods from Other Lands

A buffet table, set with exotic foods of other countries centered with an hour glass portraying the 50th anniversary of Girl Scouting in the United States, was featured at the International Dinner of Junior High and Senior High Scouts Feb. 20 at the Products Union Hall.

The flag ceremony was conducted by scouts from Troops 133 and 136 and the invication by Troop 117.

The troops were seated at tables attractively decorated to represent their chosen countries.

Hawaii — Troop 123, Mrs. Merrill Murphy.

Africa — Troop 117, Mrs. Don Creger.

Mexico — Troop 110, Mrs. Julius Vincze.

Japan — Troop 54, Mrs. Stanley Kruse.

Switzerland — Troop 102, Mrs. Wallace Rutherford.

Denmark — Troop 131, Mrs. Jerry O'Brien.

Ireland — Troop 133, Mrs. James Murphy.

India — Troop 136, Mrs. Stanley Miller.

Italy — Troop 79, Mrs. Howard Morris.

United States — Patrol 8.

The troops presented a program of songs, dances and skits. Some were attired in the native costume of their country.

Mrs. Howard Morris had charge of the dinner and the program. About 90 Scouts joined hands in the "Good Night Circle."

Feb. 21, the Intermediate Girl Scouts held a Thinking Day program at the Presbyterian Church.

Following the flag ceremony, about 60 Scouts, representing six troops, dropped their "Dimes for Daisy" in a wishing well.

Mrs. Joe Rice showed a movie of India. Mrs. Richard Loughney planned the event.

Brownie Thinking Day, with 120 in attendance, was held at the Presbyterian Church Fellowship Center Feb. 22.

Mrs. Richard Eisenminger, representing the VFW Auxiliary, presented flags to the troops led by Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. Robert Bird and Mrs. Charles Hansen.

Mrs. Dora Robinson, district advisor, presented a film on day camping for the group.

Mrs. Jerry O'Brien, chairman, provided a replica of a Swiss Chalet in which the girls dropped their "dimes."

The "Dimes for Daisy" are for the World Friendship Fund, used to help the children of many countries in common ideas and interests. It also helps Senior Girl Scouts to participate in world-wide activities and to send them to "Our Chalet" in Switzerland, "Our Ark" in England and "Our Cabana" in Mexico.

This year the program will be focused on the promotion of Girl Scouting in Latin America.

MACON NOTES

The February Hobby Club meeting was held last Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Carl Hawkins and Mrs. Edward Clark as hostess.

A salad luncheon was served, then the afternoon was spent painting quilt blocks for a baby quilt, making decorations for the Father and Son Banquet, and working on other hobbies.

The group decided to get information about a trip thru the Gilbert Chocolate Company in Jackson. If possible this will be in April. Mrs. Marvin Stotler and son of Tecumseh were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gilmore and Mrs. Herbert Gilmore attended the funeral of their cousin Clyde Knight last Thursday in Clinton.

Confirmation Classes will begin Saturday Mar. 3, for anyone 12 years of age and over who desire to learn about church membership. Materials must be ordered, so it is important to contact the pastor at once.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Scudder and sons entertained the Merry Makers Farm Bureau Group last Tuesday evening. Following the meeting and discussion, homemade ice cream and cake was served.

Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore spent last Wednesday in Flint attending a Vacation Church School Institute. Mrs. Freda Kay of Dundee also attended

Mrs. Truman Jordan spent Sunday with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rathbun in East Lansing.

Photographs To Be Shown

Photography In The Fine Arts, an international exhibition of the finest work in contemporary photography as selected by a jury of 12 distinguished art experts, will be shown at the Toledo Museum of Art from Sunday, March 4 through March 25.

Why have so many of my neighbors switched to
Hy-Line Layers?

Answer:
Because so many poultrymen have decided that in good times or bad, they can't afford any other brand! They've analyzed results of official Random Sample Tests. They have talked with other poultrymen. They have tried Hy-Line layers in their own laying houses. They have seen firsthand that trim, thrifty, high-producing Hy-Line birds are today's most profitable layers. That is why Hy-Line birds are the world's most popular layers . . . by far.

Memoriam

MEMORIAM — In loving remembrance of Lucile M. DePuy who passed away one year ago Feb. 27, 1961.
Seems the Lord was quite a little selfish like. When he took away your loving smile,
But instead I know, I should be glad — him so, Because he left you with us for a while.
Greatly missed by her husband and family. M1,p

Church Notes

'Why Lent' To Be Topic of Sermen

"Wednesday, March 7, is the beginning of Lent, one of the most glorious seasons of the year. Our souls thrill to the uplift that comes in these special days," said the Rev. Allen Wittrup Monday.

In order to appreciate more fully the significance of Lent, the Rev. Mr. Wittrup of the First Methodist Church has selected as his topic "Why Lent?" for Sunday, at 10 a.m.

A special meeting for elections in the Senior MYF for 1962-63 is called for 6:30 Sunday at the parsonage. All 10th, 11th, and 12th grade youth are invited to be present.

Ash Wednesday Services:
6 a.m. — Holy Communion for Men. Come dressed for work
6:30 a.m. — Rolls and coffee
10:30 a.m. — Holy Communion for those unable to go to sanctuary — service in Social Hall
6 a.m. — 7 p.m. — Holy Communion in sanctuary for everyone
8 p.m. — Union Lenten Service with the Rev. Julian Gresham speaking.

'For God So Loved the World'

"For God So Loved the World" is the theme of the World Day of Prayer service to be held in the evening this year.

The First Baptist Church will be the host church for the event on Friday, March 9 at 8 p.m.

A nursery will be provided for small children of those attending.

Special music will be featured. Other participating churches are the Methodist, Presbyterian, Gloria Dei Lutheran and St. Peter's Episcopal.

Value to Man

Value to all mankind of the healing ministry of the Master will be stressed at Christian Science church services Sunday, in a Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Christ Jesus."

Luke's account of the healing by Christ Jesus of the man with the dropsy will be included in the Bible selections.

We Should Strive To Please God All Ways

Pastor Paul Brantingham of Tecumseh Friends Church will speak on "Pleasing God" Sunday at the 10 a.m. service.

"The most acceptable way to worship God is to live, striving to please Him in everything," the pastor states.

Certainly a Christian will live a Christ-like life and for one to claim to please Christ without a corresponding concern for the best interest of others is contradictory," he adds.

Pastor Brantingham reminds:
► The Christian employee should be the most dependable.
► The Christian merchant should be the most exemplory.
► The Christian teacher should be the most cooperative.
► Too often the Christian cause has been handicapped by undependable, uncooperative, un-Christlike professors of religion.

Methodists Will Observe Ash Wednesday

The Rev. Allen Wittrup of the Methodist Church has announced plans for a unique observance of Ash Wednesday, March 7.

Men of the church will meet for Holy Communion at 6 a.m. They will come dressed for work. Rolls and coffee will be served following the communion.

At 10:30, the same morning Holy Communion will be observed in the social hall for those unable to climb the stairs to the sanctuary.

An upper room table communion service, where participants will be seated as was Jesus and his disciples, will be used.

From 6 a.m. until 7 p.m., the sanctuary will be open to anyone desiring to take communion.

The Rev. Mr. Wittrup invites anyone, whether a member or not, to come and participate.

Friends Hold Special Service on 'World Day'

A special observance of the World Day of Prayer will be held March 9 at the Tecumseh Friends Church.

"The Church — purchased with His own blood," is the theme for the observance this year. Emphasis will be placed on prayer for Christians in many areas of the world where worship and witnessing are restricted or prohibited.

Local services will be held at 7:30 and the public is invited to attend.

Disabled Vets Get Tax Slice

Many disabled war veterans and widows of war veterans have yet to apply for property tax exemption.

The amounts, according to City Assessor Cal Zorn, will average about $80 each.

Disabled veterans of WW I, WW II, Korean Conflict and other wars and widows of veterans who were in these wars are eligible.

Unless they register at city hall, with Naomi Sallows or Mr. Zorn, they will have to pay all their property tax. If registered, the state will pay a portion of the tax.

Last date to register is March 26.

25 POUNDS OF FISH IN A MORNING—Kenneth Wallace, 213 S. Oneida St. and Dennis Harrison, 1104 Sunset Dr., speared eight pike on Goose Lake near Cement City Feb. 19 in 2½ hours. The fish average three pounds each. With such good luck the fellows planned another trip to their ice coop for Wednesday.

Indians Draw Jets for Tourney Opener

The up-and-down Tecumseh Indians picked the hottest team in the Huron League for their tourney opener — Airport, Friday, March 9 at 7 o'clock on the Dundee hardwood.

These victims of the league champs, Tecumseh will be decided underdogs against the Jets, who have lost but one game.

Fans have one hope. The Indians are a tourney team, and many remember a few years back when Tecumseh supposedly was outclassed against a big and rugged Monroe Catholic Central five — and won handily.

Coach Murdoch's Closing Schedule Against GI Five

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh, victors last Friday over Ypsilanti Lincoln, 52-35, closes out the regular season here Friday night against Grosse Ile.

A win here over GI could boost Coach Doug Murdoch's record in the Huron League to 6-7.

After a slow start against Ypsi, the Indians rolled to an easy victory and their second win over the Railsplitters.

The middle two periods cracked the Ypsi game wide open. After rallying for a 12-10 lead at the end of the first quarter, the Indians collected 30 points in the next two stanzas while holding their opponents to just 16.

Norm Tucker paced all scorers with 13 points. Mike Osburn, starting his first game, made seven and proved valuable on the bankboards.

Nineteen points in the third quarter proved enough to win for the Jayvees, winners over Ypsi five, 39-33.

Clark Nichols and Jim Newell stripped the nets for 11 points. Jim Baker scored eight, Bill Thomas seven, and Jeff Osburn two.

Ten Best Archers Compete

Archers from Tecumseh, Adrian and Ypsilanti will clash March 11 in Ypsilanti.

Ten persons will compete for each community.

Another triangular shoot will be held later in Tecumseh, at the league's range in the basement of the Community Center.

Top local archers will probably be selected at the league's session next Tuesday night at 7:30 in the Center. The public is invited.

The five-team circuit holds matches each week.

CMU Seeks High Look At Adrian

MT. PLEASANT—An exhibition of "Bird's Eye Views" of Michigan cities and towns during the last century being held at the Clarke Historical Collection of Central Michigan University includes a view of Tecumseh in 1868.

Thus far the Clarke Historical Collection has been unable to locate a copy of a "Bird's Eye View" of Adrian.

Mr. Cumming says that he is still searching and awaits each spring with hopes that the annual spring house-cleaning will turn one up in somebody's attic.

"Few Michigan cities rival Adrian in historical and cultural achievements. That is why we are anxous to include Adrian in our large collection of these interesting views," said Mr. Cumming.

Several Offices Will Be Filled at Eagles Session

Nomination and election of officers will be held Tuesday, March 6, at the regular meeting of the Eagles.

Several vacancies are open, including offices of the secretary-treasurer, inside and outside guards and the vice-president.

Officers urge that the members attend and vote.

Family Credit Program Topic at Club Gathering

The Northeast Extension Club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Bailey, with 11 members and one guest, Mrs. Robert Bagdon, present.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. Elmer Wilt with members responding to the roll call with a patriotic quotation.

The project leaders, Mrs. Ellsworth Robison and Mrs. George Dinius, presented the lesson on "Managing the Family's Credit."

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Clifford Southard.

Raisin Cane 4-H Has Four New Club Members

An election of officers will be held at the meeting of the Raisin Cane 4-H Club at the home of the leader, Mrs. William Osburn, on March 3.

Anyone between the ages of 10 and 21, who is interested, is welcome to attend the meeting beginning at 7 p.m.

Plans for summer projects will be made.

Sue and Nancy Ford and Sue and Carol Allen are new members of the club.

EIGHTH GRADER DICK MOON (20) DRIVES DOWN COURT

Indians 7th Graders Win Tournament, But 8th Grade Is Beaten

Tecumseh's seventh grade defeated Blissfield's seventh and Dundee's eighth grade won over Tecumseh's eighth grade in the finals of the Tecumseh Junior High School Invitational tournament here Saturday night.

More than 300 spectators attended the tournament finals at the high school gym Saturday night.

Neither contest was decided until the final minutes.

Highlight of the evening came in the seventh grade game when Jim Goodman of Tecumseh stole the ball in Blissfield's back court with but five seconds remaining.

His lay-up just before the final horn, broke a tie, winning the game for Tecumseh, 18-16.

Although Tecumseh's seventh grade had defeated Blissfield in two previous encounters this season, it looked, until the final minutes, as if this might be Blissfield's game.

Blissfield led at the end of the first three quarters.

Blissfield held the lead with 20 seconds remaining. A foul shot by Dean Hebb tied the score, and at this point it looked as if this game would go into overtime, when Goodman's steal and following lay-up ended the game.

Terry Bates led Tecumseh scoring with six, as Anderson of Blissfield led his team also with six.

☆

IN THE eighth grade contest, it looked as if undefeated Dundee would run into the same trouble that it did last year when it entered the tournament undefeated, only to lose the finals to Tecumseh.

Tecumseh led, 18-16, at the end of the third quarter. However, Tecumseh's inability to cash in on lay-ups in the final quarter, coupled with Dundee's eight points picked up at the foul line, gave the Vikings the eighth grade championship, 26-20.

Tecumseh's aggressive defense, while keeping Dundee from shooting outside, in turn gave Dundee 30 attempts at the foul line from which they collected 14 points.

Bob Kroeger was high for Dundee with eight points, with Tod Karner and Jim Bowman collecting seven points apiece.

High for Tecumseh was Ed Brazee with seven points.

FFA Elects Larry Shea

Larry Shea was elected president of the Tecumseh Chapter of the Future Farmers at a recent meeting conducted by President Dean Van Nest.

Others elected to office were:

Vice president — Carl Bower
Secretary — Larrie Eaton
Treasurer — Gary Korte
Reporter — David Woods
Sentinel — Dean Marks

Officers will attend a Leadership Training School at Camp Palmer in Ohio in June with their adviser, Paul Burns.

Larry Shea was again honored when he was selected Future Farmer of the month.

The broiler project was discussed and members decided to start another batch as soon as the house was moved to a new location.

Eric Robison is to have the broilers this time.

Good Citizenship Tea Is March 9

The Good Citizenship tea, sponsored by the Abi-Evans Chapter of the DAR, will be held Friday, March 9, at the home of Mrs. Joe Rice.

'Leaders of Tomorrow" is the title of the program to be presented by Mrs. Fred C. Dickinson.

EIGHTH GRADE RUNNERS-UP—In the eighth grade finals, Tecumseh's entry was downed by Dundee, but the crew still had a fine year under Coach Dermont Poley. Front row, from left, Ed Brazee, John Goodman, Dick Moon, Gordon Gibson and Doug Hall. Center row, Ron Rentschler, Phil Barber, Terry Alcock, Tim Heflin and Jim VerHage. Back row, Rick Gartee, manager; John Synder, Ron Boltz, Coach Poley, Tim Dickinson, Sheldon Pease, Mac Meyer and Gary Hall, manager.

SEVENTH GRADE CHAMPIONS—Tecumseh's squad won the annual Junior High Invitational Tournament under the tutorage of Coach Don Berkley. Front row, from left, Tom Stores, Scott Edwards, Dean Hebb and Ricky Filber, manager. Second row, David Kennel, Jim Goodman, Coach Berkley, Lee Lemerand, Henry Mensing, Fred Staup. Terry Bates and David Radant, manager. Top row, Doug Bugbee, Larry Fairbanks, Philip Browne, Bob Powell, David Damon and Ron Packard.

Sharon Claxton Feted at Shower

BRITTON — Sharon Claxton was honored at a bridal shower in the Elmer Eberhardt home.

The buffet table was lovely in shades of violet. The violet theme was carried throughout.

Yellow covers were used on the card tables with violet decorated hurricane candles. The door prize was a pot of violets.

One of the prizes given to the guest was a violet tray.

Party bridge was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Joe O'Neil, Mrs. Kenneth Zarnow, Mrs. Phyllis Patterson and Olerin Sposito.

Guests included Mrs. Robert Hogkstra, Mrs. Donald Judd, Mrs. Richard Coak, Mrs. Jessie Sluyter, Mrs. Kenneth Zarnow, Mrs. Velma Kuster and Mrs. George McCombs of Tecumseh, Mrs. John Sposito and daughter Cheryl and Mrs. Verna Meyers of Jackson and Mrs. Patrick Connors of Deerfield.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Archie Spohr and Mrs. Glen Cripton.

Miss Claxton and Dr. Richard W. Sundling will be married March 10 in the Congregational Christian church at Britton.

BRITTON BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown were notified last Wednesday of the death of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Clifford Gobba of Saint Aiens, Oregon, who passed away Feb. 15.

A private funeral was held at Portland, Oregon with burial in Portland.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murphy of Britton, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Everett of Tecumseh, left Saturday morning to spend some time in Florida.

√

Mrs. Herman Bates entered Herrick Memorial Hospital last Tuesday and underwent surgery Wednesday morning. She is improving and expects to be home this week.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rowlands and Susan spent Sunday afternoon visiting Mrs. Rowlands' mother, Mrs. Pearl Baird, who is a patient in Mercy Hospital, Monroe.

Mrs. Baird is suffering from a broken ankle as the result of a fall in her home Friday evening.

They were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foster and family of Monroe.

√

Mr and Mrs. Joe Karmann of Ypsilanti spent Friday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goetz and family of Ann Arbor were Friday evening dinner guests of the Browns.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Palmer and family were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl June of Clinton.

√

Dr. and Mrs. Russell J. Wood and family of Wayne were afternoon and supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rohrback and family.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Frayer entertained Sunday for their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Gripton. It was the 91st birthday of Mr. Gripton.

Out-of-town dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gripton, Mrs. Margaret Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis and son Gary, Judy Grzesiek of Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Waterbury and sons of Ypsilanti and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Gripton.

Still Third in State

BRITTON — Coach Sam Hamilton's Britton-Macon Tories still maintain their lofty state rankings as No. 3 among Michigan Class D hoop crews.

The Torie five will close its regular season Friday evening by entertaining Deerfield. It will be a shot at win No. 16, with the River Raisin League title all wrapped up.

The Tories got the crown Friday night by disposing of a stubborn Whiteford quintet, 53-47, before 1,500 fans.

Coach Hamilton can be thankful he had a lad named Tom Komon around for the Bobcat fray. It was Tom who flipped in a key bucket after stealing the ball to ice the contest.

Tom's rebounding was outstanding and he took over for giant Phil Benedict, who had to sit out much of the action because of four fouls.

Tom paced the scoring with 15 points, 12 of which came in the fourth period when Britton finally took control of the game. Benedict had 12 and Larry Hummel added 12.

In the junior varsity game, Whiteford won, 51-28.

Mothers Club Ready for Pancake Supper

BRITTON — The Boy Scout Mothers Club made plans for the Annual Boy Scout Pancake Supper at their meeting in the Township Hall last Wednesday evening.

Pancakes, sausage, homemade pie and coffee will be served in the Britton-Macon School cafeteria starting at 5 p.m. Thursday, March 15.

Tickets may be obtained from the boys. $1 for adults and children 3 to 12, 50c.

Joyce Billau Among Class Confirmed

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Billau entertained Sunday for their daughter, Joyce, who was one of the class of nine confirmed at the Emmanual Lutheran Church that morning by the Rev. James Moehring.

Dinner guests were her sponsors, Mrs. Andrew Grimm and Louis Finzel of Detroit, Mrs. Grimm and daughters and Mrs. Finzel.

Joyce's grandmother, Mrs. Sophie Billau and daughter Mrs. Ruth Krauss of Ridgeway were also dinner guests.

Open house was held in the afternoon and 5 relatives from Detroit, Ann Arbor, Milan, Dundee, Waldron, Onsted and Britton were served a buffet luncheon.

A feature of the table was a cross cake, which was baked and decorated by Mrs. Finzel.

Many gifts were opened by the honored guest.

Mrs. Maschino's Latest Millinery Creations Are Modeled By Club Members

BRITTON — The Britton Women's Club met last Tuesday afternoon at the Britton branch of the Lenawee County Library.

Mrs. Walter Prill conducted a short business meeting and told the ladies of the coming trip, which the club plans to take to visit the Ypsilanti State Hospital Tuesday, March 20.

Members may invite guests and they will meet at the home of Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt at 12 noon.

Mrs. Earl Taylor, Mrs. Gustav Hannevik and Mrs. Bert Moore were appointed to serve on the nominating committee.

Mrs. Robert McCrate, program chairman introduced Evelyn Graham, a senior at Britton-Macon High School and Marie Schober, a sophomore, who gave reports on the books entitled "Jane Eyre" and "A Man Called Peter".

Mrs. Ernest Maschino displayed a few of her latest creations in millinery. Some were modeled by members of the club.

Eberhardts Entertain For Julie

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt entertained Sunday in honor of the baptismal of their infant granddaughter, Julie Lynn Judd.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Al Kershenbauer and son Eric of Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Judd, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Judd and Julie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoekstra and daughtres Susan, Peggy and Betty of Tecumseh.

Mrs. Verna Meyers of Jackson, Pat Eberhardt of Eastern and Ford Exelby were also on hand.

Julie Lynn was baptized at the morning church service of the Congregational Christian Church.

Mrs. Clay Croll Leads Devotions for Martha Circle

BRITTON — The Martha Circle of the Britton Methodist Church met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ernest Maschino with six members and two guests present.

Mrs. Clay Croll led the program on "This is My Church." She was assisted by Mrs. Ed Kanous, Mrs. Fred Schober and Mrs. George Luciani.

Mrs. Kanous, vice-chairman, conducted the meeting. All members are to report shut-in calls at each meeting.

The next meeting will be Thursday, March 15.

Hoop Stars Get Awards

BRITTON — Terry Godzina and Mike Gordon were surprised with a basketball trophy Friday afternoon at pep session.

Terry was presented the award for the most valuable player on the seventh grade team and Mike for the most valuable player on the eighth grade team.

John Korican, the junior high basketball coach, made the presentations.

GAC Cage Squad Wins From GTS

BRITTON — The GAC basketball team beat girls training school, and Britton 50-17, Monday night.

As there was only one game, Britton's JV's played the first half and the varsity the second half.

Sharon Mann scored five of Britton's nine points against GTS 12 in the first half.

When the varsity came in the tables were turned.

Three girls took the honors in scoring 41 points.

Judy McClue was high with 18, Susan Rowlands had 12 and Janice Ehlert made 11 points.

Susan Bottorff was Britton's captain.

Following is the score by quarters:

GTS	5	12	16	17
BRITTON	7	9	26	50

The Britton cagers will travel to Tecumseh for a game Thursday evening.

Posts High Score at Echure Session

BRITTON — Mrs. Jim Johnson entertained the G-8 Club in her home on Welch Rd. last Thursday evening at monthly euchre session.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. William Higginbotham for high score. Mrs. Kenneth Knudson had most lone hands and Mrs. Paul Rowlands low score.

55 Surprise Two Young Hoopsters

BRITTON — Fifty-five classmates, friends and relatives gathered at the Britton school study hall for a birthday for Verl Sanch, Jr. and a surprise on Roger Bortel.

The hall and gift table were decorated with balloons streamers and "Happy Birthday" to each behind the tables.

The serving table was covered with a birthday tablecloth and candles with animals climbing them.

The double cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Virgil Bortel. It featured a basketball player shooting at the basket, surrounding the cake was green and red blossoms.

Dancing, card playing and games were enjoyed.

Refreshments were served by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanch and Mrs. Walter Prill.

Both boys received many gifts.

Tamie Is Four and Friends Help Her Celebrate

BRITTON — Tamie Gibbs was honored on her fourth birthday at a party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gibbs, last Thursday afternoon.

The theme was kittens, which was carried out in the decorations. A heart shaped cake, baked and decorated by Tamie's aunt, Mrs. Wayne Dunbar, centered the refreshment table.

The five little girl guests who helped in the celebration were Lorie Monagin, Kim Banks, Lisa Dunbar, Julie Osterhout and Tamie Fairbanks.

Mrs. Godzina May Write Teen Book

BRITTON — Thirty teenagers attended a Victory Party at the home of Connie Godzina Friday evening after the Britton-Whiteford basketball game.

The kids enjoyed dancing and playing cards.

Mrs. Chet Godzina served sandwiches, chips, pop, relishes and cookies to the group.

Some of the youngsters were snowbound and spent the night in the Godzina residence after spending several hours trying to shovel their way out.

Mrs. Godzina remarked that she had enough material to write a book and thought an appropriate name would be "Snowbound With Seven Teenagers."

Township Lessons Are On Agenda

BRITTON — The Maconettes Extension Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Wesley Gilmore Tuesday, March 6 with Mrs. Walter Rowe as co-hostess.

Because the February meeting was postponed the project leaders will present township lessons.

They are "Trends in Major Household Appliances" and "Managing Family Credit".

SCHOOL MENU

Monday, March 5—Barbecued beef on bun, buttered corn, relishes apple sauce, cookies and milk.

Tuesday, March 6 — Roast pork and gravy, mashed potatoes, carrot salad, bread and butter, sliced peaches and milk.

CURRENT LEGAL

RESOLUTION

Meeting of the Common Council of the City of Tecumseh, County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, held on the 19th day of February, 1962 in the Council Chambers of the City Hall, Tecumseh, Michigan.

PRESENT: Mayor Easton, Councilman Bonner, Hamilton, Lamb, Mackin, Schwartz, Welch.

ABSENT: None.

The following Preamble and Resolution was offered by Councilman Welch and supported by Councilman Mackin.

WHEREAS application has been made by St. Peter's Episcopal Church to close and vacate that portion of Evans (now known as Church Street) which is adjacent to the St. Peter's Episcopal Church on the West side of Lot 97, Assessor's Plat No. 1; and

WHEREAS the street is of no utility to the City or to the public and it appears that the vacating thereof would be of benefit to said Church.

NOW THEREFORE THE CITY OF TECUMSEH RESOLVES:

1. That Monday, 19 March 1962 at 8:00 P. M. at the Council Chambers of the City of Tecumseh, situate in the City Hall of 309 East Chicago Boulevard, Tecumseh, Michigan is designated as the time and place at which the Common Council shall hear objections there be. Objections to the closing should be filed with the City Clerk before the hour of hearing.

2. That the portion of land affected by this Resolution is that portion of Church Street (formerly known as Evans Street) the North boundary of which is a line extended from the Northwest corner of Lot 97, Assessor's Plat No. 1 to the Northeast corner of the former Railroad property as so designated on said Plat; the East border of which is described as the West line of Lots 97 and 98, said Plat; the South line of which is a line drawn from the Southwest corner of Lot 98, said Plat to the intersection of the West line of Evans Street with the North line of Shawnee Street; the West line of which is described as the East line of property designated as New York Central Railroad property on Assessor's Plat No. 1.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

A SNOWY SUNDAY

What a wonderful surprise to wake up, take a sleepy look outside and see a twisting, twirling snowstorm. I really mean it — winter is far from my favorite season, but if we must have it, and it appears that we must, our cold months can at least be pretty.

This was indeed pretty. It was snowing hard, the flakes were large and a crisp wind made them dance.

Sunday morning breakfast is one of our favorite meals, the folks don't have to hurry off to work and so we enjoy rather leisurely dawdling over second cups of coffee.

This particular morning we had company. While we ate coffee cake, a big fat fox squirrel consumed a hearty breakfast of corn and sunflower seeds at the feeder.

This was a hungry squirrel—he sat right there and let the snow pile up on his back and head until he was white. His tail was for some reason not held over his back umbrella-wise, but instead lay limp and oh so bedraggled looking on the feeding tray.

Occassionally he flicked his tail or shook some snow from his back, but his main concern was food, and so our breakfast companion looked like a snowman most of the time.

☆

WE ENJOYED our hungry visitor, but other friends were waiting for their breakfasts, they were hungry too, and I am sure they did not appreciate the squirrel's long stay

Birds were everywhere, just waiting for a chance at the feeder when finally their turn came. Papa Cardinal was the first in and he started what turned out to be one of our best cardinal days ever.

Eight of the red beauties were around and often they were all in sight at once.

In the corn-tree, on the feeder, in the wren-tree, on the fence, in the little evergreen, sitting on the new white snow or flitting from one place to another, the handsome males and their women-folk were more than busy.

We have said it before and will probably be guilty of repeating it again and again, but there are mighty few things which can beat a window picture white with fresh new-fallen snow and alive with brilliant cardinals.

☆

OF COURSE we had many other visitors too. Living up to their winter-loving reputations were the chick-a-dees, juncos and tree-sparrows. They had a ball.

Gusts of wind which blew snow in regular clouds from the roof bothered them not a bit. Sometimes chick-a-dees seem to have nerves and emotions triggered by bad weather - the worse it gets the happier they become.

Needless to say, with so much going on outside, we did little but look. Mom had income tax to work on, Dad a basement to clean, and my reading table was piled high with a half-read book and several new magazines, but what did we do — bird watch.

The mourning doves were not so happy with the weather, two or three would sit on a limb all huddled together against the snow and wind.

The up-side-down nuthatches, the tufted tit-mice and the downy woodpeckers ate until we thought they would burst.

☆

BEING out-side in the cold does something for all appetites.

Late in the afternoon, when the snow started to let up, a big beautiful flicker surprised us. Like everything else he too was ready for a hearty meal.

What a fine way to end a day and incidentally end a film. He was so intent upon eating that I doubt if he even noticed the flash and click of the camera.

So it is that we had a wonderful time and thoroughly enjoyed a snowy Sunday.

St. Elizabeth JOTTINGS

Students were pleased to see three Sisters, who were former teachers of St. Elizabeth School, several weeks ago when they came for the funeral of Mrs. Norma Flynn. The sisters were Sister Anne Xavier, O.P., Sister Rose Frederick, O.P., and Sister Mary Michele, O.P.

On Feb. 12 the seventh and eighth grades celebrated Lincoln's birthday by giving a program in his honor.

"Land of the Free" was sung by the seventh graders, followed by famous sayings of Lincoln given by the eighth graders who stood in formation to form the letters A-L.

The eighth grade verse choir gave a selection, "Abraham Lincoln."

William Prochaska

√

St. Elizabeth's auditorium rang out with the spirited voices of the seventh and eighth graders during a pep rally Feb. 9. New yells as well as old were taken up in a chant, led by cheerleaders. The Pep Rally preceeded a game Feb. 12 at Boysville.

Bridgit Miller

√

The eighth graders suddenly crouched down in their seats when they learned everyone would have to sing a solo of his or her choice. There were at first a few brave volunteers, but after a while when everyone got used to the idea it was better to get it over with.

No one laughed because they knew they would be doing the same thing within a few minutes. We were surprised at the good voices in the group and even though there were a few cracks and sour notes, the whole thing turned out not to be so bad after all.

Ribbons were awarded for the AAA Safety poster contest. Grades second to eighth participated.

Winners were:

Second — Theresa Shrader, Cathy Roll, Robert McKee

Fourth—James DeLisle

Fifth—Fred Wilkins, William Whiting

Sixth—Judy Buku, Michael DeLisle, Michaelen DeLisle

Seventh — Karen McKenna, Mary Mudgett, Carol Allen.

Eighth—Marilyn Wilis, Cathy Wallace.

A slight accident destroyed third grade posters. Above winners will do their posters again in paint and then they will be sent to Washington where they will be judged according to age groups.

19 Attend Surprise for Arthur

Mr. and Mrs. Neri Collingsworth, 402 W. Brown St., arranged a surprise birthday party for their son, Arthur, Saturday evening.

Nineteen attended the event featuring dancing and games followed by lunch and a decorated cake.

Robert Bonner, a member of the Michigan Chorale, coaxed Arthur off to Ann Arbor with him for rehearsal so that the guests could arrive without Arthur's knowledge of it.

His actual birthday anniversary is Feb. 28.

New Ceiling Is Viewed At Cabin

Members of the Scout Cabin Association had the opportunity to view the new ceiling at the cabin when they met Monday evening.

Repairs have also been completed on the driveway.

An estimate for painting the outside of the cabin will be submitted at the April 16 meeting with the work scheduled to be completed by June 1.

The nominating committee for officers for the coming year includes Bill Hannibal, Mrs. Jim Murphy, Mrs. Merrill Murphy and Lowell Wise.

Mrs. Lee Randall returned Sunday from a weeks visit in Biloxi, Miss., with her daughter and husband, Lt. and Mrs. Tom Will. Mrs. Randall accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Leo Alderdyce and Mrs. Frank Glenn who are visiting in Cortez, Fla.

Wolverine Council Serves 3,683 Boys Active in Scouting

In the fall of 1925 a group of men interested in the Boy Scout Program organized the Wolverine Council. They wished to do together for the boys of the area that which they were unable to do as troops and individuals.

There were 17 units — 305 boys and 231 leaders one professional, and one part-time office worker.

Together they could:

Provide training for the leaders, camping facilities, control advancement by standards, provide a service station for supplies and provide help activities to supplement those of the troops and to check on the safety and health of the boys in relationship to the program.

These men, representing 17 troops and some 305 boys, pooled their leadership, their money and together they solicited the support of their communities to develop the Council.

☆

WITH THE limited resources at their disposal, an office was opened in Adrian and George Crossland employed as the first Scout executive.

Committees were organized and with several of the men signing the note, money was made available for the purchase of a camp site. Others solicited their friends for lumber and materials to erect the first buildings and Camp Kanestake became a reality.

By 1950, the Wolverine Council had grown to 69 units serving 1714 boys with 672 volunteer leaders, with one professional man. The office help was two full-time, one part-time workers.

During the years that have followed some 26,660 different boys have been Cubs, Scouts and Explorers in the area served by the Wolverine Council under the leadership of 8,540 different adults, who have given of their time, money and talents to make the program available to boys.

Over the years with the development of the Community Chest, the communities have had a greater share in providing a large part of the operating funds for the Council.

LEADERS and their friends have provided money for capital items such as additional camp buildings, boats, canoes, together with other camp equipment.

Four years ago the opportunity presented itself where 22 acres could be added to the camp property, again the leaders and the Scouts joined hands in making it available for all boys to use.

☆

To 1960, the Wolverine Council had been enlarged to 110 units serving 3,683 boys with 1,306 volunteer leaders and three professional men. The office help was two full-time and two part-time workers.

To keep up with the demands on the camp and to meet minimum standards the opportunity to secure an additional 54 acres was made possible in 1961 through a gift by Charles S. McIntyre of $11,000.

The Scout skills, the camping experiences are the interesting activities engaged in by boys while their leaders have the opportunity through example and practice to train them in good citizenship and character using the Scout oath and law as their code of ethics.

Pajama Party Honors Birthday Following Game

Mrs. Isabelle Aiuto entertained Saturday evening honoring her daughter, Susan.

A pajama party was held with Sheila Beatty, Deborah Cheever and Deborah Black attending in observance of Susan's 13th birthday anniversary.

Pizza, made by the honored guest's grandmother, Mrs. Vita Aiuto of Clinton, was served.

Records and dancing followed the junior high basketball game, which the girls had attended.

For full details on how to organize an automobile club, contact the county extension office at the courthouse in Adrian.

Mrs. Vic Lawson was Reba, the maid, in "You Can't Take It With You." She did a fine job and had a grand time in the role, her first stage appearance with the Players.

FORT KNOX, KY. Army Pvt. James M. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester N. Williams, 322 N. Maumee St., has completed the eight-week food service course at The Armor Training Center here.

Williams received instruction in cooking, baking, meat cutting and operating a field kitchen.

Marilyn Whelan, Richard Blue and his mother, Mrs. Blue of Flint were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Whelan.

What Do Skin Tests Mean?

So you have had your skin tests. What do they mean?

Dr. Eleanor Skufis, Director of Lenawee County Health Dept., wishes to again explain what is indicated by the swelling that occurs on the forearm 48 or more hours after the test is given.

The Histoplasm test is placed on the right forearm. A swollen, hard area indicates that this person has had some contact with the spores of the fungus Histoplasmosis capsulatum found in the soil and excreta of starlings, pigeons, chickens and grackles.

This person may never have been ill or may have some time had a "viral like pneumonia". His chest X-ray may have the appearances of tuberculosis.

Thus the chief reason for performing both the histoplasm and tuberculin test at the same time is to make certain a person with histoplasmosis is not diagnosed as having tuberculosis. The tuberculin or Mantoux test is placed on the left forearm.

A swollen, hard area indicates that this person has had some contact with the TB germ.

Most people have the ability to "wall off" or encapsulate this germ in their lungs or perhaps in another organ as kidney, and never becomes ill.

These people should have a chest X-ray, preferably every year to make certain this TB germ has remained encapsulated, not escaped and produced a diseased area in the lung. Also a chest x-ray will reveal any new infection.

Once a person has a swollen area which is a positive reaction, he will remain positive and this test should not be performed again. He must rely on X-ray alone for diagnosis.

This is why little green cards are being issued to these people at the time the skin is interpreted by the nurses at the mobile unit.

If the tuberculin test is negative, that is, there is no swelling, this test can be performed each year as part of a health check-up.

4-H Auto Program Is Growing

The 4-H automotive program is growing steadily in Michigan. A total of 32 counties report enrollment in this relatively new project, says Gary Seevers, County Extension Agent, 4-H.

Lenawee county had 23 members in three different clubs in 1961.

"The project seeks to develop correct driving attitudes among teenagers," Seevers points out. "That's important because teenagers make up only 7% of the total driving force, yet they account for about 12% of all highway mishaps."

At club meetings, members study the automobile and how it works. They also participate in such club activities as skill driving contests, economy runs and hazard hunts.

Doctors Oppose Bill

Tecumseh physicians, along with other members of the Lenawee County Medical Society, have pledged opposition to the proposed King-Anderson Bill.

One local physician stated Monday that he would like to be for, rather than against something. He is for maintaining freedom of the people, as was provided in the Constitution.

He said that the King-Anderson bill would usurp this freedom.

It might lead to socialized medicine such as that now practiced in Great Britian.

Tecumseh physicians are distributing information from the Michigan State Medical Society concerning the proposed bill. It states:

In support of the Kerr-Mills Act, a federal law passed in 1960, Michigan's legislature immediately adopted the Michigan Medical Aid to [illegible] legislation, the first such program in the United States.

"It is a much more complete program than the one now proposed to be paid for by higher Social Security taxes.

"Changing from the Michigan Medical Aid for the Aged program to the proposed social security scheme would be a step in reverse in helping those who need help."

☆

MICHIGAN'S MEDICAL aid to the aged program pays all hospital charges for as long as required with no daily or minimum charge to the patient.

Physicians' and surgeons' fees are covered. Visiting nurses costs are covered without time limitation, 90 days of nursing home care is paid, all outpatient X-ray and laboratory fees are paid, and most important, all persons over 65 years of age, if their income and assets do not exceed liberal limits, are eligible.

The MAA program is voluntary, not compulsory. It is economical, locally controlled, and it assures high quality medical care for every aged American who needs help to pay for his health care.

THE PROPOSED federal program linked to Social Security (H. R. 4222)would permit only 90 days of hospitalization per year, with the patient paying $10 one day for the first nine days with a minimum of $20 in all cases.

Physicians' and surgeons' fees would not be covered. Visiting nurse home care would be limited, 180 days of nursing home care would be paid.

The patient would pay $20 for each outpatient X-ray and laboratory examination.

Only those persons eligible for Social Security and railroad retirees would be included in the program.

☆

TECUMSEH residents may gain more information concerning the proposed bill by contacting their own physicians.

Legion Tops Quota

At the bi-monthly meeting of the Tecumseh American Legion, Thursday night it was explained to the members present that the established membership quota of 363 members was achieved with three to spare.

Discussion was strong on how to entice some of this number into becoming more active in the goals of this organization.

Dick Purkey, Blood Bank chairman, reported that a total of 91 pints of blood have been donated by Legion members in support of the bank. A reserve of 33 pints is now on hand.

This bank is available to any Legion member or his immediate family upon request and also to any deserving person upon authorization from the Blood Bank Chairman.

Commander John Colson reported that 25 boys are eligible for the Boys State Program. There are now 17 sponsors. He asked that anyone interested in sponsoring a boy to Michigan Boys State at East Lansing this summer should contact him.

This program is educational and beneficial in that it gives an active knowledge of the mechanics of state government in action.

☆

DENNY GOLLER reported that he had 36 teams registered for the American Legion District Bowling Tournament held Sunday, Feb. 18, at the Airport Bowling Alley.

This tournament was open to American Legion members anly.

Robert Gillespie was appointed by the Legion to represent the post in the Lenawee County Veterans Council.

This group is composed of one member from each veterans organization in Lenawee County and is to meet with the Director of the Lenawee County Department of Veterans Affairs, to provide maximum benefits to elegible vets.

☆

DONALD MAVES reported that approximately 85 members from Lenawee, Monroe, Jackson and Washtenaw Counties attended the Second District Meeting held in Tecumseh on February 11.

Several fund-raising projects were discussed by the body as a means of retiring the outstanding debt on the mortgage for the Legion baseball diamond and park property that is located on Burt St.

Discussion was held on organizing a work bee for finishing up the ball diamond and to clean up unimproved portions of this acreage.

Next Legion meeting will be held on Thursday, March 1 at 8 p.m.

Weyher's Ship on Hand When Glenn Returned

Richard A. Weyher, commissaryman second class, USN, son of Lavern Weyher of rural Tecumseh, is serving aboard the anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Randolph which participated in the recovery operations of the "Project Mercury" orbital space flight

The Randolph is one of more than 40 Navy ships which were on station in the Atlantic for the operation.

The "Friendship 7" capsule, which carried Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn, Jr. on the history-making three-orbit flight was retrieved at sea by the destroyer USS Noa approximately five hours after launching.

United Savings Tops $19 Million in Total Assets

United Savings Bank of Tecumseh ranks 56th in the state, based on total assets.

As of Dec. 31, 1961, assets here totaled $19,823,000.

This makes the United Savings the largest bank in Lenawee County. The Bank of Lenawee ranked No. 62 with assets of $17,457,000.

SPECIALIST CHARLES H. CURTISS MODELS AGRESSOR UNIFORM

Chuck Curtiss 'Battles' Army in Mock War

Army Specialist Four Charles H. Curtiss Jr., whose parents live at 821 S. Union St., is preparing in Exercise Bristle Cone at Fort Irwin, Calif., March 7-13.

Curtiss and other selected personnel of the 1st Infantry Division, Fort Riley, Kan., acting as aggressors, will play the part of the "enemy force" during the maneuver at the Army's large Armor and Desert Training Center.

This "enemy force" will wear distinctive uniforms, employ different tactics and use a special language, thus adding to the realism and increasing the training value of the exercise.

Exercise Bristle Cone will train Army and Air Force units in the tactics and techniques of desert warfare and operations.

The training will feature long range aerial reconnaissance, airlift capabilities and offensive and defensive ground actions.

A radio repairman in Company B of the division's 121st Signal Battalion at Fort Riley, Curtiss entered the Army in April 1959 and was stationed in Korea before his assignment to Fort Riley.

The 21-year-old soldier is a 1958 graduate of Tecumseh High School and was employed by Butler's Motor Sales before entering the Army.

Directory Listings Are Sought

Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce is cooperating with the Michigan Manufacturer and Financial Record in the preparation of the eleventh edition of The Directory of Michigan Manufacturers.

The 500-page directory is revised and corrected every two years and the new edition will be issued next June.

Its listings — all free — embrace all manufacturers in Michigan and show executives and titles, products manufactured, number of employees, year established, etc.

Again this year the Directory will be a part of the Department of Commerce Exhibits at International Trade Fairs held in 16 major world cities.

Since 1954, 65,000,000 people have attended more than 100 of these Fairs.

The interest registered in there directories virtually dictates that they remain a continuing part of these highly important affairs of world trade.

Current amicable negotiations with the Department of Commerce point strongly in this direction.

When the Fairs are over, the Directories are placed in the commercial libraries of United States Embassies in the respective Fair cities were they are readily accessible for review by business men of foreign countries.

Michigan manufacturers interested in export will readily see the potentials here and the importance of accurate and fullest information in their listings.

"If you are a manufacturer you are urged to contact the Chamber of Commerce now to insure that your company is properly identified in this industrial guide for Michigan," states Don Murphy, local Chamber secretary.

Garden Club Members Make 20 Center Pieces

An enthusiastic group of Little Garden Club members met Friday evening at the Tecumseh Greenhouses to make 20 center pieces.

Pamela Musch arranged a sample piece for the group. She demonstrated the wiring of the flowers and the importance of correct placing of each flower the first time.

Members then made similar white, red and blue arrangements. Most of the flowers were grown at the Tecumseh Greenhouses.

Upon the completion of the centerpieces, each member was given flowers to make an arrangement of her own.

A mock flower show was held with Mr. and Mrs. Musch giving constructive criticism and awarding three beautiful house plants for the best arrangements.

First place winner was Mrs. Morgan Ford followed by Mrs. Earl Baldwin and Mrs. Carlton Cook.

Spohrs Tour West

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Spohr returned last week from a mid-winter educational tour sponsored by the Michigan Farm Bureau.

It was under the direction of J. Delbert Wills, manager of the Family Program Division.

The Spohrs said, "We had a wonderful time, the tour was much nicer than we had anticipated. It was a pleasant experience that we will not soon forget."

The theme was, "Seeing America's Greatness." It was designed to combine education with entertainment and to strengthen the members' understanding of certain phases of American life.

The tour by charter bus left Lansing Jan. 29. Features of the trip were:

1. 3½ hours at the US Steel Plant in Gary, Ind., one of the most modern steel plants in the world.
2. Chicago Stock Yards.
3. Swift and Co. Research Laboratory—a study was made of Swift's total operation as the world's largest meat packers.
4. Amana Colonies, Amana, Iowa, woolen mill and wood working shop.
5. Offutt Airforce Base, Omaha, Neb., headquarters of the SAF, "round the clock" air defense system of the US.
6. Dinner with Wichita, Kansas farmers.
7. Boeing Aircraft Factory, makers of the B-52.
8. Cessna Aircraft Plant
9. Livestock Exposition and Championship Rodeo in Ft. Worth, Texas.
10. Harding College—a freedom conference on Americanism, Socialism and Communism. Film, "Communism on Map" was made here.
11. Entertained by Hardin Belles and Beaux Musical Chorus.
12. Dinner with the National Cotton Council in Memphis, Tenn. and visited a cotton plantation in Mississippi.
13. Tobacco auction.

A surprise birthday dinner was given by the tour group honoring the director, J. Delbert Wells Feb. 8 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville.

Irene Circle Members See Color Slides

Mrs. George Webber was hostess to members of the Irene Circle of the Methodist Church Feb. 19, when Mrs. Glenn Work presided at the business meeting.

Mrs. Duncan Lectka conducted the devotions and presented Arthur Collingsworth, who showed slides and spoke on South America.

Mrs. Erwin Buss and Mrs. Kenneth Moon were the co-hostesses, assisting with the refreshments.

Larry Corley Gets Decorated Birthday Cake

Lawrence A. Corley was surprised on the occasion of his 86th birthday anniversary Sunday when guests called on him in the evening with refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee.

Mrs. Herman Titley furnished a decorated cake. Others who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mohr.

Everyone loves a good laugh and that's what audiences got when they attended the Tecumseh Players' latest show. It was funny from beginning to end and the members of the cast and backstage crew did wonders in putting together a show that had a thousand details to work out.

Mrs. Alton Snyder was exteremely outstanding in her role as the displaced Russian countess slinging hash in a Times Square restaurant. She captivated the audiences. Thursday night, Gini drew a long burst of applause following her first appearence on stage.

Diane Fox did a swell job as Alice, the only sane member of the zanzy Sycamore family. She is shown reminding Grandpa, Rich Kureth, to get his pet snakes out of the living room when her future in-laws come for dinner.

"No, dad, I'm not going back to that office," Syd Turner, as Tony, tells his stage dad, Ralph Dabe, in the third act, which eventually changes the father's attitude towards life.

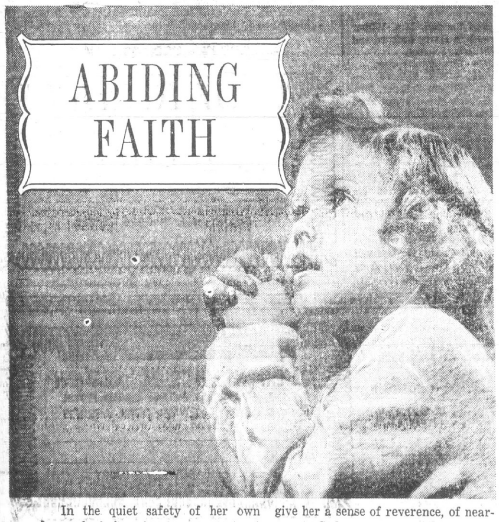
Parents Invited To Attend Session on Special Ed

Dr. Robert W. Johnson, diagnostician in Special Education, has announced the meeting of the Lenawee Chapter of the Counsel for Exceptional Children will be held March 8 at 8 p.m. in the Adrian Federal Savings and Loan Association Building at Adrian.

Dr. Allen Myers, director of Special Educational and Occupational Therapy at Eastern Michigan University, will be the speaker.

Dr. Johnson said that not only teachers and parents are invited by anyone interested in special education may come.

For All We Hold Sacred . . . Attend Church



In the quiet safety of her own home she is learning to pray, to trust in God. As she grows older she will learn that other people pray too; that other people have faith.

Sunday School will thrill her from the very first day, and her faith will grow as she learns more of the Heavenly Father's love. The Church, with its beautiful sanctuary, its inspiring music, its worshipful atmosphere, will give her a sense of reverence, of nearness to God.

As she grows, her love for the Church and for God will grow too. All through life the faith she learned when she was a tiny girl will provide a sanctuary and protect her during the many trials of life.

Are YOU helping YOUR child acquire this abiding faith?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a unique source of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

CULL LOW PRODUCING MILK COWS. With milk marketing quotas a strong possibility, the best way to increase profits is to increase production per cow and decrease number of cows. Let's say you have 30 cows and annual milk sales of 240,000 pounds. This base can be maintained with six fewer cows by increasing your herd average 2,000 pounds per cow. Produce more, the six fewer cows can save you close to $1,000 a year in expenses.

FEED GRAIN PROGRAM SIGN-UP PERIOD is to continue through March 30. The program is essentially the same as in 1961. You must retire at least 20% of your 1959-60 base acreage to be eligible for price supports on your remaining acres. Payments for diverting 20% of your acreage will be based on 50% of the normal production on the diverted land valued at the county support rate, or diverting an additional 20%, payment will be based on 50% of normal production. Remember, you must sign up to be eligible.

SOCIAL SECURITY TAX for this year is 3⅛% of an employee's salary. For simple figuring, .03125 multiplied by the employee's wage will give the correct amount to withhold. Employers must match the employee's deduction. When $100 has been accumulated, it must be deposited with a commercial bank recognized as a Federal depository. Obtain the necessary forms from your local Social Security office. The law provides a penalty for failure to comply.

HIGHEST RETURNS FROM FERTILIZER are possible only when nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium and lime are in balance. To find how much is needed for optimum yields, it is necessary to run a soil test. Take your soil samples now if you haven't already done so.

Is 'Big Farming' Answer? Nope!

EAST LANSING — Is "big farming" the answer?

Not always.

Unintentionally exchanging efficiency for volume, figuring costs too low, inadequate credit resources and poor hired help are some of the pitfalls of a major farm expansion program, a Farmers' Week audience heard Thursday.

Erwin F. Davis, a real estate loan officer for the Michigan Farmers Home Administration, divides farm enterprise expansion into two groups.

► Normal growth that keeps up with technical advances without spending large sums of money at one time and expansion that involves big chances in management

► Labor which requires large lump sums for investment.

"This latter type of expansion is characterized by a major increase in size of farm business over a short period," Davis will say.

"It usually results in a large increase in debt load, places far more emphasis on good management and it often introduces hired labor problems," he will add.

He emphasizes the need for allowance of such factors as bad crop years, marketing adjustments, stock culling and losses.

Hired help labor cost, planning of costs and arranging adequate credit to see the expension program over the critical period are also key problems.

"There are rewards for the successful operator who expands his size of business. Success will go mainly to the chosen few who are outstanding managers, who don't run into 'hard luck' and who are suitably located near markets," David will conclude.

SCOUTMASTER BOB AUTEN (IN FULL HEAD DRESS) PROUDLY WATCHES NEPHEW TERRY AUTEN AS EAGLE DANCER

Cubs Watch Indian Dancers

Dancing Indians shared the spotlight with Cub Scouts receiving awards at the annual Pack 4 Blue and Gold Banquet.

Cubs and their parents packed the high school cafeteria for the fun on a recent Saturday evening.

The dancers were Boy Scouts from Britton, who have learned authentic Indian dances and perform them in full costume.

Prior to the presentation of Cub awards, the Pack received its charter from Walt McQuillum of Monroe, district representative.

It was accepted by Wally Whiting, one of the Pack's adult leaders who in turn gave it to the Rev. Blair Bashore, who accepted for the sponsor, the Baptist Church.

A streamer was also given by the district as a result of Pack 4 being registered with headquarters before annual deadline.

Pack committeemen and Den mothers received cards.

Cubs Gary Gove and Ricky Hicks got special awards wrist watches, for being star salesmen in the recent project of selling "Mudder's Helper," gimmicks that are placed outside doors on which mud can be scraped from shoes.

Gary sold 22 and Ricky 14.

Drop Culture Subjects And There Will Be Nothing To Exchange

Ninety members attended the Tecumseh Band Boosters meeting Thursday evening at the high school study hall.

Don Johnson, band instructor, spoke concerning the proposed millage vote March 20.

He stressed that the millage should be voted in so that children from kindergarten through high school would have a complete education.

He said that culture is exchanged between countries and that if our cultural subjects are dropped we won't have anything to exchange.

The Band Boosters decided to call friends March 20 to remind them to get out and vote.

Band Booster members and band members will baby sit for voters. Anyone interested in helping with this project should contact Don Nettleman, president, or Mrs. Roland Boyers.

Mr. Nettleman will furnish transportation.

His phone number is HA 3-4196 or he may be reached at the Moore Lumber Co. HA 3-2155.

Mrs. Boyers will be happy to take calls for those seeking sitters. Her number is HA 3-4664.

LENAWEE COUNTY'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER

SERVING TECUMSEH, BRITTON, RIDGEWAY, MACON AND TIPTON

VOL. 111 — ONE HUNDRED TWELFTH YEAR — NUMBER 22 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1962 | 16 PAGES — TEN CENTS A COPY

Long & Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Well, as they say in space age parlance, we were scrubbed.

By an eyelash, Tecumseh missed out on the LIFE magazine piece.

It was touch and go right to the bitter end.

LIFE writer Jane Estes called last week at the 12th Hour to say Bluffton, Ind. was selected over our community and two others.

Bluffton is the home of Franklin Electric, which manufactures electric motors.

Jane said, "We were impressed with your town and hope to keep it in mind for some future story."

Just 10 more days to win that Florida vacation.

Drawing of the grand prize comes Saturday, March 17 at the Strand Theatre.

The first coupon coming out of the giant container will give some lucky couple seven funfilled days and six glorious nights on Miami Beach.

They'll be flown both ways by Delta Airline jets.

After a winter like we've had in Michigan, I'd imagine the lucky winners will probably stretch out under the sun the whole time.

This tidy little vacation package is worth $345.

The trip is the prize. If the winner wishes to give or sell it to someone else, this is perfectly OK.

Coupons have been building up at a rate up to 8,000 a week, so there'll be quite a bundle come March 17.

The Herald expects to have some pretty excellent coverage of the Tecumseh travelers while they're in Florida.

No, unfortunately none of the harassed Herald hands will be tagging along, but it so happens that a staffer on the Miami Herald is a Michigan State friend, who I'm going to contact to see if we can get a nice on-the-spot-yarn with a picture or two.

If you haven't entered the fun as yet, get started with this week's paper.

You'll find more than 40 coupons in this and the March 15 editions.

Remember, it takes only one to win!

There were squeals of delight for nearly two hours at the Community Center Thursday night.

This was the Hospital Auxiliary's "Caribbean Vacation Style Show."

I really don't know if the 500 attending really squealed, but after hearing reports of the show, it seems logical.

This was a "gals only" affair.

In any event, the show was a rousing success and plaudits go to the co-chairman, Mrs. Neville Hart and Mrs. Carlos Knisely, and their various committee members.

Plaudits, too, to Fran Wheeler of Delta Airlines, who narrated the show and provided the exotic clothing.

Part of Miss Wheeler's job is to stage fashion showings all around the nation for Delta to help promote interest in Caribbean and Florida vacations.

Delta makes no charge for the service, which can get to be pretty expensive. She flew into Willow Run from Atlanta, Ga. Wednesday afternoon and spent the day here making preparations.

It was a wonderful event for the hard-working Auxiliary, which will use proceeds to landscape hospital grounds this spring.

String Quartet Available May 7 for Concert Here

The Cremona String Quartet will be available for a concert in Tecumseh Monday, May 7.

Making up the group are members of the string section of the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, which will be in Ann Arbor at the time.

A local civic or musical group could sponsor such a concert by the quartet for a $300 fee.

Any persons or organizations interested may call Allan Seager, HA 3-3186.

Florida Pictures Shown Members by Mrs. Stephens

Mrs. John Stephens entertained members of the BPCPSC March 5 assisted by Mrs. Sidney Wilson.

Mr. Stephens presented pictures of northern Michigan and Florida following the short business session.

Refreshments were served.

Four Mills Would Go To Retire $150,000 Debt

By JIM LINCOLN

The Tecumseh school board, meeting Tuesday morning with about 25 local businessmen, removed any doubt that passage of the four mills on March 20 would be used to retire the school's deficit of $150,000 in two years.

A direct question from the floor to the board confirmed the board's position that the deficit would be erased in two years—if the electorate passes favorably on the four mills.

The businessmen previously told the board and administration that some people's vote undoubtedly would be affected if the board made known that the four mills would be used to retire the debt in two years.

Aden Mead, president of the board, fielded the questions and answers from the floor and conducted the meeting.

He explained leaflets of information distributed to the businessmen and called on board members and Supt. James McDowell to clarify various situations.

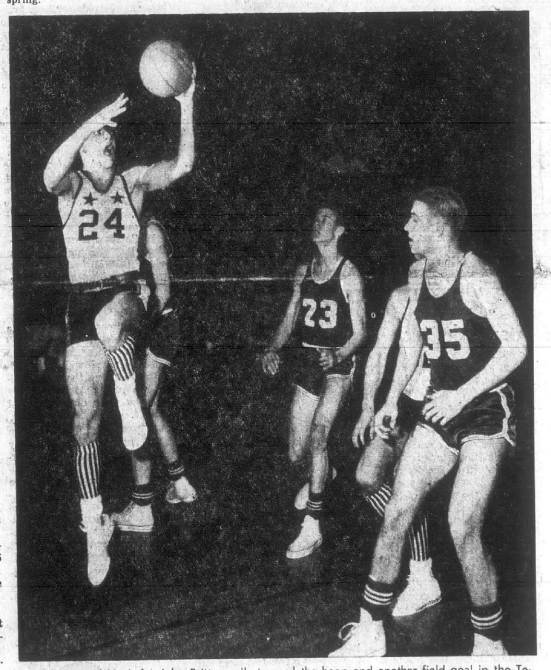
All questions, from financial to taxes to public relations, were answered by the board and superintendent without any evasiveness.

The board reviewed past decisions: what would be necessary if the millage failed and what could be done if passed. Questions concerning accreditation were answered by Neville Hart, high school principal.

The vote on March 20 will be the third attempt by the local school board to receive money to retire the debt and keep from cutting deeper into services and the curriculum.

Last year, the board eliminated approximately $79,000 from the budget by trimming services and placing the first grade on half-day sessions. Unless there is more money, about $40,000 in service will have to be cut from the 1962-'63 program.

The board and administration, hosts to the businessmen, served coffee and cake prior to the meeting which started about 8 a.m.



GOOD FOR TWO—Lefty John Britton sails toward the hoop and another field goal in the Tecumseh win over Grosse Ile last week. In the full season, John tallied 207 points, a 13.8 per-game average, making him 10th best scorer in Lenawee County. Friday, he leads THS against Airport at Dundee in the District Tournament opener.

Ed Nelson Suffers 3 Attacks

City Manager Ed Nelson, stricken with three heart attacks, has been reported as improving at Herrick hospital.

The city official suffered his first heart attack at his home Saturday evening and was taken to the local hospital.

He sustained another Sunday afternoon, and then still another early Monday morning.

Although not confirmed, reports say that he may be released from the hospital the latter part of this week.

Cal Zorn, city engineer, is filling in for Mr. Nelson during his absence.

Council Rejects Pharmacy Plan at New Building

A request to include a professional pharmacy in a proposed medical building near the hospital was rejected by Council Monday night.

Pharmacists Bill Wright and Bill Holmes explained the need to Councilmen for such a pharmacy and said it would be a co-operative venture by the three Tecumseh druggists.

The pharmacists planned to include the outlet in the medical center proposed by Drs. Richard Coak, Carlton Cook and Harold Ocamb.

The center will also include offices for a dentist, William Adams, a brother-in-law of Dr. Cook. Mr. Adams will complete his studies at the University of Michigan Dental School this June.

Councilmen told the druggist that a pharmacy had not been planned and could not be included in the clinic. However, several members stated that a pharmacy could be erected near the hospital in the future, but not on that particular piece of ground.

A. L. Roe was awarded the contract to install sewers to the new Faraday plant. Bids for the pipe are to be advertised and taken for the installation.

Final payment to the Krieghoff Co. was approved, and criticism of the garbage and trash pick-ups was voiced.

Mayor Harold Easton's appointments of the Rev. Allan Wittrup, John Hamilton, Terry Mackin, Don Murphy and Gordon Garlick to the Parks and Recreation Board were approved.

Church Bells Ring All Day

Tecumseh church bells will ring out the call to worship for the World Day of Prayer Friday.

The bells of St. Peter's Church will ring at 8, 9, 10 and 11 a.m. to remind all church women of the community to unite in prayer with all other Christian women throughout the world.

At 12, 1 and 2 p.m. the Gloria Dei bell will sound, the Presbyterian bell will mark the 3 and 4 p.m. hour, while the Methodist bell will be rung at 5, 6 and 7.

The Baptist Church bell will ring at 7 and again at 8 p.m. to issue the call to prayer.

The worship service will be held at the First Baptist Church at 8 p.m.

World" is the theme for the "For God So Loved the silent meditation and the underlying note of the solo, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" by Mrs. Joseph Church.

The organ meditation and hymns will be played by Jack Tonneberger.

Surgery Is Among Their Skills

Sonja Sprague was hostess for the Tecumseh Top Notchers 4-H Club Feb. 27.

Two members, Janet Southwell and Sharyl Gartee, anxious to show their doctoring skills, performed a mock tonsillectomy on Rick Gartee.

Members made posters for 4-H Club week, March 3-10.

Sonja Sprague and Brenda Watson furnished hot cocoa, cookies and fruit Jello for refreshments.

Chamber Secretary Don Murphy Resigns

Don Murphy, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce here for nearly four years, resigned the post Tuesday night at the board of directors meeting.

The unexpected resignation becomes effective Friday.

He will become associated with Wilson Motor Sales, local Plymouth, Valiant and Rambler dealer.

During Mr. Murphy's tenure here, the Chamber started from practically nothing and became an influencing organization, especially for businessmen.

Annually, promotions for the merchants became successful and several were repeated each year.

The Chamber also assisted in the moving of the H. W. Tuttle Co. here, and was primarily responsible for new downtown street lights, improved off-street parking lots, new Christmas decorations and other lesser known accomplishments.

The board will decide within the next week how the Chamber office will continue to function.

Your Child's Education Is Your Responsibility, Principal Writes

By NEVILLE L. HART
Tecumseh High School Principal

This past November, Tecumseh High School, as a participant in American Education Week, held an open house for the parents of our pupils. Approximately 200 of a possible 1,500 parents were interested enough to attend.

The purpose of the open house was to make every parent aware of the important role education plays in a democracy and to help him realize that good schools are his personal responsibility.

The main theme of the event was to report progress. It provided an opportunity for school systems over the country to report on improvements made, on curriculum changes which benefit their pupils, on new school construction, on programs for getting and keeping the best teachers and on improved facilities.

Regretfully, we had little to report on the above criteria, except that our teachers were still extremely competent and industrious, and still possessed a degree of morale.

This despite the need for more advanced courses in our curriculum, the need for a better library, more space and equipment for our vocational courses.

Above all, in view of the fact that a certain segment of our community would rather concentrate on "What's Wrong With the Schools and the Teachers," than focusing attention on "What's Right with Them."

☆

THE CONTINUANCE of our American way of life depends upon the way our citizens are educated. As the problems of society become more complicated, the education of our people becomes more difficult and requires more time.

A hundred years ago, when mastery of the 3 R's was sufficient, the necessary schooling could be obtained in a few years. Now many years of school attendance are necessary.

And, more and more of our people, to meet changing demands of life, are supplementing their schooling with adult education.

The professed confidence and faith of the American people in the public schools has been strongly in evidence since early pioneer days. This faith in education is founded on the basic fact that education does something beneficial to people and for them.

Our progress of public education can and should provide for every educable child, youth and adult. Each individual should receive the kind and amount of education which will:

1. Make him most useful to himself and to others.

2. Lead him to understand the principles and goals of our democratic way of life so that he may have a basis for his beliefs and loyalties.

3. Stimulate him to contribute all he can to the development and preservation of peaceful, co-operative and equitable world relationships.

4. Help him to recognize and understand the operation of the natural laws in his environment.

To achieve these things for all individuals, education must arouse the interest of our total population. Every individual should realize that he is a part of the world drama.

He cannot afford to sleep through the performance by devoting the major part of his time to reading comic strips, playing with puzzles, or reading cheap fiction.

☆

THE SCHOOLS provide a great part of the influence leading to a better life for all. Teachers and the curriculum are concerned with the worth and dignity of each individual, the creative talents of youth, good mental health and group relationships, critical thinking and objective appraisal and the ideals of good sportsmanship and fair play.

Through all of these, and undergirded with a faith in the ultimate goodness of the universe and man's divine rights and responsibilities as a part of it, the schools promote a better society.

Always influenced by the home and the community, education today is and should be increasingly affected by the rapid-

Injunction Halts Sale of Company

MACON—Sale of the Macon Telephone Co. to General Telephone Co. has been halted by a temporary court injunction.

It was filed for a group of 100 shareholders by Elwood Bush and Guy Zeluff.

Consideration of a permanent injunction will be made at a hearing Monday at 1:30 p.m. in the Circuit Court of Judge Rex Martin.

At the Macon firm's annual meeting, shareholders voted 171-94 to sell to General.

Opponents of the sale state that management did not get two-thirds of the holders of outstanding capital stock to approve the action.

They also claim that the Michigan Public Utilities Service Commission did not approve the sale.

St. Elizabeth's Spaghetti Meal Has $343 Profit

Mrs. Ivan Lindstrom, chairman, announced a profit of $343 from the annual St. Elizabeth Church Spaghetti Dinner Sunday.

Nearly 400 diners ate by candlelight to soft music from a hi fi donated by Wolf Tire and Appliance.

According to the chairman, 276 adults and 155 children were served.

"If winter comes, can spring be far behind"

Cold and ice and snow. Makes one wonder just how far behind spring may be. We expected "Old Winter" to crack up and dissolve in puddles before this.

Still there is a hint of spring in the air, in the early rising of the sun and the sound of the birds on these late winter mornings.

Certainly soon we can change to lighter clothing, put aside those long red woolies if you were fortunate enough to get a pair earlier in the year.

Mrs. Nina Taylor Gets OES Life Certificate Thursday

About 125 members and friends attended the Tecumseh Chapter Order of Eastern Star Friendship Night Thursday.

The altar was draped in memory of James F. Mark, past grand patron of the Grand Chapter of Michigan, OES, who passed away Dec. 6.

The charter was draped in memory of Owen Partridge, past patron of the Tecumseh Chapter, recently deceased.

Worthy Matron Mrs. Cecile Viele read a fitting tribute for both.

Mrs. Martha Jackson of Palmyra was extended a welcome as was Mrs. Garnett Badder. Ten visiting worthy matrons and four worthy patrons were present.

Lenawee-Monroe Association officers were escorted to the East and introduced by the president, Mrs. Badder.

Mrs. Don LaBounty read invitations to Friendship Nights:

► Blissfield, March 6
► Palmyra, March 12
► Onsted, March 17
► Clayton, March 20
► Adrian, April 2
► Clinton, April 5
► Deerfield, April 6

Mrs. Nina Taylor was presented a life certificate by the worthy matron.

Mrs. Fay Hindes was installed as Electa for the remainder of the year.

An announcement was made of the Association card party and dance at the Palmyra Fire Hall Saturday, April 7.

There will be round and square dancing to music by Driscoll's orchestra.

Members decided to begin the April 5 meeting at 7:30 p.m. and close early so that all might visit the Golden Rod Chapter at Clinton.

An initiation meeting will be held Thursday, March 15, with officers practice on March 8.

The Palmyra Chapter provided entertainment.

Refreshments were served from tables decorated in St. Patrick's motif by Mr. and Mrs. George Rinehart and Mrs. Ralph Westgate.

Lois Ann Neidlinger, 1960 graduate of Britton-Macon High School, received her cap with 60 classmates at an impressive ceremony at Borgess School of Nursing in Kalamazoo recently. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Neidlinger of Washington Lake.

Citizens Insurance Names Agent

King-Roberts, Inc. has been named agents for the Citizens' Mutual Automobile Insurance Co.

"We are extremely pleased to be represented by King-Roberts, Inc.," Joseph V. Brady, Citizen's executive vice-president said, "Del King and Jerry Roberts are experienced insurance men well-qualified to sere the people in the Tecumseh area."

The agency was founded by Mr. King in 1954 and has been located at 509 N. Evans St. since 1959.

It became King-Roberts, Inc. on Jan. 1, 1962, when Jerry Roberts joined the agency after 14 years of insurance experience, most recently as Michigan Casualty Underwriting Manager for Great American Insurance Company.

King-Roberts, Inc. writes all lines of insurance. It will represent Citizens' for automobile, fire, inland marine and general casualty lines.

NEVILLE HART WRITES

ly mounting complications of social and economic life in this last half of the 20th Century.

Yet, unless [illegible] is exercised, unplanned changes may be wrought in our schools, merely in an attempt to adjust to pressures from the home, the community and the world.

The hit-and-miss methods of community pressures on the curriculum are all too familiar.

For example, one group would like to have more early American History taught; another thinks that there should be greater emphasis upon recent events, such as the United Nations.

Some are much concerned about the need for more individualized instruction, others contend that the world is going downhill because children no longer obey their parents and they want the school to remedy that difficulty.

Still others declare that the schools are getting out of their proper sphere when they attempt to teach morals and family life.

The question of sex education has been discussed over and over again, with parents and community groups fighting on both sides of the issue, one group arguing for sex education in the schools and one against it.

☆

THESE ARE only a few of the issues which teachers and administrators regularly meet as they attempt to develop curriculum programs which reflect the thinking of the community and the democratic ideals of our republic.

Some educators use inaction to counterbalance all these pressures. They feel that since so many people have conflicting ideas about what the schools should or should not do, it is best to ignore all of them and run the schools as they have been run for years.

This easy way out of the dilemma certainly is not the way that leads to progress in education.

The role of laymen in the development of the school curriculum has varied from era to era and also from locality to locality.

While some laymen still believe that the main function of schools is to teach only reading, writing and arithmetic, the majority have broader views.

Most citizens recognize that a primary function of modern education is training for citizenship in today's world, while transmitting at the same time those values, habits, and skills which are important parts of our cultural heritage.

For persons who subscribe to this philosophy of education, lay participation becomes an important factor in educational planning. Only through cooperative planning, which involves the student, the layman and the teacher, can a curriculum be developed which provides these desirable outcomes.

☆

IT IS NOT enough to have support for public schools — we must have support for good public schools.

Many of the things we do and accomplish in our schools are never properly interpreted to the public. What they don't know can hurt us.

Because we maintain a good school is no assurance that this will become known automatically to all of our publics. We are told about 50% of our public are apathetic toward schools.

They will support the status quo, are hard to reach, but easily influenced.

A large minority support the schools in varying degrees and a small percentage are ignorant of, or opposed to, present practices in our schools.

The fact that we have good schools, but that we need better schools must be known in as many ways as practicable.

A high school parents study group was formed for the express purpose of informing our citizens correctly and truthfully about the problems facing the high school.

Seven meetings were held by this group with an average attendance of about 30 interested parents. These parents are genuinely concerned about their children's future. They now understand what must be done if the high school is to continue to improve.

These 30 or 40 parents will vote for the millage increase because they know it is needed. What about those parents who did not become informed. How will they vote?

☆

OUR CITIZENS have been informed through The Tecumseh Herald what action will be necessary if the millage request is granted or denied.

In my opinion, the elimination of a single service is a step backward for education in Tecumseh and a complete lack of interest in the future welfare of our children.

Many parents today, make effort to provide their children with those privileges that they did not enjoy as children. Without a solid educational background, can our children enjoy, or make use of these finer things that we are striving to provide?

I am and have been for many years a taxpayer. like you, I want money to be spent in a careful, judicious manner. I want good education for all of our children. I want to strengthen our schools.

I don't like to pay any more taxes than are necessary, but rather than destroy the effectiveness of our school system, I will pay more taxes. Will you?

4-H Clovers Recognize Parents

Members of the Lucky Clover 4-H Club with their leader, Mrs. Russell Starkey, are planning a special event Saturday evening at the Community Center in observance of 4-H Club Week.

It is called "Recognition of Parents Night" and anyone interested in 4-H, especially children, 10 years of age and over who are interested in membership, and their parents are issued an invitation by the club.

A short business session will be held at 7:30 p.m. followed by a discussion of projects for the summer.

Some of these offered are flowers, foods, dog training, archery sheep, a horse program and possibly vegetable gardening.

A display of leathercraft, clothing, knitting and 4-H booklets will be exhibited.

A 4-H poster is on display in the window of Porter Printing Co. this week.

A tiered cake decorated by Mrs. Ormand Socks will be served with beverages to conclude the event.

Muellers To Host Field Day

Southern Michigan farmers will have an excellent chance this spring to see just what minimum tillage can do.

A minimum tillage field day will be held at the Oliver and Robert Mueller farm near Britton on May 3.

Plans call for plowing, fitting, planting, fertilizing and applying weed-control chemicals to 40 acres of corn in one day.

A wide variety of machines will be in operation. These will be combined with demonstrations of new practices.

Machinery and tillage-practice demonstrations will be interspersed with information and research reports on minimum tillage.

"Three Michigan State University departments and the Cooperative Extension Service will sponsor the event," reports Robert G. White, MSU agricultural engineer who heads planning for the day.

Agricultural engineering, farm crops and soil science departments are co-sponsors.

Seed, chemical and machinery firms will help conduct the demonstration event in Michigans leading corn growing county.

Jackson Players Stage 'Spirit' Four Evenings

The Jackson Civic Players will present "Blithe Spirit" March 23, 24, 30 and 31 at the Jackson City Hall, at the corner of Jackson and Washington Sts.

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. and reservations may be had by phoning ST 4-3472.

James D. Adams, secretary-treasurer of the Players said of the show.

"With the deluge of horror programs now being witnessed on the TV screen, the Jackson Civic Players bring you a refreshing relief a ghost story guaranteed to keep you glued to your seat, with laughter."

Cub Cagers Are Feted

Seventh and eighth grade basketball team, and Coach Fay Greene of St. Eliabeth School were honored Saturday at a party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Neidlinger on Washington Lake.

The cheerleaders sponsored the event, also attended by Mrs. Greene, Fr. Thomas J. Collins and other loyal supporters.

Spiritual

The spiritual relationship of God and man will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Highlighting the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Man" is the Golden Text from Psalm 100: "Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture."

Intangible Tax Help Available

Douglas Kramer, representing the Michigan Department of Revenue, will be at United Savings Bank, March 14 between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. to assist taxpayers in the preparation of their intangibles tax returns.

This return is due March 31.

Intangible personal property subject to the tax includes all mortgages, land contracts, bank accounts, cash, postal savings accounts, accounts and notes receivable, corporate stocks, corporate bonds and other similar types of property.

In addition to assisting taxpayers in the preparation of their returns, Mr. Kramer will also be glad to advise any person concerning his liability, if any, under the Intangibles Tax Act.

Those desiring this advice or assistance are requested to bring with them full information concerning their holdings,

4-Year-Old Hopes Icicle Will Grow

Peggy O'Neill, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. O'Neill of 215 N. Union St., is fervently hoping that her icicle will grow again.

Thrilled with the monstrous nine-foot icy wonder hanging from the eaves of her home, the tot was sorely disturbed when about half of it fell Monday.

Little Peggy accidentally bumped the icicle when she was picking up some stray leaves beneath it to show to her brothers, Rusty 14 and David, 10, and her sister Mary, 8.

Down came the giant with only a part of it bumping her head. Crestfallen, she bragged a big hunk and promptly planted it in a nearby snow bank.

Rusty measured the icicle hanging from the eaves of their home. Now a five foot piece still hangs growing larger when the weather is warm enough to melt the snow on the roof.

Pets Should Be Vaccinated

This is the time of the year that pets should be taken to the veterinarian for immunization against rabies.

It is important that dogs and cats be vaccinated now because with the coming of spring, both the domestic and the wild animals become a lot more active and there is a much greater possibility of rabies being spread from animal to animal and from animal to humans.

'Golden Promise' Is Scout Theme for Anniversary

Final plans for the re-dedication ceremony, "Golden Promise", were made at the Neighborhood meeting of the Irish Hills Girl Scout Council Thursday at the Cabin.

The ceremony, commemorating the 50th anniversary of Girl Scouting in the United States, will be presented for the public at the Products Union Hall Sunday at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Julius Vince is the director, Mrs. Sevedus Maples and Mrs. Robert Mohr will lead the chorus.

Mrs. Wallace Rutherford will have charge of the refreshments at the close of the program.

A display has been placed in the window of the Watkins Shop depicting the motto, "Honor the Past and Serving the Future" with Mrs. Stanley Miller, chairman.

Mrs. Jim Murphy was appointed cookie chairman for the annual sale by the Brownies and Girl Scouts from March 11 through March 24.

The leaders and troops will attend the church of their choice March 11, the first day of Girl Scout Week.

The next meeting will be held April 26.

SCOUT WITH HER DRAWING OF "DAISY"—Kay Southwell of Girl Scout Troop 123 displays her crayon over oil painting of Juliet Gordon Lowe, founder of Girl Scouting in the United States. The senior Scout, assisted by her art teacher, Dorothy Westdyke, painted the picture especially to be used in a lighted frame for the "Golden Promise" ceremony at the Products Union Hall March 11 at 2 p.m. The artist is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Southwell, 1204 Murray Dr.

Janice Schuch Marries Walter Morden

Janice Elaine Schuch and Walter Graham Morden were married March 3 at the St. Peter's Episcopal Church by the Rev. Frank W. Hawthorne.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schuch, 320 W. Patterson St., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Morden, 702 Inner Dr.

Mrs. Glen Driscoll presided at the organ. Single white candleabra marked the entrance to the altar and cathedral candelabra faced with clusters of jade foliage and satin bows, tall vases of white chrysanthemums and gladioli formed the background.

The bride chose a ballerina length gown of white silk organza designed with Basque bodice round neckline with tapering sleeves over the hand. Covered buttons extended to the waistline in back and down the sleeves.

The full bouffant skirt was trimmed with a band of appliqued taffeta in scroll design.

She wore a circular veil of illusion attached to a braided wedding band of pearls and carried a white orchid on a white lace covered Bible.

Cynthia Poley as maid-of-honor in a gown of azalia pink silk organza mist designed with Basque bodice, pleated cummerbund and rounded neckline with short sleeves.

Her matching dotted illusion veil was held in place by a pert bow.

She carried a white carnation cascade centered with an azalia glamellia.

Richard Gregory was best man. Jon L. Schuch and Terry Morden, brothers of the couple, served as ushers.

A reception for 125 guests was held in the Parish Hall with the [illegible] colors featured on the refreshment table.

Mrs. Jon Schuch poured coffee, Sheridan Mangrum presided at the punch bowl and Gail Elliott registered the guests.

Mrs. Lee Phibbs, Suzy Morden and Meredith Morden served the cake.

Mrs. Harold Davidson and Mrs. John McCaughen also assisted at the reception.

Following a short wedding trip to northern Michigan the couple will make their home at 320 W. Patterson St.

The bride is a senior at Tecumseh High School. Her husband is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and Andrew Barber College of Toledo, O.

Voters Get Surveys

Volunteers for the School Community Relationship Committee of the Citizens Advisory Committee have distributed opinion questionnaires to 500 voters in the Tecumseh School District.

Orville Bishop of the committee has started that it is of the utmost important that the pepole answer the questionnaires completely and carefully, and return them in the self-addressed envelope.

The University of Michigan, which formulated the questionnaire and will do the tabulation, has stressed the importance of returning all the questionnaires.

Voters selected for the questionnaires were picked from the schools voters list in a methodical manner. An alternate list also was selected in case some voters had moved or were not available to complete the forms.

The committee had hoped to have the questionnaires distributed and tabulated before the March 20 vote on the four mills. However, for financial reasons, it was necessary to delay distribution.

The survey questions include:

- ► Individual help by teachers for pupils.
- ► Rating of school board, administrative staff, and teachers.
- ► School buildings.
- ► Transportation system.
- ► Areas needing improvement
- ► Hot lunch program.
- ► School-parent relationship.
- ► Parent relationship with teachers, principals, and other officials.
- ► School events and activities.
- ► School information.
- ► Evaluation of student's studies.

Breaks Ankle

Mrs. Paul Brantingham suffered a broken right ankle Friday when she fell on ice in front of the Pythian Hall.

Rushing about town with cup cakes for her daughter's birthday party at school, Mrs. Brantingham had her arms full when she fell.

After a cast was in place, Mrs. Brantingham returned to her home.

Prize To Be Given in Just 10 Days

Ten days remain before the one-week vacation in Florida will be given to some lucky couple.

Grand drawing will be Saturday, March 17 — St. Patrick's Day — in the Strand Theatre.

In the meantime, one more weekly drawing remains. That one comes Saturday and the top award are two gallons of Super Kem-Tone, being given by Don Martin's Gambles Store.

The prize carries a $13.18 retail value. Winners may choose the colors they wish.

In addition, six guests tickets to the Strand will be awarded and a pair of one-year subscriptions to The Herald.

Last week's big prize — five gallons of milk from Meadowridge Dairy — went to Mrs. Elizabeth Hayden, 512 W. Logan St. Her coupon had been deposited at Porky's Grill.

Other winner:

► Mrs. Fred Marsh, 702 Center Dr. (Coupon deposited at Hodges Drug Store.) Six guest tickets to Strand Theatre.

► Albert Froelich, Onsted. (Coupon deposited at Hodges Drug Store). One-year subscription to Tecumseh Herald.

All winning coupons will go back into the giant container for the final drawing.

Last week, 7,086 coupons were placed in the 39 containers at participating business places.

Up to last Saturday, 36,235 coupons have been clipped, filled in and dropped off from week to week.

The big prize, one-week in Miami Beach at the Monte Carlo Hotel, flying by Delta jet both ways, is worth $345.

This is the only award and the winner may give or sell it to someone if unable to go.

BLOTTER

Malcolm A. Campbell, rural Adrian, driving with expired license plates, $5.30.

Elmer D. Sharpe, Manchester, no driver's license, $25.

Garland D. Holmes, 812 River Acres Dr., stop light, $5.30.

Elvin D. Walker, Mathews Hwy., drunk and disorderly, $30.

Eugene H. Verrier, 1203 Shady Lane, speeding, $10.

Howard L. Scott, Ypsilanti, failure to stop within assured clear distance, $7.

Marjorie Niblack, Britton, violation of basic speed law, $6.

PLENTY OF MILK—Mrs. Perry Hayden won last week's top prize of five gallons of milk. Mrs. Ken Blumerick, wife of Meadowridge Dairy owner, helps line up the booty.

She Doesn't Approve

TO THE EDITORS:

On page 5 of the February 1962 "Record" (published by the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan) is an article which has touched me quite closely.

It is entitled St. Peter's, Tecumseh and it is relative to a gift of $180,000 to replace the old landmark known and loved by thousands since 1833 when it was built largely by Eastern Capital, with some famous names among the donors.

At the Convention dinner recently I discussed this with several clergymen and found that some of them feel this landmark should be preserved.

I admit that I am moved by some personal sentiment as I lived for about 10 years, more or less, in St. Peter's Rectory as a growing girl and college student.

Also one of my daughters-in-law is the great granddaughter of Dr. Lyster — the missionary priest who brought the Episcopal Church to Southern Michigan. He came as a missionary from Cleveland, and later was then first rector of Christ Church, Detroit.

Helen Parker Detwiler's father is Edward C. Parker, a member of the Bishop's Committee of Laymen. His address is Metamora, Mich. I feel sure he would be a strong supporter of any action to preserve St. Peter's in its historic beauty.

It seems nothing short of tragic that almost all of the Greek revival period structures in Southern Michigan are so rapidly disappearing.

We in the middle west do not seem to value our history, nor realize how rapidly it grows deeper into the past until which it cannot be reclaimed. I question whether there is a significant building still standing in Lenawee County as important at St. Peter's Tecumseh.

I am sure it is the outstanding landmark in old Tecumseh and detours more visitors to Tecumseh than any other point of interest.

There are places where help with such a problem of restoration can be had. I understand that the Foundation at Williamsburg, Virginia, does concern itself with the preservations of historic monuments.

Also one of the Rockefeller brothers is interested in this area. If someone or group had not been concerned about Old King's Chapel in Boston that beautiful pre-revolutionary building would not have survived.

How well I remember being at the centennial of St. Peter's. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford were there that day, too, and at the time (or shortly after) were willing to restore St. Peter's. For some restrictive reason the congregation voted against accepting Mr. Ford's offer.

Faithfully yours,
Grace A. Detwiler,
(Mrs. Ward A.)

440 Students Agree

TO THE EDITORS:

We, the undersigned, students of Tecumseh High School who are interested in obtaining the best possible education, would like to make this statement to the public.

First, however, we would like to clarify that the ideas expressed in this letter are student motivated and inspired, and were formulated independently of the faculty and administration of our school.

As young adults we are cognizant of the increasing importance and necessity of a thorough education. In this technological and complex society in which we live, competition and selectivity have become the by-words of today.

Certainly it is important to each one of us who desires to advance in this competitive society that a sound educational foundation be provided as a prerequisite for entry into any field of endeavor.

With these facts in mind our school system has attempted to provide us with the foremost education. However, this will not be possible if the Board of Education is forced to suspend additional school services, because of the grave financial crisis which we are currently confronted with in Tecumseh.

The Tecumseh Public School System is, and has been, experiencing a precarious financial position. The school has been forced to incur a debt of approximately $150,000 in order to keep operating efficiently and maintain its standards.

During the last few years our district has received less and less money from the state. The public has failed to respond to its appeals for millage on two previous occasions.

Although many services have been suspended the debt has continued to grow. Unless the millage is approved in the forthcoming vote, more services will be suspended.

The future of the boys and girls in this area is in your hands! We cannot vote on March 20; we are powerless to act on an issue which will have a very big influence on the future of each of us.

We are confident that if any of us were rushed to the hospital for an emergency operation, you, as parents would not quibble over the cost of the hospital or doctor's fees. We feel that our education should be regarded with equal consideration.

Not only is our school endangered (THS will suffer a loss of North Central Accreditation among other things), but that of our future as well as the future and security of the community and the nation.

It is imperative that everyone be cognziant of this problem, and that they do all in their power to alleviate it. It is the civic duty and obligation of every responsible citizen to support the forthcoming millage issue.

If you fail to respond to our plea, many high school services will be eliminated from the high school program. The choices will be made from the following services:

1. Drop all music both instrumental and vocal throughout the school system.
2. Drop all physical education in high school.
3. Drop all athletics.
4. Put High School on a four hour day — this would also eliminate study halls in high school.
5. Eliminate library services in the Junior High.
6. Reduce the counseling services in the Jr. and Sr. High.
7. If the Junior and Senior High is reduced to four hour days, drop the Hot Lunch program in the high school.

We urge you to cast your ballot for the youth of Tecumseh; vote "yes" on the millage issue.

Thank you.

Students for Better Education,
Signed by 440 Students.

Student Offers His Opinion

TO THE EDITORS:

It has been said that to make an intelligent decision about a problem, a person must familiarize himself with both sides of the issue to be decided and then make his decision.

We tend to put off things which don't have any great bearing on our future, but which may greatly affect the future of others. I, along with over three thousand other students, am deeply concerned about our future.

Billions of dollars are invested each year in stocks and bonds. But, even with all of these I can think of no better investment than one which will aid the progress and future of America.

I believe that all parents would like their children to grow up and be able to live better than they themselves. The best way to secure this betterment — this earning power — is through a good education.

Knowledge made America what it is today — knowledge gained through an education. An education gives a person many things and is given to us in many forms, but the most practical and useful form is the one which all the youth of our free country enjoy — school.

I am not of age to vote or to take part in any political dealings which will concern my future as well as the future of thousands of others. So I am pleading with those of you who CAN DO SOMETHING about the future.

Please try to familiarize yourselves with both sides of the issues concerning the future of our country and our lives.

Thank you.

Larry McClain.

Brooklyn Woman Protests

TO THE EDITORS:

I wish to exercise the American privilege of protest regarding the tearing down of old St. Peter's, which your newspaper reported in the Feb. 22 issue.

As an Episcopalian, and a member of another church that Rev. Lyster established at a later date (St. Michael's — Cambridge Junction), I deplore the fact that our heritage is soon to pass into history and be but a cherished memory.

And, I ask for what purpose? Can parking space take the place of tradition? Can a new church have the same historic associations? If it is a matter of funds to preserve the church has the public been appealed to, or the Episcopal church in general?

The history of St. Peter's is known to many throughout our state and in other states as well. Before I moved to the state of Michigan in 1950, I was told about its history in Philadelphia.

St. Peter's Church is written up in all guide books of the state. It attracts tourists to Tecumseh who would not otherwise come. With old St. Peter's gone, will also go the last tangible link that Tecumseh has with its historic past.

The Rev. Mr. Lyster, a devoted and dedicated minister, served his congregations without pay since he was a wealthy man in his own right. He sought money to build the Tecumseh church from churches all over the East.

President Andrew Jackson contributed, as did Daniel Webster and Henry Clay. The story of the founding of the parish is told in the files of the Pioneer Association of the Nineteenth Century, and in a pamphlet preserved in the Tecumseh Library files — St. Peter's Church, Tecumseh, the Pioneer Parish 1831-1910 by J. M. Harris and Vestry.

In it one reads of the early settlers of Tecumseh, Musgrove Evans, the Browns who wanted Lyster to build this church. Lyster himself called the Tecumseh church, in a letter to the missionary society in the East "Our beautiful house that is already occupied by a very [illegible] and attentive congregation." (Letter Nov. 21, 1835, The Spirit of Missions — Vol. 1, 1836).

There are few churches in this area that have behind them the record of continuous worship since 1832. In fact, there are few historic buildings in Michigan from that era.

There are older parishes both Protestant and Catholic — but no older church. None of Detroit's churches can claim such a distinguished ancestry!

If the beautiful old church St. Peter's passes into oblivion, another Lyster church might well claim the title of being "The oldest Episcopal Church west of the Alleghenies," St. John's in Clinton, built in 1836. Does Tecumseh want to loose her claim to this title?

What can be done? We can protest. We can write letters. We can start petitions. Many a lesser monument has been preserved merely because it is old, but St. Peter's has intrinisic value that can not be challanged.

The Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan should know also through letters that the people of Tecumseh love their landmark.

I have a two and one-half year old daughter. I would like to think that she will grow up with some of her pioneer heritage remaining in this area, and that she, too, will enjoy the sight of St. Peter's beautiful steeple lit at night as a reminder that God's house is eternal.

Respectfully,

Mrs. Reginald Angus,
Rural Rt. 2,
Brooklyn, Mich.

Documentary Film Slated for Friday

The National Association of Evangelicals will present a World Day of Prayer service at Tecumseh Friends Church Friday evening.

A part of the service will be the showing of the film entitled "The Bridge", a 20 minute documentary film of the overseas effect of the ministry of the National Association of Evangelicals.

Viewers will be taken inside the State Department in Washington, to a classroom in Africa, among the hungry of India, to the suffering of Korea and accompanying a native evangelist through the Phillipines.

They will see how the NAE provides the bridge to opportunities for the ministry of the Gospel around the world.

The following churches will participate in the service:

Assembly of God
Church of God
Church of the Nazarene
Missionary Baptist
Raisin Center Friends
Ridgeway Nazarene
Tecumseh Friends

The service at 7:30 will follow the prayer booklet written by Dr. Merrill C. Tenney, dean of the graduate school at Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill.

The Rev. Paul Brantingham said, "This is a service for the entire family. A nursery is provided and the public is invited."

Eight Area Churches Come to Tecumseh

The Tecumseh Friends Church will be host to members of eight area Friends churches March 29.

Adrian, Raisin Valley, Raisin Center, Rollin, Selkirk, Lupton, Ypsilanti, and Battle Creek will all be represented at a missionary retreat here.

Ladies interested in this endeavor will meet at 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. with a potluck dinner at noon.

Mrs. Everett Cattell, wife of the president of Malone College, will be the speaker.

Mrs. Cattell was born in China of missionary parents, who were both doctors and served there for many years.

Dr. Cattell and his wife had also spent many years as missionaries in India.

Writing books and poetry are among her many accomplishments.

Mrs. Clifton Robinson, wife of a Friends minister, will also be featured at this event.

The Robinson family resided in New Delhi, India for many years where Mr. Robinson founded the Christians Business Men's Association working mostly with the better educated Indians.

Dr. Byron Osborne, a president of Malone College for many years, is the father of Mrs. Robinson.

Lenten Series At Gloria Dei

Ash Wednesday opened the weekly Lenten services to be held each Wednesday until Easter at 7:30 p.m. in the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church.

Well-Known Minister Will Speak

The Rev. Clifton Robinson of New Dehli, India will be speaking at the Tecumseh Friends Church, Sunday evening at 7:30.

The Rev. Mr. Robinson is well known to friends in this area as the speaker who encouraged the late Perry Hayden in the Dynamic Kernels project.

For the past 12 years the Rev. and Mrs. Robinson have represented the Friends Church as missionaries in India. The last six years they were stationed in New Dehli as Missionaries-at-Large to India.

Recently his time has been divided between the International Christian Leadership group and Ohio Yearly Meeting of Friends Mission.

The Rev. Robinson has traveled extensively over India setting up prayer cells among the Indian leaders.

Mr. Hawthorne Will Speak at Service

Union Lenten services will be held Wednesday, March 14 at the Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Frank Hawthorne of St. Peter's Episcopal Church as the speaker.

Anyone interested is invited to attend this service, one of a series to be held weekly throughout Lent.

Girl Scouts Attend Church in Group

Sunday has been designated as Girl Scout Sunday and young ladies and their leaders will attend First Methodist Church.

In keeping with the significance of the day the Rev. Allen Wittrup will speak on the subject "Wanted—A Girl" at the 10 a.m. service.

Adult Class Will Be Held Wednesdays

Adult instruction classes each Thursday evening at St. Peter's Episcopal Church began this week and continue through Lent.

Evening prayer will open the sessions in the church at 7:45 and the class will continue in the parish hall at 8 p.m.

Regular Lenten services will be held Thursdays beginning March 15 at 12:05 noon with the service of holy communion followed by the Lenten luncheon, as in other years.

Morning prayer at 11:15 for children on an early lunch hour will be followed by a luncheon at 11:30.

HEAD, HAND, HEART AND HOME POSTERS GO UP—Jim, Tom and Cindi Feight, members of the Lanning Wolverine 4-H Club are shown placing their posters in observance of National 4-H Week, March 4-10. There are about 10 clubs in Tecumseh and area. Groups are busily making plans for summer projects and a style revue to be presented March 30 at the Presbyterian Church.

This Is 4-H Week

This is National 4-H Club Week.

There are two million boys and girls in 4-H clubs. Of this number, there are 71,000 in Michigan with 1,432 members in Lenawee County from 68 clubs.

This year's 4-H Club Week theme is "4-H is good for youth and good for you."

Club members of Lenawee have various interest and capabilities. They are enthusiastic in their need to pursue a particular skill with the help and cooperation of the Lenawee County Extension Agents, Gary Seevers, and Jane Campbell, the Michigan State University and their club leaders.

A representative club in this area is the Lanning Wolverines 4-H Club. Members are enrolled in handicraft projects, entomology, electrical, sewing, plastics and gardening.

This group meets at least once each month to work, for instruction, recreation or evaluation of each member's progress.

They meet in the recreational basement of the James Feight home. Mr. and Mrs. Feight who started this group say that if any one feels they would like to do something for their children or other children which will be a "lasting asset" to them when they reach adulthood in business and religious life, in pursuit of a living and happiness, 4-H work is one answer.

It provides fellowship while learning and stresses importance of the head, heart, hands and health.

The annual spring-round up of 4-H activities which will be a Style Revue and Crafts Show March 30 in the Presbyterian Church at 8. Parents and public are invited to attend.

The Clinton 4-H, Franklin Maidens, Tecumseh Top Notchers, Britton-Macon 4-H, Ridgeway Sunny Rays, Country-Hi-Steppers, Raisin-Cane, Lucky Clovers and Lanning Wolverines are those joining together for this event.

"When God measures a man, he puts the tape around the heart not the head!"

OBITUARIES

● JAMES FLOYD KOTTS

Graveside services were conducted at Brookside cemetery Tuesday morning for James Kotts, two-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kotts of Pentecost Highway, Onsted.

The baby was born [illegible] Herrick Memorial Hospital and died Sunday afternoon.

Besides his parents he is survived by a brother, Ned Joseph Kotts; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kotts of North Adrian Highway and Mrs. Helen Butler of Onsted.

His great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dutch of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Kotts of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hansen of Pearson, Fla. also survive.

● MAX L. FOX

Services will be held Thursday afternoon at the Grace Lutheran church for Max L. Fox, 51, who died Monday afternoon at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

He had been in and out of the local hospital and University Hospital at Ann Arbor several times during the past few months, and succumbed to a heart condition which had been troubling him for several years.

Mr. Fox was a veteran employee of the Consumer Power Co., serving with the utility firm for 28 years. He was well known in Tecumseh and surrounding area.

In 1950, he and his family moved here from Jackson, living first on S. Union St. and then four years ago they purchased a new home at 507 Stacy St.

He was born in Blueford, Ill., on June 17, 1910.

In 1939 he married Dorothy Jordan, who survives, as well as three children: Dianne, Gerald and Roger; one grandson; father, John Fox, and brother William Fox, both of Salem, Ill.

Services are to be at 1:30 with the Rev. K. F. Koeplin officiating. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery at Jackson.

● MRS. ADDIE M. HILLS

Services were held Wednesday at the Collins-Corkery Funeral Home for Mrs. Addie M. Hills, 73, of Tipton who died early Sunday at Herrick Memorial Hospital where she had been a patient since Feb. 28.

Mrs. Hills was born Jan. 16, 1889, at Brooklyn, the daughter of S. S. and Mary Lewis Love.

She was preceded in death by her two husbands Edward Yenor and Cuyler H. Hills.

Mrs. Hills is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Harold Butler of Tecumseh; five sons, Roy and William Yenor of Tecumseh, Nick Yenor of Toledo and George and Cuyler Hills of Adrian; 18 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

A brother, George Love of Hillsdale, two sisters, Mrs. Rose Smith of Flint and Mrs. Mable Magle of Ann Arbor also survive.

The Rev. Paul Brantingham officiated and burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

● VICTOR J. SPROULL

Services were held Thursday in Battle Creek for Victor Sproull, 63, of Haviland Dr. who died Feb. 27 at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

A resident of Tecumseh for the past seven years, Mr. Sproull was employed in plant protection at the Tecumseh Products Co.

Mr. Sproull was born in Jackson, the son of James Henry and Mary Donovan Sproull.

At the age of 16 he enlisted in the Army and served overseas during World War I.

After the war he became a member of the Detroit Police Department, where he served 25 years, retiring in 1946 as a detective.

In 1946 he went to Battle Creek where he was the manager of the Battle Creek Sanatarium Laundry.

Surviving are his wife, the former Mabel Turner Owen, to whom he was married in 1949; three daughters, Mrs. Harmon Reynolds of Battle Creek, Mrs. Robert Linroghe of Chicago and Mrs. Eldon Cole of Lacey, Mich.

Two step-sons, Robert and Roger Gwen, both of Battle Creek also survive.

Burial was in Battle Creek.

● MRS. JULIUS UNGERER

Services were held at the Niblack Funeral Home Feb. 26 for Mrs. Julius Ungerer, 79, of Britton, who died in Herrick Memorial Hospital where she had been a patient only a few hours.

Born Aug. 27, 1882, the daughter of James and Essie Folsom Harstell of Cass City, Mich., she moved to Detroit in 1901 where she operated a dresshop.

Dec. 3, 1950, she married Julius Ungerer in Detroit. They moved to Britton in 1961.

Mrs. Ungerer was preceded in death by a brother, Vern Hartsell, in 1943.

She is survived by her husband; two brothers, Claude Hartsell of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Ola Hartsell of Riviera, Fla., five nieces and two nephews.

The Rev. Luciani officiated and burial was in the cemetery at Attica, Mich.

Bearers were Donald and Ronald Maschino, Larry Hartsell and Wilton Staulter.

Card of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS—We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to all for their many acts of kindness, the flowers, cards and food. To the Rev. Frank W. Hawthorne for his prayers and comforting words, Mr. Dunn of the Dunn Funeral Home for his many courtesies, the pall bearers and all who helped in any way during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father.

The family of Guy Nixon

Memoriam

MEMORIAL — In memory of Lizzie Hamilton.

You leave behind our broken hearts
That loved you most sincere,
That never do nor ever will Forget you, Mother dear.
A cheer, a smile, a heart of gold,
You suffered more than you ever told;
A friend to all, your last would give
No better mother ever lived.

John Hamilton and family.

CUB SQUAD — Front, from left, Coach Fay Greene, Jim Biscupski, Bob Donahoe, Jim Greene and Mike Wykes. Back, Ken Bagby, Ken Peters, Eric Wilkens and Bill Prohaska. AT RIGHT—High-scoring Eric Wilkens pops in a basket against Adrian St. Mary's last Saturday

Cub Cager Averages 14 Per Contest

Eric Wilkens poured in 113 points during the eight-game schedule played by St. Elizabeth's junior high basketball team this season.

This was a 14-point-per-game average for the seventh grade lad, stamping him as one of the Catholic school's best scorers in its eight-year history.

Coach Fay Greene is looking forward to having Eric back for one more season of play.

Other outstanding scorers during the past year were Jim Biscupski, who had 69 and Bill Prohaska with 30.

The squad was rounded out by Bob Donahoe, Jim Greene, Ken Bagby, Nick Hebert, Ken Peters and Mike Wykes.

The team's record included five wins and three losses.

Coach Greene also fielded a reserve club which posted three victories and five losses.

The second crew included Rory O'Connor, Louie Caterina, Thomas Laughran, Tom Neidlinger, Joe Caterina, Francis Moros, Mike Haeussler, Mike Velandra, Mike Duffin and Roger Young.

St. Elizabeth's engaged teams from Boysville, Brooklyn, Hudson Sacred Heart and Adrian St. Mary's.

Can Indians Continue?

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh's Indians didn't fare too well during the season. But last Friday's victory over Grosse Ile boosted Tecumseh's record to 6-9—6-8 in the Huron League—and marked the first time in two years that THS has won two games in a row.

Tecumseh's easy 69-50 win over GI was impressive, the Indians best game of the season.

This was the first time this year that the Tecumseh five both shot and handled the ball well. A repeat performance against the Airport Jets in Friday's tourney at 7 o'clock would give the once-beaten league champs trouble. The game will be at Dundee.

Only two members of the varsity will be missing from next season's squad. High scoring forward John Britton and reserve Wayne Davis bowed out before home fans in their final prep game.

Britton, held to just two points in the first half, came back strong in the final two periods for 15 and a total of 17 tallies. Davis entered the game midway in the final stanza and dropped in a lay-up for two points.

Norm Tucker took game scoring honors with 23 points and seemingly couldn't miss in the first half when he collected eight goals for 16 points. The final two points came on a long one just short of midcourt and dropped through as the buzzer sounded.

☆

COACH DOUG MURDOCH used his entire bench and nine of the 13 players scored. Only starter Mike Osburn, reserves Bradley McCombs, Dennis Martin and Phil Radant missed out in the scoring column.

GI was never in the game after the first period. Tecumseh, ahead by just two points at the end of the initial quarter, poured in 19 points in the second while holding the Red Devils to just seven.

Coach Jim Hoffman's junior varsity five had an equally-easy time with a 43-30 victory.

The Jayvees held a 26-16 lead at the half and increased it in the final two quarters. Top scorer was Jim Baker with nine points.

Torie 5 Starting Along Tourney Tail

Riding the crest of a 16-game winning streak, the Britton-Macon Tories started on the tournament trail Wednsday night, facing Ypsilanti St. John's in the Class D District at Adrian.

Britton was ranked as a big favorite to get past its opening tourney foe, which posted a 3 and 11 mark for the season.

In the other bracket, Cement City and Deerfield met with the winners slated to do battle Friday evening at 7:30. The lone survivor advances to the Ypsilanti Sectional.

Britton closed out its regular year with a resounding 46-28 victory over Deerfield on the Torie court. Point-making was spaced nicely between Dave Bailey (13), Larry Hummel (12) and Phil Benedict (10).

In season scoring, Benedict ranked third in Lenawee County, tossing in 265 points for a 17.7 game average, Bailey was in 12th position with a 12.6 average on 201 tallies.

Vaccine Can Halt Cholera

Vocational agriculture was the topic at the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club last week.

Paul Burns, instructor in vo ag at the Tecumseh Public High School, presented the highlights of the local program.

He indicated that the 47 members of vo ag are all participants in the FFA chapter's sheep, broilers, swine and corn projects.

Mr. Burns then introduced one of his students, Carl Bower, who is a sophomore in vo ag and active in the FFA programs.

Carl presented a talk on "Hog Cholera" emphasizing that it is a virus infection of the blood stream in swine which has now reached the near-epidemic stage.

He suggested effective control and prevention can be had for vaccinating each pig.

Eastern Stars Holding Dinner Friday Evening

Mrs. Harry Beland, assisted by Mrs. Robert Bonner, will have charge of the arrangements for a public cafeteria style dinner Friday from 5 to 7 p.m.

The dinner, featuring bar-be-cues, is sponsored by the Order of the Eastern Star and will be at the Masonic Temple.

Other items on the menu are tuna casserole, escalloped potatoes, home baked beans, cole slaw and home made pies.

Fluoride Treatment Available

Final requests and fees are now being accepted for the summer topical fluoride program to be held in Lenawee County.

This program is being sponsored by the Lenawee Dental Health Committee in cooperation with the Lenawee County Health Department and advisers Richard S. Youngs, DDS and Donald H. Fox, DDS and the Michigan Department of Health.

The topical application of sodium fluoride to newly-erupted teeth will reduce new tooth decay by 40% in groups of children.

In addition to these benefits the program offers a valuable educational experience with no discomfort involved, health and dental education is given the child by the the clinic personal.

Each child is given a free toothbrush also.

The entire procedure consists of four visits to the topical fluoride clinic which will be held in the local schools. At the first visit the teeth are cleansed and the first application given.

An application of sodium fluoride consists of the teeth being isolated with cotton rolls.

Then the teeth are dried with compressed air and 2% solution of sodium fluoride is applied to the teeth with cotton tip plication of the sodium fluoride and fourth appointments the application of hte sodium fluoride is repeated.

Any child who is a pre-schooler three, four or five years old, a kindergartner, second, fifth or eighth grade is eligible to enoll in the program. Special cases referred by the family dentist will also be accepted.

The fee for the cleansing and the four applications is $2 for the first child and $1 for any other child in the family who is eligible.

The fee and consent cards must be returned to the school or local chairman by March 23 in order for applications to be accepted.

Area chairmen are: Britton — Mrs. Carl Hawkins, Macon 59F2; Tecumseh — Mrs. Sevedus Maples, HA 3-3948.

Blue, Gold Banquet Attracts 60

BRITTON — The Cub Scout Blue and Gold Banquet was held last Monday evening in the Britton Methodist Church dining room with 60 persons attending.

After the invocation by the Rev. George Luciani, the group enjoyed a turkey supper, which was prepared and served by Jenny and Martha Circles of the church.

The tables were decorated in the month's theme of presidents.

Following dinner, group singing was led by Mrs. Harold Jeffers.

The presentation of the charter from the National Council of Boy Scouts of America was made by Wayne McCarty, Ned Kubitz, and Lester Ruhl.

The charter was accepted by the Rev. Mr. Luciani in behalf of the Britton Methodist Church which sponsors the Cub Scouts.

Membership cards were given to 23 boys.

A movie "Jubilee Jamboree" was shown by cubmaster Wayne Dunbar.

The Living Circle was formed by all members of the Pack.

The program was closed with the benediction by the Rev. Mr. Luciani.

European Color Slides Are Shown

BRITTON — Twenty-two members and two guests were present last Wednesday at the Duets Class meeting at the Congregational Christian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks were hosts for the potluck supper, which preceded the business meeting.

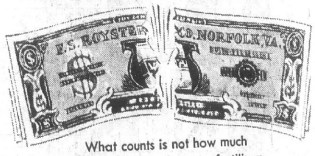
Look before you leap at cut-rate prices!



What counts is not how much or how you pay for your fertilizer

What counts is the number of dollars per acre your fertilizer produces in the field

Famous Royster quality may cost more. But the return in extra dollar yields is many times more than the small extra price you might pay. There are important dollar differences in results obtained from different brands of the same analysis. Field-prove it yourself... and earn bigger dollar yields to boot!

THROUGH MY WINDOW

INFREQUENT VISITORS

Did anone notice that in last week's article the list of birds who made our snowy Sunday so much fun, did not include blue jays? It was not a mistake, we did not just forget to mention them, they simply weren't around. In fact, they haven't been around all winter long.

Occasionally we hear one scream and even less frequently a streak of blue and white flashes through the window picture; once in a while Marsh's bird feeders attract a jay but without exaggerating, I think we have hosted one not more than a dozen times.

This is not only unusual, it is practically unheard of! We have always had blue jays, they were among the most faithful of all the regulars.

In the summertime they can be almost too faithful. When it starts getting light early in the morning we have no need for an alarm clock — if breakfast isn't out the minute he thinks it should be, a blue jay sits in the wren-tree and screams 'til we are up and his breakfast is served.

Believe me, it can be a rude awakening and what a way to start a fine summer day!

Last fall we had blue jays, lots of them! Our bird calendar shows three or four notations about six of the blue beauties being on the feeder at a time.

What, we wonder, is wrong with them lately? The feeder is stocked the same, plenty of corn, scratch feed and sunflower seeds.

This is our first 'blue jayless' winter and we don't like it—we wish they would come back or at least let us know what the trouble is.

One possible explanation is that maybe they are being influenced by those stubborn evening grosbeaks. They are both doing a good job of boycotting us.

☆

EARLY IN the winter, it was on a Saturday because Dad was home, we noticed something 'hung' on the trunk of Marsh's lovely old elm.

Not the right size for a flicker nor the right color for a hairy woodpecker, with the aid of the binoculars, we finally decided it was a yellow-bellied sapsucker.

Altho' exciting at the time I had almost forgotten the incident—after all, it had not been repeated and so many other things are happening all the while.

Just the other day, however, an unkept rough looking bird spent a few minutes looking over the corn tree. The sap-sucker had returned!

It was a short visit though—from the corntree he came to the feeder post but he than flew away without ever discovering the tray and its serving of tasty suet.

The camera was all set and what a disappointment when he never came into range. We only have one picture of a sapsucker and it's not a good one but they come to the feeder so infrequently that we are happy to have that one.

Maybe the bad weather will force him to the feeder and when he does come, we will have suet ready and also the camera. He won't take a pretty picture, his feathers are so ragged and well, let's face it — a yellow-bellied sapsucker is a cross, untidy looking bird! Even so, we would love to have more pictures of him to add to our collection.

The last casual caller we will have time to discuss is, I'm happy to say, gradually working out of the infrequent visitor category. The big black and white beauty, Mr. Hairy Woodpecker, has in the past week re-discovered us.

Last year he was a regular, our fingers are crossed that he'll become one again. His size, about nine inches — vivid coloring, enormous head and tremendous bill make the hairy one of the most exciting birds to visit the feeder.

I understand he has had a happy home over on Pottawatamie Street. I wouldn't want to take him away from there completely, but wouldn't it be nice if he would commute between here and there!

So it is that although our feeders are very busy this winter, there are a few friends who mysteriously remain infrequent visitors.

SOCIAL SECURITY
Questions and Answers

QUESTION: Can an individual figure out how much time he needs under social security to receive retirement benefits?

ANSWER: Yes, there is a comparatively simple way. Under the 1961 amendments an individual needs quarters of coverage equal to the number of years after 1950 up to the year of reaching 62 for women, 65 for men.

QUESTION: Should the statement of my earnings I receive from the Social Security Administration agree with my records of what I have made?

ANSWER: Not necessarily. The statement you receive should reflect the amounts reported for social security. Prior to 1951, this would not be more that $3000 a year; from 1951-1954, $3600 a year; 1955-1958, $4200 a year; and 1959 on, $4800 a year. The earnings statement will not necessarily agree with a man's total pay.

QUESTION: Do you have to work in every quarter in order to get credit for all four quarters of the year?

ANSWER: No. If you receive wages of $4800 or more during a year, you get credit for all four quarters of that year, even if you receive no wages in some of the quarters.

QUESTION: Is it ever too late to check my earnings record?

ANSWER : No, it is never too late, but if there is a mistake in the record the sooner you find out about it the easier it is to get the error corrected. Employers are not required to keep records indefinitely. They may move, or go out of business. Any of these things can make it very difficult, if not impossible, to correct an earnings record.

QUESTION: What is a quarter of coverage?

ANSWER: A quarter of coverage is a term used by social security to measure the amount work done by an individual. For social security purposes, the year is divided into four quarters. If you are an employee, the payment of $50 in wages in a quarter gives you social security credit for that quarter. You need a certain number of credits to become eligible for social security payments.

QUESTION: I only work six months a year; however, my earnings are over the maximum of $4800. Will I only get credit for 2 quarters a year?

ANSWER: No. If you receive wages of $4800 or more during a year, you will be credited with 4 quarters of coverage.

QUESTION: I worked for two years before I became 16. Will I receive social security credit for this work?

ANSWER: Yes. If the job was covered by the social security law, you will get credit for your work. There is no age limit. You will receive credit no matter how young or how old you are.

QUESTION: How many quarters of coverage do I need to get the maximum social security payment?

ANSWER: Quarters of coverage are only used to determine if you will receive social security payments. The amount of your payment is determined by the amount of your earnings.

QUESTION: I sent off for a statement of my social security earnings but they didn't give me credit for my military service from 1953 to 1956. Why?

ANSWER: Your military service credits will be figured and included with your account when you apply for your old-age retirement or disability payments.

Q. If I work at a department store for only six weeks during the Christmas season, must I get a social security card and must social security taxes be paid on my wages?

A. Yes. Everyone working in a business must have a social security number and pay social security taxes no matter how short a time he works.

Q. My regular work is not covered by the Social Security Act. But I take time off each Christmas season to buy and sell trees for profit. I've done this for several years. Could I qualify for benefits on this work?

A. If your income from Christmas tree sales — after deducting expenses connected with this business — is at least $400. per year, you are eligile for social security coverage. You should ask your nearest social security office about getting a card and paying taxes on your income.

QUESTION: I'm 63. I make $4,800 a year as a teacher. Since I'm paid on a 12-month basis, I get a salary check even during the 3 summer months, when I'm not teaching. My husband says I can collect social security for these months. Is that true?

ANSWER: Yes. You can get social security retirement payments for any month you don't earn over $100. The salary you receive in the summer vacation months was actually earned during the school term.

TIPTON — Family night and a Court of Honor was held recently at the Tipton Community Church.

Scoutmaster William Kukral openeu the ceremony by lighting the candle of Scouting.

The candle was then given to Senior Patrol Leader, Richard VanSickle, who lighted the candles representing the Law of Scouting and the Scout Oath, which was repeated in unison by the troop.

Senior Patrol Leader Warrent was granted to Richard Van Sickle.

Assistant Senior Patrol Leader Warrant was granted to Timothy Baker.

Patrol Leader Warrent was granted to Billy Kukral of Patrol No. 1, the Trappers.

Patrol Leader Warrent was granted to Steve Daniels of the Soaring Hawks, Patrol No. 3.

Tenderfoot patches were awarded to Jim Wimple and Norman Jones.

Second class awards were presented to David Beaty and Jim Wimple.

First Class Scout Awards were given to Collin Burnett and Robert Snyder.

Merit badges for music were awarded to Richard Van Sickle and Timothy Baker.

One-year service stars were given to Collin Burnett and David Sneary.

Collin was also presented a Scout silverware set for selling the most tickets to the Chili supper.

He was also given a pathfinder compass for his Patrol for selling the most tickets as a patrol.

Following the ceremony refreshments were enjoyed by all.

MR. KUKRAL said, "I would like to say thanks to everyone who helped to make our recent chili supper the success that it was."

"With the proceeds we were able to order four tents for the troop, which brings the total to eight."

"As we can sleep three boys to a tent the whole troop will now be able to go on over-night campouts together," he said.

Any adults wishing to give a little of their time to Scouting in the Tipton area, please contact Mr. Kukral, Tipton GL 1-2503.

Work Starting on Relocation of Route M-52

Work on the relocation of 4.2 miles of M-52 from US-12, south to M-50 near Clinton will begin shortly.

The new roadway, which eventually will become the southbound lane of a divided highway, will be located about two miles west of existing M-52.

At US-12, the new roadway connects with M-92. Until the northbound lane of the proposed divided highway is completed, the new roadway will carry two-way traffic.

Completion date is Aug. 31, 1963.

A 56-foot long bridge to carry relocated M-52 over Evans Creek about four miles northwest of Tecumseh is slated to be done Oct. 31, 1962.

Price, spice and everything nice!

Who ever thought a car that saves like this could have so much sizzle? Chevrolet engineers, that's who! Liveliness and luxury for a low, low price were exactly what they had in mind to begin with. And they began from scratch with a whole carload of ingenious new ideas designed to give you more for your money. That spunky 6 with gas-sipping stinginess is just one example. Another: a new unitized Body by Fisher that's fit for a full-size family inside, easy to park outside. Still another: tough but gentle one-piece Mono-Plate rear springs that outdo many a bigger car for quiet comfort. Any wonder Chevy II won Car Life magazine's 1962 Engineering Excellence award hands down? Irish Hills Playhouse Opening

The Irish Hills Playhouse, a new resident, professional summer stock theatre will open June 15.

The theatre will occupy the building at US 12 and Hane Rd., one-quarter mile west of Hayes State Park.

Until recently, it was the home of the Irish Hills Super Market.

The season of five plays will be produced by Larry and Dorothy Burns. Mr. Burns is formerly of Tipton and prior to 1953 was associated with educational and community theatre in Louisiana and San Antonio.

The theatre will be an intimate 200 seat arena style playhouse, utilizing a novel seating arrangement on opposite sides of a centrally located stage.

This arrangement is expected to combine the advantages of proscenium and arena theatre.

The producers have been in negotiations since April with several people of wide experience in the New York theatre and professional theatre outside New York and expect to announce shortly the completion of contracts for director and technical director.

As is traditional in summer stock, the acting company will be drawn from the professional theatre and drama schools.

They will live, work and eat together, joining for rehearsals, set construction, costuming, lighting and all aspects of theatre production.

An apprentice program for training young and talented people in the theatre arts is planned and the theatre will offer some scholarships for particularly promising apprentices.

The season opens with Ferenc Molnar's romantic comedy,

● MRS. JAMES P. ADAMS

Services were held Monday at the Niblack Funeral Home for Mrs. James Adams, 86, of Britton who died Saturday at 7:05 a.m. at Herrick Memorial Hospital where she had been a patient for ten days.

She was born in Roseville, O. Aug. 21, 1875, the daughter of Enos and Lucy James.

She married James P. Adams in Bloomington, Ill., April 25, 1895.

They lived in Illinois until 1912 when they moved to the Britton area.

Mrs. Adams was an active member of the Britton Methodist church and the Britton Woman's Club.

She is survived by three sons, Clifford of Tecumseh, Harold of Deerfield and Clyde of Whittaker; two daughters, Mrs. Archie Hintz of Metamora, O. and Mrs. Norman Wirth of Champaign, Ill.

Two sisters, Mrs. Clara Duckworth of Alma and Mrs. Anna Hinton of Middleton; 20 grandchildren and 50 great grandchildren also survive.

Her husband and two daughters preceded her in death.

Burial was in the Ridgeway Cemetery.

● DOUGLAS D. PRECIVAL

Douglas D. Precival, 72, died Feb. 22 at Herrick Memorial Hospital where he had been a patient for four days.

Mr. Precival was the father of Mrs. Richard Loughney of 106 E. Kilbuck St. and had made his home during the last few winters with the Loughneys.

He was born at Teska, Kans., Sept. 10, 1889, moving when a boy to Red Lodge.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Daisy, in 1959.

Besides his daughter, Mrs. Loughney, he is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Kenyon of Boyd, Mont., five grandchildren; five brothers and three sisters.

A prayer service was conducted by the Rev. Allen Wittrup Feb. 22 at the Collins-Corkery Funeral Home. The body was sent to Red Lodge for burial in Lockdale cemetery there.

● GUY HOWARD NIXON

Services were held Saturday morning at St. Peter's Church for Guy Nixon, 60, who died Thursday evening at Bixby Hospital where he had been a patient for six days.

Mr. Nixon was born Sept. 8, 1901, in Paulding county, O., the son of George and Mary Howard Nixon.

He married Mariam Wood at Toledo Dec. 23, 1941. Mr. Nixon operated a barber shop at Morenci 13 years before moving to Tecumseh two and a half years ago.

His residence is at 304 Miami Court.

A great admirer of music, Mr. Nixon for several years served as a part-time instructor in guitar lessons and had been employed at Nixon-Marbro at Adrian.

He was a dance orchestra leader for many years.

He was a veteran of World War I and was a former member of the Masonic lodge and OES at Morenci.

He also was a member of St. Peter's Episcopal church here.

Besides his wife he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Mary Letessa of Walled Lake; three grandchildren and an aunt, Mrs. Frank Reickoff of Atazadero, Calif.

A requiem celebration of holy communion was read by the Rev. Frank Hawthorne and burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

The Green-Dunn Funeral Home made arrangements for the funeral.

● LLOYD WOODCOX

Services were held Tuesday in Traverse City for Lloyd Woodcox, 67, brother of Richard Woodcox of 108 N. Maiden Lane.

A former resident of Tecumseh, Lloyd Woodcox died suddenly Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in a Traverse City hospital.

He was formerly employed by Heesen's and Brewer's Foundry in Tecumseh and moved to Traverse City about 40 years ago.

He is survived by his wife, Mable Winters Woodcox, 11 children, a number of grandchildren, his brother and a sister, Mrs. Howard Parsons of Pioneer, O.

● FREDERICK BURKERT

Services were held Feb. 26 in Erie, Mich. for Frederick Burkert, brother of Mrs. Leon Williamson, who died Feb. 23 from a heart ailment at his residence in Erie.

He is survived by his wife, one son and four daughters, one brother, Henry of Adrian and four other sisters.

Burial was in St. Joseph cemetery in Erie.

RESOLUTION

Meeting of the Common Council of the City of Tecumseh, County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, held on the 19th day of February, 1962 in the Council Chambers of the City Hall, Tecumseh, Michigan.

PRESENT: Mayor Easton, Councilman Bonner, Hamilton, Lamb, Mackin, Schwartz, Welch.

ABSENT: None.

The following Preamble and Resolution was offered by Councilman Welch and supported by Councilman Mackin.

WHEREAS application has been made by St. Peter's Episcopal Church to close and vacate that portion of Evans (now known as Church Street) which is adjacent to the St. Peter's Episcopal Church on the West side of Lot 97, Assessor's Plat No. 1; and

WHEREAS the street is of no utility to the City or to the public and it appears that the vacating thereof would be of benefit to said Church.

NOW THEREFORE THE CITY OF TECUMSEH RESOLVES:

1. That Monday, 19 March 1962 at 8:00 P. M. at the Council Chambers of the City of Tecumseh, situate in the City Hall of 309 East Chicago Boulevard, Tecumseh, Michigan is designated as the time and place at which the Common Council shall hear objections there be. Objections to the closing should be filed with the City Clerk before the hour of hearing.

2. That the portion of land affected by this Resolution is that portion of Church Street (formerly known as Evans Street) the North boundary of which is a line extended from the Northwest corner of Lot 97, Assessor's Plat No. 1 to the Northeast corner of the former Railroad property as so designated on said Plat; the East border of which is described as the West line of Lots 97 and 98, said Plat; the South line of which is a line drawn from the Southwest corner of Lot 98, said Plat to the intersection of the West line of Evans Street with the North line of Shawnee Street; the West line of which is described as the East line of property designated as New York Central Railroad property on Assessor's Plat No. 1.

ORDINANCE DECLARED ADOPTED.

AYES: Unanimous

NAYS: None

What's Going on at Boysville

By DAVE KLAVON

Basketball teams of St. Elizabeth were guests at Boysville gym Sunday to play the little Knights.

The seventh graders of Boysville used their court to advantage and beat the seventh graders of St. Elizabeth, 11-9.

The eighth graders of St. Elizabeth played a good game to beat the Boysville eighth graders for the first time in four years, 35-26.

St. Elizabeth controlled the ball well.

At the half, St. Elizabeth was leading, 22-13, but in the third quarter Boysville tallied six points to come within range.

St. Elizabeth, however, pumped in six more to re-open the gap.

Eric Wilkins of St. Elizabeth was high-point man for the night with 21.

John Klos of Boysville hit 12 for the Knights, while Ed Bertrand pumped in nine.

√

The new dining hall has received its first coat of paint on all surfaces to be painted — walls, ceilings, doors, etc.

Several of the surfaces will receive another coat of paint this week. Things are beginning to look a little brighter now that the paint is on, and would look brighter still if a definite date could be set for moving in.

√

Friday, Feb. 16, found the Boysville Fighting Knights scoring their largest total of points for the season, but still losing to the Whiteford Bobcats, 69-62.

The principal problem besetting the Knights was foul shooting. They connected on only six of 22 attempts, although they out-shot the Bobcats in field goals, 28-21.

The Whiteford five moved out quickly in the first quarter to grab a 24-9 lead at the end of that period.

And although the Knights matched the Bobcats fairly well in the second and third periods, they were still far behind as the final round began.

The fourth quarter saw the 20-point lead enjoyed by the Bobcats whittled down appreciably as the Knights, led by Stan Klos, pushed through 24 tallies to the Bobcats' six.

Most of the markers were on fast-break plays with Klos laying them up one after another.

High-point man for the night was Stan with 28.

Stan is one of the scoring leaders in Lenawee County this season, even though the Knights have not won a contest all season long.

Tony McFarr put in nine points and rebounded well.

Contributing good performances also were Gary Koscielski who substituted for McFarr when he fouled out in the fourth quarter, John Taylor, and Frank Turner.

√

The eighth grade Knights met the eighth grade Minutemen of Deerfield and romped over them last Thursday night, 32-17.

John Klos hit for 18 points.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Spring Show Next

Hardly had the footlight dimmed on "You Can't Take It With You," when the Tecumseh Players were talking about their next show.

The group's reading committee is now busy at work checking possible plays for spring, to round out one of the Player's most successful years.

It is a big year for the little theatre group for several reasons.

One, the number of folks taking active parts—on and off stage—is growing rapidly. More and more area folks are becoming interested in joining the Players.

Two, the audiences at Players' shows is growing—in number and enthusiasm.

We would like to add some general comments on "You Can't Take It With You." About 99% of the remarks we heard about the show fall into this vein, "It was a grand effort. Everyone was excellent. This seemed to be a show in which everyone was pulling for everyone else."

Our reaction was that here was a stage presentation written and acted for pure good fun. It was "a ball" for the actors and audience alike.

We'd like to single out Rick Kureth in action at right for special praise.

Rick is a dedicated showman who probably should be in stage work full-time. He loves it that much and is certainly talented.

Rick wasn't slated to act in this show, but to devote his full efforts as the director. In this endeavor he did a fine job, even under an unexpected complication.

With only three weeks before the curtain was to go up, one of the leads suddenly quit. It was too late to cast someone who wasn't familiar with the blocking (where to stand or sit at various parts of the play, which place to enter, etc.)

So Rick volunteered to take over as "Grandpa" and continue to direct. This is a tough assignment almost like pitching and catching in a baseball game at the same time.

A lot of people are looking forward, we're sure, to the next Players' effort.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

TO THE EDITORS:

I don't know how many of you that are reading this letter, may have been "one of the 500" lovely ladies that were on Friendship I — the Caribbean Cruise which viewed so many wonderful fashions displayed by Delta Airlines.

But — if you were there and enjoyed the Madrigal Singers as much as I did, then — perhaps I can appeal to your cultural instincts and ask you this:

How can anyone of you in that 500, who are of voting age, and have one iota of conscience sit at home on March 20 and NOT get out and vote "YES" on the millage issue.

Do you realize that if this issue is voted down, our young people will no longer have the privilege of any voice instruction in our public school.

Yes, this is only one small part of the opportunities that will be taken from them.

Perhaps you heard the Band Concert on Saturday evening. Mr. Don Johnson is doing a marvelous job with our instrumental students.

Do you want this privilege cut out of the curriculum? You're going to get it if you vote "No"!

Since the powers that be, state local and otherwise may have gotten us in the "mess" we're in, that is no reason to make it worse by refusing the millage.

It seems to me, the only way out now — is a "YES" vote.

No, I'm not for paying more taxes, anyone knows we are swamped with taxes in Tecumseh now, but on the other hand, if you are like I am, the education my children have had and are now receiving is most likely all that I'll ever be able to leave them — education — what better heritage could I leave?

Personally I'm for voting the millage in and with the purposed new business manager we are promised — cutting corners in other ways than in the line of music, sports, etc.

How about less fancy draperies in some of the offices?

You don't want juvenile delinquents! Communism, etc. Here's one more opportunity of blocking it. If our children go to school only half days — we're heading for TROUBLE!

So, come on, vote "YES" on the millage on March 20th!

One of the "500"

Planning Some Home Improvement Projects?

You'll be pleasantly surprised to find out how few pennies it takes to finish off your basement into a recreation room, or add another bedroom in your attic. No money down for materials and we'll arrange financing to fit your pocketbook.

If you're considering –

- A basement recreation room
- Another bedroom in unused attic
- A garage or carport
- Making over an unused bedroom into a den
- Adding a family room

–the first place to come is to Moore's. We'll give you a variety of plans for these jobs and prepare a complete estimate on materials, no obligation, of course.

We will be happy to recommend competent local contractors if you don't care to do the job yourself.

Vital School Vote Tuesday

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Passage of 4-Mill Issue Would Erase $150,000 Debt

In one of the Tecumseh School District's most crucial votes, area citizens will ballot Tuesday on a four-mill issue.

The school board is asking the electorate to approve the millage for two years to retire a $150,000 deficit, return the first grade to full days, re-open Macon and West Branch Schools and to purchase business machines, hire a business manager and two additional secretaries.

Tuesday's vote will be the third time the board has sought additional operating money. In July of 1960, a two-mill levy failed, 917-354. Last May's four-mill request was turned down, 1,509-793.

Voting Tuesday will take place in the high school cafeteria, with the polls opening at 7 a.m. and closing at 8 p.m.

The school board has gone on record to promise the people that the deficit will be retired in two years if the four mills are approved.

The four mills will raise approximately $280,000 over the two-year period.

Returning the first grade to full days will cost about $40,000. The balance of the money will be needed to re-open the two elementary schools, employment of additional teachers and for a new business manager and other business adjustments.

Unless the millage is approved, the board will be forced to cut about $40,000 in services and slash the curriculum to meet next year's budget.

Most reductions will likely be made in the junior and senior high schools, probably placing these secondary grades on a four-hour school day.

Another likely cut is placing the fourth grade on a half-day schedule, plus continuing the first grade on half days.

All registered voters—whether property owners or not—are eligible to vote.

IN THEY GO—With more than 50,000 coupons for the Florida Vacation drawing, the only thing in town big enough to hold them all is a model corn crib from Whelan's Implement. Here Jerry Kapnick dumps coupons into the six-foot high crib. Grand drawing for the big prize will be Saturday night at the Strand Theatre.

Long AND Short

By TOM RIORDAN

"It's no skin off their noses if they vote down the four mills," the lady was saying.

"They don't have any children in school. Of course, they don't realize that someone had to help pay for their education," she concluded.

Here's another angle:

It's like the guy who refused to fix up his home because he thought he couldn't afford it.

Then he went to sell and found out the value of his place had slipped badly.

A neighbor who spent a few hundred dollars for paint and lumber, when it was needed, found the investment brought him back a good profit when he sold.

This is the long-range way to regard the situation.

Vote down the issue and see "your property" (local schools) deteriorate.

Support the millage and protect all property values.

When prospective residents, industries or business places look over a town, with the idea of maybe moving in, they want to know if the schools are in good shape or sub-standard.

If the latter is true, they probably will push on to a city that offers first-rate educational opportunities.

Until the last few years, there was never any question about Tecumseh. We always had the finest.

Another — and far more serious — result of letting the schools slip backwards is the effect it has on the kids.

The youth of a community is its greatest asset.

Call 3-2167 For A Ride

If you wish a ride to the polls Tuesday and would like a baby-sitter while you're away, call HA 3-2167, Ext. 36. This is the number of Students for Better Education, the Tecumseh High young men and women who have volunteered their services to help get out a "Yes" vote.

VOICE OF THE HERALD

Stakes Run Higher Than Most Residents Realize

Parent or not, property owner or renter, we're all going to be affected by Tuesday's four-mill school vote.

The results will not be limited to just the schools and students, but to everyone.

Insuring first-rate educational opportunities for our youth is the prime reason the millage should be approved.

But there are other important aspects, things which will surely have a far-reaching effect on everyone in the community.

Tecumseh at the present has an excellent opportunity to grow, prosper and become an even better place in which to live and work. We want others to move here. A new industrial plant to employ 300 will soon be under construction.

We can gain much by approving the millage, but let's assume it is defeated and our educational system becomes limited and below par in comparison to other schools.

Who is going to move here and send their children to junior high for a half-day? senior high school for a half-day? into the first or fourth grade for a half-day? to the schools here with a half-rate curriculum and reduced services?

The answer is not many, if any.

☆

TECUMSEH FOLKS WILL BE ABLE to boast about their town, but not their schools. We'll still have 50 or more vacant houses, even with a new industrial plant. We'll continue an economy which only last month promised better things to come.

We'll still have two closed elementary school buildings. And, we'll still have a debt-ridden school system unable to keep accepted and recognized standards.

We can't continue to reject our school board's requests for more operating millage without hurting our children, ourselves and our businesses.

The people who have attended the school board meetings, contacted board members for information, and others properly informed are generally in favor of the millage.

Hearsay and rumors have misled many and some of this reported information is not even relative to the issue.

We can help ourelves and our schools by voting for the millage. Passage of the four mills will not cure all of our problems—but it's the vital step to be taken now.

Selected Young Man of '61

Dwight Helms was named Outstanding Young Man of the Year by the Junior Chambers of Commerce at a banquet in the Country Club.

Judges were Mayor Harold Easton, Police Chief Murell Clark and the Rev. Allen Wittrup. They selected Mr. Helms from the four candidates nominated.

About 40 members attended for the presentation of the Distinguished Service Award made by John Day, chairman.

Other candidates were Gene Tuckey, John Babcock and Terry Mackin.

Mr. Helms was nominated by the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce.

Factors leading to his nomination were:

► His activity in the Jaycees.

► His election by over 100 community leaders to the Chamber Board.

► His chairmanship of the Ed Nelson Banquet.

☆

MR. HELMS and his wife, Claire Janice, have one son, Michael Allen, seven months old. They are members of the Methodist Church.

This year's Outstanding Young Man graduated from Lansing Eastern High School and for one term attended Michigan State University studying business administration.

Mr. Helms served two years in the armed forces during the Korean action. He was advisor for the Teen Club for one year.

He has served as secretary, vice president, president and board member of the Jaycees.

In nominating him, Don Murphy stated that, "Dike's ability to organize and motivate people is the hidden force behind many successes our community has enjoyed."

He further stated, "Only last year Dike had the misfortune of losing his father.

"Helms' Furniture Store is one of our largest retail establishments and Dike has taken over and has kept this business on the high level that it had enjoyed.

"Responsibility is one of Dike's many fine characteristics. After being literally dropped in the lead chair in the business only months ago, Dike is now considered, by his colleagues, as a fit and fine businessman."

NEW LAKE—The entire athletic field was flooded early this week when Evans Creek poured hundreds of thousands of gallons of water eastward. This was just one effect of the worst spring floodings in recent years. Frozen ground, thawing snow and a heavy shower Sunday night also combined to flood ditches and wash out roads. Lawrence Escott, foreman of the Tecumseh garage of the Lenawee County Road Commission, said that roads have taken their worst beating in 27 years. Among roads temporarily closed by flooding were parts of Raisin Center, Wellnitz, Valley, Murphy, Billmyer, Blood and Occidental.

Karlene Logan Marries Daniel Pratt

BRITTON — Karlene Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Underwood of 10374 Monroe Rd., Sunday became the bride of Pvt. Daniel L. Pratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pratt of Clinton.

The Rev. G. O. Hannevik performed the ceremony in the Congregational Christian Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ice blue organza. Her matching short veil was draped over a white sequin tiera. Her bouquet was a white orchid with lilies-of-the-valley tied in a shower of ribbons.

Mrs. Dewight Knauss of Clayton was her sister's matron-of-honor. Her rose lace and taffeta gown was set off by beige gloves and shoes, and a hat of linen roses with satin leaves and a rose veil.

Her feathered white carnations and rose glamellias were arranged in cascade design.

☆

DAVID PRATT of Clinton was his brother's best man. Ushers were Norman Pratt of Clinton, cousin of the bridegroom, and Robert Morse of Jasper, cousin of the bride.

A reception for some 200 guests was held in the church parlor after the ceremony. Decorations were in pink and white.

Mrs. Robert Morse of Jasper and Mrs. Richard Lamothe of Detroit, cousins of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Cook of Belleville poured at the reception.

Guests were from Clinton, Adrian, Britton, Jasper, Manchester, Detroit, Belleville, Deerfield, Jackson and South Lyons and Sylvania.

After a short honeymoon, the bride will return to Britton and Pvt. Pratt will return to Ft. Hood, Tex., to resume military duties.

Show Nets $500

The Community Center was filled to capacity for the recent Caribbean Holiday Style Show, which netted $500 for the Hospital Auxiliary.

Thirty-six costumes were modeled by Tecumseh ladies with Fran Wheeler of Delta Airlines as narrator.

Garments from the Manhattan Line, Anne Simpsons and Rose Marie Reed were shown in a delightful tropical setting.

The scene was enhanced with swags of fish net, glass floats, black and yellow shrimp traps, a huge seven-foot umbrella and many bright, colorful, tropical flowers, all arranged by Pickard Floral Shop.

Miles Cowdrey added a rhythm section to music, presented by the Madrigal Singers appropriately garbed in straw hats and cotton blouses.

Larry Harper played a trumpet part for the rendition of "Tamale Joe."

He also played a guiro while Tom Dickinson played claves; Phil Miller, miracas; Don Becker, bongos; and Craig Winters, the conga drum adding to the calypso beat of "Banana Boat Song."

Youngsters from the Peg Harris Studio were beautifully costumed as they danced in the crowded auditorium.

Mrs. Glen Driscoll played an organ and piano provided by Grinnell Bros. of Adrian.

Professor From Ferris Is Speaker

Tecumseh Monday Club members feel fortunate in obtaining Professor Milton J. Kelly of Big Rapids as their after-dinner speaker for Family Night, which will be held at the Tecumseh Grange Hall Monday, with dinner at 6:30 p.m.

Professor Kelly is a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School and has been professor of Business and Pharmacy Law at Ferris Institute since 1946.

He served in the Marine Corp during World War II.

In 1955 he was Man of the Year in Big Rapids.

He was named State Pharmacist in 1957 for work done in Pharmacy Law. He is a past president of the Chamber of Commerce and is active in civic affairs.

His humor and engaging personality will interest men as a speaker as well as women.

The dinner will be open to the public and should be of special interest to the alumni and parents of students at Ferris Institute as Professor Kelly has had wide experience in counseling young people.

Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Ralph Westgate, HA 3-2618. Reservations must be made with her by Friday, March 16.

Auxiliary Buying 7,200 Red Poppies

American Legion Auxiliary members will buy 7,200 poppies for the annual Poppy Day sale in May.

Mrs. Isabel Aiuto will be chairman for the sale.

At last Thursday's meeting, the Auxiliary also voted to send $40 to the Legion's children home.

Final plans were made for the American Legion 43rd birthday dinner Saturday. A swiss steak dinner will be served at 7 p.m. Entertainment, cards and dancing will follow the dinner in the Legion home.

A few tickets are still available at the home. Attendance is limited to Legion and Auxiliary members and their guests.

It was announced that Auxiliary meeting dates will be listed in the Band Boosters Community Calendar.

Refreshments of cookies and coffee were served by Mrs. Bob Seitz, Mrs. Donald Woods, Mrs. Donald Maves and Mrs. Harold Green.

Some orators don't seem to understand the difference between eloquence and endurance.

Sing at Boysville

A one-hour program will be presented Sunday at Boysville by the University of Detroit's 60-member chorus.

Starting at 2 p.m., the event is open to the public and no admission will be charged.

Mrs. Spalding Of Tipton Celebrates 90th Birthday

TIPTON—Thirty friends and relatives joined Mrs. William E. Spalding March 4 in celebration of her 90th birthday.

The party was in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Kahle, with whom she lives.

Mrs. Spalding was born March 3, 1872, on a farm west of Tipton. She spent most of her childhood in Franklin Township.

Her family includes two grandchildren, Richard Kahle and Mrs. Robert Aten, both of Tecumseh, and five grandchildren, Debra, Robert, Michele and Julie Aten and Pamela Kahle.

At the birthday party, Mrs. Richard Kahle and Mrs. Aten served cake and ice cream from a lace-covered table decked with pink and white floral arrangements and lighted tapers.

Debra and Bobby Aten had charge of the guests.

Shower Surprises Mrs. DesErmia

The home of Mrs. Louis Haubold Jr., in Pioneer, O. was the scene of a recent surprise shower honoring Mrs. Charles Des Ermia and the new daughter they were to get the next day March 6.

The home was decorated in pink and white by the hostess and her co-hostesses, Mrs. Galen Brown and Mrs. James Wallace.

Games were played and the honored guest opened many gifts for Kelly Ann's arrival.

The hostesses served decorated cake, slices of stork ice cream, coffee and tea. Nut cups were made in baby buggy style, all in pink and white.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Ronald Brown, Ola Brown and Mrs. Ed Johnson all of Onsted. Due to the weather, some guests were unable to attend, but 20 attended. Three, unable to come, sent gifts.

Mr. DesErmia, son of Lysle A. DesErmia of Wamplers Lake, owner of DesErmia Furniture here, is manager of the store in Pioneer.

Adrian Wins In Archery, Tecumseh 2d

The 10 top shooters did a good job in representing the Tecumseh Community Archers last Sunday at Ypsilanti.

They came in second with a score of 6,996.

Adrian came in first with a total of 7,300 and Ypsilanti was third with a score of 6,664.

There will be another shoot March 18 at Adrian. The same three teams will compete against each other.

April 1 the trio will shoot in competition at the Tecumseh Community Center.

Long & Short

When the boys and girls start getting a mediocre education, the entire community loses.

As we push further and further into the space age, there is more and more of a crying need for much greater penetration of knowledge into young minds.

We dare not skimp on the books now.

I realize by this time, most folks have their minds made up. They're either for or against the millage issue and probably the words printed on these pages will not sway many.

My plea here is to those who want the schools to get back on the track and who favor the four mills. Please be sure to vote, your support is desperately needed.

Now, to the lighter side.

Florida beckons some couple — is it you?

This week ends the Florida Vacation fun with the grand drawing in the Strand Theatre Saturday night.

You don't have to be present to win, but wouldn't it be fun. Besides, I doubt if Walt Nichols would be angry if you came to the drawing and took in "Babes in Toyland," too.

By the time the vacation winner is pulled out, more than 50,000 coupons will have been deposited.

This week, the cost of inserting the coupons was "on the house" and we printed a solid page of them. Our 38 loyal participants agreed to run coupons in their ads for eight weeks and we donated the ninth.

It has been lots of fun — although Bruce King and Jerry Kapnick, who count the coupons as they pick them up each week from the stores, might not agree. The chore takes them about four hours.

Is It Really Important?

(Editor's note: There is danger that Tecumseh High School would loose its North Central Association accreditation if the present schedule of classes is cut. This could be the case if the four-mill levy fails. The Herald asked THS Principal Neville Hart to prepare an article on the North Central Association.)

By NEVILLE L. HART
Tecumseh High School Principal

"The object of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools is to develop and maintain standards of excellence for universities, colleges and secondary schools, and to continue improvement of the educational program and the effectiveness of instruction for all students on secondary and college levels through a scientific and professional approach to the solution of educational problems."

Member schools are accredited by the association if the school meets the following criteria or standards:

1. Philosophy and Objectives

Since a school exists to serve the educational needs of its students and of our democratic society, and since the local community is part of the state, nation and world, the school should be concerned with an understanding of its role in relation to these larger communities and with forces that aid all peoples to live together peaceably. A member school, therefore, shall develop its philosophy and objectives from a rational consideration of these several forces.

2. The Educational Plant

The educational program of any good school should be concerned with imparting knowledge and the development of skills. The development of interests, appreciations, ideals and attitudes and the functioning of all these elements in a democratic society also should be regarded as essential to a sound educational program.

3. Organization, Support, and Control

The school community through its elected representatives on the board of education shall show a willingness to support the school program, financially and otherwise. Sufficient funds shall be provided each year to insure good standards of school services to the community and to meet the standards of accreditation of the North Central Association.

4. The School Staff

(A) — For high schools the minimum administrative and supervisory personnel shall be one full time principal for each high school regardless of size and in schools of 500 and above there shall be in addition at least one part-time administrative assistant.

(B)—The number of teachers employed in the high school shall be adequate to provide effective instruction, direction of extra classroom activities, counseling, and other educational services. The ratio of pupils to teachers of the high school shall not exceed 27 to 1.

The teaching load shall be such that teachers have adequate time to perform duties effectively. It is strongly recommended that each teacher should be assigned at least one period daily for conferences and preparation.

All teachers shall hold a Baccalaureate degree from an institution accredited by the North Central Association or some other regional accrediting association. All teachers shall meet the legal standards for teachers in the state in which they are employed.

(C)—All member schools should employ at least one professionally trained counselor or director of guidance services. The ratio of students to qualified guidance personnel should be approximately 300 to 1.

(D)—Schools with an enrollment of 500 or more pupils shall employ a librarian who devotes full-time to library services.

(E)—Adequate clerical assistance shall be provided to the professional staff.

(F)—The custodial staff shall be adequate to maintain the plant so that it is safe, clean and attractive.

(G)—Professional school personnel shall be paid salaries adequate to permit a standard of living appropriate for professional persons in the community in which they are employed, and which make possible continued professional improvement.

5. The Library and Instructional Material and Equipment

The school library shall be organized as a resource center of instructional material for the entire educational program. The number and kind of library and reference books, periodicals, newspapers, pamphlets, information miles, audio-visual materials, and other learning aids shall be adequate for the number of pupils and the needs of instruction in all courses.

A minimum collection of at least eleven books per pupil shall be provided exclusive of high school textbooks. An adequate collection of periodical and file material shall also be provided.

6. School Plant

The site should be readily accessible to the school population, free from traffic hazards and other dangers, free from distracting noises, extensive enough to provide for all instructional and recreational neds, attractively landscaped and properly maintained.

The building should be attractive in appearance, of durable, fire resistant material, adequately heated, ventilated and illuminated, properly maintained nad should contain sufficient classroom space and other areas to accomodate the instructional program.

7. The School Year and School Day and Week

(A)—The length of the school year [illegible] least 180 days.

(B)—The length of the school day for students shall be at least six clock hours exclusive of lunch time.

(C)—A member school shall organize its daily and weekly schedule so that at least 275 minutes per week are scheduled for all courses if such courses are to be recognized for one unit of credit.

☆

IF OUR school violates one or more of these general criteria it shall be classified as accredited-advised. An advisement is a conditional approval and may be continued beyond one year if the school makes satisfactory progress toward correcting the deficiences.

If satisfactory progress is not made, the school will be warned. If the cause of warning is not removed within the year, the school will be dropped from the Association.

Membership in the Association means that our high school compares favorably with the 3,600 secondary schools who are members of the North Central Association.

To lose our accredited standing after 42 years of continued approval, would be a damaging blow to the prestige of the school system and the communi-

Chamber Office Is Transfered To McCoy-Powell

The Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce has set up temporary office at the McCoy-Powell Real Estate office, 208 E. Chicago Blvd.

The move from the Sage building was necessitated by the resignation last week of Don Murphy.

The board of directors, now seeking a full-time secretary, will handle all Chamber business until July 1 when a new manager will take over.

All inquiries and other information relative to the Chamber should be made at the McCoy-Powell office.

2 Present B&PW Club History

Forty attended the meeting of the Business and Professional Women at the Parish House of the Episcopal Church. Tables were decorated with flags and George Washington appointments of red carnations.

The Daughters of St. Peter's Church served the dinner. Seven officers of the Lenawee County Federation of Women's Clubs were guests.

The president, Mrs. Ivan Crist, spoke to the group.

Announcement was made of the Drama Festival to be held at Patterson School March 15.

Following group singing, Mrs. Duane Service and Mrs. Ray Sluyter presented an interesting history of the club, which was organied at the home of Franc Gillespie in 1930.

Larry Coates Is Back in States After Sea Duty

Larry L. Coates, who recently returned to the United States after seven months with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean area, has been spending a leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Coates.

He will leave Friday for Charleston, S.C.

His sister, Ruth Ann Coates, also was home for the weekend with her parents returning to Grandville Sunday afternoon.

Sex Education for Children Is Meeting Topic

Child Study Club 2 discussed "Sex Education for Children" at the March meeting in the home of Mrs. Richard Lask. A record was played to describe parent-child discussions.

Mrs. George VanCamp, program leader, held a question and answer period.

St. Patrick favors, leprechauns on suckers, were made by Mrs. George Halberstadt and Mrs. Melvin Purple. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. George Albano and Mrs. Russell Williams.

The April meeting will be at the Albano home.

Furniture For Library Is Discussed

Tecumseh Library Board called a special meeting this week to discuss bids on furniture for the new library.

The purchase was delayed while methods of financing the purchase were discussed with the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation Board of Trustees.

The library is being built and furnished through Foundation donations of the people, businesses and industries of the Tecumseh area.

The library is to be opened this summer. Construction was put behind schedule by the severe winter weather.

At the last regular meeting the board completed its purchase of framed prints.

These pictures, all by noted artists, are available to anyone who has a library card.

The art work is on loan for a month, with a one-month renewal if desired.

Both the old masters and modern artists are included in the collection. The new pictures added this year include the collection's first abstract work.

Onalee Cote Is Selected President

Church News

Political Figure from Panama Speaks

Ramon Mendez, a former Panama policital figure now studying for the ministry, will speak this weekend at the Church of Christ, 302 E. Chicago Blvd.

Services will be at 7:30 p.m. Saturday and at 11 a.m., 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. Sunday.

Mr. Mendez was born and reared in Panama. His wife is a teacher in the public schools of Panama. They have two children.

He was drawn to the political life, and became a councilman for four years. He was appointed a lieutenant governor by the president, later serving as governor.

Mr. Mendez came to Michigan Christian College at Rochester more than a year ago to prepare for his work in the ministry. eH plans to return to his country after his studies are done.

Domination

How to gain dominion over lack and limitation will be explained in the Lesson-Sermon on "Substance" at Christian Science churches Sunday.

Salad Social To Be Sunday for Presbyterians

A Salad Social Hour is planned Sunday at 6 p.m. for members and friends of First Presbyterian Church.

Those attending are requested to bring their own table service, a salad to pass and sandwiches for their families. Coffee and milk will be furnished by the Deacons, who sponsor the event.

The Junior High Fellowship will present a play, "At Two Tables", describing racial conflicts among teen-agers in a large cosmopolitan area.

After the play there will be a discussion concerning racial problems of teen-agers.

The church building committee has selected an architectural firm to study the condition of the present building, the needs of the congregation and the approximate cost of any changes.

Jesus' Genius for Personal Ministry

"The genius of Jesus' ministry is to be found in the person-to-person contacts that made possible the answering of individual needs.

"Often He spoke to large crowds, but the record we have speaks of his personal contacts," says the Rev. Allen Wittrupp.

He will speak on "He Answered My Need" at First Methodist Church for the 10 a.m. service Sunday.

March 22 at 8 p.m., the Rev. Mr. Wittrup will conduct a class on "The Problem of Suffering."

The class will continue for four Thursday evenings, and the pastor invites anyone interested to attend.

School Board Seeks Manager

The Tecumseh school board authorized the superintendent at Monday night's meeting to seek applicants for the school's new business manager position.

Supt. James McDowell reported that several applications already had been recived. He was asked to screen all applications and schedule qualified candidates for interviews with the board, probably next month.

In an executive session of the board, Supt. McDowell's contract was extended for another year. The board had discussed the contract with the superintendent in December and agreed to extend it during the closed session.

In other action, the board:

Approved a high school teaching assignment for Earl Green, present director of elementary education.

Scheduled a special meeting next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

Approved a 5-cent hike in cafeteria lunches to offset an anticipated cut in state aid.

Authorized an elementary boy to be excused from folk dancing in a physical education class because of religion.

Rejected a teacher's request to be excused the last week of school to let him meet a summer employment deadline in in Colorado. A private citizen offered flight fare which will enable the teacher to fly to Denver and meet the deadline.

Mrs. Murphy opened many lovely and useful gifts.

Kiwanis Club Cites Girl Scout Week Thursday

The Tecumseh Kiwanis Club will honor Girl Scout Week when it meets for dinner Thursday in IOOF Hall.

Mrs. Truman Rentschler, member-at-large of the Irish Hills Girl Scout Council, will speak on "Highlights of Girl Scouting."

The club will hold a car wash March 24. Funds will be used to continue the club's youth and civic activities. Arrangements will be announced.

360 Attend Ceremony

"The Golden Promise," rededication ceremony of the Tecumseh Girl Scouts of the Irish Hills Council, drew some 360 parents, friends and scouts to the Products Union Hall Sunday.

Around a large trefoil, symbol of Girl Scouting, decked with golden roses, were grouped Brownies, Intermediates and Seniors of the speaking chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Julius Vincze.

Across the stage was the singing chorus, accompanied by Pamela Brooks of Troop 54 and led by Mrs. Sevedus Maples and Mrs. Robert Mohr.

A large, lighted picture of Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouting in America, was in the background, graced by golden daffodils and chrysanthemums.

Troop 133, led by Mrs. Jim Murphy, formed the color guard. Mrs. Donald Creger, neighborhood chairman, gave a welcoming address.

Ann Drake narrated the program. Edith Holmes spoke as the voice of Mrs. Low. Both girls are from Troop 117.

Refreshments were served by girls from Troops 102 and 123, with Mrs. Wallace Rutherford in charge.

The golden flowers were donated from the altar of the First Methodist Church, to which the Girl Scouts had been given an invitation.

Questionnaires Are Due

Tecumseh area residents who received questionnaires in the current school survey of the Citizens Advisory Committee are reminded to return the papers to the University of Michigan this week.

Orville Bishop, chairman of the subcommittee which arranged the survey, reminded citizens that the university will tabulate answers given in the survey.

Some 500 questionnaires were sent out.

Where the residents were not available to answer the questions, questionnaires will be sent to persons on another list

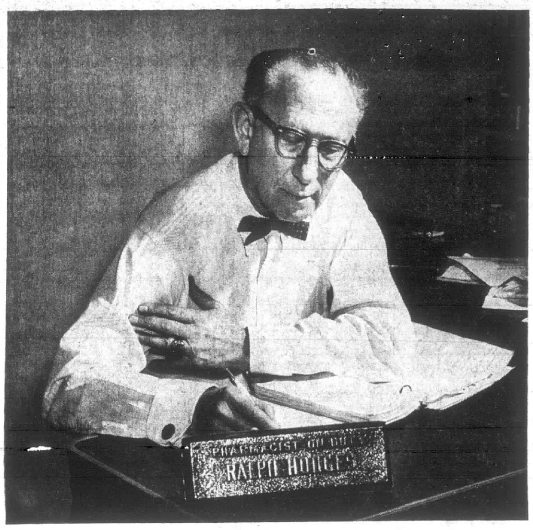
Hodges Drug Store Announces Tremendous Decrease In All Prescription Prices



OWNER RALPH HODGES REPORTS SAVINGS TO ALL CUSTOMERS

Some Prices To Be Down As Much As 49%; Savings To Be Passed On To Patrons

A tremendous break in slashing prices on prescriptions was announced this week by Ralph E. Hodges, veteran downtown Tecumseh druggist for the past 25 years.

In his statement, hundreds of Tecumseh and area families will realize savings amounting to thousands of dollars over the years at Hodges Drug Store.

Large volume buying, coupled with skilled pharmacy serving thousands in this area, is the basic factor for being able to cut prescription prices.

Cost of prescriptions, long a drain on a family purse, should now be much easier to budget.

Some prescriptions, especially those used regularly, have been reduced up to 49 percent. Other prescriptions are also being discounted in proportion.

The pharmaceutical department at Hodges Drug Store is one of the most complete, largest and best stocked in this southeastern Michigan area.

Patrons always find at least one, usually two, pharmacists on duty at all times and have combined this prompt, efficient service with free delivery to homes, seven days a week.

Hodges also has been noted to always have the drug your physician ordered. This is due to constant watch in related reports for the latest and newest drugs.

Occasionally, your doctor will order a new drug which is not stocked. Hodges has been able to obtain the drug from the wholesale supplier on quick notice.

Whether Hodges Drug Store brings about a revolution in prescription costs, only time will tell. However, Hodges is now first with lower cost prescription prices which will save hundreds of families many extra dollars.

Mr. Hodges, in reply to questioning about further reductions in prescription prices, stated that his drug store will continue to cut costs whenever possible and pass these savings on to the people.

Hodges is the only drug store in Lenawee County open every day of the year for service to the public — a service of providing prescriptions the day they are needed.

The Tecumseh store also led the way in providing free delivery, the others following suit.

New Prices To Aid Over 65-Age Group

You say that you are lowering the price of "maintenance" drugs. What are "maintenance" drugs?

These are drugs that people must take for a long period of time, and in some cases for the rest of their lives. Examples of this are Orinase and Diabenase for diabetics, Peritiate for heart patients; Raudixin for blood pressure, Dilantin for epileptics. These are drugs that are just as important to these people as food is to you and me.

Would you say the cost on these "maintenance" drugs have been prohibitive?

Jim, this question can be answered both yes and no. To the person who by taking these drugs can continue living a full productial life, I think the answer would be no. However, most of the people on these drugs are living on a fixed income — pensions, social security, old age assistance, stock dividends, etc., and to these people, I think the answer is yes. Many of the people in this age group are taking three or four different drugs with a cost of 40c to 50c per day. This is the group that will benefit most by this decrease in prices.

I have heard there were mail-order prescription departments that offer special prices and discounts to retires and people on social security. Would your new prices be comparable to their's?

In the past four or five years, there have been many such mail-order prescription departments started and we have studied these different operations quite thoroughly. The problem with a mail-order prescription department is the length of time that people must wait to get their drugs. Another problem is the refilling of these prescriptions. If a person's prescription runs out, they must get a new prescription, mail it in and then wait for their drugs. When this comes up in our store, we simply call the physician and ascertain whether he want the patient to continue on with the medication. This is a matter of perhaps five minutes, and not five days. In regards to price, our new prices will be comparable to these mail order prices. Also our customers know that our pharmacists are licensed by the state of Michigan to fill their prescriptions. Many pharmacists practicing in other states could not be licensed in Michigan.

Our Policy

To compound your prescription EXACTLY as written by your doctor.

To always keep in stock adequate supplies of drugs so your prescriptions may be filled PROMPTLY.

To give FREE DELIVERY service, 7 days a week.

To extend credit to our customers.

In short: to provide the most complete Pharmaceutical services at the lowest possible prices.

Why will you be able to charge lower prices for prescriptions than other stores?

There are two reasons, Jim. First, because of our large volume, we are able to buy drugs in larger quantities than smaller stores, therefore lowering our cost per 100 tablets. For example, 100 tablets of a particular drug wholesales for $3.75 per 100. The price for 5,000 of this drug is $120.00 or $2.40 per 100, a difference of $1.35 per 100. Secondly, because of the large number of prescriptions we fill per day, our labor cost per prescription is lower. For example, let's say a pharmacist makes $150.00 per week. If this pharmacist fills 150 prescriptions per week, the labor cost per prescription would be $1.00 (incidentally, this is close to the national average which was 94c per prescription last year). Now, if this same pharmacist fills 300 prescriptions per week, the labor cost per prescription is only 50c. Now to add these two cost factors together: Small store—cost of drug, $3.75 plus labor cost of $1.00, for total cost of $4.75; Hodges—cost of drug, $2.40, plus labor cost of 50c, for total cost of $2.90. This is why we are able to charge less.

I have heard that some unions have prescription departments for their members. Would your new pricing schedule be lower or higher than theirs?

Our new schedule is comparable to the schedule used by the union prescription departments. However, we also give additional services — free delivery, 7 days a week, charge accounts, much faster service, and we are open Saturdays and Sundays for prescriptions. The big problem the union prescription departments have is poor service. A good friend of mine is a pharmacist in a union pharmacy and he said many times people have to wait two to three hours for their prescription, and of course, they are not open Saturday afternoons or Sundays.

PHARMACIST BILL HOLMES EXPLAINS NEW PRESCRIPTION PRICES

If I had a prescription on file at another drug store and I wanted to bring it to Hodges to take advantage of these lower prices, how would I go about it?

Very easily, Jim. All you have to do is go to the store where your prescription is on file and ask for a copy of the prescription. If the prescription is refillable, the pharmacist would have to give you a copy. If it was not refillable, then you could go to your physician for another prescription.

It's Fast Tourney for Tecumseh

Once-defeated Airport bounced Tecumseh for the third and last time this season with an 80-64 victory in the district tourney at Dundee.

The Indians' finale was closer than the score indicates and the team had nothing to be ashamed of.

In fact, Coach Doug Murdoch's five actually outplayed and outscored the Huron League and tournament champs from the floor, but lost the game at the foul line.

The officials clipped the Indians with 22 fouls while calling only eight on Airport. The Jets hit 28 of 34 free throw attempts and even had the one-and-one situation shortly after the second quarter started.

The Indians outscored their opponents 28 to 26 from the floor but collected just eight points in 12 foul attempts.

John [illegible], forward, flashed his old form in his final game by pumping in 12 field goals for 24 points, all in the final three periods.

Sophomore center Jerry Hebb was the game's second high scorer with 17 points and did a fine job on the bankboards.

Of all the players used, only Britton will not be back for next season which could be a good one for Murdoch and the Indians.

Wayne Davis, reserve forward, is the only other player graduating next June.

Except for the free throw advantage, the game would have been close and an upset possible.

Airport jumped into a 11-0 lead in the initial stanza before the Indians started to click. After trailing by 10 or more points Tecumseh pulled to within four points midway in the second quarter.

A late spurt in the second period boosted the Jets to a 40-27 half-time lead, a margin they held until just before the fourth quarter when the Indians closed the gap to three points.

After the final period opened, Airport capitalized at the free throw line with four straight points plus one field goal to wrap up the game.

Marie Gall Wins Paint

Two gallons of Super Kem-Tone, donated by the Gambles Store, were won by Marie L. Gall of Britton in the last weekly drawing of the Florida Vacation promotion.

By a happy coincidence, her coupon had been deposited at Gambles.

Six guest tickets to the Strand went to Lois Mann, 412 S. Pearl St., on a coupon deposited at Osborne's Dept. Store.

A one-year subscription to The Herald was won by David G. Locke, 923 Occidental Hwy. His coupon had been dropped at Lamb's Rexall.

The other Herald subscription winner was Barbara Daykin on a coupon deposited at Kroger's.

Mrs. Rohweder Back from Trip

Mrs. Joseph Rohweder returned Thursday from a trip to Florida and the Caribbean. Her son, Dr. Thomas Rohweder and his wife of Shaker Heights, O. were weekend guests of Mrs. Rohweder.

Why have so many of my neighbors switched to

Hy-Line Layers?

Answer:
Because so many poultrymen have decided that in good times or bad, they can't afford any other brand! They've analyzed results of official Random Sample Tests. They have talked with other poultrymen. They have tried Hy-Line layers in their own laying houses. They have seen firsthand that trim, thrifty, high-producing Hy-Line birds are today's most profitable layers. That is why Hy-Line birds are the world's most popular layers . . . by far.

Herald Readers Write

Opposes Half Days

TO THE EDITORS:

I have watched with great interest the developments in the Tecumseh school situation. Though I am no longer a resident of Tecumseh, I am very interested in the outcome of the coming election.

Prior to our moving to Coldwater, I had attended every scheduled board meeting for a year and worked on the citizens committee for several months.

I would like to share with you some of the conclusions I arrived at after devoting considerable time and thought to the Tecumseh school crisis (and don't kid yourselves, the word crisis is not an exaggeration at this point).

In the first place, I am not an avid, whole-hearted supporter of the Tecumseh board of education, and, though the board was completely aware of this, I was not made to feel uncomfortable at board meetings, and, many times I was the only observer besides your Herald reporter.

I don't know how eager the board is to have great numbers turn out for the board meetings but I feel that this would be the best way for a parent or taxpayer to really know what is happening in the schools.

Many times, there is a perfectly logical explanation for what may seem to be a most illogical move.

Also I must say this, I believe each board member is doing what he feels is best for the school and pupils even though to my way of thinking, several of them are often out in left field.

Theirs is not an easy job. They serve with no pay, they seldom hear a thank you but gripes and criticisms bombard them from all sides.

My great complaint stemmed from the reluctance of the board to show more interest in public opinion. I suggested on several occasions that the board members could make a greater effort to discover why people were dissatisfied and why they were voting "no".

I always met with this response: Taxpayers will give many reasons but they will be excuses —the real reason is they are not willing to spend money for education. I have more faith in people.

I believe if they feel they are receiving quality goods, they will spend whatever is required so that their children are not slighted.

Four mills for two years gives the taxpayers an opportunity to keep from depriving his children without giving the board any pocket money.

It seems to me that the board of education would have to interpret a "yes" vote on this issue as an indication the people of Tecumseh are interested in their young people.

By no stretch of the imagination could it be interpreted as a vote of confidence.

Certainly, the situation existing between the public and the school administration can be greatly improved if the public will take a more active interest in school affairs and if the administration will show more respect for public opinion.

Don't let those youngsters go to school half days just because the grown-ups can't find a better way to solve their differences.

System Would Regress

TO THE EDITORS:

In the forthcoming election many people will veto the four mills, which would force the Tecumseh School system to regress.

The education acquired by your sons and daughters would dwindle to a fraction of that offered in former years.

Do these voters realize they might do a great injustice to the children of Tecumseh?

In the future, many young families would leave our community to place their children in better and more progressive schools, if the millage fails. The wealth of our community would slowly migrate to other towns.

In this modern age when education is a must, do the citizens of Tecumseh want their children's school program cut to a four-hour day?

Instead of working with their minds, the students would have to find other pastimes.

We predict that such a program would place our youth on the streets, increasing Tecumseh's juvenile delinquency problem.

This is an appeal, Tecumseh!

Keep the school system progressing, and Tecumseh will follow. Someone paid for your education when you were young. It is now your social obligation. Help your youth help themselves.

Please vote YES on March 20. Thank you.

Says To Vote 'No'

TO THE EDITORS:

In an article on the front page of last week's Herald was a statement that the four mills would be used for debt retirement.

The article went on to say that any doubt that the money would be used for any other purposes was erased from the minds of the businessmen present at the board meeting. Actually this is just a statement and not a guarantee. (Editor's note: Please see statement on first page of second section.)

At our PTA meeting recently members of the board present said that the request for millage could not be earmarked especially to retire the debt.

They gave the reason that if there should be a surplus, the extra money could not be used for any other purpose. I am sure some solution to this problem could be found if there is a surplus.

I can not see giving the board a blank check without a guarantee that at the end of the two years we still won't have a big debt and another request for more millage.

There has been a considerable amount of controversy over the actual issues in this and the last election. There have been two schools of thought on whether a vote for four mills was a vote for the superintendent.

I have heard many statements that say in effect that if the superintendent was released they would vote for the millage.

Before the last election an editorial in The Herald made the statement that millage only, not the superintendent, was the issue. I heartily concur with this statement.

My feelings, and anyone else's for or against the present administration should not influence the vote. It is my belief that the board should look into this matter. There must be some basis for some of the voters to feel as they do.

Also in last week's paper was a letter, signed by 440 students, coming out in favor of the issue. They made the statement in this letter that they were unable to vote.

I think you will find that they don't have to pay the taxes, either. This brings up another point. There is too much politics in the school room.

Last year my son, who was seven-years-old and in the first grade, came home from school and asked me how I was going to vote.

When I told him "No," he nearly came to tears and said, "Daddy, if you don't vote 'Yes' I can't have any art or music next year."

Now, where else did he hear this except from a teacher? Is this the thing to teach a seven-year-old child?

If teacher would spend more time teaching instead of trying to influence votes, maybe the children would be far better off.

For the above reasons I would like to go on record as favoring and requesting you as voters to register a negative (No) vote in the millage election.

Card Sent To Former Member

Mrs. Henry Karl Smith was hostess for the recent meeting of the Harmony Homemakers Club when members decided to pack Easter boxes for the patients at the Ypsilanti State Hospital at the April meeting.

The meeting following the pot-luck dinner was conducted by Mrs. Claude Sebring.

A greeting card was signed to send to Dena Wallace, a former member, who is ill in a Morenci Nursing Home.

Mrs. Smith was assisted by Mrs. John Wintersteen and Mrs. Thomas Murphy.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Eddie Kirkland with Mrs. Dixie Brown and Marjorie Boyce assisting.

Tipton Grange

Tipton Grange will be held Friday, March 16. Supper committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Donald Whelan and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reis. Members are to furnish 2 dishes of food to pass, buttered rolls, dessert and table service. The program honoring new members will be in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cook and Curtiss.

The engagement of Patricia Eilene Baker to Dale K. Ford, both of Kalamazoo, is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baker. Mr. Ford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Farrell Ford. Patricia is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kopke and the late Glenn Mackey. A fall wedding is planned.

Birthday Celebration for Exchange

The 51st birthday celebration of Exchange will bring three guest clubs and many state Exchange officials here April 2.

Lavern Scanlan, a Michigan past-president and a member of the national Extension Board, will be main speaker for the session, planned at 6:30 p.m. in Eagles Hall.

Adrian, Dundee and Bedford Exchange Clubs will be guests.

Toby Mason of Battle Creek, Harry Askin of Albion and Rudy Haselbach of Bedford, all state board members, will also be on hand.

The meeting will include a welcome home for Kenneth Hall and Clarence Beach, recently returned from Florida.

Christie Mystery Is Next

A mystery comedy by Agatha Christie, "Ten Little Indians", will be staged by the Tecumseh Players May 2 and 3.

The show was selected last week by the little theatre group's reading committee.

It will be directed by Mrs. Gloria Jadwin.

The cast will include eight men and three women.

Tryouts are slated for March 29 and 30 at 7:30 p.m. and March 31 from 2 until 4.

Playbooks are expected shortly and can be obtained by calling Mrs. Jadwin, HA. 3-4842.
